

near the Church door, on the Sunday immediately preceding such meeting ; or by printed notices sent to each voter, or left in their pews or sittings on the Sunday forenoon immediately preceding such meeting.

VIII.

At all meetings called by the Session, the Minister of the Congregation shall preside, and the Session Clerk shall act as Secretary. At all other meetings a Chairman shall be appointed by those present, and the Secretary of the Trustees shall act as the Secretary of the meeting.

IX.

At all meetings of the Congregation at least fifteen qualified voters shall be present before proceeding to business.

X.

All persons holding pews by purchase, either in whole or part, and having been duly registered as such pewholders, shall continue to hold the same, but any such pewholder failing to contribute to the support of the Congregation for one year, shall thereby forfeit all right to such pew or portion thereof as the case may be, and the same shall revert to the Trustees and be disposed of in the way prescribed for pews not held by registered owners. The allotment of pews shall be entirely in the hands of the Trustees. Allotments to be made only at their regular meetings. Application for pew accommodation to be made in writing, stating the number of sittings required. Such application to be addressed to the Chairman of