

PACIFIC OCEAN, the, xiv.

Palo Alto, the battle of, 372.

Panther, Chief, at the Ogillallah village, 235; 253, 254; character of, 330; 333.

Papin, the "boss" of Fort Laramie, 86, 87, 121; 252, 346, 349.

Parkman, Francis, at Pike's Peak, xiii; the motives for his trip to the Rocky Mountains, xv; among the Sioux, xvi; on board the "Radnor," 3; at Independence, 5, 9; at Kansas, 6; at Westport, 6; fellow-travellers, 8; an unfortunate beginning, 12; description of his companions, 16; visitors, 19; on the Kansas, 21; at Fort Leavenworth, 28; at the Kickapoo village, 30; entertained by the Kickapoo trader, 30, 31; misgivings, 33; "jumping off," 33-46; on the St. Joseph trail, 48-62; reaches the "Big Blue," 62; in camp, 64; a further addition to the party, 69; in the Platte Valley, 76; hunting buffalo, 82-84, 90, 266-268; a predicament, 89; lost on the prairie, 94-97; at the South Fork of the Platte, 100; takes leave of Captain C——'s party, 104; at Scott's Bluff, 108; among the Dahcotahs, 110; in Old Smoke's village, 111; a matrimonial bargain proposed, 114; entertained by Richard, 116, 117; reaches Fort Laramie, 119; at Fort Laramie, 120-138; visits an Indian lodge, 135; enjoys a dog-feast, 138; plans to be present at the rendezvous at "La Bonté's camp," 140; forced to give up his plan, 141, 142; his illness, 142; hires reinforcements, 142, 143; in danger from the Crows, 149; his experiences with Paul at Fort Laramie, 151-156; his adventures returning to camp, 158-165; entertained by the Dahcotah, 179; visits the "Whirlwind," 185, 186; scenes in his camp, 186-190; sick in camp, 191, 192; ill-luck, 193-202; at La Bonté's camp, 203; hunting Indians, 204-231; at Bitter Cottonwood Creek, 209; at the lodges of the Ogillallah, 231, 234; visits the Big Crow, 237-247; return of his illness, 249, 251; as a "fire medicine," 278; in Big Crow's lodge, 280-286; visits White Shield, 287, 288; breaks camp, 298; a threatened attack, 299; in the Black Hills, 305-308; a mountain hunt, 310-325; passage of the mountains, 326-345; rejoins Shaw at Fort Laramie, 343-345; bids adieu to Fort Laramie, 348; at "Goché's Hole," 350; at Bisonette's camp, 352; entertained by the Stabber, 354; at Cherry Creek, 366; at Boiling Spring Creek, 370; at Pueblo, 370-374; at the Mormon settlement, 375; at Bent's Fort, 377-380; on the Upper Arkansas, 388; Indian alarms, 388-401; among the Arapahoes, 392-397; a buffalo chase, 405-413; the buffalo camp, 414-433; down the Arkansas, 434-454; returns to the settlements, 455-466.

"Parks," the, 177.

Parks, Chief, 20.

"Pauline," Parkman's mare, 207,