55th BATTALION

We have the pleasure to reprint below, from the St. Croix Courier, a list of the names of a detachment of the 55th Battalion which left St. Stephen on Monday, May 10, for overseas service. In our "Up-River Doings" last week mention was made of the demonstration on the departure of the men for the front. OBITUARY

MISS MARY MCFARLANE

The remains of Miss Mary McFarlane, who died in Boston on May 11, were brought here by train on Thursday May 13 and taken to the home of her brother, Mr. Arthur McFarlane, Bar Road.

Deceased was a daughter of the late Archibald McFarlane, and leaves to mourn her loss two brothers, Arthur and Alexander, St. Andrews, and one sister, Mrs. John Nesbitt, Cambridge, Mass.

The funeral took place on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the service being conducted by Rev. W. M. Fraser, B. Sc. at the house. Interment was in the family lot in the Rural Cemetrry.

MRS. FRED MITCHELL

The death took place on Sunday morning last at 8 o'clock of Mrs. Fred Mitchell, in her 79th year, after a brief illness of pneumonia.

Deceased lived in Digby, N. S., up to about nine years ago, when she and her husband went to Campobello, where they remained for a short time before moving here. Besides her husband she leaves a son, James, and a grand-daughter, Jennie, St. Andrews, and three brothers George, Joseph, and Stephen Raymond all of Digby. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the service being conducted by Rev. W. M. Fraser, B. Sc.

MR. THOMAS BURTON

The death of Mr. Thomas Burton took place at one o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, May 18, after a lingering illness, in the 51st year of his age. He had been suffering for sometime with cancer of the stomach, and though it was generally known that his illness was likely to prove fatal, the end came suddenly, and was a great shock to his family and to the community in which his whole life had been spent. He endured his painful and insidious malady bravely throughout.

Mr. Burton, who always took a keen interest in town and public affairs, was a man of fine character, genial and affable to all. He was widely known, and held in high esteem by his acquaintances; and in his death the Town will lose a citizen who will be very greatly missed.

At an early age he associated himself with his father in the bakery and grocery business, which he continued for some time after his father's death; but ultimately he abandoned the bakery, and confined his attention to the grocery business, which he greatly extended, and in which he was joined by his son Hazen some time ago.

Besides his wife, there are left to mourn his loss three daughters, Mrs. E. Cecil DeWolfe and Miss Helen, St. Andrews, and Mrs. Frank McVey, St. Stephen; and two sons, Hazen J. and Master William, St. Andrews. Five sisters also survive, Miss Mary, Boston; Mrs. E. Murphy, Camden, Me.; Mrs. Jos. Balkam, Eastport, Me.; Mrs. A. Denley and Miss Margaret, St. Andrews. He is also survived by one brother, Archibald, Cambridge, Mass.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the family and relatives in their sad bereavement.

The funeral will be held this (Thursday) afternoon, at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, of which Order the deceased was a prominent member.

BURRELL PLEADED GUILTY

John H. Burrill, the ex-C. P. R. foreman of the power house at McAdam Junction, pleaded guilty to the charge of falsifying his time books, before Judge Wilson this morning. His Honor will sentence Burrill on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Burrell was brought before Judge Wilson this morning and elected to be tried by him. He pleaded guilty to the charge laid against him by C. H. Baillie, assistant chief of the C. P. R. investigation department, at Montreal. Burrell, who had been foreman at McAdam for some years, was found after careful investigation by the C. P. R. secret service men to have padded the pay roll and defrauded the Company out of large sums of money. He was assisted in this by an Italian laborer named Georgio, who has since fled from the country. The C. P. R. secret service men are on his trail, and he is expected to be rounded up at any time.—The Gleaner, Fredericton, May 17.

The appellate division of the Supreme Court of New York decided on May 14 that it would not interfere with the plan to have Harry K. Thaw's mental status placed before a jury for determination. The court dismissed the prohibitory writ which, if sustained, would have enjoined the Supreme Court from submitting the case to a jury Monday, May 17.
