CITY COUNCIL CHAMBER

Was Charmingly Decorated and a Large Audience Was Present.

Complimentary Speeches and Good Music—Labor Meetings Arranged for the Winter—Homestead Loan and Savings Company Will Probably Pay About Fifteen Cents on the Dollar to Shareholders—Another Man Killed at the Y—General News Notes From the Ambitious City.

Hamilton, Oct. 13.—(From The World's Staff Correspondent.)—The Council Chamber of the City Hall looked delightfully bright this afternoon, the occasion being the commencement exercises of the Hamilton Training School for Nurses. The platform was charmingly decorated with flowers and below was a large and fashionable audience. Six lucky graduates received medals and diplomas—Miss Minnie Jamieson, Miss Maggie Hunter, Miss Christina Gordon, Miss F. Roberts, Miss Bertha Miller and Miss Kate Anderson. Miss Miller, who is a niece of the late Dr. Miller, won high praise for obtaining 100 per cent in a number of her subjects. Neat speeches were made by Chairman George Roach, Col. Moore, A. D. Stewart, George E. Tuckett, Dr. McGillivray, Dr. Edgar and W. G. Reid. Stress was laid upon securing a nurse's home at the hospital, and obtaining legislation from the city to make permanent the Hospital Board of Governors. Mrs. Mackelcan and Miss Edgar added to the enjoyment by their singing.

Labor Meetings for the Winter.

Some 20, representing the trades of bricklayers, plasterers, carpenters, etc., met at St. Matthew's Church to-night, under Rev. G. E. Whitcombe as chairman, to inaugurate labor meetings for the winter. A committee was appointed to draw up a code of simple rules, and a program of subjects for consideration. That of the next meeting will be "Shorter Hours of Labor."

Homestead L. & S. Co. Affairs.

Receiver C. S. Scott has lost no time in working on the Homestead Loan & Savings Company affairs. Speaking to The World to-night, he said that the present position is that some 30 payments on mortgages are in the bank; some 10 or 12 suits of the amount the company has against them are being adjusted, and perhaps 10 others are so bad that the court will have to realize whatever it can on them. Receiver Scott thought that 15 cents on the dollar will be about the figure shareholders will get. The Master-in-Ordinary holds the next court here in Hamilton on Nov. 4th.

Cattle Yard Wanted.

At the next meeting of the Finance Committee a deputation from the Board of Health will urge the establishment of a cattle yard. A site favored is at the junction of the C.P.R. and T., H. & B. Railways, where cattle can be conveniently shipped to Buffalo, Toronto or Montreal.

The World's Fair.

Rocktons World's Fair, known as the Canadian Donnybrook, took place to-day, and was the hottest in years. Lots of grafters were present, and they separated dollars from the tillers of the soil in fine style. An accident, which will likely prove fatal, happened, Mrs. John Templer of Beverley being the victim. A big horse she was passing reared and kicked her. The shoe cut the back of her head, tearing part of the scalp off.

A Crook's Death.

Richard Duclow, a convict in the jail, died this evening of consumption. He was convicted for vagrancy some time ago. Duclow was a well-known crook, and served time in the Central Prison.

Died From Natural Causes.

The inquest on the death of Thomas Killen was concluded this evening. The verdict was that he died from natural causes.

Another Man Killed at the Y.

Peter Case, a farm laborer, was killed by a C.P.R. train near the "Y," where Killen's body was found, this afternoon. He stepped off one track to avoid a train and stepped in front of an express, which cut him almost in two. Case was a hostler at Anderson' Hotel last winter. An inquest will be held.

EX-MAYOR TUCKETT WINS.

Mrs. Sturdy Sued for Damages But Was Non-Suited—General News Notes.

Hamilton, Oct. 13.—(Special.)—In December last, at a House of Refuge committee meeting in the City Hall, Ald. Dwyer suggested that Mrs. Sturdy, who had recently been deposed from the matronship, be paid up to Jan. 1, 1897. Mr. G. E. Tuckett, who was the Mayor, remarked: "What! pay one who has robbed the city?" To-day Mrs. Sturdy sued the ex-Mayor for slander, but was non-suited, Chief Justice Meredith holding that Mr. Tuckett spoke as a public official in the city's interests, the evidence showing that by Mrs. Sturdy's negligence the city had been a heavy loser. Messrs. Wallace Nesbitt and J. G. Gault appeared for the plaintiff, and H. Cassells, Q.C., for the defendant.

That Salary Matter.

A number of the ratepayers of Wards 1 and 2, the labor wards of the city, are arranging for a mass meeting to protest against the bylaw granting an increase of salary to City Solicitor Mackelcan. The radical wing of the Council, Messrs. Findlay, Hill and McAndrew, are being pushed on by the Trades and Labor Association as far as the dating back of the bylaw is concerned, and the question is one of the live topics of the day here. On the other hand, a number of the aldermen say that Mr. Mackelcan, as a Queen's counsel, who has given up his outside income for city interests, is deserving of even more than he has got. Another force working in his favor is the immense popularity of Mrs. Mackelcan, well known for her singing throughout the Province.

Wedding in St. Patrick's.

St. Patrick's Cathedral was filled with women this morning, who had come to see the wedding of Miss Julia Cox, daughter of Mrs. James Cox, King William-street, to the Sheriff of Welland, W. V. Smith. The bride looked very pretty in her dress of white silk and picture hat. A number of guests were present from Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Notes.

In Atkins v. Griffin, the jury verdict is $200 for plaintiff.

The late Craven Nicholson was buried yesterday afternoon by a large gathering of Foresters and Oddfellows and employes of Gartshore Foundry. Rev. Mr. Howitt and Rev. Dr. Brethour conducted the religious services, and the Foresters' ceremony was performed by A. Webber, S.C.R.; J. B. Buckingham and C. Ashby. The pallbearers were: Mayor Hewer of Guelph, H. Webber, F. Flowers, J. Pickersgill, S. Collier and S. Gage.

A. T. Wood, M.P., is back in the city and quite recovered from his illness.

Mrs. Mary Carruthers, for stealing and pawning two gold rings belonging to Mrs. May Miller, was to-day given six months in the Central.

THE OSGOODE HALL CAMPAIGN.

Two Student Meetings Held Yesterday—Efforts Towards a Compromise—No Decision Arrived At.

Interest in the law students' fight is in no way weakening; on the contrary, the two meetings held yesterday in the Law School proved that feeling is still as high as it was at any part of the contest.

A meeting was held yesterday morning in the third year lecture room, which was largely attended. Mr. Ayre took the chair and stated that the object of the meeting was to see what could be done towards settling the difficulty amongst the students.

Mr. H. L. McKinnon discussed the advisability of meeting the Moss party, who had, he said, sent a committee of three to meet with them and try and arrange a settlement.

Mr. A. R. Clute spoke in favor of a compromise.

Mr. A. R. F. Hassard was strongly against any compromise.

After further discussion, a committee, consisting of Messrs. Perrin, McKinnon and Healey, were appointed to meet the other party.

Compromise Not Accepted.

A second meeting was held in the afternoon to receive the offers which had been made to the committee appointed.

Mr. F. E. Perrin stated that offers of compromise had been made to them. Three offers were received, but as none of them embodied the proposed change to be made in the constitution, the students sent them back to try and effect an arrangement on this basis.

Many of the students are opposed to any quarter, and Mr. A. R. F. Hassard was loudly cheered in the afternoon meeting when he said that he would cease to support his party when it knelt to sacrifice its principles.

From the Other Side.

The Moss ticket, in view of the evident ability of either side to prevent the other from nominating its ticket, appointed as representatives from them, Messrs. Kenny, McWilliams and McLean to confer with the students' party as to arranging some compromise. They were met yesterday by Messrs. Perrin, McKinnon and Healy from the students' party.

The Moss representatives proposed that the students' ticket should take five of the nine offices in the gift of the society, while the Moss party should take the other four, which would include the office of president, and that the much-debated question of who should vote for the election of officers should not be decided until after the installation of a coalition ticket.

It was thought that by this compromise all parties would be induced to put their shoulders to the wheel and work for the common good of the society, no matter what the result of the debate on the amendmen of the constitution might be, and that harmony would once more reign among the members.

The students' party representatives refused to accept this proposal, however, and would consent to no agreement which had not for a term the acceptance of their version of the constitution, that is that the barristers should only be allowed to vote for the presidency.

As the Moss men felt in duty to their supporters bound not to accept this proposition they were reluctantly obliged to give up all hope of a compromise, and so matters will remain in statu quo.

Both sides, however, will agree to postpone Saturday next's meeting until Monday or Tuesday, so as to help along the big excursion of the Osgoode Rugby Football Club to Kingston on Saturday.

Do you want A1 printing at low rates? Try the Oxford Press, 33 Adelaide-street west.

Rev. J. Menzies of Honan, China, has written to the Presbyterian offices here, that all the missionaries there are well.

Dr. Hale Newton Carlyle read "The Lady of Lyons" to a large and fashionable audience in the College of Music, Pembroke-street, yesterday.

Miss Edith Murray of the Presbyterian Ladies' College, Bloor-street, addressed the Provincial W.C.T.U. convention at Brantford last evening.

The Property Committee of the Public School Board yesterday decided to rent the Sheridan-avenue Baptist Church building for kindergarten purposes at $25 per month.

John Brady, a man of no home, but owning a capacious thirst, stole a keg of lager from one of Kornum's wagons on Church-street. The adventure cost him 30 days in jail.

The New Era Cooking School sets up a new standard for food; it looks good, tastes good, and brings not headache or indigestion, but health and strength and an active disposition.

Mrs. Treble has offered to pay for instructions in cookery to public school senior girls, the classes to be held in Fred Victor Mission and the Public School Board to pay for materials.

Surrogate Court proceedings took place yesterday in these estates: Thomas Beddow, $1050; Mrs. John A. Carlaw, $18,200, of which $15,000 is property on Wellington-street, near Bay-street.

Patrick O'Brien was fined by the Police Magistrate $3 and costs or 15 days for assaulting Charles Davis, who cast reflections upon the honor of some of O'Brien's relatives. O'Brien knocked him down.

The Collegiate Institute board has decided to purchase two globes, at $55 each, for Jameson-avenue and Jarvis-street schools. The students will be given a half holiday to-morrow on account of the University game.

Toronto Council, No. 72, Canadian Order of Chosen Friends, intend holding a benefit concert in Occident Hall to-morrow evening. As this is a benefit concert for a bereaved family a number of Toronto's favorite artistes have volunteered their services.

City League for Amusement.

The Union District Council of the Canadian Order of Foresters met in the Auditorium last night. It was decided to hold a banquet at an early date and to inaugurate a city league for social amusement, carpet ball, open meetings, etc. Bro. John R. Allan occupied the chair, and Bros. W. D. Earngey, J. H. McGhie, R. C. Gavin and J. N. Ferrier gave acceptable addresses.

Newsboys and Trolley Cars.

An order of the management of the Toronto Railway Company will go into force to-day, prohibiting newsboys from carrying on their trade on street cars. This action, the company say, is taken in the interests of the newsboys themselves, who are always in danger of being injured or killed while jumping on and off moving cars. There's nothing in the story that a number of the larger boys would be given badges on signing a bond indemnifying the company from damage in case of accident. So said Chief Roadmaster Nix last night.

Mrs. Olmstead's Quartets.

Troy, N.Y., Oct. 13.—Mrs. William I. Olmstead, wife of a motorman on the Troy City Railroad, has given birth to four children, two boys and two girls, at her home in Albia, a suburb of this city. The mother and children are all doing well.

GEORGE IS CONFIDENT.

Thinks He Will be Mayor of Greater New York—He Has No Use for the Excise Law.

New York, Oct. 13.—In an interview regarding what he proposed to do if elected Mayor of Greater New York, Henry George to-day said:

"I will execute the excise law according to my interpretation of the law; but I will tell you frankly what I think about excise: I think it is an injustice and an absurdity, and I am totally opposed to the existence of any excise law whatever. If I could, I would abolish it, along with many other laws. If elected Mayor I would enforce the excise law just as far as the letter of it required, and not a step beyond.

"I believe in the largest possible liberty for the individual. We have too many laws. It is one of our greatest troubles—this mass of restrictive legislation. What one does, as long as it injures no one else, is no one else's business.

"The moral effect of my election and also of the results of my administration would powerfully promote the acceptance of my single tax doctrine.

"That I can defeat both Van Wyck and Tracy I do not feel the slightest doubt. In my opinion, the issue is solely between Mr. Low and myself. I think I shall beat him.

"My stand here for local election is based almost entirely on national issues, and I think much of my strength comes from that very attitude. In fact my grounds for believing that I will be elected are to a great extent based on that very fact."

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER PERISHED

Harness Broke, Horse Bolted and They Were Thrown Into the River.

Middletown, N.Y., Oct. 13.—The circumstances of the drowning of Mrs. Archibald O'Neil and her 17-year-old daughter, Clara, at midnight last night were not learned until to-day. Archibald O'Neil, with his wife and daughter and William F. O'Neil, a lawyer from New York, was driving home last night from Mountaindale, where the party had been attending a wedding. It was very dark when Denison's Ford, on the Neversink River, was reached. The ford is at all times dangerous, and it is now swollen with recent rains. When in midstream the harness of the wagon broke and the horses bolted. The wagon upset and the O'Neils were thrown into the river. Mrs. O'Neil and her daughter were drowned. Their bodies have not been recovered.

IMPORTANT TO MILLERS.

The Brand "Minneapolis" Cannot be Monopolized by the Pillsbury People.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Judge Showalter of the Federal Court handed down a decision in the case of Pillsbury and others against H. R. Eagle today, which is of great interest to milling people generally. Judge Showalter holds that the fact that a certain line of goods is made in a certain place does not give to the makers the right of a trade mark to the name of that locality. He said if the flour made elsewhere, though branded "Minneapolis," was made by the same method, of grain of as good quality, the manufacturer had a right to brand it or designate it what he pleased, provided he did not use the name or word of another in like business protected by direct copyright or trade mark. This decision completely upsets the claim of the Minneapolis millers, who asserted a vested right to the use of the name of Minneapolis as a brand of flour. The suit decided by Judge Showalter is the first of a large number begun in various sections of the country by the Combined Millers' Association of Minneapolis.

Laurier's Change of Policy.

Chicago Record.

Premier Laurier in the past has always been friendly to the United States and has stood for a policy of more friendly intercourse with this country. There has been some captious and sarcastic comment on the fact that since his return from the Queen's Jubilee celebration in London the Canadian Premier has been much more pro-British in sentiment.

The reason, we apprehend, is not to be found entirely in the influence of the celebration upon him. Before he left for London Laurier's friendliness for the United States had been chilled, and that by the action of our own Congress. Laurier wanted freer trade relations with the United States, and hoped for something from the Republican pledges of reciprocity. In reply Congress passed the Dingley law, the most restrictive tariff measure ever placed upon the statute books; and in several respects especially obnoxious to Canada. The alien labor law, aimed particularly at Canadian workingmen, was another cause of offence.

Laurier was elected on a policy of more friendly intercourse with the United States. He was even accused at times of being an annexationist. But when Congress turned upon him the cold shoulder there was nothing for him to do but seek closer relations with England, which the Jubilee celebration and the visit to London gave him an opportunity to do. It is easy to account for Laurier's change of policy with respect to the United States.

The Boys in Green.

The Queen's Own paraded last night at the Armouries to the number of 643, including 59 recruits. The regiment practiced battalion drill on the grounds to the south, while the band discoursed sweet music within the buildings. An amusing incident occurred when the command to march was given. The band stepped off at a lively pace and marched into Queen-street before it was discovered that the regiment was not in the rear. Major Murray and Capt. Levesconte are confined to their rooms through illness.

The Small Fires.

About 12.15 o'clock yesterday afternoon the firemen had a run to 36 Herrick-avenue, owned and occupied by David Lennox, where a chimney was on fire.

A still alarm, about 3 p.m. yesterday, called the firemen to Dr. Fletcher's residence at 480 Ontario-street, where some clothes, hanging near a stove, caught fire, causing $5 damage.

Mrs. Cowles' residence at 480 College-street caught fire yesterday at 6.45 p.m. by some unknown way and caused $10 damage.

Liquor License Transfers.

The License Commissioners yesterday transferred the license of the Royal Hotel, 238 Yonge-street, property of the late Robert Charlton to Robert Powell, who pays the heirs $7150 for the license, stock and goodwill. The commissioners also transferred the license of John O'Leary, 187 King-street east, to George Graham, and the license of the late Robert Waterhouse, 817 Yonge-street, to Arthur J. Harley.

A TRAIN OF FATALITIES.

McKusker Died Suddenly, His Friend Robinson Suicided, Shields Dropped Dead.

New York, Oct. 13.—A singular train of fatalities in Brooklyn came to a climax to-day. Michael McKusker, a saloonkeeper, died suddenly Sunday night of heart disease. An old-time friend, William Robinson, was so shocked at the news that he purchased paris green at the drug store of Andrew P. Shields and killed himself. To-day Robinson's sister went to Shields' drug store and upbraided Shields for having sold the poison to her brother. Shields was a sufferer from heart disease. He became excited at the charge and dropped dead.

"Where Dentistry is Painless."

NO PLATES REQUIRED.

Personal Loveliness

is greatly enhanced by a fine set of teeth. It's one's business to be as good-looking as possible, and one of the prime factors of woman's loveliness is a set of perfect teeth. A plain face becomes positively handsome if a smile reveals white, even and faultless teeth. On the other hand, nothing so detracts from the effect of pleasing features as yellow or decayed teeth.

Consultation requested. It costs you nothing.
