POSTPONEMENT.

Prof. Spencer desires to announce that his advanced class and assembly, is postponed from this evening until Friday evening next.

TEMPERANCE IN FREDERICTON.

The temperance organizations of Fredericton and Marysville had a demonstration last night. The visitors, headed by Mr. Gibson, arrived by train with the Marysville band, and were met at the depot by the Fredericton people with the band of the Infantry School. The procession, which must have numbered five hundred, marched up Queen street to the temperance hall, where addresses were delivered by prominent speakers.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.

Rev. Mr. Fotheringham read a paper on the Jesuits Estates bill before the Evangelical Alliance yesterday which was listened to with profound attention on account of the pronounced and aggressive views which the writer expressed. Mr. Fotheringham's opinions were sustained by several of the speakers by whom he was followed, among whom were S. R. Patterson, Rev. Dr. Macrae, Rev. Dr. Wilson, and others.

PRESENTATION TO SERGT. NIXON.

Last evening Sergt. John Nixon, late keeper of military stores at the Carleton fort, was presented at the Orange Hall, King Street, with a handsome gold headed cane, accompanied by an address. The address was read and the presentation made by Grand Master Armstrong on behalf of St. John district lodge No. 1. Sergeant Nixon left last evening for his new home in Ontario. A large number of his friends gathered at the station to see him off and to wish him happiness and prosperity in the west.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT.

Angus Burgess, keeper of Point Midgic light, started on Friday afternoon from the lighthouse for St. George, accompanied by his son, a lad of 13 years, to procure a doctor for his sick wife. The doctor left for their home by land, while Mr. Burgess and his son started to return in their boat It is supposed they were overtaken by a squall, for on Saturday evening their bodies were found on the beach at Dewar's Cove, with their boat grounded near by. Mr. Burgess was a steady and industrious man and general sorrow is felt in the neighborhood for his sad death, and that of his son.

SKATING TOURNAMENT.

A tournament will be held in Victoria rink Fridaynight as a benefit for F. Dowd, the Montreal skater. The first event on the programme is a three mile professional race. 1st prize $25, 2nd prize $15 Dowd will take part in this and an endeavor will be made to get McCormick and Whelphey to compete. The second event is a one mile race for local professionals, in which Wm. Foster and Wm. Dalton and several more flyers will be opposed to each other; 1st prize $8, 2nd prize $4. Third event, amateur one mile race; 1st prize a pair of Long Reach skates. Dingee and Craft will likely compete.

The ice is in excellent condition, and the races promise to be good ones.

A DUBIOUS DIVINE.

A Kentville paper says: It is reported that the North Mountain is just now enjoying a sensation. It appears that a parson who frequents the mountain in the double capacity of spiritual and medical adviser, has been too intimate with at least one of his female patients. Some time since he had occasion to attend a young girl who was suffering from some weakness and the result has been deplorable. It appears that the female in question is in so interesting a condition that the M. D.'s parishioners have called a church meeting and selected a committee to interview both the divine and the patient. The young lady persists in her accusation that the divine is responsible for her condition. The divine denies all charges. The committee recommended that the divine should go in company with themselves to the residence of the young female and deny the allegation, but up to the time of writing so far as we can learn he has refused to do so.

City Police Court.

William Jenkins and Charles Cunningham, drunk and disorderly on Main Street were each fined $5 or 10 days.

Wm Phillips, a vagrant, came to police station last night. He has been detained.

Charles Hector, arrested for assault on Annie Denaco, was remanded, Denaco not appearing to prosecute.

The case of Hazen Campbell charged with larceny, was remanded this morning. On account of lack of evidence he was again remanded this time for a week with the understanding that the affair will be settled during that time. Those prosecuting do not appear to care to make a strong charge against Campbell.

THE UNION QUESTION.

Carleton Appoints a Delegation to Fredericton in the Interest of Better Terms.

A meeting of Carleton people was held in the City hall, west side, last night in connexion with the Union question.

Five of the Aldermen of Carleton seated themselves on the platform at 8 o'clock. Ald. Baskin was spokesman for the party, and after announcing why the meeting was called, suggested the appointment of a chairman. Mr. E. B. Cahl well was called to the chair.

The chairman inquired if any gentleman had a resolution to offer and his inquiry was answered by Mr. Timothy Donovan who said he had one. Mr. Donovan courteously yielded the floor while Ald. Baskin reported on behalf of the west side aldermen. Ald. Baskin explained and read the opinion of James J. Kaye, Esq., "on legal questions in reference to the proposed act for the union of St. John and Portland into one city." This report was adopted on motion.

Mr. Donovan was then called upon, and with diffidence took the initiative, while he saw so many gentlemen around him that he modestly thought were better fitted for the task than he was; yet his love for Carleton and everything that tended to the improvement of the west side, must, he said, plead his excuse for taking this leading part. He had a resolution to move, as he had said, but before doing so he would express his gratification that the opinion of Mr. Kaye had so entirely corroborated the opinion he himself had all along maintained. He felt a satisfaction in this, and took pleasure in moving the following resolution:

Whereas, An act of assemby to provide for a commission to inquire and report, with a view to the union of the cities of St. John and Portland, in the city and county of St. John: and

Whereas, That part of the city of St. John lying on the western side of the harbor (called Carleton) but separate and apart from St. John east, in public property. income and expenditure of same and not being represented on said commission; and

Whereas, Said commissioners have not provided free transit either by bridge or ferry between the east and west side in their scheme of union, we, the inhabitants of Carleton, do not consider that we receive sufficient compensation for the property and income which we surrender, and assuming a debt in common with the whole city as we pay seven-eights of the maintenance of present ferry accommodation; therefore

Resolved, That the meeting appoint five of the delegation to go to the legislature with a view of amending the union bill so as to provide for a free ferry between the east and west side, until such time as a bridge is built at Navy Island expenses of said delegation to be paid for out of west side public moneys.

Mr. Samual S Mayes seconded the resolution.

Mr. George Davis spoke and insisted that the west side Aldermen should go to Fredericton to assist in bobbying the house.

Messrs. Baskin, Mayes, Belyea, Ald. Smith, Montgomery, O'Brien and Donovan all spoke and the resolution was put and carried. A free discussion ensued as to the best mode of appointing the delegates and it was finally decided to appoint a nominating committee. Joseph O'Brien and Geo. A. Davis were named as the committee. They nominated C. E. Colwell, Jarvis, Wilson, J. B. Wilmot, J. H. Leonard and George F. Harding as the delegates to go to Fredericton. Mr. Donovan claimed that he was slighted in this nomination in not being a delegate but Mr. O'Brien assured him he had no feeling against him.

A motion to adjourn was put and carried.

The 25th Anniversary of the Marriage of Mr. James Manchester.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. James Manchester of the firm of Manchester, Robertson & Allison, which occurred on Sunday last was most happily signalized by his partners and the employes of his firm. The presents, imported by Messrs. Fergus on & Page are probably the most elegant ever seen in this city. The present, on behalf of the employes, is an epergne on a heavy rich silver base, with cornucopias and shields on three sides, surmounted by three cut glass dishes. The pedestal running up through the centre is supported by three cupids and is surmounted by a large silver plate, gold lined and handsomely engraved. From the centre of this extends a large cut glass vase. The epergne stands 38 inches high and is very handsome and massive looking. It bears the inscription: "Presented to Mr. and Mrs. Manchester by the employes of Manchester, Robertson and Allison, March 31, 1864; March 31, 1889."

The present of Messrs. Robertson and Allison is two pair of candelebra to match of five lights each and 22 inches high. They are of rich looking handsomely carved silver.

Last evening, W. H. Barnaby, representing the counting rooms, J. W. Wallace representing the wholesale department, and W. G. Smith, representing the retail department, proceeded to the residence of Mr. Manchester, Manawagonish road, and Mr. Barnaby, on behalf of the employes, made the presentation. Mr. Manchester thanked the employes for their kind remembrance.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Manchester, at home and abroad will join with the GAZETTE in hearty congratulations and wishes that their years may be many and happy and prosperous.

Provincial Notes.

What's in a name? Hannibal Hamlen, who was postmaster at Farmington Falls, has been removed.

A 12 year old boy named Letson died in Halifax yesterday, from injuries received in a fight with another boy, about his own age named Taylor.

John Roche, who was paymaster of the wrecked American warship Vandalia, and drowned at Samoa, was a son of Edward Roche, legislative librarian of Prince Edward Island. His brother, James Jeffrey Roche, a resident of Boston, is one of the most promising of America's young poets.

New Glasgow is the centre of a population of 20,000, with an adjoining constituency of 100,000 people. $1,250,000 a year is paid in that town and vicinity.

Angus Matheson was arrested at Plainfield, Pictou Co., the other day, charged with sending bogus items to the Pictou News. On confessing his fault he was let off after paying the entire costs, $25.

James T. Manning, justice of the peace, and a prominent resident of Wolfville, hanged himself last Sunday night in the coolest and most deliberate manner imaginable. He sat at his desk, arranged all his worldly affairs, lighted a lantern, proceeded to the stable and hung himself with a carefulness that is marvellous.

Elizabeth Kent was found drowned at Musquodoboit Harbor a few days ago. She left a neighbor's house for her home on a very dark night, with the wind blowing a gale, and is believed to have been blown into the water and drowned.

Coming Events.

The regular meeting of the Natural History society will be held in the society's rooms at 8 o'clock, when a paper by Prof. L W Bailey on Notes on the Watershed between New Brunswick and Quebec will be read.

The quarterly meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society will be held this evening, 7,30 o'clock, at the rooms of the Church of England Institute.

Social in Germain St. Baptist Church this evening.

Entertainment by No. 2 battery of Carleton this evening.

SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Baseball.

Word comes from Fredericton that definite arrangements are being made to bring a baseball team into the field this season. Several of the leading sporting characters of Fredericton, it seems, have taken the matter in hand and will likely succeed. It is understood, too, that the Park Association have offered the use of their grounds and will lay out sufficient money to fit these grounds for the purpose of baseball. It is to be hoped that a good team may be organized by the Celestials.

The Shamrocks yesterday secured base ball grounds. They have been negotiating with Count DeBary for some time for a tract of land which is situated behind the La Tour rink, and as soon as possible the land will be put in proper condition for club grounds. It is the intention of the club to secure a professional battery and to thoroughly reorganize the playing nine. The terms of the lease are for 10 years at $150 a year. But the draining and fitting up of the grounds will entail a large expense. The Shamrock baseball club is an old institution, and they know how to play.

The proposed Amateur League to be organized at Toronto is not attracting much attention. As yet, nothing has been done, except in the matter of issuing invitations to amateur clubs to join. If any clubs unite for the purpose of forming a League, a grand meeting will be held about April 6th, for the purpose of adopting a constitution, playing rules etc., "Now is the time for the amateur ball-tossers to bestir themselves, and make the affair a success," says the Toronto Empire.

The Ring.

ONLY A MATTER OF FORM.

CHICAGO, April 1.—Billy Myer, the referee in the Weir-Murphy fight, this morning, ordered the men to meet in the ring this afternoon. The order was a mere matter of form, however, and there will be no more fighting at least for some time to come.

WEIR HAD THE BEST OF IT.

Later reports of the Weir-Murphy fight go to show that Weir from the first to the eighteenth round had the best of it. Murphy at the eighteenth round was terribly bruised, and would have assuredly been knocked out had not Weir's side given out. From that point until the close—the eightieth—the battle was merely a walk around, and was at last declared a draw.

Local sports in San Francisco lost heavily on the Carroll-Blakelock fight, as they backed Blakelock at odds from 100 to 60 and 80, while after the first three rounds, when Blakelock looked to be a sure winner, they offered 2 to 1. Blakelock's failure to gratify the boasts of himself and friends has led to suspicions as to the fairness of the match. There was a story around town on the day following the fight that Pat Sheedy put up a job and advised all his friends to back Carroll in a quiet way. It is certain that most of the money was won by Eastern gamblers.

Notes.

Dr. Carver won in the shooting match with Budd Saturday by a score of 89 to 85 The match was at 100 live birds, for a purse of $500. The weather was very unfavorable.

Thursday was the birthday of the queen of the trotting turf, Maud S. She was 15 years old, and from what her owner, Mr. Robert Bonner, says never looked better in her life. In a few days now she will be taken up, and before the season is over it is very probable that she will be given an opportunity of beating her unrivaled record, 2.08¾.

New Brunswick sports lost $10,000 on a foot race in St. John on Monday night, between Pendergast, a local sprinter, and a professional named James Adams, Anderson or Miller, whom some Philadelphia sharpers were behind. Several city officials and prominent men were among the victims. The race was ten miles for $500 a side. Frank and John Mulvey were the only local men who made anything out of the deal.—Toronto Empire.

The race was not in St. John, and $10,000 is a good round sum.

David Johnson, of Portland, St. John N. B., issues an unique challenge. He uses a wooden leg of his own manufacture and invention, and challenges the world to a wooden leg race of a mile, or a to go-as-you-please match for a week.—[Toronto Empire.]

St. John men are rapidly becoming famous. Why don't the Toronto papers copy the challenge of our champion barber?

Cost of Steamships.

An order for a new ship of the class required to compete in the modern passenger service of the Atlantic is not by any means a matter to be determined on without grave consideration. Speed is costly, and as you increase it it is generally necessary to also increase the tonnage. This forces upon your consideration tides, channels, harbor bars, and dock accommodations, all of which impose limitations upon you. And then the cost of the ship herself is not a matter which even the wealthiest of corporations can provide for at a moment's notice. It is not $100,000 or $500,000 that the work calls for, but about five times the latter sum, for it is safe to say that a vessel superior to the City of New York or the Etruria could not be built for less than $2,500,000.

Sometimes the ship builders are willing to become part owners of the projected vessel; sometimes they take as part payment for the work some older vessels of the line, which they refit, reengine, modernize and sell again. The ability of the builders to make an arrangement of this kind, of course, influences the placing of the contract in a measure, but they must also be able to give certain guarantees. They must enter into an engagement that the projected ship shall be able to carry so many passengers and so many tons of cargo, and to attain a specified speed on a given consumption of coal per day.

Let us say, for instance, that the stipulations are these: Accommodations for 600 saloon passengers, 150 intermediate passengers and 1,500 steerage passangers; registered tonnage. 6,000; speed, 19 knots on a consumption of 200 tons per day. If the ship fails to fulfill these conditions the builders agree to forfeit a part of the amount they would otherwise receive for her, or they may be compelled to take her back altogether. This was the case with the City of Rome.—Scribner's Magazine.

An After Dinner Observation.

Mrs. Jelleby (to Johnny)—Johnny, my child, you have been in the parlor since dinner. What is our minister, dear Mr. Longpsalm, taking about now?

Johnny—About the age attained by the antediluvian animals, mother.

Mrs. J.—Dear, good soul! He revels in the scientific.

Johnny—So does Deacon Timbershanks, from the way he nodded approval while our minister talked. I heard Brother Longpsalm say that up till today he thought the antediluvian creatures perished thousands of years ago, but that the chicken you had for dinner had thoroughly convinced him to the contrary.

Mrs. J.—And Brother Timbershanks?

Johnny—Oh, he merely said: "Me too!"—Drake's Magazine.

Her First Telegram.

"Be sure to telegraph me as soon as you arrive," said a young husband to his bride at the Broad Street station yesterday. She was starting on her first trip home to see her mother. Her mother lives about ten miles out.

"I will," promised the young wife sweetly; "but I don't know whether I have money enough."

"Oh, send it 'collect.' Now don't forget. Good-by."

"Good-by."

"Good-by."

The young husband gazed longingly after the train as it steamed out, and then he sadly returned to his place of business. In half an hour a messenger boy presented the following:

FISH CERRES, Pa., 2 p. m.—George Washington Blank, 43 Blank street, Philadelphia—My Dear George: I have just arrived safely without any accident at all; not the slightest. The train slowed up at Jinks Crossing and whistled, but I don't think anything serious was the matter. It made me start jump to think how you would feel if anything had been the matter, you know, but there wasn't, not a thing, so far as I could find out. I got to thinking of you and might have been carried past my station if Cousin Will, the one you used to be so jealous about, you know, hadn't been on the train. He is visiting at mother's, and is handsomer than ever. He says he hates you, but, of course, that's only fun, you know. I forgot to say that my trunk came through all right. It was no trouble at all. Cousin Will took my check and arranged to have it (the trunk, you know) hauled up to the house. It will have to be taken around by the mill, because the other road is blocked up, you know; but, you know, that will only take a few minutes longer than by the other road—the one that is blocked up, I mean. Well, I must close this dispatch, because telegrams have to be short, you know. Your loving wife,

DANGER!
People having Feather beds and Pillows do not seem to realize the danger there is in using them without being cleaned, especially in times of an epidemic, as feathers retain all the exhalations and poisonous matter exuding from the person, and by so doing spread sickness through the family.
Our steam cleansing process eliminates all the poisonous matter and leaves the feathers in a better condition than ever.
