ALL THE SEASON'S SPORTS

TO TAKE THE PLACE OF SADIE MAC

Visitors to Lexington, Ky., this fall have come away from the blue grass town full of stories about the speed shown by the yearlings of Todd, which are in training there. Everyone pronounces the black yearling colt, Lord Tintorn, the most sensational yearling trotter they have ever seen. He is by Todd out of Paronella dam of Country Jay (2.10¼).

The youngster was purchased during the meeting by Miss Katherine L. Wilkes, for $6,000 and if nothing happens to him he may possibly take the place of the ill-fated Sadie Mac (2.06¼) which Miss Wilkes had the misfortune to lose just when it looked to be the coming trotter.

NEWS OF THE BOXERS

One of the most interesting of the approaching matches is that arranged between Willie Lewis and Joe Walcott, to be decided in Detroit on October 31. This will be a championship battle, and it will be the first time that the Black Demon has defended his title of welterweight champion since he was shot in the hand some months ago. It remains to be seen how the injury to his hand and the long lay off has affected the fighting of the black fellow. If he has fallen off in ability very materially it will be a Waterloo for him. Lewis is not only a strong fellow, but he has a wallop that is second to no man's of his weight. If Walcott has any doubt as to his ability to retain his title he certainly has selected a formidable man for the opening battle.

Should Lewis succeed in wresting the laurels from Walcott then an ideal battle would be one between Lewis and Jimmy Gardner for the welterweight honors. Gardner has been romancing to the effect that he can make the high-weight limit and that he is in line for a bout with Gans or Battling Nelson. As a matter of fact, Gardner is a genuine welter and should cease flirting with the lightweight boys.

Jack (Twin) Sullivan, by defeating Tommy Burns, who had practically beaten Hugo Kelly, a protege of Tommy Ryan, has brought himself to the attention of the redoubtable middleweight champion. Sullivan fought a series of drawn battles with Jack O'Brien in the Klondyke, but he will find it a difficult matter to fight Tonsilitis Tommy to a draw. It looks very much as if Ryan had made up his mind to avenge the indignities put up on his favorite, Hugo Kelly, and would give the larger of the Sullivan twins a hard argument.

That none of the English boxers intends to try his luck in America is shown by the announcement that Bowker, who has grown too heavy for the bantam class, has graduated into the featherweight division and that Owen Moran claims the bantam championship title of England and will defend it against all comers. Jabez White, also, who was to be brought back here with a great flourish and matched with Battling Nelson (just fawncy) is now asking that some good man be sent over there to meet him on his own stamping ground. White now has come to a realization that the American sporting contingent has no use for losers, and all the hot air that was fed to him about a return to this country and a match with the winner of the Britt-Nelson encounter was simply to make his journey home as pleasant as possible.

The chances are that Abe Attell will meet Bowker for the worlds' featherweight title on Nov. 23, and the match-maker of the National Sporting Club has offered Frankie Neil a chance to fight Moran in London immediately after the holidays. It is not improbable that Terry McGovern may be induced to go across to give battle to White.

In any event a bout with a clever sparrer like the O'Brien person will be most excellent experience for the new heavyweight. It certainly looks like good judgment on the part of Delaney. The worst that can happen to Kaufman is to be outpointed and if he is there will be no disgrace in it.

That windy fellow, Frank Gotch, who has been threatening to beat all the heavyweights on the globe, including Jeff, recently got his quietus in a bout with a novice named Weeks. Gotch was put out in ten rounds and fought like a tyro. Gotch is a good wrestler, but he has no business in the prize ring.

BALDWIN AND DESHLER DRAW

SCHOONER SEIZED

Canning Packet Taken in Charge for Violation of Rules---Liquor Smuggling.

Digby, N. S., Oct. 24—(Special)—Acting under instructions of Customs Inspector Jones, the schooner Canning Packet was seized Saturday by Customs Officer Forbes Jones for entering the port of Weymouth from a United States port without reporting at the customs house, and sailing again for Belleveau's Cove, where the captain reported. The vessel was released on the captain depositing the necessary amount to cover the fine.

Customs Inspector Jones has also caused the arrest of the master and supercargo of the schooner Mary, which was seized at Glace Bay for landing liquors without the payment of duty. The trial takes place at North Sydney Friday. This is a case in which the Mary started after having been detained by the government cruiser Gladiator for alleged violation of the customs law. She subsequently cleared for Glace Bay with a large quantity of St. Pierre liquor on board and arrived there without it, her cargo having been landed along the coast.

The trial of those connected with landing of liquor from the American yacht Mischief at Mira (C. B.) will also take place at the same time.

Inspector Jones says he is going to follow up the cases of smuggling which have developed within the past year. A few years ago smuggling was quite common on that coast but after Mr. Jones succeeded in obtaining 32 convictions for violations of the customs law in one year smuggling at times was almost entirely stopped. Strict measures will again be enforced until the business is checked.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT

One Penobsquis Lad Wounds Another While Fooling With a Rifle.

Penobsquis, Oct. 24—(Special)—A peculiar shooting accident occurred here this afternoon. A lad named Walter Welling was trying what was thought to be a defective cartridge in a 22-calibre rifle. Earl Gross, another little boy, was watching. The cartridge proved good, for the rifle went off and the bullet went through the calves of both the Gross boy's legs, inflicting a rather serious injury. Dr. Pierson, of Sussex, was summoned and dressed the wounds. The lad will soon be well unless unexpected complications set in.

In St. Andrew's church at 11 o'clock Thursday morning there will be a united thanksgiving service, the congregations of St. Andrew's, St. Stephen's and Calvin Presbyterian churches and the Congregational church uniting. The clergymen to take part are Rev. W. S. Pritchard, Rev. Mr. Cunningham, of Toronto, and Rev. D. Lang.

THE TURF

Nashua Races

Nashua, N. H., Oct. 24.—Several hundred enthusiasts were present today at the opening of the light harness meeting at the track at the Nashua fair grounds. There were two events on the card, the 2.17 trot and the 2.20 pace, the latter event being unfinished.

In the 2.17 trot Mary Tell, the favorite, disappointed the talent and Essex Maid took the race in straight heats.

Little Tuff, favorite in the 2.20 pace, failed to develop the necessary speed and when the race went over after five heats had been paced, Ossie I led with two heats to her credit. The summary:

2.17 Trotting; Purse, $400.

Essex Maid, b. m. (Cox)	1	1	1
Baron Wilkes, blk. g. (Kinney)	2	3	2
Obed, b. g. (Lawrence)	3	2	3

Little Tuff, Lady St. Croix, May H., also started.

Time—2.21¼; 2.25; 2.21¼; 2.21¾; 2.21¼.

Woonsocket Races

Woonsocket, R. I., Oct. 24.—Favorites at the local track today fared badly, none of them coming up to expectations, although in the 2.20 trot, which went over, Yates, the choice, managed to capture two heats. Summary:

2.25 Trotting; Purse, $300.

Hera Wilkes, ch. m. (Quinn)	1	1	1
Catherine G., b. m. (Gillies)	8	2	2
Hattie King, b. m. (Ernst)	2	3	3

FOOTBALL PROTEST WAS NOT ALLOWED

After debating the question for two and a half hours the executive of the local league last night voted against sustaining the Beavers' protest of Saturday against certain members of the Neptune's team. The claim was that those protested against are not members of the club.

In the absence of the president, Dr. Curran, and until the arrival of the honorary president, I. E. Moore, Heber Vroom acted as chairman. The protest of the Beavers was read, also the reply of the Neptunes' secretary to the effect that all the players protested against were bona fide members of the Neptune Rowing Club.

The protest and reply brought out a brisk and somewhat heated debate. The Beavers' delegates argued that they had been informed that one player on the Neptune team last Saturday had stated after the game that he was not a member. They claimed that even if there players had joined it was not at the regular yearly fee of $10, but only for a nominal fee for football privileges, and from this standpoint they could not be recognized by the executive as bona fide members of the team for which they were playing.

The Neptunes replied warmly that as their club recognized the players referred to as members the executive had nothing to do with that phase of the question.

The Carleton representatives wanted the executive to decide as to whether a football member of a club was a bona fide member. They thought that while each club could alone say who were and who were not bona-fide members, the executive should decide who were eligible to play.

The Beavers stated that they knew that some Neptune players had signed applications on the Victoria grounds before the game and said that such methods were questionable and that this fact alone would warrant the executive in disciplinng the rowing club by throwing out the game.

The main difficulty seemed to be in the interpretation of the section bearing on the point. However, a motion by the Beavers to sustain the protest was defeated. The members seemed to think that while this question was an intricate one there was nothing for it but to accept the Neptunes' statement that the protested players were bona fide members. After the vote the meeting adjourned.

FOOTBALL NOTES

A game has been arranged between the Beavers and a team from the H. M. S. Cornwall for Thanksgiving day. This, with Mount Allison on Friday and U. N. B. on Saturday should be sufficient football for the most ardent enthusiast.

The all-St. John team to play an all-Halifax team in the garrison city on Thanksgiving day will leave for there this evening. The line or will probably be: Ellis, full; Farrweather, Miller, Simmons, Thomson, halves; Ledingham, Patterson, quarters, and J. Malcolm, Harrison, Watters, Titus, Farris, Day, Curran and Campbell, forwards.

MILITARY DRILL IN THE SCHOOLS

Provinces Will Confer on Sir Frederick Borden's Proposition--The Halifax Garrison

Ottawa, Oct. 24—(Special)—The militia authorities are now pretty well satisfied that the way has been cleared for getting control of Halifax garrison at a very early date. General Grierson has made strong representations to the imperial government, which are expected to expedite the departure of the imperial troops.

Sir Frederick Borden says that all the provinces have agreed to hold a conference to consider his proposition for military training in the schools. This conference will be held shortly in Ottawa. The scheme will not entail any expense on the provinces. The cost will be defrayed by the dominion. The minister of militia has already fully explained his views in regard to this matter.

There was a short meeting of the cabinet this afternoon. An order-in-council was passed closing the purchase of the Petawawa central military training camp. Two townships were presented by the Ontario government for the site, and the balance was purchased from farmers and lumbermen in the vicinity.

General Lake will leave tomorrow to attend the shamfight in Toronto on Thanksgiving day. Colonel Biggar will go tomorrow night. On Friday morning both officers will go to inspect the new site in Simcoe county to replace the Niagara camp. This will be the military camp for No. 2 district. It will be five miles square. Most of the land has been secured.

W. W. Wainwright, of the Grand Trunk, was here today interviewing the railway commission in regard to the complaints of the millers and apple shippers about the shortage of cars. Mr. Wainwright says that the company ordered several thousand new cars lately, and were awaiting them.

TRUE BILLS AGAINST CUNLIFFE

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 24—The grand jury today returned true bills against Edward George Cunliffe, on two charges of larceny.

BRITT SAYS ITS NOT McGOVERN'S TURN

Willis F. Britt, manager of Jimmy Britt, pride of the Golden West, who went down and out after 18 rounds of battering by Battling Nelson, in the great lightweight contest at Colma, Calif., arrived in Boston Friday. He said:

Ever since the September fight we have fully believed that Nelson's first engagement would be a return match with Britt, to which we are surely entitled. The men have met twice. In 20 rounds Britt gained the decision over Nelson last December, and we did not hesitate to give Nelson another opportunity in a long-distance match at 45 rounds. This time Nelson won, and now it is up to him to agree to a third and deciding encounter.

McGovern, who has just shown some sort of return to his old form, should wait for his turn. Ahead of him in the natural course of events are Eddie Hanlon, Willie Fitzgerald, Aurelio Herrera and Jimmy Gardner, all of whom challenged Nelson in the ring at Colma.

KAUFMAN AND HART MATCHED

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 24—Marvin Hart, the champion heavyweight pugilist, today accepted the offer of the Colma Club of San Francisco for a match with Al Kaufman, the club's offer made through Bill Roche, calling for an unlimited round fight for a purse of $15,000. The offer is contingent on Kaufman winning Friday night over Jack O'Brien in San Francisco.

BASKET BALL

One of the important events of Thanksgiving evening, will be two basket ball games to be played in St. Paul's (Valley) school house commencing at 7.30. The first game will be played between St. Paul's Young ladies and the second team of St. Paul's Y. M. A. The ladies know the game well and will make it a warm fight for the boys. The second game will be played between the Moncton Y. M. C. A. and St. Paul's Y. M. A. (1st team). This has been specially arranged, and will be a very exciting game. The local boys have been putting in some hard practices and should receive liberal patronage Come and bring your friends. Doors will be opened at 7.00 p. m. Admission 10 cents.

THE FAMOUS POLLARDS

Pollard's Australian Juvenile Opera Company, forty strong, will occupy the York Theatre on next Monday night. This band of talented children are recent arrivals from Australia, and this is their first hearing in this part of Canada. They have been touring since January in the art of the stage, their specialty being of the most complete character. The organization has been in existence for over 20 years, and is recruited from a school in Melbourne, where clever youngsters are taught to sing and portray parts. Their ages range from seven to eighteen, and they are accompanied by a school teacher. The repertoire for the first week is as follows: Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, "A Runaway Girl;" Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, "The Belle of New York;" Wednesday matinee, "Pinafore;" Saturday matinee, "The Lady Slavey." The sale of seats is now on.

ONE VIEW OF IT

Glasgow Herald Takes Advantage of Nelson Centennial to Point Out Canada's Duty to the Motherland.

Montreal, Oct. 24—(Special)—A special London cable says: Commenting on the colonial celebrations of Nelson's centennial the Glasgow Herald says: "Their patriotic ebullience may be nothing better than a coincidence of the moment and mood. One can only regret that the part the navy plays, as the very buttress of the empire, is so slightly, almost slightingly, acknowledged, and how imperfectly the duty of contributing to its upkeep is understood.

"It is, no doubt, natural for Canadians to assert that they, who pay nothing, would prefer to build and maintain their own navy, but they cannot have the least illusion that a Canadian fleet would be equal to any the United States could send up the St. Lawrence. It is in the present circumstances as remote as Sirius.

"The British navy is a fact, and whether the colonies drop doles into the hat with an air of willing philanthropists or make wry faces over giving nothing, they are indebted for that protection which they cannot provide themselves.

"The twentieth century signal is that Britain expects her colonies to do their duty, and has for some time been ready for hoisting by the British taxpayer."
