ATHENS, ONT., JUNE 17, 1880.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND MERRICKVILLE GRAND TRUNK WESTERN TT.

Trains on Same by our Station on the Depot. Local Arrangements Bulled Right Down.

Dr. Preston's majority—245.

Oddfellows nominate their officers on Wednesday evening.

Miss L. Howe is in Almonte this week attending the wedding of her cousin.

Messrs. Aaron Lapointe and W. Dewolfe have leased King's Island for the summer.

The Misses Bell and Mrs. Bellamy, of Brockville, are guests this week of Mrs. Giles.

The annual excursion to Ogdensburg will take place this year, as usual, on the 4th of July.

Mr. Otis Bullis is buying a lot of very fine horses for shipment to American markets.

Owing to rain, the Methodist Sabbath school pic-nic was postponed until Saturday next.

Monday last the Plum Hollow factory, operated by Mr. J. Knapp, turned out 49 cheese.

A hen's egg was laid on our table last week which in circumference measured 7¾ inches.

Alexander Derbyshire conducted service in the Friends' meeting-house on Sabbath afternoon.

During the last two years $19,000 worth of stained glass has been placed in St. Mary's Cathedral, Kingston.

Mr. Parlow, inspector of cheese factories, reports the milk 30 per cent better in Eastern Ontario than last year.

The friends' camp is to be held at Kingston this year, will be an unusually large one, consisting of nearly 3,000 men.

Ballycance pic-nic will be held on Monday, 23rd, and the Athens English Church pic-nic on Wednesday, 25th inst.

In the election for a cane at the Toledo dancing academy last Thursday, the friends of Rev. D. Flemming came off triumphant.

Mr. L. J. Cornell, [illegible], returned to Athens last week and will spend the summer vacation at the home of her mother here.

The Presbyterian Sabbath school will hold a pic-nic at Charleston Lake on Saturday next. Children will meet at the church at 8.30.

The hotels and cottages at Charleston are filling with their summer guests, and the indications are favorable for an unusually good season.

The most and cheapest stock of china, crockery and glassware between Montreal and Toronto is at the China Hall, Brockville.—T. W. Dawes.

Mr. Cyrus Powell, a recent graduate of the Brockville business college, has accepted a position as book-keeper in the office of the B. & W. in Brockville.

On Saturday next Deputy Sheriff Robertson will sell at the Armstrong House a wagon, buggy and land-roller, the property of Edward Green, an insolvent.

Several young men in this town are averse to paying poll-tax, but the machinery for enforcing this law is altogether to effective when put in operation for a demurrer to count for much.

The steamer Armstrong was launched out during last week [illegible] nearly a year. The upper works are all broken, but the hull is very little damaged.

Five burglars were recently arrested at Cardinal by Chief Hoy, of Prescott. On Saturday they were sentenced by Judge McDonald, four receiving six years and 1 five years and six months. All pleaded guilty.

The heavy rains of this spring are likely to work serious injury to the farmers in this county who have low or badly drained farms. Last spring was also wet, and should this season prove equally bad, it will cause a heavy financial loss.

There is considerable difference between the levels of the new and old sidewalk on Reid st. Do the road commissioners wish to encourage our citizens to take a drop? Several bad falls have been caused by this defect in the walk, and it should be fixed at once.

Next week we will furnish every subscriber to the REPORTER (excepting those with whom we have a longer account) with a statement of how their subscriptions stand on our books. [illegible] will take the space now occupied by G. Parish's adv't. in right hand [illegible] of first page for that purpose. [illegible] look out for this statement in [illegible] and read it over carefully, [illegible] of special interest to all.

[illegible] the recent victory of the team over "all west [illegible] taken over [illegible]

[illegible] Leeds county boys, adds the following [illegible] to his letter sending reports of [illegible] to the REPORTER. He is located at Centralia, Kansas, and writes under date of June 5th:—"Haying has been cold, dry and windy; spring crops do not look well. Our sod is good and very short, corn about a foot high and looks well, prospects for fruit very good, strawberries ripened nearly gone, apples as large as walnuts. Times reasonably good."

Apprentices Wanted.

Apprentices wanted to learn dress-making; also, lessons given on the tailor system of cutting. Apply to Miss Eva Riches, one door north of Hiram Holmes', Elgin st., Athens, tf.

Ice Cream.

The W. C. T. U. will hold an ice cream festival in connection with a musical and literary entertainment on Friday evening the 20th of June, in the vestry of the Methodist church. Admission 15c. Come one and all and enjoy a pleasant and profitable evening.

Tourists at Charleston.

The very Rev. Dean Gauthier, of St. Francis Xavier Church, Brockville and the Rev. J. J. Kelly, of Yonge, were on a friendly visit last week to Cedar Park Hotel. Mr. Johnson, its efficient manager, entertained the rev. gentlemen to dinner and treated them to a pleasant sail on the charming lake. The gentlemen after visiting the beautiful hotel, expressed their admiration at the commodities and great comforts of Cedar Park. They informed Mr. Johnson that they would, as soon as their hurried business was over, return to spend some few weeks with him.

Additional Specials.

Since our last issue, the following list of specials have been offered by friends of the Unionville fair:—

For the best loaf of bread, baked in a Perfection stove, prize, a handsome parlor stove, given by the Jas. Smart manufacturing company, Brockville.

For the best 2 loaves of bread, baked from roller process flour, manufactured at the Lyn Roller Mills, prize, $5 in cash divided into 3 prizes, given by Jas. Cumming, proprietor Lyn Mills.

Watch the REPORTER for full particulars as to conditions under which these prizes are givin.

OBITUARY.

We are called upon this week to chronicle the death at his residence in Plum Hollow, on Friday last, 13th inst., of Israel Powell, aged 55 years. Mr. Powell was born and has always resided in Plum Hollow. He was a hardworking, industrious citizen, being the first to start a cheese factory in his section of country. He was one of the many who brought milk at prices unremunerative and consequently lost heavily in his venture. He also engaged in lumbering operations, getting out large quantities of square timber which he sold to Montreal. In all his transactions he maintained the reputation of being a straightforward, honest business man, his greatest failing being that he was too honest for his own pocket when dealing with many of those with whom he had business connection. Some 10 or 12 years ago, he joined the lodge of Masons in this village, continuing a member until the organization of the lodge at Delta, when he connected himself with that lodge. On Sunday last the Masonic fraternity at Delta took charge of the funeral obsequies and, with the assistance of a large deputation from the Athens lodge, performed the last sad rites according to the forms of the order. Nearly 100 teams formed the procession from the family residence to the Baptist chapel at Plum Hollow, where a very eloquent and impressive sermon was preached by Rev. D. D. Sipes, the pastor of the church, after which the remains were deposited in the family burying ground. Mr. Powell leaves a large family, to whom the REPORTER extends heartfelt sympathy over the loss of a kind husband and indulgent father. Peace to his ashes.

The Punkin Holler Nine Quits.

An editorial from a recent issue of the Punkin Holler Weekly Rugle, laments the death of its pet base ball nine in the following touching manner:

They have gone! The darlings of the diamond have evaporated from our midst, and our hearts are bowed down in woe, while we sadly turn us to our patent boiler plate viscera and embossed paste-pots. No more the antics of the tape-wrestler, suddenly taken ill with the cramps, will disturb the serenity of the dry-goods store.

No more will the post office close its pigeon-hole at 8 p.m. sharp. No more will our notes go to protest because the cashier, teller, and clerks of the bank go to spend an American holiday and swell the multitude in whooping up things lively for the heavy sitters.

Alas! The flower has been plucked from the stem, and Punkin Holler is no longer represented among the Great Upper Consolidated Empyrean Base Ball Constellation.

They were the very flower and gems of our choice; they came among us strangers—and have left us within [illegible] and beer bills [illegible] chronic among [illegible] We take no note [illegible] the wilderness we [illegible] Dandy pitcher, and [illegible] one to a distant [illegible] fine glories will be [illegible] cashing creditors. [illegible] deer pants for [illegible] do we sigh for our [illegible] wore a bird-cage, [illegible] and a two-foot [illegible] silence of the [illegible] night, we lay [illegible] open—where of [illegible] to congregate [illegible] glad rapture, [illegible] banner we [illegible] defend [illegible] like a [illegible] boy [illegible] to [illegible] training.
