MR. GEORGE MONRO DEAD.

Well-Known Customs Appraiser in Toronto Passed Away From Heart Failure on Saturday.

Mr. George Monro, the well-known horse appraiser at the Toronto custom house, passed away quite suddenly at his home, 485 Sherbourne-street, on Saturday. Mr. Monro was attacked by grip on Wednesday, but his family did not think his illness was serious. On Friday, however, his condition became worse, and he passed away on the following day from heart failure.

George Monro was not only one of the landmarks of Toronto but his family was one of the first to settle in this district. His father, the late George Monro, was at one time an alderman of Toronto, and sat in the Legislature for the Third Riding of York.

The deceased was a widower and leaves two sons and one daughter, who are at home. He was 70 years of age and entered the customs service in 1872.

The late Mr. John Monro, who was a long resident of the Queen's Hotel before his death, was a brother of Mr. George Monro.

There is a large estate in Toronto in the hands of the Monro family. This includes Monro Park, on East Queen-street.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the officers of the customs house will attend in a body.

SMALLPOX SCARE AT ROSSLAND.

Everybody Must Be Vaccinated — Mails Are Delayed for Fumigation at Northport.

Rossland, B.C., Feb. 3.—The Local Board of Health to-day issued a proclamation directing that all the inhabitants of Rossland be forthwith vaccinated, as a preventive against the smallpox epidemic in Washington and other states to the south. Incoming mail continues to arrive in somewhat irregular fashion, contents of all opened mail bags are detained at Northport, and fumigated for 16 hours, and then sent on. Closed bags come thru direct, and most of the eastern and western Canadian mail comes now by Canadian Pacific. An isolated hospital building has been completed, but so far no cases of smallpox have occurred. The health authorities keep up a strict quarantine over passengers, mail and baggage from the south.

TEACHERS SUSPENDED

Because It is Thought They Did Not Use Due Diligence in Rescuing Children From Fire.

Trenton, N.J., Feb. 3.—Miss Maria M. Wright and Miss Sallie Cailis, teachers of the Livingstone public schools, have been suspended, pending an investigation as to whether they used due diligence in getting the children out of the burning schoolhouse yesterday afternoon. The teachers claim the children became unmanageable by reason of the cries from the outside for them to jump from the windows. Had the children followed the teachers down the stairs, none would have been injured. None of the injuries received by the children are expected to prove fatal.

Legal Fight Over an Estate.

New York, Feb. 3.—Rudolf Henry Evans, a brother of the late Dr. Thomas W. Evans, the millionaire dentist, who saved the Empress Eugenie by taking her out of Paris in his carriage at the downfall of the French Empire, has sued the executors of his brother's estate for a partition of the real property owned by Dr. Evans in this state. Dr. Evans died in Paris in November, 1897. He had no wife, and the bulk of his property was left by him to different institutions.

A Blaze at Prescott.

Prescott, Feb. 4.—A fire occurred about 12 o'clock last night in the store known as the London House, owned and occupied by Glasgow Bros., drygoods merchants, of this place. The fire is supposed to have caught from the chimney in the attic. The firemen were promptly on the spot, and succeeded in confining the fire to the attic. The stock was considerably damaged by smoke and water. Stock and building fully insured. Loss at present unknown.

Prominent Brockville Man Dead.

Brockville, Feb. 4.—T. B. Steacy died very suddenly this afternoon of pneumonia. He has for many years conducted a jewelry business, and was one of Brockville's most prosperous business men. He was 65 years of age.

There are cases of consumption so far advanced that Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup will not cure, but none so bad that it will not give relief. For coughs, colds and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest, it is a specific which has never been known to fail. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, thereby removing the phlegm, and gives the diseased parts a chance to heal.

GOVERNOR GOEBEL IS DEAD.

The Bullet of the Assassin Did Its Work in Spite of All Efforts of Friends.

THE END CAME SATURDAY EVENING.

Mr. Breckham Sworn in on Behalf of the Democrats' as Governor.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 3.—Mr. Goebel died exactly at 6.44 o'clock. Arthur Goebel of Cincinnati and Mrs. Braunaker of Ohio, a married sister, both of whom have been constant attendants at the dying man's bedside, were alone with him when the end came. They had previously requested Dr. Hume to leave them alone with their unconscious brother. The doctor withdrew shortly, and, while kneeling by the bedside of their brother, he gave a gasp and was gone. Stricken with sorrow and anguish, the brother and sister did not move from their positions. They remained in the room with the door closed upon everybody until 7.20 o'clock, when the brother, Justice Goebel, who had been hurrying from Arizona, arrived. He entered the room and the door was closed for a few minutes. Soon after Dr. Hume was summoned, and to him Arthur Goebel announced that Mr. Goebel had died at 6.44 o'clock. At 7.37 notices of Mr. Goebel's death were passed thru the hotel corridors.

Mr. Breckham Sworn in.

Exactly one hour after the death of Mr. Goebel, J. C. W. Breckham was sworn in as Governor of the state, the oath being administered by S. J. Shackelford, clerk of the Court of Appeals.

The first official action of Mr. Breckham was an appointment of a new adjutant-general, and his last act before assuming the oath was an order removing Adjutant-General Collier and Assistant Adjutant-General Dixon.

Mr. Breckham seemed deeply affected by the position in which circumstances had placed him, and he did not reveal much joy over the congratulations which those in the room showered upon him, altho he accepted them gracefully.

Covington Much Shocked.

Covington, Ky., Feb. 3.—The news of Goebel's death produced intense feeling in this city, shared by all parties. The fire bells were tolled, and people gathered in groups and talked of the event in low tones. Nothing is said here about the arrangements for the funeral, because all of the dead man's relations are in Frankfort. It is thought by some here that he may be buried in Frankfort, in order to have a monument at the State Capitol.

WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS IGNORED.

An Order to Release Stenographer Alonzo Walker Was Not Recognized by Taylor and Collier.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 3.—Gov. Taylor and Adj.-Gen. Collier late this evening flatly refused to recognize a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Moore for the release of Alonzo Walker, a stenographer, who was arrested and put into confinement yesterday after pinning a notice of a writ of injunction on the door of Gov. Taylor's chambers in the Executive Building. Judge Moore said after Sheriff Suter had reported his inability to serve the writ of habeas corpus, that unless Gov. Taylor recedes from his position the sheriff would be instructed to enforce the order of the court, and would be given sufficient armed force to ensure this result.

ANGLO-SAXON UNION.

The Proposed Banquet Promises to Be an International Success—Membership Increasing.

The Anglo-Saxon Union banquet is now fairly launched, and, judging from the splendid list of toasts and the eminent persons who will propose and reply to the same, it is an assured success. Over 100 applications for membership were received from the most prominent business and professional men of the neighboring Republic. The applications also for banquet tickets have literally been pouring in. The fact that the Hon. George H. Daniels of New York has decided to reply to the most important of the international toasts is an open secret and accounts for the increased interest in the banquet. The Hon. Whitelaw Reid may possibly attend; he has accepted honorary membership and congratulates the Anglo-Saxon Union upon its great work. Amongst those of England and Canada who have recently accepted honorary membership are: Lord Charles Beresford, Sir Alfred Austin, the Hon. Hugh John Macdonald, Premier of Manitoba; the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, who concludes with a pleasant and timely compliment.

FELL THIRTY-FIVE FEET.

James Little Fell Off a Bridge Over the Thames River and Fractured His Hip.

James Little, an employe of the Hamilton Bridge Company, fell a distance of 35 feet while working on a structure over the Thames River, three miles west of Bothwell, on Saturday and sustained a severe fracture of the left hip. He was brought to the city and conveyed from the Union Station to St. Michael's Hospital in the police ambulance. Little lives at 177 Argyle-street in this city.

Soap-heredity.

Women who use soap don't do so because they know it's the best. Probably they haven't given a thought to the matter. They inherit the soap-habit—their mothers and grandmothers did, before them.

Women who use Pearline do so, because they have used soap and Pearline, and have found Pearline to be better—more effective, saving time and rubbing; just as harmless, and more economical. 587

Valedictory

TO THE FUR SEASON.

A VALEDICTORY SALE OF FURS.

We are emerging from the greatest fur-selling season in our experience in the fur business since 1864, with important plans for a still greater expansion of trade on entirely new lines next fall.

A week ago we began with an offering of over $10,000 worth of fur wear assorted for clearance before stock-taking, and nearly everything in this selection has been turned into money.

But our new plans for next season contemplate such a vast change in our business that we are impelled to let go of another larger and even choicer assortment of fur-wear, that we had reserved for the better prices which these select qualities and styles would command under the predicted increase in fur values next fall.

Everything in this reserved stock of new fur-wear is of the style and quality that would under any other circumstance warrant us in carrying it all into another season, but our prices prove the imperative purpose to clear everything right now.

All our fur displays in the main showroom on Yonge street, in the fur annex on Temperance street, and in the ladies' fur parlors on the first elevator landing in our building must be out of the way within the next two weeks.

Sale Begins To-Day

In Ladies' Fur-wear. This great buying opportunity includes 19 Persian Lamb Jackets, 15 Alaska Seal Jackets, 25 Imperial Electric Seal Jackets, 14 Raccoon Jackets, 32 Bokhara Jackets, 38 Astrachan Jackets, 7 Greenland River Mink Jackets, 6 Greenland Seal Jackets, 14 Australian Opossum Jackets, 7 Grey Lamb Jackets, Also over 100 Ladies' Caperines in the most stylish fur combinations—Persian lamb with Alaska sable, Persian lamb with electric seal, Astrachan with electric seal, Astrachan with Columbia sable, all sable, all seal, all mink, all chinchilla, all Persian lamb, grebe with Persian lamb, chinchilla with Persian lamb, mink with Persian lamb, seal with stone marten, grebe with electric seal, and Collarettes with long stoles or tabs in the same variety of furs. Also nearly 200 Ladies' Fur Scarfs in Russian sable, stone marten, northern mink, ermine, chinchilla, Hudson Bay sable, cub bear, cinnamon bear, red, black, brown and blue fox, all trimmed with heads or tails, and muffs in furs to match. Also Children's Fur Sets in grey lamb, Iceland lamb, Thibet and white Angora furs, Baby Fur Hoods and Tams and Baby Carriage Robes.

In Men's Fur-wear Fur Coats of raccoon, mink, otter, metassa, buffalo, Australian opossum, Bokhara, Astrachan, Siberian dog, wombat and Persian lamb. Also Fur-lined Overcoats, lined throughout with muskrat, with mink, otter or Persian lamb collars, and a lower priced variety lined with, dyed muskrat, with collars of muskrat in natural color. Wedge and Driving Caps and Gauntlets in Persian lamb, otter, electric seal, otter tails, Astrachan, Nutria, and Sleigh Robes of musk ox, buffalo, bear, wolf and Frisian goat, and special mountain bear robes of unrivalled quality, in two sizes, at $12 and $15 each, or $25 the pair.

We think it will take about two weeks to dispose of the entire stock. We are quite positive that not a single article will remain here as late as March 1. But we respectfully urge an early inspection of our Valedictory fur offers, because the rich assortments now are sure to favor a selection to your choice.

To Harness Pacific Tide.

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 4.—The Canadian Government has granted the application of a company of New Yorkers who have a plan to utilize the tide power in the narrow entrance to Vancouver harbor. The water flowing in from the Pacific Ocean thru this narrow pass reaches a high velocity at a certain stage of the tide. With this power a big electric plant is to be operated to supply electricity to the city, a mile away.
