FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

HARCOURT

Harcourt, June 26—Miss Dorothy Dunn arrived on Friday afternoon from Winnipeg to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Dunn. Miss Dunn has been on the teaching staff of the Winnipeg schools for the past year.

Miss Jennie Wathen and Miss Iva Ward returned on Saturday last from the Normal school, Fredericton. Miss Ward will spend a few weeks in town before leaving for her home in New Glasgow.

Rev. R. W. Anglin, who spent several days of last week with friends in town, returned on Saturday to his home in Windsor.

Miss May Ward, a student of Halifax Ladies' College is at home for the summer vacation.

Miss Louise Cumming entertained very pleasantly a number of her school friends on Saturday evening at a floral party. The guest of honor was Miss Agnes Best, who will leave shortly for her home in Dorchester.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Buckley, of Bathurst, spent the week-end with the latter's mother, Mrs. James Buckley.

Miss Viola Fahey was in the village last week, writing the examinations for entrance to high school.

Mrs. Harry Miller and little daughters, Effie and Frances, spent the early part of the week with Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McIntosh, and left on Thursday for Boston where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Turner, of Alberton (P. E. I.), is in town, the guest of Mrs. Kirby Wathen.

Miss Jessie Dunn returned on Thursday from Chipman where she was attending the wedding of her cousin, Miss Richardson. Miss Dunn and her mother are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Dunn.

G. H. Allan, of Dalhousie Jct., and Gilchrist Allan, of Moncton, were also week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dunn.

Mrs. Otty Bailey and daughter, Marion, were in town last week, guests of Mrs. Bailey's mother, Mrs. Livingstone.

Rev. J. R. McKay and Mrs. McKay returned on Thursday from Chatham, where they were guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson.

Mrs. Robert Campbell is spending the summer in St. John, where her husband is employed with the C. P. R.

Miss Evangeline Saulnier was hostess at a nicely appointed tea on Wednesday evening last when Miss Agnes Best was the guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Rankine McWilliam, of Ottawa, are enjoying a holiday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McWilliam, Ford's Mills.

Miss Aggie Wellwood arrived last week from Reading (Mass.), to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Robert Wellwood.

ANDOVER

Andover, N. B., June 26—Miss Hazel Watson spent part of last week at Gladwyn visiting her grandmother, Mrs. John Jamer.

Mrs. H. L. Alcorn entertained a few friends at a tea party last Monday afternoon in honor of Evan Kuppey, of Toronto.

Miss Lizzie Walker with Messrs. Thos. and Edward Walker, of South Tilley, were guests of their sister, Mrs. Stanley Ritchie, last Monday.

Evan Kupkey, of the Bank of Montreal staff in Toronto, who has been spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kupkey, returned to Toronto last Tuesday.

George Burtt, of Hartland, spent several days last week in the village, the guest of his sister, Mrs. T. J. Carter, and Mr. Carter.

Lieut. George B. Wootten, who was left in charge of the soldiers in the hospital and those out on leave, left last Monday with his men for St. John to join his company.

Mrs. Herbert Dionne went to Middle Simmonds on Wednesday, where she will visit relatives.

Mrs. Henshaw with her son, Vaughn Henshaw, and Mrs. A. Ganter, returned on Wednesday from a visit to Grand Falls.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Bessie Kilburn entertained at a very pleasant garden party at her home at Kilburn in honor of the Misses Wallace, Lamont and Gratz. Miss Emma Wootten, Miss Millicent Carter and Miss Marion Kilburn assisted in serving the guests, while Mrs. Kilburn poured tea and coffee. The guests, besides the guests of honor, were Miss Annie Magill, Misses Margaret and Janet Curry, Miss Pearl Waite, Miss Millicent Carter, Miss Emma Wootten, Miss Grace Porter, Miss Gertrude Tibbits, Miss Kathleen Beveridge, Miss Ruth Matheson, Miss Violet Sisson, Miss Sylvia Cronkite, Miss Grace Tompkins, Miss Grace McPhail, Misses Annie and Esme Stewart and Miss Vivian Fowler. The guests went to Kilburn on the afternoon express, returning on the evening train.

Lieut. Sanford H. Jamer, who has had charge of the bridge guard at St. Leonards, has resigned his position there and goes to Ottawa in a few days to join the signal corps. Lieut. Jamer is visiting relatives in the village before leaving for Ottawa.

A quiet wedding took place at the rectory on Wednesday last, when Miss Addie Till, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Till, was united in marriage to Everett Manzer, Rev. J. R. Hopkins performing the ceremony, which was witnessed by a few of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Manzer leave today for St. John, where Mr. Manzer is one of the watchmen at the bridge there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong with Mrs. B. Armstrong and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bishop, motored to Summerville, Carleton county, on Wednesday, returning that evening.

Mrs. George Kinney, of Amesbury (Mass.), is the guest of her brother, Benjamin Beveridge, and Mrs. Beveridge.

Many friends in the village heard with regret of the death of Thomas Wright at Plaster Rock Thursday morning. Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Wright, who was formerly Miss Sisson, of Andover.

Herbert Colwell, who for a number of years has been the popular conductor on the Tobique branch of the C. P. R., has been transferred to the run between Otis and Fredericton. With Mrs. Colwell he left on Wednesday to take up his duties there.

Mrs. S. P. Waite and Mrs. J. A. Perley drove to Grand Falls last Wednesday, where they were guests of Mrs. Perley's nieces, the Misses Fraser.

Miss Carolyn Armstrong is spending a few weeks at Portage Lake (Me.), the guest of her cousin, Miss Cecil Fisher.

Miss Ruth Harper, Miss Clara Kimball and Mrs. M. I. F. Carvell were guests of Miss Annie Stewart on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Wright went to Plaster Rock on Friday to attend the funeral of his grandfather, Thomas Wright. Aaron Sisson also attended the funeral of Mr. Wright.

Harry Richmond, Presbyterian student of Andover, went to Plaster Rock on Friday to conduct the funeral service of Thomas Wright.

The Misses Annie and Esme Stewart entertained the members of the Willing Workers Mission Band on Friday afternoon, when Miss Lamont and Miss Gratz, two of the members who are leaving the village soon, were guests of honor. A dainty supper was served on the verandah, Misses Margaret and Janet Curry assisting in serving. The guests were Miss Lamont, Miss Gratz, Misses Margaret and Janet Curry, Miss Pearl Waite, Miss Gertrude Tibbits, Miss Annie Magill, Miss Frances Tibbits, Miss Jessie Kelly, Miss Ruth Matheson, Miss Kathleen Beveridge, Miss Grace McPhail, Miss Bessie Kilburn, Mrs. J. W. P. Dickison, Mrs. R. W. L. Earle, Mrs. Benjamin Kilburn and Mrs. Wm. Matheson.

W. S. Sutton, of Woodstock, was the guest of Mrs. M. S. Sutton several days last week.

Dyson Wallace, of Fredericton, is the guest of his sister, Miss Mildred Wallace, for a few days.

Miss Mary Balmain, of Woodstock, is making a short visit with Hon. George T. and Mrs. Baird.

Miss Birdena Beveridge, of St. Almo, was the guest of her uncle, Benjamin Beveridge, and Mrs. Beveridge several days last week.

Miss Rosa Hoyt has gont to Houlton (Me.) to make a short visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Hanson and Master Perley Hanson returned from Grand Falls on Thursday, where they had been guests of the Misses Fraser.

Master Sandy McAlary went to St. John on Friday, where he will visit relatives a few days.

Miss Mabel Peat was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Turner, at Aroostook Junction a few days last week.

Mrs. Charles Rolfe and children, of Presque Isle (Me.), are guests of Mrs. Rolfe's sister, Mrs. Turner.

Wendell Jones, jr., of Woodstock, has been spending a few days in the village. While here he has been a guest at Dionne's Hotel.

Miss Margaret Curry and Miss Kathleen Beveridge were tea hostesses at the tennis courts on Saturday. Next Saturday the Woodstock club is to come up to play a tournament here.

Miss Annie Armstrong, of Lickfords, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Van Namee Armstrong.

Mrs. H. B. Kilburn, of Fort Fairfield (Me.), was the guest for over Sunday of Miss Frances J. Tibbits.

Master George Bedell and Miss Inez Bedell came from St. John on Saturday to visit their grandparents, Sheriff and Mrs. James Tibbits.

Master James McKenzie came from St. Stephen on Saturday to spend the vacation with his grandparents, Sheriff and Mrs. Tibbits.

Hiram B. Kilburn, of Fort Fairfield (Me.), was the guest for the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Tibbits.

Mrs. J. W. McPhail returned on Friday from a short visit in St. John.

Guy G. and Paul Porter left on Saturday for a motor trip to Fredericton.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carey, Mrs. Mitchell and children motored from Fort Fairfield (Me.) on Sunday and were calling on friends while in the village.

J. W. Niles has gone up Tobique to the Seven Mile Pool on a fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dinsmore motored from Houlton (Me.) on Sunday and are guests of Mrs. Dinsmore's sister, Mrs. R. B. M. Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Barber came from St. John today and will visit Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Waite for several weeks.

Miss Millicent Carter leaves today for Woodstock to visit her friend, Miss Marguerite McLaughlan.

Mrs. T. J. Carter goes to Woodstock today, where she will be the guest of Miss Mame Clark.

Miss Muriel McDonald goes to her home at Bolestown for a short vacation.

GRAND FALLS

Grand Falls, June 26—The marriage took place at noon Wednesday, at All Saints' church, of Frederick Kertson, Jr., and Miss Irene Sirois, daughter of J. J. Sirois. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue, with hat to match. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Kertson left for Montreal, where Mr. Kertson has an excellent position in the C. P. R. office.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ginn, of Caribou, spent last week in town visiting friends.

Mrs. S. P. Waite and Mrs. J. A. Perley, of Andover, spent a few days in town last week, the guests of the Misses Fraser.

Mrs. F. W. Heckler has returned from Edmundson, where she spent the winter, and has reopened her home here.

Mrs. J. G. Kirkpatrick left on Tuesday to spend several weeks with Mrs. E. F. Powers, at Bear River (N. S.) She expected to meet her husband, Major Kirkpatrick, in St. John, and spend a few hours with his before his departure for Valcartier.

H. V. B. Bridges, principal of the Normal School, spent a day in town last week.

Inspector Doucet made his official visit to the town schools on Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Hanson and Master Perley, of Andover, were in town for a day last week.

Mrs. L. A. Estey, of Woodstock, is visiting her son, C. A. Estey.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffin and Mr. and Mrs. Jones, of Fort Kent, Maine, were in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kierstead, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis and Miss Heward, of Presque Isle, were also in town on Sunday.

Miss Helen Watson has been confined to the house for several days with rheumatism. She is now able to attend to her duties again.

Mrs. Wm. Goodine, of Fredericton, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Regan.

Rev. W. K. Read returned on Tuesday from Winnipeg, where he attended the Presbyterian Assembly. He was accompanied by his niece from Moose Jaw.

Mr. Martin, of the Bank of Montreal staff, was operated on for appendicitis on Monday. He is doing well, and his friends hope to see him out before long.

Mrs. B. A. Puddington is visiting relatives in New Hampshire.

The marriage took place in the R. C. church early this morning of Miss Margaret Sullivan and John McLaughlin, eldest son of the late Bernard McLaughlin. The bride is a popular teacher who has been teaching for the past two years at Rapide de Femme. The bride was dressed in white crepe de chene, with black picture hat. She was attended by Miss Katharine Gilman, who wore cream serge and black picture hat; while the groom was supported by his brother, Frank McLaughlin. After a wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin left for an auto trip to the towns in Maine. On their return they will reside here. All wish them every happiness.

GAGETOWN

Gagetown, June 26—Coburn Harrison, eldest son of Rev. H. H. Harrison, who has been teller in the Bank of Nova Scotia for some time has enlisted with the Seige Battery. Our Gagetown boys are doing their part, both on the recruiting and on the firing lines.

R. P. Robinson, of Riverside, Albert County, came here on Monday to take the place of Coburn Harrison, as teller in the Bank of Nova Scotia. After serving for two days in that capacity he resigned and has volunteered for service in the Seige Battery on Partridge Island.

Mrs. J. R. Dunn, the mother of three soldier boys is spending the week with relatives and friends in St. John.

Mrs. J. A. Casswell, left on Thursday for Digby to where she will be the guest of her brother, Dr. Edward Duvernet and Mrs. Duvernet.

J. L. Allingham was a passenger by the May Queen, to St. John on Thursday, from there he will go to Albert, Albert County for a short stay.

J. S. Sutherland went to St. John on Thursday.

Mrs. R. R. Reid and Master Harry, who have been the guests of friends in Fredericton, returned on Thursday morning.

Private Eldon Belyea, of "A" company, 104th Battalion, is visiting at the home of his brother, William Belyea. This is just to say farewell as his battalion will soon go overseas.

Miss Du Vernet, of Digby, after a fortnight's visit with Dr. J. A. Casswell and Mrs. Casswell, returned to her home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vail, of Madison (Wis.), arrived by the steamer Hampstead on Saturday and will spend the summer at their home here.

Arthur Moore, of D. Moore & Son, was in St. John this week.

Captain Fred. Robinson of the schooner Charles E. Lister, now loading up river, came on the Saturday's evening train to spend the week end with his family. He was accompanied by his neice, Miss Marjorie Erb, of Fredericton.

Miss Mary Dingee, who has been the guest of her brother, Mr. Azor Dingee and Mrs. Dingee, Fort Worth, Texas, since last September, arrived on the train from Fredericton, on Saturday evening and will spend the summer at her home. On the homeward trip, Miss Dingee visited relatives in New York and Boston.

Leo Mahoney was a passenger from Fredericton on Saturday.

Neville Du Vernet of Jamaica Plains, is the guest of relatives here. Mr. Du Vernet is the youngest son of the late H. J. Du Vernet and brother of Gunner F. H. DuVernet of the 7th Seige Battery, now in England.

Two heavy teams for work on the railroad, were here yesterday. After loading a scow with iron rails from the station they proceeded to the headquarters at Oak Point.

Moose are very plentiful around here. Five large animals were seen in one group on the intervale shore opposite the town during the week. Yesterday morning, a resident had his wire fence badly damaged by one of these huge creatures.

The recent wet weather has had a bad effect on the strawberries, especially the wild ones, making them soft and tasteless.

Mr. and Mrs. Hewlett W. Scovil, returned from their wedding journey on Wednesday. In the evening a rousing welcome was given them by their numerous friends and admirers who were assisted by the old-fashioned music of cow bells and tinware. Twelve motor boats were required to bring friends from a distance, and all had a most happy time. Delicious refreshments were served, and many were the good wishes showered on the young couple.

Chesley H. Randall, of Swan Creek, has purchased the farm on Hartt's lake from R. D. Wilson, formerly of Lindisfarne, Northumberland, England, and will soon move there with his family. This is a beautifully situated place and will be better remembered by older residents as the home of the Hon. S. H. Gilbert, M. P.

Mr. Randall is known as a most successful market gardener and has made an excellent choice of a suitable place to continue this business.

Mrs. Harvey Weston returned from St. John on Friday.

Aubery Gaunce was in St. John this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harding were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Sherman Peters, during the week.

APOHAQUI

Apohaqui, June 26—Of tae vast throng of people, numbering in the vicinity of 2,000 attending the Kitchener memorial service held by the 104th Battalion, C. E. F., on the camp grounds of Sussex on Sunday afternoon, a large number were representatives of the homes of this village and vicinity who desired to pay their last respects to the late hero and join in the impressive service, made doubly so as it was almost on the eve of the departure of the battalion which is very near and dear to the hearts of the Kings county people, containing as it does more Kings county boys than has any battalion previously going overseas.

In the vast assemblage nearly everyone present had a relative or friend in the 104th whom they wished to greet and express Godspeed on the journey across the ocean.

Murray Baird, Fredericton, spent Wednesday with his friend, Colby H. Jones.

THE CHIEF CHARM OF LOVELY WOMAN

Soft, Clear, Smooth Skin Comes With The Use of "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

NORAH WATSON.

86 Drayton Ave., Toronto, Nov. 10th, 1915.

A beautiful complexion is a handsome woman's chief glory and the envy of her less fortunate rivals. Yet a soft, clear skin—glowing with health—is only the natural result of pure Blood.

"I was troubled for a considerable time with a very unpleasant, disfiguring Rush, which covered my face and for which I used applications and remedies without relief. After using "Fruit-a-tives" for one week, the rash is completely gone. I am deeply thankful for the relief and in the future, I will not be without "Fruit-a-tives."

NORAH WATSON.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Mr. Jones received a rather serious injury in a runaway accident some weeks ago but is progressing favorably.

G. Palmer Burgess, accountant of government telegraphs, Ottawa, who has been spending a few days with relatives here, left on Sunday for Pictou, where he took passage for the Magdalen Islands on an official visit.

Miss Lena Fenwick is spending this week in Fredericton with her sister, Mrs. G. Clowes Vanwart.

Harley S. Jones, accompanied by D. A. Hewitt and P. G. Burgess, Ottawa, and W. T. Burgess, motored to Canaan last week on a fishing excursion, returning with a good catch.

Mrs. D. A. Hewitt and little daughter, Jeanne, of Ottawa, who have been the guests of relatives here, are at present with Mrs. Hewitt's sister, Mrs. M. H. Parlee, of Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Small and family have removed from the village and taken up their residence in St. John, much to the regret of their many friends here.

D. A. Hewitt, government architect, Ottawa, who with Mrs. Hewitt has been the guest of relatives here for a few days, returned to the capital early this week.

The Misses Mary and Nina Steeves, Campbellton, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wright.

Miss Evelyn Erb was a visitor to St. John last week.

Miss Madge Chapman, Sergeant-Major Geo. K. Chapman, of the 104th, and Harry H. Chapman, of Sussex, were Sunday guests of their sister, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Secord.

Jones Bros.' river drivers are once more attempting to bring down the remainder of their logs which have been held up on account of low water. The recent heavy rains have swollen the streams and they are now quite confident of success. The logs at the mill are now almost through sawing the stock at present on hand.

BATHURST

Bathurst, N. B., June 26—Mr. and Mrs. Francis Elhaton have returned from their bridal trip. During their absence they visited friends on Prince Edward Island.

Mrs. J. McIntyre, of Campbellton, was for a few days recently here to visit her daughter, Mrs. D. Clay White, and her son, Major McIntyre, before he left for Valcartier.

Messrs. Edgar and Lawson Trueman, of St. John, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard DeGeer.

Miss Ruth Gilbert and Master George Gilbert have returned from Windsor (N. S.) to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gilbert.

A very welcome visitor in town last week was Basil Johnson, of Richibucto, who was here for a few days with the band of the 165th Battalion.

A marriage of much interest is to take place at the end of the month, that of Miss Lou Ferne Abbott, daughter of Mrs. W. J. Kent, and Archibald Alexander McDiarmid, of Toronto.

Mrs. Jos. Spear, of Sussex, is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. G. Fenwick.

On Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the Church of the Sacred Heart, Miss Nellie Florence Salter, youngest daughter of Thomas Salter, was married to Frank Forrest. Rev. J. Voutour performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of friends and relatives. Miss Annie Currie, of Belledune, attended the bride, while the groom was supported by Thomas Salter, jr., brother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Salter will reside here, where the groom is in the employ of the Bathurst Lumber Company.

Notwithstanding the very unpleasant weather on Tuesday morning relatives and friends flocked to the I. C. R. station to bid farewell and wish Godspeed to the boys of D company of the 132nd Battalion, who left that day for Valcartier. The members of this company have during their stay in town won the respect of the citizens by their behavior and they will ever live in the memory of the Bathurst people.

A quiet marriage took place at the Church of the Holy Family on Sunday evening, when John Gilmore, formerly of Chatham, and for some time leader of the band of the C. M. B. A., was united by Rt. Rev. Mgr. Varrily to Miss Annie Elsliger, of Dalhousie. Mr. and Mrs. P. J. DeWolfe witnessed the ceremony.

T. H. Higginson, of Montreal, was here for some days last week and has taken the Johnson cottage at Carron Point, to be occupied by his family during the summer months.

Miss Emery, of St. John, was a visitor in town last week.

Mrs. Monk and Miss Elizabeth Monk, of Montreal, are spending a vacation at Alston Point.

Miss Edna Wilbur has gone to Woodstock to spend a month with her aunt, Mrs. John Thompson.

Mrs. Mowat Campbell arrived during the week from Montreal and will reside in Bathurst.

Mrs. Nickerson, who has been for some time on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. F. McCarthy, returned last week to Campbellton, accompanied by her little granddaughter, Carmelitte McCarthy.

SALISBURY

Salisbury, June 26—Albert E. Trites, jr., who has completed his studies at the Rothesay Collegiate School, reached home last week. Young Mr. Trites took an active part in sports and held a school record and also won out in the interscholastic contests in the 100 yards dash.

Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Chapman, of Petitcodiac, were in Salisbury last week visiting their former home before removing to their new circuit.

Miss Marjory Robinson, of Moncton, is spending a few days here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Trites.

Mr. and Mrs. William Blakney, of Petitcodiac, spent Sunday with Salisbury friends.

Salisbury village was thronged with visitors on Sunday evening last, the occasion being the annual church parade of the Salisbury Orangemen. Quite a number of visiting members of sister lodges were present. The county master, Leonard Gay, of Victoria Mills Lodge, was present and took part in the proceedings. A notable figure in the parade was William H. Best, of River Glade, a gentleman 97 years of age, probably the oldest Orangeman in Canada.

The procession, headed by the Salisbury Cornet Band, formed up at the hall shortly after 7 o'clock and presented a smart appearance. After a short march out they proceeded to the United Baptist church, where the annual sermon was delivered by Rev. N. A. Macneill, pastor of the church. The large number of visitors were also present. Pastor MacNeill's sermon was an able and appropriate effort and was listened to with keen appreciation. A fine programme of music was furnished by the church choir and male chorus.

The members of the Salisbury Cornet Band under the leadership of H. N. Crandall are to be congratulated on the splendid progress they are making. It is understood that the band will give an open air concert at the bandstand on Wednesday evening.

Two vacancies will occur on the Salisbury superior school teaching staff at the end of the current term, Principal Barnett and Miss Alma Weldon, of the intermediate department, having tendered their resignations.

ST. MARTINS

St. Martins, June 26—M. S. MacPhail, St. John, spent the week-end in the village.

Miss Muriel Boyer, who has been attending Normal School at Fredericton, has returned home.

Mrs. Horace H. Hutchings, of Montreal, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. E. Gillmor.

Mrs. Samuel Beggs and sister, Miss Mary Brown, of Winnipeg, are the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Brown.

Mrs. A. F. Bentley and son Frazer are visiting relatives in Boston.

Miss Margaret Cutten has returned home, after spending the past week in St. John.

Mrs. James H. Moran, of Montreal, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Gillmor.

James Wishart, of St. John, spent several days in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Titus motored to Norton (N. B.) They were accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Jacob Titus, who will visit relatives there.

Miss Elizabeth Vaughan, of St. John, is visiting relatives in the village.

Mrs. Annie Dimock has returned home after spending several weeks at Sackville.

A. Bradshaw, who has spent several months in the village, has returned to his home at St. John.

Mrs. James A. Scrimgeour has returned to her home in Trinidad (B. W. I.)

Mrs. William Smith has returned home, after spending several days in St. John.

YARMOUTH

Yarmouth, N. S., June 24—One of this county's most highly esteemed citizens passed away at Hebron on Sunday last in the person of John S. Patten, aged 78 years. He was a son of the late Stephen Patten and for many years was one of the firm of Patten & Co., shoe manufacturers. After that firm retired from business and up to within the past year or so he conducted a small factory for the manufacture of children's footwear. Mr. Patten is survived by a widow and three children.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mount Pleasant avenue, Montreal, on Wednesday of last week of Miss Sarah Gladys Williams, daughter of Mrs. T. P. Williams, to Dr. Douglas Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. P. Robbins, of this town.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Nettie Seaman, Salem, when her only daughter, Miss Gladys Seaman, was united in marriage to John Pierce McKown, of Boston. The bride looked very pretty in a traveling suit of blue silk and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas. She was given away by her uncle, James F. Landers, while her brother, Sergt. J. Kenneth Seaman, supported the groom. Rev. Mr. Bezanson performed the ceremony. After luncheon was served the happy pair took passage by steamer Prince Arthur for Boston, where they will reside.

The marriage took place on Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Eldridge, Queen street, when their eldest daughter, Miss Beatrice May Eldridge, became the bride of Edward Keddy, of Bridgewater. The bride wore a gown of white silk with the regulation veil. Rev. Mr. Bezanson performed the ceremony. After luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Keddy left on the D. A. R. for Halifax. The bride's traveling suit was of blue serge. They will reside in Bridgewater.

Miss Katherine Farish, who has been spending the winter in New York and other American cities, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hull, of Allston (Mass.), have arrived here, and will spend the summer.

Mrs. Joseph Mullen, of Montreal, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. P. Robbins.

Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Flint arrived home from Ottawa on Wednesday afternoon.

Arthur F. Trefry, of Boston, arrived here on Wednesday and is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Trefry.

Walter DeWolf is on a visit to Boston and New York.

Miss Lillian Chisholm, of Boston, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Findlay W. Chisholm, Church Hill.

Mrs. E. Y. Rowland, of Halifax, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thurston, Cliff street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kirk have returned home from a visit to Halifax.

Mrs. Everett S. Durland, who has been spending the winter in Everett (Mass.), has returned home.

Capt. John W. Anderson, who has been on a trip to Boston, has arrived home.

Charles H. Cahan, of Montreal, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Cahan, Hebron.

Rev. W. G. Lane, of St. John, arrived in town on Monday evening for a few days' visit.

Miss Sarah McConnell, of Chegoggin, was a passenger by steamer Prince Arthur on Wednesday morning from Boston.

Miss Jennie Hitchens, of Hebron, who has been spending the winter in the United States, arrived home on Wednesday morning.

Albert Lewis, of New York, arrived here on Wednesday morning and is visiting his mother, Mrs. T. M. Lewis, Argyle street.

Mrs. F. G. J. Comeau, of Halifax, arrived here on Tuesday evening and returned to the above place on Wednesday morning.

Miss Ella Moir, of Massachusetts, is spending a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Moir, Milton Highlands.

F. K. Ormiston, assistant superintendent of the H. & S. W., is in town on a business trip.

Capt. Alvin Simms left on Wednesday evening for Boston.

Walter W. Wilson was a passenger by steamer Prince Arthur on Wednesday evening for Boston.

Pte. Alfred Falkner, of Windsor, arrived in town on Thursday evening and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goudey.

Mrs. Thorburn, of Ottawa, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Catherine Moody, Forest street.

Mrs. W. B. Middleton, of New York, arrived in Yarmouth on Wednesday morning for Newfoundland, on a salmon fishing trip.

Dr. and Mrs. William Barnes, of Lexington (Mass.), arrived in Yarmouth on Wednesday morning and will spend the summer at their cottage at Pleasant Lake.

Miss Maud Butler, who has been spending the winter at her home in Hebron, left to return to Boston on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Parker and son, who have been visiting in Boston, arrived home on Wednesday morning.

CHIPMAN

Chipman, June 28—Mrs. R. J. Plint and son, Lawson, who have been visiting friends in St. John, returned home on Thursday. They were accompanied by Mrs. John Plint, of St. John, who will remain here for some time.

Miss Helen Baird, who has been attending Halifax Ladies' College, came home on Saturday for the summer vacation.

Miss Bessie Orchard returned on Friday from a visit with relatives in St. John.

A. C. Clarke, who has been relieving in the Bank of Nova Scotia here during the absence of the manager, H. Burton, returned to St. John on Wednesday.

Mrs. R. L. Simms and son, Graham, were in St. John last week to see Mrs. Simms' brother, John Glass, of the 115th, previous to his departure for Valcartier.

Miss Jessie Dunn, of Harcourt, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Richardson for the past two weeks, returned home this week.

A. W. Orchard left on Thursday of this wek for Haverhill (Mass.), where he expects to spend the summer.

Miss Ida Harper returned on Monday from upper Gagetown, where she had been visting her sister, Mrs. J. Willard McMulkin.

H. M. Hay, of Edmundston, was a guest of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Hay, over Sunday.

Gordon Farris, of Halifax, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Farris.

Basil Dohaney, who has been in St. John for several months, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dohaney.

Miss Jean Elder returned on Friday from Fredericton, where she has been attending the Normal school.

Dr. A. F. Armstrong was in St. John over Sunday, a guest of his son, H. M. Armstrong, of the 115th, who left on Monday morning for Valcartier.

Rev. F. W. Wentworth, of St. John, was in the village this week.

Mrs. George Barnjum and three children, of Phillips (Me.), are visting Mrs. Barnjum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. tSevens.

Miss Nellie Harper and Miss Ida Harper were guests of Miss Lida Miller, Newcastle Bridge, over Sunday.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fleming, when their daughter, Jennie, was united in marriage to Wilson Fraser, son of Mrs. Isaac Fraser, by Rev. E. E. Mowat. Only the immediate relatives were in attendance at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Fraser left on Friday for Baker Brook, where Mr. Fraser is employed with the Fraser Lumber Co. The bride traveled in a very pretty blue suit, with hat to match.

A very pleasant evening was spent in the parlors of the Presbyterian church on Monday evening, when a number of the members of the Presbyterian church gathered and presented Miss Marion Dunn, who has been organist of the church for several years, and who is leaving Chipman this week, with an address and a purse of gold. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Roy, of Woodstock, are guests of relatives in the village.

John McAllister, of St. John, is spending a few days in the village.

The first tennis tea of the season was held at the club house on Friday afternoon, Mrs. G. H. Ring and Mrs. A. G. Farris being the hostesses. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. King, Mr. and Mrs. Arch. Ferris, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ritchie, Miss Nell Harper, Miss Jessie McEwen, Miss Gladys Brett, Miss Margaret Price, Miss Margaret Porter, Miss Marion Dunn, Miss Geraldine Armstrong, Miss Damie Armstrong, Miss Esther Baird, Miss Carrie Morrison, A. C. Clark (St. John), Gerald King and R. G. Orchard.

Miss Viola Hassan, of the Provincial Normal school, is spending the vacation at her home here.

Senator G. G. King left on Friday on a trip to the west.

Friends here learn with regret that Private Burton Stilwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stilwell, of this place, and who is at the front, lost an arm during the recent fighting.

HAMPTON

Hampton, June 26—The graduation exercises of the Hampton Consolidated school were held in the assembly hall on Friday evening, June 23, the seating capacity of the room not being sufficient to accommodate the large audience present.

The graduating class, numbering fifteen, was the largest in the history of the school. The class motto was "Non sibi sed patriae," and the class colors, royal blue and battleship grey.

Following is the list of the graduates in order of merit: Frederic Arthur Patterson, Pearl Dorothy Fraser, Flora Olive DeLong, Francis Olive Seely, Phyllis Margaret McGowan, Grace Glover Fraser, Lillian Evangeline Wiggins, Alberta Gertrude Crandall, Grace Viola Darling, Arvilla Loretta Stafford, Mary Ligouri Smith, Gertrude Darling Hill, Frederic Elder Chipman, Grace Katharine Gallagher, Treva Marguerite Smith.

The programme, with names of medal, prize and certificate winners, was as follows:

Chorus—June Processional Song.

Opening address by Principal C. T. Wetmore.

Piano duet, Qui Vive, by Miss Howard and Miss Alward.

Presentation of F. M. Sproule's prize for best standing in household science, by Rev. O. N. Chipman, to Miss Olive Seely.

Presentation by William Smith of Miss Ruth Thurber's prize for best standing in English grammar and literature in grade IX. to Miss Hilda Palmer.

Class prophecy, by Miss Alberta Crandall.

Chorus—Merry June.

Presentation by Rev. A. H. Crowfoot of the prize donated by himself for literature, to Miss Phyllis McGowan; Fred Patterson and Miss Baily receiving honorable mention.

Presentation by Major Brooks, of Hon. Chief Justice McLeod's gold medal for classics, to Miss Annie Gallagher.

Solo—"A Song of Canada", by Miss Kathleen March.

Presentation by Rev. A. H. Crowfoot of Humphrey Memorial Medal for mathematics to Fred Patterson, Miss Flora DeLong receiving honorable mention.

Presentation by Dr. Wetmore, of the prize donated by himself for natural science, to Miss Grace Fraser, honorable mention being made of Miss Annie Gallagher, Miss Pearl Fraser and Fred Patterson.

Class valedictory by Fred E. Chipman.

The presentation by Mr. S. H. Flewwelling of the highest standing certificates were as follows:

Grade IX—First, Douglas Humphrey; second, Ella Bovaird.

Grade X—First, Annie Gallagher; second, Roy Chipman.

Grade XI—First, Fred Paterson; second, Pearl Fraser.

Address to graduating class by Major A. J. Brooks, 104th battalion, C.E.F.

Class son by graduating class.

National anthem.

The closing exercises of the remaining grades, including those from I. to VIII, were held in the assembly hall last Monday afternoon, the programme being as follows:

Chorus—June Song.

Mother Goose Song—Pupils of Grades I, II, III, IV.

Recitation by Carol Chipman.

Sunflower Drill—Grades V and VI.

Recitation—Lilian Campbell.

Recitation—"Who Made This Speech?" by Edith Snodgrass.

The presentation of high standing certificates by Guy Keirstead was made to the following pupils:

Grade I—First, Evelyn Sallows and Gertrude Coleman; second, Ida Lyons and Edith Snodgrass.

Grade II—First, Mabel Bannerman; second, Adeline Seely and Gordon Cooper.

Grave III—First, Elsie Sewell; second, Kilburn King.

Grade IV—First, Bertha Dixon! second, Celia Carney.

Grade V—First, George Langstroth; second, Laura Manning.

Grade VI—First, Burton DeLong, second, Arthur McPherson.

Grade VII—First, Douglas McGowan; second, Sydney Chipman.

Grade VIII—First, Larne Parlee; second; Jean Fowler.

Chorus—Good Luck to the Boys of the Allies.

Presentation by Mr. P. W. Brewster of Mr. F. M. Sproule's prizes for sewing to Miss Nan Saunders and Miss Dorothy Langstroth.

Presentation by Miss Travis of the prize donated by herself for best standing in Grade II to Miss Mabel Bannerman.

Chorus—Merry June.

Presentation by Mr. Brewster of Miss Turnbull's prize for nature study and agriculture to Jack Angevine.

Presentation by Miss M. Travis of Mrs. Palmer's prize for history in Grade VII. to Alphonsus Coleman.

Presentation by Mr. S. H. Flewwelling of High School entrance certificates. The winners were as follows