A New Magazine

Advance sheets of The Maritime Monthly, a Magazine of Literature, Science and Art, come to us from the press of Messrs. J. & A. McMillan. It is well printed and has an attractive table of contents. The matter is nearly all original, and we are sorry to read the announcement that future numbers will be more of an eclectic character. Buy the first number.

Meeting of the Fire Insurance Agents.

The Fire Insurance Agents of this city have had several meetings with a view to raising rates on certain classes of risks. They have been urged to take this step by the head offices, in consequence of the Boston and other large fires.

"THE HAYWARDS" gave one of their popular comic and musical entertainments in the Institute on Wednesday evening last. The hall was comfortably filled, and the entertainment of a character highly pleasing to all. Mr. Hayward is not only an admirable delineator of comic character, but possesses a sweet, rich voice, and renders his songs with much feeling and effect.—[Woodstock Sentinel.

Shipping Notes.

The ship Chrysolite, from Akyab, which arrived at Falmouth on the 7th inst., was compelled to cut away her masts to prevent her from going ashore during a heavy gale which she encountered. The C. is a vessel of about 1,278 tons register, was built in this city in 1868, and is owned by James Nevins, Esq.

A telegram to Messrs. Scammell Bros. reports the arrival of the bark J. W. Scammell at San Francisco, yesterday, after a splendid run of 43 days from Valparaiso.

The Underwriters have sent Captain Thomas to Vineyard Haven to settle the salvage and look after the interests of all concerned in the schooner Jeddo, lately ashore on Hedge Fence.

A portion of the cargo of the schooner New Dominion has been discharged. The chances of her speedily being got off are good. The tugboat Hiram Perry, Jr., is at Grand Manan.

The brigantine George A. Coonan, which arrived at this port yesterday, left Boston on Tuesday. Considering the heavy weather she encountered, she made very fair time. In the thick mist she passed this port twice, at one time fetching up at Quaco; the next land she made was Point Lepreaux. The G. A. C. has been chartered and will at once take in a cargo for Cardenas for orders.

LIFE LIKE AND MORE DURABLE THAN OIL.—J. Hinch, Prince William street, is now producing enlarged photographs, finished in India ink, that are marvels of beauty and finish. Portraits by this process are exhibited in the window of Messrs. Barnes & Co., Stationers. tf

Desolation in the Camp.

The camp of Mr. Braithwaite, hunter, at St. Mary's Lake, York County, was destroyed by fire a few days since, the owner losing a large quantity of furs, provisions and ammunition. Mr. Braithwaite is said to be remarkably skillful in his occupation, and the Express says that prominent among his exploits is the feat of subduing a wild bull Moose by jumping on its back, tying a rope around its horns, and securing it to a tree; doing this on snowshoes and while unarmed. As a runner on the snow-shoes, he is the champion of the Province.

Small-Pox in St. John.

Quite a sensation was caused yesterday afternoon by the report that a case of small-pox had been developed in St. John. An enquiry showed that a case of varroloid had been reported at the Board of Health office by Dr. Holden and that the patient was a young member of Mr. J. T. McAvity. The youth arrived from Boston about a week since, and though he was indisposed since his arrival the presence of small-pox was not suspected. The case is of a very mild type and every precaution has been taken to isolate the premises.

The Custom House Difficulty.

Justice Gilbert not having returned to St. John, the further hearing of the case of John C. Brown, charged with breach of the revenue laws, has been postponed until Saturday next.

The Fred F. Scammell Case.

This morning Justice McAvity gave judgment in the case of Noah P. Williams, cook of the Fred E. Scammell against Captain Oliver Barbarie, master of that vessel. The facts of this case have been already published in the TRIBUNE, and the judgment rendered was in favor of Williams for the amount of wages up to date of action brought. The magistrate in giving judgment expressed his opinion that the defendant had failed to prove incompetency, and gave judgment for $52.09. Another case of suing for $22.04 is also decided by this judgment.

The Railways.

Since the storm no mail from a point further south than Bangor has been received.

The English mail, due last Saturday, has not yet arrived.

The Intercolonial train has not yet been reported as leaving Amherst, and the train sent to its relief is detained at Dorchester.

City Police Court.

Five prisoners came in the way of the guardians on duty last night.

Mary Fitzgerald was charged with being drunk on Duke street. Mary pathetically pleaded not guilty and stoutly asserted she had taken no liquor for the past three months. The testimony of the arresting policeman was however sufficiently conclusive to make a conviction. Mary then wanted to be let go just for this time, but her entreaties were in vain—she was too old an offender.

John Ross (not of the "Bee Hive") came to the Station for protection. He had sought the same refuge on several previous occasions, and as he appeared to have no regular place of abode was sent to the penitentiary for two months.

Wm. Doherty was fined $4 for being drunk on Prince Wm. street.

Jas. McLennan, an elderly man, was fined $4 for being drunk on the Market Square.

George Webb, an Eastport sailor, being unable to find a vessel, took refuge in the Station and was allowed to go.

The small-pox has disappeared from Calais.

The Postmaster General of the United States has decided that he will hold Postmasters liable on their bonds for losses of registered letters traced to their offices.

Calais has a truant ordinance by which penalties are imposed on scholars between 6 and 17 found abroad during school hours. The law is not new, but fresh efforts are now being made to have it enforced.

The St. Croix Courier says:—"Leonard Eye has sailed out of Calais ten years. During that time he has been compelled to pay to the Custom House about from 20 to 40 cents per month for the Marine Hospital fund. A few weeks ago he was taken sick with the small pox in Calais, and on his recovery he asked for aid from the Hospital fund to which he had contributed more than enough to pay the expenses of his sickness, but his petition was denied because he was a victim of a contagious disease."

A strange instance of the impossibility of escaping from fate is told in a Kentucky paper. A merchant who had lost one eye and was naturally solicitous of retaining what he had left, was riding along where a thorn tree overhung, and, to avoid accident, dismounted and led his horse beyond the spot. No sooner had he got upon his horse again than the animal wheeled around frightened at some object and ran back under the tree. A thorn was driven into the man's eye and he is left totally blind. What will he will be.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27, p. m.

Gold 112¼; sight exchange 10¾; money 7 per cent.

The snow storm which cleared up this morning has rarely been exceeded in severity. Railroad travel is impeded in all directions. Several vessels have been wrecked on the coast; among them the ship Peruvian from Singapore for Boston, with a valuable cargo went ashore last night off Nantucket and became a total wreck. All hands drowned.

The bark Kadosh, also from the East Indies for Boston, went ashore off Boston Bay. The captain and six men were drowned; other, but less serious disasters are reported.

By the falling of the floor of a church at Williamsport, Pa., fourteen persons were killed and nearly fifty wounded, some of them fatally.

Cable advices unimportant.

Markets generally steady: wheat 11s. 8d.; corn 28s. 9d.

The brig Emily, for New York, coal laden, went ashore on Hart Island Thursday night, and sunk; also the schrs. Samuel Fish, Carrie Holmes, and four others, names unknown.

THE ICE JAM

at Memphis, besides destroying a large number of boats, caused the loss of a great quantity of coal, and the gas works are without a day's supply.
