YANKEE'S RICH FUTURITY

John E. Madden's Hanover-Correction Colt Won in Record Time, 1.09 1-5

LUX CASTA SECOND, BARROW THIRD

J. E. Seagram's Cobourg Upset the Talent in Fall Handicap, Beating Voter, the Favorite.

New York, Aug. 31.—John E. Madden's Yankee, at 4 to 1 in the betting, won the Classic Futurity at Sheepshead Bay to-day, the richest fixture of the American turf. He won driving by a length and a half from what was perhaps the best and highest class field which ever ran for the stakes. Lux Casta was second, while Baron finished third. It was a great race and nobly won and a record breaking crowd of 30,000 people stood up in their chairs and wildly cheered the victor. Society was out in force and the big grand stand was packed to overflowing, while the broad lawns and infield were black with people. All the celebrities of the sporting world were on hand, every walk of life seemed to be represented. The track was fast, and all the conditions favorable for a true run race.

The races were decided before the Futurity, but the interest was plainly in the classic fixture and the crowd waited impatiently to see the stars of the two-year-old world parade past the grand stand on the way to the post. The betting ring was a seething mass of humanity. The layers were besieged and tons of money poured in. It was almost impossible to fight one's way near enough to the layers to get a bet down.

The rank and file could see nothing in the race but the Whitney entries, Nastartium and King Hanover and opening at 9 to 5 they were quickly played down to 7 to 5 and 13 to 10. The Madden horses, Yankee and Gunfire, were a strong second choice at 4 to 1, but the following was not so strong for this combination, when Blue Girl was scratched. Heno and DeReszke had a strong following at 10 to 1, while Voter, the much-touted maiden, and Lux Casta were well played, also at 12 and 15 to 1 respectively. The others ranged in price from 20 to 1 to 200 to 1, scattering bets being made on all of them.

In the paddock the scene was a pretty one. The candidates were being saddled and fitted for the struggle and a big crowd watched the final touches. Everything was bustle and activity when the bugle rang out calling the horses to the post.

The jockies in their bright colors were given the "leg up" and the last words of instructions, while out in the enclosure the late ones were hurrying to get a bet down or seeking points of vantage to view the race.

Goldsmith, Blue Girl and Carroll D had been scratched, but Homestead, Broad Street and Utopian were added, so that a field of nineteen paraded past the grand stand and centered up to the post, far up the old Futurity chute. First came King Hanover and Nasturtium in the blue and Brown Cap of William C. Whitney. They were favorites with the general public and truly looked the part. Next followed Yankee in the cherry and white hoops of John E. Madden, and the racy-looking son of Hanover—Correction, for whom Madden paid $20,000 as a yearling—brought out words of praise, from many lips. Almost every horse was applauded as he pranced along.

The Race.

Once at the post the crowd settled down to wait for the flag. Eyes strained to watch the manoeuvring for a start, but except for those with strong glasses it was a confused mass, the colors not even being distinguishable. There were two false breaks and the big crowd was getting impatient for the word when suddenly the welcome cry of "they're off" rang thru the grand stand. It seemed to electrify the crowd, and all were on their feet, echoing the cry and trying to pick out the colors of their favorite horses. At first it was a wild scramble for position, and a confused mass of colors. Saturday was the first to show with King Hanover, Hyphen, Yankee and De Reszke close on his heels. It was a good start for all but Heno, who wheeled as the flag fell, and was practically left.

At top speed they came down to the bend into the main track like a line of cavalry, and at that point all eyes could see the blue with brown cap of Mr. Whitney's King Hanover on the rail, and a short neck before Pentecost. Lux Casta, Yankee, De Reszke, Caughnawaga and Baron were well up, and the most prominent of the others, and as they flashed by the half-mile mark it was still anybody's race. To everybody's surprise, however, Nasturtium, the pride of the Whitney stable, was far back in the truck. into the last furlong they came for the heart-breaking dash to the wire. King Hanover was gradually dropping back and Odom sent Lux Casta to the front, closely followed by Pentecost, Yankee, De Reszke and Barron. "The favorite's beaten!" wailed the crowd. "Lux Casta wins!" shrieked those who were over anxious to announce a result. But the race was not over yet. O'Connor drew his whip on Yankee, and the colt, responding in the gamest manner, quickened his stride and foot by foot crept up on the flying leader. Odom was hard at work with whip and spur on Lux Casta in an effort to earn the coveted honors, but Yankee, with long, even strides, was not to be denied. A hundred yards from the wire the two were head and head. Lux Casta hung on gamely, and for a few strides neither could claim an advantage.

It was a stirring struggle, a bitter fight—and the monster crowd was cheering and shouting. Then came the cry, "Yankee wins!" as foot by foot he drew away and passed under the wire a length and a half in ffront. Lux Casta was an easy second, and Barron, closing with a rush, earned third money by a head from De Reszke.

Then came Pentecost, King Hanover, Gunfire and the others. Nasturtium was tenth and far back. The time was 1.09 1-5.

Then came the usual scene. The band played "Yankee Doodle," the crowd hailed the winner and his jockey, and O'Connor took his place in the floral horseshoe. The Futurity of 1901 was a matter of history, and long will live the name of its gallant winner.

The stake was worth $36,910 to the winner, while the second horse earned $4166.66 and the third horse $2083.34; $2000 went to the breeder of the winner; $1250 to the breeder of the second horse and $500 to the breeder of the third horse. The total stake was $43,910. A. Featherstone, whose jockey rode the winner, got 25 per cent. of the winner's share for allowing O'Connor to ride. William C. Whitney also had some balm in the fact that he owns a half interest in Yankee, altho it was a keen disappointment not to see his colors in front. Those at the start say Nasturtium was off well, but jumped a dark spot in the track, losing ground and being shut off. O'Connor carried off the jockey honors of the day, riding three winners in Ogden, Yankee and Knapsack. The other races were interesting and well contested, and the crowd felt well repaid in a good day's sport. Summaries:

EASTERN LEAGUE BASEBALL

Toronto Split Even on Saturday and Lost to Rochester on Sunday.

THE ROWDIES WON DOUBLE HEADER

Buffalo Won Two Saturday Games From Brockton and Lost on Sunday to Montreal.

A record was made Saturday in the Eastern League, eight games being played, all the clubs participating in double-headers. Rochester and Buffalo each won two from Hartford and Brockton, the other four breaking even.

At Worcester, the double-header resulted in an even break. Montreal won the first game by Worcester's ragged and loose fielding. Worcester outbatted Montreal, but at critical times Joyce was very effective. In the second game the visitors could do nothing with Magee, while Souders was hit hard and got poor support.

Buffalo beat Brockton in both games today. These games were probably the last that will be played in Brockton in Eastern League, as the Labor Day games are already transferred to Hartford, and Manager Leonard thinks the games scheduled at Brockton with Providence and Worcester will be played in those cities. In the first game Blake was hit in the face by a pitched ball in the first innings, and had to quit.

At Hartford Rochester won both. Hastings pitched winning ball in the first game, but Urquhart's poor throwing gave the game to the leaders. Hemming was in fine form in the second game, but he wrenched his knee in the fifth innings and retired. Moriarty, who took his place, was easy, and Urquhart's miserable work did the rest.

Toronto Home on Wednesday.

Exhibition visitors will have an opportunity of seeing some games of professional baseball, as the Toronto Eastern League team commences its final series of the season on the home grounds this week, beginning on Wednesday with Buffalo, with whom they will play three games, to be followed by a three-game series with Montreal, beginning on Saturday. The new ball grounds are located within five minutes' walk of the Exhibition grounds, so that they are unusually convenient for those in attendance at the Fair. Games commence at 4 o'clock, except on Saturday when the contest is called half an hour earlier. Ladies are admitted free on Fridays. The forthcoming series will be of especial interest to Toronto patrons of the game, as upon these contests depends the standing of the team in the league race.

Rochester, Sept. 1.—Rochester defeated Toronto to-day in the fastest game seen at Charlotte this season. Altrock pitched a wonderful game for the visitors, but Rochester's fielding was perfect and prevented Toronto from scoring more than once. Umpire Kelley went to Buffalo, thinking it was going to rain, and player umpires were used. Score:

HARRY GILMORE OF CHICAGO.

Veteran Lightweight's Son Coming With Duffy and Ole Oleson.

Harry Gilmore telegraphed to the Crescent Athletic Club manager Saturday from Chicago, as follows:

"Duffy, Oleson and Harry, jr., will arrive in Toronto on Tuesday."

This will be the first visit of young Harry to his native city since his boyhood days. Harry, senior, is evidently too busy with his boxing school, and his son will look after the interests of his men at the show next Thursday night in the Rink. Harry, junior, is just as clever with the gloves as his father, tho he is out of the game, being engaged on the sporting staff of The Chicago Chronicle.

Tim Kearns will reach Toronto on Wednesday or a day before the contest. The full program is as follows:

Main bout, 20 rounds, at 136 lbs.—Martin Duffy, Chicago, v. Tim Kearns, Boston.

Semi-windup, 10 rounds at 130 lbs.—Ole Oleson, Chicago, v. Pat Kilty, Toronto.

Curtain raiser, 5 rounds, at 135 lbs.—Jim Lawless v. Ed Wildey.

Sutton Will Play Slosson.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—George Sutton, the Canadian billiard expert, has accepted the challenge of George Slosson of New York to play a match at 18-inch balk-line, "no shot in," for the championship of America. On Sutton's acceptance, which was wired to New York to-night, he agrees to play for $1000 a side, and asks that the match be played in New York.

Labor Day Shoot.

McDowall & Co. will hold an open bluerock shoot at their grounds this afternoon. The program consists of a 10, 15 and three 20-bird contests. Visiting sportsmen are cordially invited to be present. The grounds are situated close to the Woodbine.

Entries Close To-Day.

The entries to the stakes of the Toronto Hunt open meeting, from Saturday, Sept. 21, to Saturday, Sept. 28, close to-day, and the response to the Hunt Club's offerings promises to be most excellent. As far west as Manitoba and as far east as Quebec and New Brunswick entries have already been received by the secretary, Mr. Stewart Houston. It is perhaps unfortunate that the second division of both the Hendrie and Seagram stables are not in racing condition, so that these famous colors will not be so well represented as usual. The full program will be ready in a day or so.
