THE LOCAL MARKET

Oats, hay, and wheat were the features of the market Friday. Oats sold readily at $1.54 and $1.55 per cwt. The wheat supply is becoming much more plentiful, but the price remains at $1.10 per bushel.

Twenty loads of hay were weighed this morning, meeting a good demand. Some loads sold as high as $15.50 per ton. Straw also is high at $8 and $8.50 per ton.

Potatoes are unchanged in price. No meats or fruits were on the Friday market.

Winnipeg, Sept. 24.—Following the sharp advances at the close of yesterday's market, further advances occurred in wheat prices at the opening today. Opening figures were ⅜c to ⅝c higher, and further fractional gains were made of from ⅛c to ½c, but these were not maintained. Strength was caused by strong Liverpool cables which were 1¼d higher at 1:30 p.m., but later the local buying power eased off, and some profit taking developed, resulting in prices dropping to the level of Wednesday's close. At noon, wheat prices were: $1.10⅜; December, $1.12⅞; and May, $1.19⅛. The weakness in oats continued, the closing being at the low point except for October. Wheat closed ⅜c to ½c lower, and oats ¼c to ⅜c lower at the close.

The cash demand was fair for wheat and oats, while it was keen for barley. The grades of wheat most in demand were Nos. 1 and 2 northern, and offerings were fairly heavy. Exporters were the principal buyers.

Cash grains closed:

Wheat—¼c to ⅜c lower for contract grades, certain lower grades were higher; oats, ¼c to ⅜c lower; barley, ½c to 1c higher; and flax, ½c lower.

Inspections totalled 852 cars on Wednesday, as against 1,137 last year, and in sight were 935 cars.

Cash grain:

Wheat—No. 1 northern, $1.10¼; No. 2, $1.06¾; No. 3, $1.02; No. 4, 94c; No. 5, 88c; No. 6, 83c.

Oats—No. 2 Canadian western, 48¼c; No. 3, 46¾c; extra No. 1 feed, 46¾c; No. 1 feed, 56¾c; No. 2, 45¼c.

Barley—No. 3, 65c; No. 4, 60c; rejected, 58c; feed, 56c.

Flax—No. 1 Northwest Canada, $1.23½; No. 2 Canadian western, $1.21½.

NO GOOD CARD UP GERMANY'S SLEEVE

Retreat and Defence Forced on Armies, Not Strategic Plan, Says Correspondent.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 25.—A correspondent of the Daily News, telegraphing Tuesday from outside of Paris, says: "The battle now proceeding is, of course, beyond description. No one man can see it. It would take a good walker, for instance, at least a fortnight to get from one end of the line to the other. You still come across croakers who are convinced that the Germans are playing a subtle game, that they have something up their sleeve, and will presently give an alarming surprise, which they now are carefully developing behind their lines, and come back to Paris.

"The common sense of the matter is that the Germans went back from the Marne because they had to, and they do not advance now because they cannot. There is nothing more mysterious in their plans than that, and the allies cannot make quicker progress, because the Germans are very many, are well armed, have strong positions, and know that if they break now, they break for good. Their prolonged and formidable resistance is no more mysterious than their retreat. Luck is almost as important in warfare as good soldiers. Admitting the value of that essential, it is safe to say the Germans will never get back to Paris. They will see Berlin first."

INDIANS MUST HAVE SPECIAL TREATMENT

Troops For European War Require Extra Stores and Supplies.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Sept. 25.—A London cable to the Tribune says: "The Indian contingent which Lord Kitchener said was coming to take part in the campaign on the continent has special needs, and the ambulance department of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem has been authorized by the Secretary of State for India to organize a supply of comforts and stores for it while it is at the front.

Transferred suddenly to a climate to which they are unused and fighting in a territory whose population is not acquainted with their habits, the Indians naturally will be at some personal disadvantage. Hence the vigorous work which is being done by St. John's Ambulance Association, which will publish a list of articles required for the men at the earliest possible opportunity.

These will include cardamon, cloves, cinnamon, sugar, candy, candied cocoanut, tobacco and cigarettes. Pan and betel, indispensable to an Indian, are difficult to obtain. An Indian on going to rest requires, first, a long muffler envelope for his head and neck. With this he does not seem to feel the cold on his body, although, of course, vests and warm underwear are needed.

STANDARD OF WOMEN DETERIORATED IN INDIA

Was Higher 3,500 Years Ago, Says Rev. A. B. Woodburne, Returned Missionary.

"The standard of womanhood in India 3,500 years ago was higher than it is today," was one of the statements which Rev. A. Stewart Woodburne, M. A., made in an instructive address on India and Indian women last night to a gathering of all the Baptist Women's Mission Circle members in the city in the Adelaide Street Baptist Church. "Women in India," he said, "are harder to persuade to the Christian faith than men. They are the greatest drawback to the progress of Christianity in the east, the reason being, that the men are all-powerful and absolute in the household and society."

Eight Years In Field.

Rev. Mr. Woodburne, returned recently from missionary work in India, after eight years work there. He was a former member of the Adelaide Street Baptist Church. He leaves London this morning for Chicago, where he will take a post-graduate course in Chicago University.

Hundreds of curios from the far east were viewed by the audience, of Indian dress goods, curtains, and prayer mats, all the work of Indian women. The speaker said that there are 154,000,000 women in India, and one in 96 only is educated. He described the work of missionaries to elevate the station of the women of the east. The church choir rendered several selections and Miss E. Kidner sang, "In the Secret of Thy Presence," a hymn written by a Hindu lady.

At the afternoon meeting Rev. W. C. Riddiford gave a short Bible reading. James Alderson the church organist, presided. Rev. J. H. Boyd, pastor of the Adelaide Street Church, occupied the chair in the evening.

BELGIAN REFUGEES LIVING IN LONDON

Fifteen Hundred Find Ease and Comfort After Their Terrible Trials.

STORIES ARE HARROWING

Homes Offered For 30,000 in Various Parts of Britain.

London, Sept. 18. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Every day at 5 o'clock a bell rings in the great exhibition hall of Alexandra Palace, whereupon 1,500 women, children and old men, with a scattering of youths, get up a clatter of wooden shoes. This amusement park is now the largest camp for Belgian refugees in the London district, and makes ideal quarters for the homeless foreigners who are being cared for there.

Not many weeks ago the same people were straggling away from their burning villages, some for the Dutch frontier to be herded together in Flushing, and others for Brussels, whence they were sent to Ostend. At any rate, ultimately they found themselves in a London railway station, bewildered by the noise of traffic and the strange language about them, where they were rounded up by kindly people speaking their language, and put into motor buses for the various camps.

New Experience.

Attendants at Alexandra Palace say the refugees for the first day or two seemed stupefied. The break in their narrow, peaceful lives by war and travel overwhelmed them. Then they began to fall into the new way of living. For many, no doubt, ease amid plenty was a novel experience, after years of frugality and hard labor. Now there is nothing to do but to wander in the great halls, with their statuary, the remains of a Japanese fair, and a bird-house, and in the wooded park outside, the heights of which command an extensive view of London.

Some Sorrowful Ones.

The older Belgians have not yet recovered from the horrors they have passed through. They sit on the benches, sad eyed and dumb, paying no attention to the children romping about them. One of the volunteer interpreters at the palace says their stories are so harrowing she cannot bear to hear them. Some of the women have met fresh griefs in the death of their babies from malnutrition and exposure during the days of their flight. The hospital has now about thirty-five cases on hand, which are given the best of care.

All Offered Homes.

Every day a group of refugees, with tags giving their destination fastened to a buttonhole, are taken from the camps and sent to various parts of England, where homes have been offered. There are only about 6,000 in the camps, and Secretary H. E. Morgan, of the war refugees' committee, which acts for the Government in this matter, says that he has received 60,000 offers of aid from people in all parts of the United Kingdom, and 30,000 offers of homes.

ENEMIES ARE LIVING RENT FREE IN PARIS

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Sept. 24.—The conditions of the moratorium provide that, proprietors cannot force tenants to pay rent. This applies to all people regardless of nationality, and many German and Austrian tenants are profiting as a consequence.

A movement is on foot to induce the Government to modify this decree before the quarter beginning October 8, so that tenants who are citizens of nations which are at war with France will have to pay rent or vacate their houses.

RUSSIANS PUSHING THEIR SUCCESSES

Capture Fortified Positions and Much Artillery—Austrians Evacuate Bourgade and Medyka.

[Canadian Press.]

Petrograd, Sept. 25.—An official announcement from Grand Duke Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian forces in the field, says: "On the southwest front the Russian troops have taken possession of the fortified position of Czyschky and Foulstyn, which covered Khyroff and other positions in the Radymno region (between Jaroslau and Przemysl), taking all the enemy's artillery.

"The Przemysl garrison has evacuated Bourgade and Medyka and has been repulsed in the eastern segment toward the line of forts.

"There has been no fighting on the German front."

AMERICAN FORCES ORDERED TO STAY

Will Not Withdraw From Vera Cruz During Next Ten Days.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, Sept. 25.—Secretary Garrison today ordered Brig.-Gen. Funston, commanding the American forces at Vera Cruz, not to withdraw during the next ten days.

COMMUNICATIONS CUT.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, Sept. 25.—The cutting of all telegraphic and telephone communication and the only railroad between Vera Cruz and Mexico City by a force of men under Higenio Aguilar, a former Federal general, occasioned some uneasiness in official circles today, especially in view of the fact that many Americans who fled from Mexico City during the revolution, had returned to the capital. Officials anxiously awaited the reasons for communication being cut off and information as to what is transpiring in Mexico City.

Consul's Advice.

Whether these developments in the situation would alter plans of the Washington Government for the withdrawal of the American forces from Vera Cruz, could not be foretold early today. Consul-General Canada at Vera Cruz has recommended to the state department that, in view of the changed situation, it would be advisable to retain the forces there pending more normal conditions.

Former Sultan Warns Turkey

[Canadian Press.]

Petrograd, Sept. 24.—Abdul Hamid, former sultan of Turkey, has warned the committee of union and progress that Turkey will be lost if it enters upon a war against Russia.

"Word has reached here from Constantinople that Adrianople is short of provisions."

British Flag Captured In 1774 Comes To Canada.

MONTREAL, Sept. 24. — A British flag, one hundred and forty years old, has just been presented to the Canadian patriotic fund by A. McD. Young, a British subject resident in Milwaukee, Wis. Mr. Young, who sent the flag to Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, writes that the flag was captured from the British at Detroit in 1774.

It was raffled for in Milwaukee in 1864 and Mr. Young, determined to own the flag, he bought nearly all the tickets. He won it and has now sent it to Canada to be disposed of in the best way for the fund.

It was decided by the local patriotic fund committee not to auction the flag, but to send it to the museum at Ottawa.

FLOATING MINES DESTROY THREE AUSTRIAN BOATS

PARIS, Sept. 24.—The correspondent of the Italian newspapers Corriere Della Serra, telegraphs from Trieste that two Austrian torpedo boats and one torpedo boat destroyer were sunk by floating mines last Friday on the coast of Dalmatia, according to a Rome dispatch to the Havas News Agency.

WEDDING BELLS

CROSBY—WASON.

Wellington Street Methodist Church was the scene at 6 o'clock Thursday evening of a large and unusually pretty wedding, when Miss Josephine Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Watson, 119 Bathurst street, was united in marriage to Gilbert Crosby, resident engineer of the C. P. R., this city. Rev. H. A. Graham performed the ceremony in the presence of a host of friends of bride and groom, the church being beautifully adorned for the occasion with pink and white asters, banked with palms.

The bride looked exceedingly charming in her wedding robes of white satin charmeuse, trimmed with seed pearls and exquisite lace. She wore the customary veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Mrs. T. Purdom Jun., as matron of honor, and a dainty flower girl, the bride's niece, little Miss Dorothy Watson. Mrs. Purdom was handsomely attired in white satin, draped with blue ninon, with black picture hat, trimmed with white plumes. She carried a bouquet of yellow 'mums. The little flower girl wore a Kate Greenaway frock of white silk organdie, and carried a basket of roses. The groom was attended by Bert Pinder, of Toronto, formerly a member of the C. P. R. staff here.

Mrs. King, organist of the church, played the wedding marches, and also rendered appropriate music in her usual finished style during the assembling of the guests. While the register was being signed, A. J. Ferte gave a splendid rendition of "Love's Coronation." The ushers were Morris Percival and Dick Balfour, both of the Hermitage Club, of which the groom was a popular member.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome pearl pin, to the best man a pearl tie pin in unique design, to the matron of honor a sterling silver cardcase, to the flower girl a pearl bar pin, and to the ushers and soloist silver monogrammed cigarette cases. The gift of the bride's father was a substantial check, and that of the bride's mother a gold purse. The bridal couple were the recipient of many handsome gifts, among them being a unique electric attachment for mantel from the staff of the C. P. R., to which both bride and groom belonged for several years.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, when the bride received good wishes standing beneath a tropical tree bearing large, white lily-shaped blossoms. Later in the evening a buffet luncheon was served, the bride's table being decorated with a centre of American Beauty roses and lilies of the valley, with festoons of white ribbon reaching to smaller vases of the same flowers at the corners of the table.

The bride's mother was beautifully gowned in mauve silk charmeuse, trimmed with touches of gold lace, with hat to match, trimmed with plumes and osprey. She carried mauve asters. Mrs. A. E. Ferte wore a Paris lace gown over champagne silk, with mink trimmings and tango girdle, and brown velvet hat, trimmed with osprey and real lace. Among the guests noted were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ferte, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ellwood, Mr. and Mrs. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Winnett, Miss Maud Sanborn, Mrs. Hills, Mrs. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, and many others.

The bride and groom left on the 9:35 C. P. R. train for Chicago, the bride travelling in a brown costume with black braid trimming, and small black Paris hat with coque quills in bronze, and corsage of American Beauty roses. Mr. and Mrs. Crosby will reside on John street.

GREGORY—PARKER.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the residence of Thomas Parker, 27 Beaconsfield avenue, last evening, when his daughter, Olive Myrtle, became the wife of Fred Ray Gregory, of this city. Rev. W. H. Harvey, of Askin Street Methodist Church, was the officiating clergyman. Mr. and Mrs. Gregory left on the Traction Line for St. Thomas, where they boarded the flyer for New York.
