

ILLUSTRIOUS SEAMEN, &c. 479
tive stocks, and thus the trade sank into a neglect from which, during a length of time, it was incapable of recovering (o).

(o) Coll. voyages, V. 5. p. 665.—Lediard's naval History, V. 2. Folio. p. 558, 459.

BIBLIOTHÈQUE
SAINT-SULPICE

END OF THE THIRD VOLUME.