INCREASE of our population for last year nearly 30,000, or 15 percent, according to the statistics of our city directory, which should be a reliable authority. Toronto has undoubtedly taken a start and the advance next year may be still greater, hence the upward tendency of real estate. Our clients all made money last year, and some of them large amounts. We are careful to offer only safe investments, in central city property, and only where there is sure profit for our friends.
