THE AMUSEMENT WORLD.

A Young and Successful Toronto Manager —Notes of the Stage.

Mr. T. H. O'Neil of the firm of Hudson & O'Neil, managers of Frederick Warde, tragedian, who has been spending his vacation in this city, will leave for Des Moines, Iowa, on Friday morning, where Mr. Warde and company dedicate the opening of a new opera house. Mr. O'Neil was at one time connected with the Grand Opera House here and afterwards represented Mr. O. B. Sheppard's business on the road and finally, last August, took up the reins for himself, meeting with such remarkable success that for the six years Mr. Warde has been starring he has never enjoyed a season so satisfactory, financially and artistically, as that of last.

Mr. O'Neil is a young man in years but of vast experience in business. His methods being original and effective his connection with Mr. Warde has afforded a development of three distinctly primitive features of advertising his star. Although the greatness of Mr. Warde hardly requires the extensive efforts necessary to put forth a minor light of the stage, still before to-day genius in the hands of incompetent managers has sunk into oblivion. Mr. Warde is endowed with a strong robust figure, a powerful flexible voice, a great deal of magnetism, and a pair of sharp bright eyes, which elements are necessary for the heroic tragedies. His repertoire comprises—"Virginius," "The Gladiator" (written especially for Mr. Warde), "Brutus," "Julius Cæsar," "Richard III.," "Damon and Pythias," and "Don Cæsar de Bazan." The past season extended over forty-eight weeks, and in that time Mr. Warde appeared in every city and town of note from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The coming season will last forty-five weeks, and The World is sorry to say Toronto will not have an opportunity of seeing the great actor. It is a mutual disappointment to both Mr. O'Neil and Mr. Sheppard that it is so, but the time Mr. O'Neil had opened Mr. Sheppard had closed and vice versa.

Messrs. Hudson and O'Neil are sanguine of the coming season's business, and The World's worst wish is that their anticipations may be more than realized.

The Cyclorama Progressing.

Good progress is being made with the cyclorama building. Five weeks ago the trenches for the foundations were being dug, and now the walls are up, the roof and the tin shingles on and the track for the moving stage from which the scenery will be hung is being laid.

Miss Hattie Starr.

Miss Hattie Starr, who sang at the Gardens last week, promises to be quite a constellation in the light opera firmament. Her performance of "Girofle-Girofle" and "Olivette" were, to use a mild expression, most artistic and pleasing. Three or four encores were invariably the recognition tendered by the audience for her rendering of "The Drinking Song" and the "Farandole," each of which she embellished with a beautifully graceful dance. Her voice is mezzo-soprano.

At the Theatres.

Sol Smith Russell opens the Grand Opera House to-night in his great comedy "Edgewood Folks." Sol is well-known in Toronto and needs no word of praise from any one. He is recognized as one of the best, if not the best, comedian on the American stage. This is said to be positively his last appearance in Toronto, as he retires permanently from the stage at the close of this season. The sale of seats is now going on at the box office.

The Toronto Opera House was packed to the doors again last night to see "Michael Strogoff." There will be 8 matinees this afternoon.

THE HUSBAND'S STORY

You may talk of commercial union,
You may reason about free trade,
You may prattle about the great big race,
And the boodle that Teemer made.

You may talk till you're almost tired,
You may chire till you come to the end,
But I'll tell you a thing that'll do you good,
Go to WALKER if you need of a friend.

The politics, trades, annexation and all
May be talked of, but don't furnish your place,
While WALKER comes up when you are in need
And proves himself a friend in deed,
He offers you all he has in store,
Lets you pay by the week, a fortnight or more,
Or on terms he's ready to suit your case.

I've bought so I know whereof I speak;
My salary was low, but I married my wife,
I furnished my home on the instalment plan,
And WALKER I'll thank him throughout my life.

From cellar to garret I've all that's required
My kitchen and parlor are furnished throughout;
The bedrooms and "spare roon" are up to the mark;
The prices! competitors are put to the rout.

I am yours without a struggle, the man who met a friend and succeeded in buying on easy terms a complete outfit for a cosy home. The address is 107½ and 109 Queen-street west. I recommend you to call. I have great sympathy for those in need, because I have been there myself. The card left with me reads:

This Popular Summer Resort affords many advantages for those living in Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, Guelph, and their vicinity; being situated only five miles from Hamilton, it can be reached in fifteen minutes, via Hamilton and Northwestern Railway, which runs ten trains daily each way.
There are also a number of steamboats constantly plying between Toronto, Hamilton, and the Beach, giving those who prefer to travel in this way the benefit of the lake breeze.
The "Ocean House" is beautifully located, and offers superior facilities for Boating, Bathing, Fishing, etc.; it is open to the sweep of lake and bay breezes, and absolutely free from mosquitoes. The rooms are large, well ventilated, and arranged for families or parties, one great feature being that everyone has a front one." For further information apply to
