MISCELLANEOUS.

ANOTHER ROYAL PERSONAGE FOR THE EXHIBITION.—Letters from Constantinople to the 28th of June announce the arrival there, from Egypt, of his Majesty Ibrahim Pacha, the eldest son of the Ouale, with a numerous suite, for the purpose of visiting the Exhibition. It was in Mr. Robert Cocoleni, a native of Egypt, who for many years at Bagdad, and who, I believe, now has been engaged on interpreter, that His Majesty is distinguished as a very enlightened Turkish gentleman, of a very prepossessing appearance, and of a very mild, and, I may add, a very amiable character, and, in the way of entertaining, he has one most, in the way of entertaining, he has one most, in the way of entertaining, he has one most