AN HONEST OFFER.

If you have Catarrh we will send a Germicide Inhaler for the radical cure of that disease without a cent of pay in advance. After you have given it a fair trial and find it a genuine remedy you can send us $3 to pay for same. If the remedy does not meet with your approval in every way, you need not pay us one cent, and we will take the Inhaler away at our expense. Send us a postal card to-day and we will send you a Germicide Inhaler and course of medicine, with complete directions for use, on above terms. It is the only remedy made that can be sent on approval. Address MEDICAL INHALATION COMPANY, 450 Yonge street, Toronto, Ont. ywt

Nine Days' Wonder—We wonder, and our customers are wondering, who will get the Star Hall World's Fair ticket. The 30th day of June settles the matter. Everybody who buys $5 worth gets the same chance to try their skill. If you don't want $5 worth, come and see us anyway, we want your dollar for one of those school suits, washing blouse and good serge pants; and when you see the goods you will want the suit. Try us for hats, furnishings, summer coats and vests, fine ready-made and ordered clothing. C. A. GILLESPIE & Co., 138 Dundas street. ywt

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—The closing entertainment of the Busy Bees will be held on Friday evening in the Wesley Hall.

—There is to be a garden party at Mr. Burleigh Kilbourne's, Kilworth, on Friday evening, June 30.

—Catcher McLeod, of the Star Baseball Club, has been called to Hamilton by the death of his father.

—G. T. R. Manager Seargeant has wired his willingness to meet the local deputation re car shops at Montreal this week.

—Mrs. Pavey, sen., of London, who has been visiting her sons in St. Thomas for the past couple of weeks, has returned home.

—Mrs. Mooney and Mrs. Berryhill, of London, leave to-day for a two weeks' visit to Mr. Balkwill, St. Marys.—[Stratford Herald.

—Misses Dilloway and B. Ferguson, of this city, were in Ingersoll yesterday attending the wedding of Miss Clara Jamieson to Mr. William Knox, of that town.

—Governor Russell and party, of Massachusetts, passed through the city recently on the G. T. R. The train made the run from London to Windsor, 110 miles, in 122 minutes.

—The Elgin County Orange Lodge has invited lodges in Essex, Kent, Elgin, Norfolk, Oxford, Middlesex, Lambton, Huron and Perth to a demonstration in St. Thomas on July 12, 1894.

—Miss Edith Shaw, daughter of Mr. L. Shaw, merchant, was married yesterday at her home to Mr. W. W. Phillips, of Windsor. Guests were present from London, Chatham and Windsor. Rev. Mr. Godwin, late of London West, tied the knot.

—The Women's Christian Association acknowledge with gratefel thanks the handsome donation of $300 from the executors of the estate of the late Joshua Dalton, divided as follows: $100 to relief of city poor, $100 to aged women in the home, and $50 to the aged men.

—Ontario Council, 209, National Union, received a challenge from Dominion Lodge, I. O. O. F., last evening for a game of ball. The National Union will pick a team from the three councils and will endeavor to lower the colors of the Oddfellows, who are almost invincible as a society ball club. The game will likely be played next week on Kensington Park.

—"Swimmer" writes: "Are boys allowed to bathe in the river with a bathing suit from the knees up to the shoulders, where they cannot be seen by the houses on account of the trees?" No one can have any objection to bathing in this manner. It is the regulation method, and should not be interfered with. What the public have complained of and the authorities have put down is bathing in a nude condition.

—A neat, illustrated pamphlet has been issued containing this summer's programme for Grimsby Park, "the favorite Canadian summer resort." The regular session of the Philadelphia School of Oratory and the physical culture class will be held, as well as a grand course of religious services, conducted by noted Canadian and American divines. The pamphlet contains all necessary information relative to the park.

No Need for Alarm.

A report gained currency yesterday that the cholera had broken out in Toronto. The rumor caused some anxiety, and medical men were especially interested in the matter. The ADVERTISER'S Toronto correspondent denies that there is any ground for the report.

William Steven Killed.

Information has been received here concerning the death by accident in Boston, Mass., on June 15, of William G. Steven, a former well known resident of London West. He was riding a horse in that city and the animal started on a run on nearing a railroad track. A train was approaching at the time and the horse went directly against it, throwing Mr. Steven and fracturing his skull. He died before he could be taken to a hospital. Deceased was a brother of Mr. John Steven, head clerk in W. H. Trebilcock's establishment, and was 35 years of age. The funeral will take place this afternoon from the family residence, 42 Blackfriars street.

A Farewell Dinner.

Last night a company of jolly Englishmen met to spend a social hour in old country style, and to sit down to an English dinner at the Albion restaurant. The object of the gathering was to bid farewell to Mr. John Cook, who for the past two months has been visiting his brother, Arthur H. Cook, painter, of this city. Mr. Cook was accompanied by his daughter to Canada and they leave for Liverpool in a few days by the Dominion line. Roast beef, Yorkshire pudding Christmas plum pudding, and other dishes, gave the repast a genuine British flavor. The menu was prepared in Mr. Dewar's best style. Toasts were proposed, songs sung and speeches made. Around the table were the mayor, John Cook, the guest, A. H. Cook, Joseph Graham, J. Walters, A. T. Corp, F. Winstone, Capt. Richards, John Hayman, and others.

Macfarlane—Laidlaw.

The residence of Alex. Laidlaw, 76 George street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding yesterday, when his youngest daughter, Georgie L., was united in marriage to Wesley Macfarlane, a prosperous young farmer of the township of Dawn, Lambton county. The bride was dressed in cream henrietta, trimmed with lace and decorated with orange blossoms. Miss Jessie and Miss Lillie Ross were bridesmaids, and H. J. Timmouth acted as groomsman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. P. Talling. The young couple left on an early train for their new home, bearing the good wishes of many friends.

Wedding, Address and Presentation.

Miss Mary Duncan, daughter of the late John Duncan, of East Williams, and niece of M. McIntyre, Ailsa Craig, was married on Thursday last at the residence of her uncle to Mr. John Crawford, of Lambton county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Elliot, of Nairn. The bridesmaid was Miss Belle Duncan, sister of the bride, and the groom was attended by his brother George. Owing to a recent death in the family, only the immediate relatives were present. The groom is a well-to-do farmer living near Wallaceburg, and the bride has been one of the most popular young ladies in Ailsa Craig and vicinity. A wide circle of acquaintances will wish her long life and much happiness in her new sphere. To mark their esteem for her, a congregational meeting of St. Andrew's Church, Nairn, was held two evenings before the wedding, when the following address was presented to her:

Dear Miss Duncan,—We, the members and adherents of St. Andrews' Church, Nairn, cannot allow you to leave us without expressing our heartfelt appreciation of your services. While earnestly and assiduously working in the Master's cause in the Sabbath school, the Y. P. C. T. S. and in the W. F. M. S. you have earned the love and esteem of all, both old and young. You will, dear friend, be missed for some time to come, not only by your class of little ones, who dearly loved to listen to your words of warning and admonition, but by the whole Sunday school, who were wont to see you punctually in your place almost every Sabbath of the year, leading all at the organ in the songs of praise and adoring love. Your loss will be deeply felt by all who are interested in our Young People's Society, for they always found your counsel, encouragement and excellent services so helpful to the success of their various meetings. In the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society no one's absence could be more deeply felt, for no one was more faithful in attendance at the monthly meetings of this society or more willing to work for the advancement of the society and spread of the Gospel in heathen lands. And now that you are about leaving us, we feel that it may encourage you in your future labors to know that your work among us has been appreciated by us, and your earnestness and zeal have won the love and esteem of the whole congregation. We therefore take great pleasure in presenting you with this address, which but faintly expresses the genuine regret we feel at your leaving us. We also present you with this silver tea set as a more tangible token of our esteem. Wishing you health and happiness in your new home, both in temporal and spiritual things, we subscribe ourselves in behalf of the congregation. ISABELLA MCINROY, LIZZIE F. ROSS, DONALD STEWART, DAVID STIRTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford visited friends in London this week, and have left for their new home under the most pleasant of auspices.

The Royal Crown Remedy
Secures the harmonious action of each of the organs. It establishes throughout the entire system functional harmony, and supplies the blood vessels with a pure and healthy current of new life. The skin, after a few days' use of the Crown Remedy, becomes clear and beautiful—pimples, blotches, black spots and skin eruptions are removed, sores and ulcers soon cured. Persons suffering from Scrofula, Eruptive Diseases of the Eyes, Mouth, Ears, Legs, Throat and Glands that have accumulated and spread, either from uncured diseases or mercury, or from the use of corrosive sublimate, may rely on a cure if the Royal Crown Remedy is continued a sufficient time to make its impression on the system. yw
