POLIOMOELITIS CLAIMS ANOTHER HAMILTONIAN

Had Been Suffering From Disease Only a Few Days—Criticism of Father Vaughan.

HAMILTON, Sept. 11.—(Special.)—Hamilton had another death from poliomyelitis to-day. Mrs. Annie Ethel Radcliff, who had been suffering from the disease for a few days, passed away at 133 North Wentworth-street. The deceased was nineteen years and nine months old, and had been married five months.

After a lingering illness Emmett Burke passed away this morning at the residence of his mother, 17 Mulberry-street. The deceased met with an automobile accident some years ago, and was badly shaken up. This accident no doubt affected his health, and accentuated the complaint he was suffering from.

Trinity English Lutheran Church was formerly dedicated this morning by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Miller. Rev. M. J. Beiber, the president of the Lutheran Synod of Central Canada, preached the dedicatory sermon in the morning, and Rev. Dr. Atpeter of Buffalo spoke in the evening. A week of special evening services will be held, beginning to-morrow night.

Rev. Felix Taylor, pastor of Unity Church, put up for a plea for a sane Sabbath to-night. He objected to the library being closed on Labor Day, which was rainy, when thousands of men had to wander about with nowhere to go. He stated that all museums and art galleries, where men could have bodily rest while improving their minds, should be open on Sundays and public holidays.

Cathedral returned to worshipping in the cathedral this morning, after three months' absence, owing to redecorat that have been taking place in the building.

The thirteenth annual decoration service of the S. O. E. took place this afternoon at Hamilton Cemetery. Headed b ythe Salvation Army Band, five hundred members of the order marched to the cemetery, where Thos. Paradine, P.D.G.M., read the service. About 120 graves were decorated.

The new church on the corner of Stanley-ave., which will be occupied by the Herkimer Baptist Church congregation, was opened this morning. Prof. Trotter of McMaster University preached the sermon. Rev. Hugh McDiarmid, the pastor, announced that the church had cost $9000, nearly all of which had been subscribed. He expected the balance to be collected this week.

J. Genevio, 245 North Bay-street, will be summoned to the police court to-morrow as a result of a visit to his premises to-day by the license inspector and Constables Campaign, Sen and Ince.

Rev. W. H. Segewick, pastor of Central Presbyterian Church, took exception to the strictures passed on the Protestant Church by Father Vaughan, S.J., in Montreal recently. He said that he thought the intercession of saints could avail nothing more than the intercession of Jesus Christ, in which the Protestants believed. The central act in the Roman Catholic religion, Father Vaughan had said, down to the sixteenth century was the mass. Protestants, said Mr. Sedgewick, believed that the central act in religion down to that time was Calvary.

TORONTOS ALL OUT FOR 37 ST. ALBANS EASY WINNERS

Rosedale Defeats Parkdale in Final Game Fer Championship of League.

Toronto played a league game on Saturday at St. Alban's and were somewhat badly beaten. The visitors batted first and started badly, Davidson, Lounsborough and Haines being out for 10 runs against the bowling of Thorne and F. Colborne. Livingstone and Wright then made the stand of the innings. With the score 29, Hamilton replaced Colborne and got Livingstone directly. F. Colborne then bowled in place of Thorne and not another run was scored by any batsman but Wright and all were out for 37. Hamilton's bowling was remarkable, his analysis reading 4 overs, 2 maidens, 2 runs, 5 wickets, Colborne got 3 for 14, and Thorne 1 for 18. The home team on coming to bat, lost two good men to the first two balls bowled by Rathbun; then Thorne and Macfarlane became partners and by first-class cricket took the total to 66. Thorne made 47 by clever play and Macfarlane's 27 included some big hits. Rathbun went on bowling at the other end and was immediately successful. No one could play him with any success and the whole team were out for 105. Rathbun took 7 wickets for 35 runs, Davidson 1 for 16, Seagram 1 for 22. Score:

St. Albans Beat Dovercourt.

On their own ground on Saturday, Davercourt lost to St. Albans by 36 runs. The home team batted first and could do little against the bowling of Jones and Smith, Watson and Smith alone making doubles. Jones got four wickets for 24, and Smith 5 for 15. With the exception of Matthias none of the earlier St. Alban's batsmen made much showing, but after eight wickets had fallen for 37, the tail wagged very effectively, Jones piling up 22 and Amsden 11, while Edkins held up his end. For Dovercourt Smith took 6 wickets for 24, and Butterfield 3 for 13. Score:

Riverdale Win C. and M. Game.

At Riverdale Park on Saturday, a splendidly-contested game was witnessed between Grace Church and Riverdale, Grace Church batted first and were dismissed for the small score of 31. The magnificent bowling of P. Bland was quite a feature of the game thruout the innings. He had the opposing batsmen completely at his mercy, keeping a beautiful length; he clean bowled seven men for 10 runs. W. Halder also bowled very well, taking two for 16. Peel was the only batsman to make double figures. His plucky innings deserves credit, and was much appreciated by the spectators. Riverdale also found runs difficult to obtain, as they had five wickets down for 15 runs. Crowther and Cakebread, especially the former, bowled very well. A. Pickersgill, the Riverdale captain, upheld his reputation as a batsman, as, along with P. Bland, he played beautiful cricket for his 13 runs. The required runs were hit off before Pickersgill was caught. Halder's 16 (not out) was a well-played innings. This match entitles Riverdale to meet Garretts in the final for the cup, and it should be a game well worth seeing. All members of the Riverdale team are requested to be down at the ground next Tuesday. Score:
