FOURTH YEAR. MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 22, 1883. PRICE ONE CENT

CALVIN'S FIVE POINTS.

DR. WILD DISPOSES OF THEM AND PROF. McLAREN AS WELL.

Calvinism Passing Into Oblivion — It Limits God's Mercy and Love — And Therefore is Not in Keeping with the Teaching of the Bible—Answers to Correspondents.

Among the many questions with which Dr. Wild was assailed last evening, "S. S." asked if the baptism of a child by a woman at the salvation army barracks was proper. The answer was that a baptism was right, whether given by a man or a woman; in a barracks or a church if their spirit and purpose was right. "A Listener," who thought the Germans belonged to the Lost Ten Tribes as much as England, on account of their both belonging to the Aryan race formerly, was told that while they probably were not of the house of Israel, they were to co-operate with England in carrying out the designs of God. "A. H." was instructed as to the creed of the congregational church, which includes a belief in the inspiration of the bible; God as creator, the death of Christ and his atonement, the existence of the Trinity, eternal life and punishment The chief point was the personal freedom of each church.

THE SERMON.

Text—"Having made known unto us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself."—Ephesians, 10th chap., 9th v.

The doctor commenced his discourse by instituting a comparison between the leaders of earthly governments whose duty it is to promulgate policies and God, who, as leader of his wonderful government, has announced the great policy of redemption through the death of Christ. This policy he thought showed that God was no respecter of persons, nor did he wonder that heaven and earth rejoiced when it was made known to mankind. His reason forbade his limiting this redemption. It was enough to wonder that men chose to refuse it. With the statement of those ideas, he would turn to some of the views that have been held touching the application of this great policy to man. John Calvin ventured into a new path of theological interpretation by promulgating five points—distinctive from all other doctrines of his day. Here the doctor took occasion to criticize the recent lecture on Calvinism delivered by Prof. McLaren, which he asserted was extravagant and incorrect in its tone. He thought the professor did not honor Calvin by his defence of his points, while he did great injustice to the Armenians. He calls his own views "positive" and all others "negative." The speaker was of the opinion that he had equally a right to term his beliefs "positive," and that of the professors "negative."

Referring to the first Calvinistic point—that of election—he asserted all must believe in it. We cannot imagine that God would have created us without law or government; that he has elected certain conditions we cannot deny, but no such election implies the impossibility of man being saved. A man takes an unwarrantable liberty with God, who makes Him responsible for such an impossibility. Calvin, after explaining how God's immutable counsel fixes everything unalterably, goes on to say: "We affirm that this counsel, so far as concerns the elect, is founded on His mercy, totally irrespective of human merit; and that to those who are not favored by this mercy the gate of life is closed by a just but incomprehensible judgment." In plain words, men are saved without any merit. The preacher wondered at God picking out a few only if this statement were true. Why did He not save us all? Only because He had not enough mercy for all must be the reply. But this would yield God no glory. "I see no glory in the flames of hell: I hear no glory in the groans of a lost soul; I see no glory in eternal punishment in which the spirit suffers forever!" earnestly said the Doctor.

As to the second point—"Particular Redemption"—if only a limited number are elected the lost have really rejected nothing, for it was never purchased for them. This doctrine of particular redemption was a damning clause that sweeps the others into oblivion.

The third point is "Moral Inability." This we believe in. If man were left entirely to himself he would not be a christian. It is not in his nature. But he has a thousand aids to enable him to be so, the greatest of which is God's spirit in the heart. A man born without that spirit would be a fiend in the fullest conception; he would be a strange scapegoat from eternity. The preacher did not believe God ever allows a sane human being to be born without this spirit; nor did he believe there was a child born but was saved.

The fourth point was "Irresistable Grace." The doctor wished it were so; that God's grace resting on a man would be all—controlling and all—compelling. But we can resist God, our freedom allowing us to do so. "There never was such a thing as irresistable grace," he concluded.

The fifth point of final perseverance was briefly touched upon. There is no evidence of it on the human side, he averred. They quote Paul's statement that nothing can separate us from the love of God, but they forget that man can separate himself from God. It is the privilege and within the range of every man that he may persevere to the end, however.

"A man who is going to be satisfied" will be the subject for next Sunday evening.

Coleridge Patted on the Back.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The Irish national league of Dublin has passed a resolution expressing surprise and pleasure at the tenor of the speech of Chief Justice Coleridge at the reception by the New York bar association. The resolution expresses the hope that the principle enunciated in that address will be applied by the British government to Ireland; also, that the American tour of Coleridge will serve to enlarge his views and enable him to advise self government for Ireland.

The Catholic College in England.

ROME, Oct. 20.—In an interview yesterday Cardinal Jacobini said that the pope had decided to adopt the views of the bishops generally in regard to the location of the proposed catholic college in England without reference to the opposition of Cardinal Manning to its establishment at Oxford.

Trichinosis in Germany.

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—Two hundred and sixty-six persons are ill of trichinosis at Ermsleben. Only 50 out of 134 houses are free from disease; 23 persons have died. There have been several fatal cases at Aken.

HURLED INTO A RIVER.

Fall of a Platform at a Harvard Regatta.

BOSTON, Oct. 20.—A platform crowded with spectators watching the scrub races at Harvard on the Charles river broke down. Several persons were seriously injured, having legs and arms broken. Most of the injured are Havard men.

The crews were getting into line for the start. About 150 students had crowded to the front of the two balconies which stand out from the river front of the Harvard boat house, about an equal number on each balcony. All were pressing forward to see the race, when both balconies gave way, precipitating many into the river, while many others standing on the lower balcony were pinned down and bruished by the fall of the upper balcony upon them. Fortunately there was but half a tide, so that those who fell into the river escaped with a wetting. As quickly as possible the upper platform was raised and several men were released in a more or less injured condition and carried into the boat house. Physicians were sent for and promptly responded. It is alleged that the attention of the college authorities had been called to the very spile that gave way and caused the accident. Fred S. Mead, freshman, Boston, is internally hurt and may die. A grandson of Hannibal Hamlin of Boston is among the injured.

MURDER OF ZORA BURNS.

Her Former Employer, Orin A. Carpenter, Arrested on Suspicion.

LINCOLN, Ill., Oct. 20.—Zora Burns, who had been employed as a domestic in the family of Orin A. Carpenter, was found dead near the outskirts of the city one week ago, her body bearing all the evidence of a desperate murder. Her throat had been cut from ear to ear, her skull crushed in and her arms bore evidence that she had a fierce struggle with her assailant. For the past two days evidence has been accumulating against Carpenter her employer. An examination of Carpenter's buggy to-day disclosed that the cushions, lines and shafts were plainly marked with blood, and on this discovery a warrant was immediately sworn out for his arrest. The accused is credited with being the wealthiest resident of Lincoln, owning a large grain elevator here, a farm near the city and other property. He has a wife and two daughters. The community is thoroughly aroused, and violence is feared against the suspected man.

Morphine at the Gallows.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20—Edward Hovey was hanged yesterday morning. On the previous night he was very restless, and begged constantly for whisky. Just before the execution a hypodermic injection of morphine was given him. He expressed himself resigned and contented. The crime for which he was convicted was the murder of his sister-in-law. It is said that he asked his wife, who was nursing a child, to bathe his feet, and on the sister-in-law remonstrating he shot her dead. An impression prevailed among some persons that he was intoxicated when the execution took place, but this was denied by both the sheriff and the prisoner's spiritual adviser.

Henry Irving's Repertoire.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Henry Irving arrived to-night. The plays in which Mr. Irving will appear while in America are the following: 1, Hamlet; 2, The Merchant of Venice; 3, Much Ado About Nothing; 4, Charles I; 5, Louis XI; 6, The Bells; 7, The Lyons Mail; 8, The Belle's Stratagem. He will be seen, therefore, in the characters of Hamlet, Shylock, Benedick, Charles I, Louis XI, Mathias, Lesurque and Dubosc and Dorlcourt. Miss Terry will be seen as Ophelia, Portia, Beatrice, Queen Henrietta Maria and Letitia Hardy. She does not act in all of these plays. The Bells has been chosen as the first piece to be offered.

No Wonder He Died.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Elmore Beach, aged 10 and a half, died Thursday night from enlargement of the abdomen. The autopsy showed that the small intestines were obstructed. Twenty large seeds of damsons, a copper cent, a nickle tooth, two buttons and other indigestable articles were taken from them. The liver was swelled to such a size that it took the place of the lungs and nearly everything else. One of kidneys was greatly displaced. The doctors say the case is a remarkable one. The mother states that some time ago the boy vomited orange seeds that were in the stomach so long that they had sprouted.

Smuggling by Milliners.

NEW YORK, Oct 20.—The first information of forfeiture this week was against Miss H. Wachman, a fashionable milliner in the West, and her goods were also in the seizure room. Then came information of forfeiture against about $6000 worth of fine goods seized by the customs officers, Misses Partridge of Boston, they being claimants. Neatly concealed in the bustle of one of these milliners was a quantity of extraordinarily fine lace. Misses Partridge came home on the steamer Alaska, and with them came several other milliners whose goods are at present in the customs seizure room.

Painful Divorce Case.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The divorce case of Roger Minot Sherman v. Florence Bagley Sherman, on trial yesterday at Danbury, Conn., attracts attention from the social and official standing of the parties. Mr. Sherman is assistant United States district attorney, and Mrs. Sherman is daughter to the late Gov. Bagley of Michigan. The husband alleges that the wife is habitually intemperate. The marriage took place in 1876, and there are two children, a girl 6 years of age and a boy of 3.

The Case Against Senator Sharon Dismissed.

SAN FRANSISCO, Oct. 20.—The charge preferred against Senator Sharon by Miss Aggie Hill, claiming to be his wife, came up this morning, an immense crowd being present. The case collapsed. The prosecution failed to produce the marriage agreement, and it was shown that the statute governing the case had been repealed, and the judge dismissed the case. Sharon's counsel expressed great indignation.

A Doctor's Attempted Suicide.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Dr. Walter Foley this morning rang the bell of his former boarding house. When the door was opened by Mrs. Montogna he proffered his hand saying "Good bye, I have taken poison." The doctor then became unconscious, and was taken to the hospital in a critical condition. Before becoming unconscious he requested Mrs. Montogna to give his love to a young lady who had rejected him on account of his intemperate habits.

THE HALIFAX DYNAMITERS.

They are Carefully Watched and Say Little—Captain Boyton Interviewed.

HALIFAX, N.S., Oct. 20.—The two dynamiters, Holmes and Bracken, are very reticent. They are kept in separate cells, are carefully watched, and every word spoken by them noted. On Monday they will be given a preliminary examination. The attorney general will prosecute and ask for an indictment on the specific charge of having explosives with malicious intent. In conversation with Admiral Commerell he stated to your correspondent: "I consider the Boyton rubber suit found with these men the worst feature of the entire affair."

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Capt Boyton was seen at his residence by a reporter concerning the Halifax affair, and stated that he had sold no swimming suits to any fenians to the best of his knowledge, and does not know any men by the name of Holmes and Bracken. All the suits he sells are stamped "Merriman's Life Saving Suit." He thought it possible that the accused may have bought a second-hand suit.

Lord Coleridge Stuck in the Mud.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The United States steamer Dispatch left Washington navy yard this morning for Mt. Vernon with Lord Coleridge and a large party of distinguished gentlemen on board. When about half a mile from the navy yard the steamer ran aground at the mud shoals, and at last accounts had not succeeded in getting off.

The vessel was finally got afloat by the assistance of several tugs and proceeded on her way. The Marine band was on the steamer and discoursed patriotic selections. An elegant dinner was served the guests after leaving Mt. Vernon.

In the evening Lord Coleridge called on the British minister, and later attended a private dinner given in his honor by Justice Gray of the United States supreme court. Among the guests were President Arthur and the members of his cabinet, justices of the supreme court, Gen. Sherman, Admiral Porter, and other distinguished officials. To-morrow night Lord Coleridge will be given a banquet by the British minister. It is expected he will leave for New York Monday morning.

Bishop Potter Consecrated.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The consecration of the Rev. Dr. Henry C. Potter as assistant bishop of the diocese of New York took place to-day in Grace church. The ceremonial was probably the most imposing that has ever taken place at a consecration of a bishop of the protestant episcopal church in this country. Forty bishops and over 600 clergymen took part in the services. Bishop Williams of Connecticut came last in the procession. Bishop Smith of Kentucky, presiding bishop of the church and consecrator, was too feeble to take part in the procession and did not enter the church until the hour for service to begin, when he was assisted to his place by attendants.

Brutal Treatment of a Wife.

DETROIT, Oct. 20.—On Friday Lovella Benedict began a divorce suit against Elias Benedict, to whom she was married at Buckhorn, Kent county, Ont., Dec. 31, 1878. She states that in the winter of 1882 Benedict took her into the north woods of Michigan, and there made her do manual labor fit only for a strong man. She was forced to pull one end of a cross-cut saw, sawing logs in the snow, and frequently fainted from exposure and overwork. Once he threatened to burn her on a heap of logs, and tortured her with a red hot iron with salt and vinegar to make her promise to apply for a divorce.

Shot by a Mother-in-Law.

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 20. — W. A. Kleine, under indictment for the murder of Mayor Stubbs of Polk City, was shot at Clyde in Jasper county this morning by his brother-in-law, John Cools. While Kleine was sitting at the breakfast table, Cools approached him from the rear and shot him with a revolver. He then tried to shoot two or three others in the room but all escaped, when he fled to the woods and and has not yet been found.

Glittering Gold Discovered in Dakota.

LISBON, D. T., Oct. 20.—Intense excitement prevails here over the discovery of gold. H. W. Griswold of Chicago made the discovery on his place near here two months ago. He had 130 samples assayed, and the result showed from $20 to $250 per ton. The matter was kept quiet until Griswold had secured all the land in the vicinity. There is a great excitement in this part of the country. Crowds are leaving for the scene of the discovery.

The Squeeze in Northern Pacific.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The general supposition on the street of the cause of the squeeze in Northern Pacific preferred is that the company in selling $10 000 000 Oregon Transcontinental have utilized funds to protect Northern Pacific preferred, which is more largely held by Villard's friends and the largest banking institutions in the country.

Heavy Failures in the Iron Trade.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Oct. 20.—The Union iron company has been put into the hands of trustees. The liabilities are half a million and the assets much less. John Campbell of Ironton, Ohio, one of the heaviest creditors, has made an assignment. These embarrassments affect eight or nine of the largest furnaces in southern Ohio?

Fall Floods in Arkansas

BATESVILLE, Ark., Oct. 21.—The White river has been rising four inches an hour during the last 48 hours, inundating 12,000 acres of corn and cotton in this county. The damage to small farms is almost irreparable. Many farmers will not be able to survive the winter without assistance. The rise is unprecedented for this season.

Train Wreckers Foiled.

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 20.—An attempt to wreck the Worcester passenger train was made this evening. A sleeper secured on the track was discovered by a freight train on another track. The danger signal was given, and although the train struck the obstruction it was not with sufficient force to cause damage.

Importation of Canadian Plums.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 20.—The steamer Reliance arrived at Charlotte last night from Picton, Ont., with 27,276 gallon jars of plums. This is the first importation of this fruit from Canada.

Farewell to Lord Lorne

QUEBEC, Oct. 20.—This afternoon a civic farewell address was presented to Lorne on the terrace. Several hundred citizens were present. His lordship made a long and eloquent reply in the French language only.

OUTDOOR OCTOBER SPORTS

SEVERAL NOTABLE GATHERINGS ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

The City Given up to Athletic Sports—The Peelers, the Bicyclists, the Marksmen, and the Toronto Hunt Club.

Toronto, for its size, stands pre-eminently at the head of athletic sports on this continent. No one can successfully dispute this assertion. Her citizens both young and old evince a lively interest in all that tends to develop muscle. Those that are not actual athletes or sportsmen are hearty patrons of the same, and thus the pot is kept enthusiastically boiling. Saturday afternoon was a red-letter day among the sportsmen. Simultaneously throngs of people were prancing through the autumn-leaf strewn streets leading to Queen's park, where the hounds were meeting; along the paved streets to the Jarvis street lacrosse grounds where the peelers of the town were peeling off their superficial clothing and amusing a couple of thousand of cits. with their herculean feats; along away up to Rosedale where the Toronto Bicycle club were holding forth on their skeleton-like vehicles before a delighted gathering; out to exhibition park, where the employes of A. R. McMaster & Bro. had gathered to prove that dry goods handlers can handle heavy weights, jump high and use their feet as nimbly as most people; and last but not least A, H and I companies, Q.O.R., were assembled at Garrison common holding their annual company matches.

There were also fooball matches and other events of less importance in progress in different parts of the city. The weather was cool and rather dull, but this did not abate one jot the interest in all of the foregoing events.

The Police Games.

The first annual athletic tournament of the Toronto police force at the Jarvis street grounds was very largely attended. It was an unqualified success in every respect. Mayor Boswell, Judge Boyd and Magistrate Dennison, the three police commissioners, were all present and evinced a keen interest in the games. Governor Robinson and Capt. Geddes, A.D.C., James Beaty, M.P., Edward Hanlan and other notables were among the number. Chief Draper is out of the city duck shooting, but he was represented in the person of Mrs. Draper. A G. Hodge, J. F. Scholes and Frank Smith superintended the games to the entire satisfaction of all. The band of the Grenadiers furnished a program of excellent music. Much of the success of the gathering is due to Sergt. Stark, who takes the liveliest interest in the athletic prowess of the force, and he was ably assisted by Sergt. Breckinreed and P. C. Hall, treasurer and chairman of the committee. The only hitch in the gathering, if it can be called a hitch, was a misunderstanding with the detective force as to their eligibility to enter the officers' race. The detectives receive the pay of sergeants, but it was held by the management committee that they are not officers, but merely ordinary members of the police department. As a consequence none of the detectives but big John Reid put in an appearance. Whatever may be said of John's astuteness in running down cunning and desperate criminals, there is no doubt that he is a great athlete, and acquitted himself with honor and distinction. John came second in the race for the $20 gold medal presented by Capt. McMaster, for the one winning the most prizes. Policeman Young (55) carried off this handsome prize with 14 points, John Reid scoring 10. This is allowing 3 points for every first prize, 2 for seconds and 1 for thirds. There was no little feeling in the action of Policeman Anson and Cusack backing out of the tug of war contest. Following are the prize winners.

Putting heavy stone, 21 lbs.: 1st Detective Reid 29 ft. 5 in., 2d Policeman Patterson 29.4, 3d Mills 29.3.

Putting light stone, 12 lbs.: 1st Detective Reid 39.6½, 2d Patterson 36 8½, 3d Somerville (16) 35.7.

Throwing heavy hammer, 16 lbs.: 1st Stormont 73.8½, 2d Detective Reid 69.5½, 3d McDonald 67.1.

Throwing light hammer, 12 lbs.: 1st Patterson 92 6, 2d Somerville (16) 89, 3d Detective Reid 85.10.

Throwing 56 lbs. weight: 1st Stormont 22 2, 2d Anson 21.7, 3d Detective Reid 21.3.

Hurdle race, 150 yards, 4 hurdles: 1st Verney, 2d Young (55), 3d Porter.

Tug of war, old country v. Canada: old country team: Stormont, Patterson, Bell, Wallace (76), Geddes, Dectective Reid; Canadians: McDonald, McRae, Thompson (118), Davis, Maurice O'Connell, Mills. Anson and Cusack backed out or the Canadians would have stood to win, but the old countrymen won in two straight heats.

Officers' race, 100 yds.: Sergt. Stark, 2d Sergt. Breckenreed, 3d Inspector Ward. There were seven starters in this race.

One hundred yards race: 1st McRae, 2d Porter. 3d Wallace (74).

Quarter mile race, open only to Q.O.R. and R. Grenadiers. 1st Geo. Creighton Q.O.R., 2d W. J. Calhoun G.G., 3d R. Low R.G.

One hundred yards race, 30 years old and upwards: 1st Somerville (16), 2d McRae, 3d Wallace (74).

Tossing caber: 1st Mills 33.3½. 2d Cusack 32, 3d McDonald 29.5½.

Fat man's race, 100 yds., 220 lbs. and over: 1st Anson (250 lbs.). 2d Bell (224 lbs.). Robinson was 3d, but he is under weight and should not have entered. Stormont (265 lbs.) gets 3d prize.

Tug of war, Q OR. v. R. Grenadiers: won by Grenadiers, two to one.

Running hop, step and jump: 1st Young 36.1, 2d Porter 35.9½, 3d Ellis 35.1

Standing long jump: 1st Young 9.3½, 2d Brady 8.11½, 3d Patterson 8.9½.

Running high jump: 1st Young 4.7, 2d Porter, 3d Patterson.

The lifting machine broke and this contest did not come off, neither did the ball throwing.

Old man's race, 100 yds., 50 years and over: 1st Inspector Leith, 2d Inspector Stewart, 3d Sergt. Carr.

Walking match, heel and toe, 1 mile: 1st Wallace (74), 2d McIlenry, 3d Cross (106).

Tug of war between the winning team in No. 14 competition and junior team Toronto police force: The Grenadiers won this, but the police team claim that they were all worn out with former competitions and two of their number made bad mistakes.

Quarter mile race: 1st Young, 2d Kerney, 3d Porter.

Consolation race, 100 yds: 1st Patton. 2d Davis, 3d Noble.

The greatest fun was created by the greased porker contest. The prize was finally captured by Fireman Joe Lamb of St. Paul's ward, but a butcher boy employed by Mr. Wordley, who gave the pig, disputes Joe's claim. Joe's teeth must be pretty strong, for he caught the greasy animal by the ear with his teeth and held him fast. It is not likely the butcher boy's claim will avail much. There will be plenty of pork and beans in the Lamb family this winter.

No. 2 division carried off the most prizes. At the Queen's Own Rifles' games next Saturday the defeated policemen will probably meet the Grenadiers, when they claim that they can easily defeat them.

The Toronto Bicycle Club's Tournament.

The second annual tournament of the club was held at the new grounds at Rosedale on Saturday afternoon, there being a good crowd present. The three-mile handicap and the five mile open race created the greatest excitement, the first resulting in a dead heat between W. Westbrook, Brantford, and W. G. Ross, Montreal, and the latter being a neck-and-neck contest between Ross and Doolittle, the former winning by a few yards. The prize for the handicap race was awarded to Westbrook. The field officers were: H. Goulding, referee; J. B. Boustead and T. H. Robinson, judges; J. S. Brierly, starter; Ross Mackenzie, P. D. Ross, R. H. McBride, time-keepers; C. E. Lailey, scorer. The winners were:

Slow race—1st C. Langley.

One mile, open—1st, gold medal, W. G. Ross; 2d, silver medal, F. Westbrook. Time 3.29¼.

Half mile hurdle race, open—1st, F. Westbrook, 2d F. J. Campbell. Time, 3.15.

Games at Exhibition Park.

Exhibition park was filled by an enthusiastic crowd on Saturday afternoon, on the occasion of the athletic games by the employees of A. R. McMaster & Bro. The committee was composed of J. Hallworth, H. Dover, J. J. Land, J. A. Tarbutt, G. Robinson, J. S. Smith. N. J. Carnegie acted as clerk of the course, P. B. Ball as starter, A. R. McMichael as timekeepar, and R. F. Lord as secretary. They all acquitted themselves with credit. The winners were:

Hurdle race, 120 yds.—1st Tarbutt, 2d Kent. Time 18½ sec.

Consolation race, 100 yards—1st Ricie, 2d Dinny the carter.

The Toronto Hunt Club.

The hounds met in Queen's park on Saturday at 3.30. The meeting was the best in every particular of the season. There was a large number of ladies and gentlemen in carriages present. The hounds were cast off at Webb's on the 1st concession (Yonge street), and after an exciting run northwards of five miles they killed near Thompson's bush on the 3d line. The master was first in and secured the brush, which he presented to Mrs. Nelson: Gus. Thomas secured the pate, which he handed to Miss Hamilton. The master appeared for the first time in a sparkling bright new red coat.

Football Notes.

Toronto plays Trinity to-day on the grounds of the latter.

The 'Varsity and Toronto will probably come together next Saturday.

East Torontos defeated Eglington on Saturday by three goals to nothing.

Ottawa defeated Queen's college at Kingston on Saturday by fifteen points to nothing.

Upper Canada college was defeated on Saturday by the Torontos by a score of five points.

University college defeated the Victorias under association rules by two goals to nothing.

Q. O. R. Closing Matches of the Season.

On Saturday afternoon A, H and I companies of the Queen's Own Rifles held their annual matches on Garrison commons. The shooting was scarcely up to the average, owing probably to the strong wind and the cold weather, which made the boys feel in anything but trim for shooting. Owing to the matches being delayed after 1 o'clock, the time appointed for starting, it was impossible to finish before dark and a correct score cannot be obtained. It is more than probable the matches will be held earlier in the season on future occasions.

The B. B. Covention.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—The meeting of the Union association of baseball clubs was held here this afternoon. Baltimore, Chicago, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Washington and St. Louis clubs were represented. Applications for admittance were received from Lancaster, Pa., New York city, Richmond, Va., and Kingston, N. Y.

Yacht Racing at Sandy Hook.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The Seawanhaka yacht club regatta took place at Sandy Hook to-day. The yachts Gracie, Olivia and Bedouin contested the course of seventeen miles. The Gracie won by 3 min. corrected time, Bedouin second.

Isadore Cherfeld of New York has purchased the stallion Maxey Cobb, with a record of 2¼, for $15,000.

The Arctic Relief Expedition.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The secretary of the navy recently addressed a letter to Commander Wildes of the Arctic relief steamer. The secretary says Wilde's instructions were to proceed northward through Davis straits in company with the steamer Proteus if practicable. The Yantic, however, was 12 days behind the Proteus, and the object of the expedition was thereby defeated. The secretary asks for full explanation on this point. He also says that Wildes had copies of Garlington's instructions, and was aware he was ordered in the event of the failure of the Proteus to reach Lady Franklin bay to establish a relief station at Littleton island. The secretary says Wildes could readily have landed provisions and supplies, but omitted to do so. He is asked to explain this omission. The secretary asks Wildes whether he saw Garlington's supplementary instructions during the voyage, or whether they were communicated to him.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Pa., Oct. 20.—The boiler in Ross Brothers' planing mill exploded with terrible results this morning. An employe named Beckwith was blown to atoms. Another man named Thomas is dying in great agony. Five other men were dangerously scalded and bruised. The mill was utterly demolished. Loss $8000. Every window of glass in the village was shattered, and the buildings were shaken by the concussion. The cause of the disaster is unknown.

Robbery and Murder.

THE MARRIAGE "AIDERS."

TRYING TO GET THE GLOBE TO EN DORSE THEM.

What the Provincial Press Has to Say About It—They all Back Up The World's Statements.

There is a statement in the Globe of Saturday, a defense of the Marriage Aid Association, printed in the reading type of the papers, and with the exception of the little word "advt." at the end, apparently possessed of editorial sanction. Moreover, there is a statement in it to which we direct the attention of the able editor of the Globe, viz:

It is a noteworthy fact that leading papers such as the Globe and Mail have not discovered any "mare's nest," [in the association or its workings].

The whole thing has been so managed, worded and inserted in the paper as to get a "certificate of character" from the Globe, and if the able editor says nothing it will be sent broadcast over the country as his statement. Now that the Globe has been quoted "as a noteworthy fact," etc., perhaps the editor will give us his opinion of Mr. Webber's little web. In the meantime we give the opinions of some of our exchanges:

Huron Signal, Goderich:

The Toronto World is showing up another fraud—the Mutual Marriage Aid association. We trust our readers will steer clear of this concern. The World deserves the thanks of the community for its unceasing warfare upon those vultures who are preying upon the purses of a confiding public.

Flesherton Advance:

The Toronto World has always shown itself to be a terror to all sorts of slippery characters. It is no respector of persons where anything of a fraudulent character is concerned, as many can testify to their sorrow. The World's latest "stroke" in the interests of the public is a scathing denunciation of the Mutual Marriage Aid association of Hamilton.

From the Woodstock Sentinel-Review.

The Toronto World has been attacking marriage aid associations. It is right. There can be little doubt that almost all such societies are thoroughly unsound. They go upon false principles, and are organized for the benefit of manipulators only. The liberal bounties paid in the early history of their existence are like baits to catch the public. These, indeed, may be regarded as so much money spent in advertising. We do not believe that any marriage aid association will last long. They are good societies to keep away from.

From the Hamilton Spectator.

The Webber family seem to run the concern, for, although the name of W. A. H. Duff, attorney, appears on the documents of the association as President; J. M. Webber is vice-president, and the man who handles all the money, the secretary-treasurer, is Walter M. Webber, another member of the family. P. E. Webber of Hamilton also appears on the list as one of those who received $250 benefit from the association last year. * * * A reporter for this paper interviewed Mr. Webber, the secretary-treasurer, and he was very wroth at The World, and said its statements were a malicious libel.

To the Editor of The World.

SIR: Having noticed in your valuable paper, the Toronto World, about the Marriage Mutual Aid swindle of Hamilton, I am in a position to certify that it is nothing else but a swindle all through, as last February one of their agents insisted on me joining the above association, and assured me that the assessments would not be more than $6 per month on each $1000 certificate, and the first assessment sent was only $5 10, and the succeeding four months they assessed me for $6 80 and the next month $11 90, and if I had been fool enough to pay the next month $13 60. In writing to W. B. Webber he stated that if I could produce writings to the effect, he would return my money that I had paid in. He knew verbal talk was not writing. Hoping they will soon be brought to justice, I am one who has lost all his summer's earnings in the above swindle.

The Canoe.

J. M. in the Varsity.

The canoe is a tiny poem in wood, sweet as the music of Orpheus and pure as the fancies of Shelley

Its metre is its motion—light and airy. The dappled wavelets playing around its bows in the soft moonlight gently whisper its meaning in the language of fairy land.

Its well of inspiration is buried deep in the vales of the past where roam the spirits of dark-hued braves and Indian maidens amid groves of sighing pines and bright-leaved maples.

A summer idyl calling to mind patch-s of deep blue water, gentle breezes, miniature islands with waving
