CITY CARS, SEE 'EM GO SAME OLD SIGN--S.R.O.

Strapholders Largely in Evidence at Opening of Gerrard Street Line.

FOUR THOUSAND FARES

Two Cars Ran All Sunday and Did a Roaring Business.

A World reporter took a ride on a Gerrard street civic car yesterday, and at once became a strap hanger. It was the inauguration of a Sunday service on the civic line and from early Sunday morning until late in the evening, every car was well filled. More than that. These cars, which have a seating capacity for about sixty persons, and can carry a hundred passengers, did a standing room only business.

The pay-as you-enter system is in vogue on these cars, and the reporter was forced to ride several hundred yards on the car steps before those before him had entered the car and made room on the platform. He was then informed by the conductor that two cents cash was required, but that if he so desired, he could purchase six tickets, which are good all week, for ten cents. No Sunday tickets are issued by the city. The night fare on these cars is five cents cash only.

Two Cars Running.

From seven o'clock Sunday morning until 11.30 p.m., two cars rendered an eleven minute service on Gerrard street, between Main street and East Toronto terminus, and the connection with the Parliament street line of the Toronto Street Railway Company at Greenwood avenue. To obtain that service yesterday, eight men were required, working in shifts of four men. During the early hours on Sunday and after 11.30 p.m., the regular week night service of the car, each half hour was operated.

To maintain the regular week day service of a seven minute schedule, three cars are in operation, and judging from the results obtained by the two car eleven minute service tried out yesterday, it will not be long before three cars and a seven minute service will be found in operation, the whole seven days of the week.

Taking the conservative average of fifty passengers to the car, and five car trips per hour, the hydro-electric operated civic line carried more than four thousand passengers on the inauguration of its Sunday service. This should pay operating expenses and a little more.

BORDEN MEETING IS ALL ARRANGED

A Great Reception Will Be Given Premier a Week From Tonight.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS

Sir James Whitney and Other Ministers Will Be Heard.

Plans are now well under way for the big Borden meeting, to be held in the Mutual Street Arena a week from tonight. Premier Borden's speech on the naval issue will be his first public utterance of importance on the vexed question since the passage of the naval aid bill, and this fact adds no little special interest to the meeting. Hon. Mr. Borden will deal with the international situation so far as marine armaments are concerned, contrasting the government's policy with that of the Liberal opposition, and justifying the closure in securing passage of the naval aid bill.

The problem of providing accommodation for all who desire to hear the premier is giving much concern to the committee in charge of arrangements. The floor of the Arena is to be reserved for members of the ward associations participating in the procession, to the number of 3500, and the galleries, which will be thrown open to the general public at 7 o'clock, whether ticket holders or not, will at the outside accommodate only about 5000.

The Procession.

The procession, which will form at the York street bridge, will be led by the Grenadiers' Band, wards one and two following. The Queen's Own Bugle Band will lead wards three and four, while the 12th York Rangers will precede wards five and six. The Borden Clubs and the South Toronto Conservative Association will bring up the rear. A place of honor will be found in the line for the Army and Navy Veterans, 100 strong. After the meeting a torchlight procession is expected to escort the premier to the station.

Sir James Whitney, who will speak; Hon. W. J. Hanna, and a number of the provincial cabinet ministers, have already intimated their intention of being present.

MUSTN'T PAY TO SEE NUDE DANCE

It's the Dollar That Makes Performance Improper, Says Paris Court.

Special Cable to The World

PARIS, May 11.—(Copyright.)—Adoree Villany, the Hungarian danseuse, whoe "physiological and psychological" nude dancing earned her a fine in Munich and recently a fine of $40 in Paris, is very indignant at such treatment.

To combat the sentence she organized a tribunal to be presided over by sculptor Rodin, who became the recognized protector of the dancing profession by defending Nijinski from the critics last season. Then she hired a hall to which admission was to be only by invitation issued to artists and litterateurs. Unfortunately for her scheme, a detective succeeded in getting admission by paying a dollar at the door and witnessed the performance.

The artist in nude dancing explained that the art could only be fully expressed by naked dancers, because the soul's rhythm was communicated to the body, which, as an instrument of expression, is more important than the face; therefore the body must be undraped even if the face is uncovered.

The court held that the offense to public morality lay only in the lack of strict enforcement of means of admission, the performance being proper for artists and literary men, but improper for mere paying spectators.

Boy Scouts to Fight Caterpillar Pest

MONTREAL, May 10.—Montreal is threatened with the greatest caterpillar plague it ever knew. The civic authorities issued an appeal to all good citizens to join with them in a war on the pest.

The boy scouts have been enlisted, too, and a big battle is on. Mount Royal is in danger of being stripped of its beautiful foliage unless the scourge is beaten at once. Westmount, Outremont and Montreal are in the fight to save the trees. The cold snap has been a great aid in the undertaking.

HOTELS CROWDED WITH DELEGATES

Hundreds of Visitors Here to Attend Opening of Musicians' Convention.

BAND TO HEAD PARADE

Mayor to Welcome Gathering Which Is Held For First Time in Canada.

The largest convention of musicians ever held on the continent holds forth in Toronto all this week. Hundreds of delegates from all over the United States and Canada arrived in the city yesterday, including the president of this organization, the American Federation of Musicians, Joe. N. Weber, of New York.

"This is the first international convention of musicians to be held in Canada and it speaks well for Toronto as a convention city that it is to be the greatest convention of its kind ever held in America," said President Weber when seen by The World at the King Edward last night.

"This organization, which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, has a membership of more than 70,000, including about 7,000 Canadian members, and has in its membership the leading bands, orchestras and musicians of both countries. Hundreds of delegates are attending this convention from 638 of the cities of the United States and Canada."

Parade Today.

A monster parade is to take place at one o'clock Monday afternoon to the Labor Temple. This will be headed by a band of one hundred pieces, which will be followed by the international officers, the hundreds of delegates to the convention, and the members of the local body.

"The route of the parade, which will form up in the vicinity of the King Edward Hotel, will be King to Church, thence south to Wellington, west on Wellington to Bay, north on Bay to Queen, around the city hall, up James, and thence along Albert and Shuter to the Labor Temple on Church street.

On reaching the Labor Temple they will be welcomed to the city by the mayor, the board of control and Ald. Robbins, the labor member in the city council. This will be followed by addresses by International President Weber, President Edward Jarrow, President Wm. Holl, of the district trades council, Dave Carey, Dominion representative on the international executive, International Secretary M. Miller of St. Louis, and International Treasurer Otto Ostendorf. E. J. Garopp, of Toronto, will be sergeant of arms at the convention, which will hold its meeting at the Labor Temple during the entire week.
