A Belgrade despatch of the 6th, says the Servian Cabinet resigned as a result of a court intrigue against the Premier.

Halifax is almost as badly snowbound as Charlottetown. No trains moving there today and the trains due to arrive there yesterday are nowhere in sight.

Tomorrow is the day set apart for the taking of a plebisite by the citizens of Charlottetown, as to wqether or not they will have civic ownership in the matter of city lighting.

The Provincial Legisature, summoned to meet today, has in consequence of the storm preventing the arrival of members, been prorogued by proclamation to meet on Tuesday next.

A New York despatch of Monday says: An ice embargo seems to be on the entire coast. Delaware breakwater and bay are full of floating ice, and shipping has been almost entirely suspended.

The mail steamer Ionian, arrived at Halifax Monday morning from St. John, with the body of a Russian Finn, named Matte Lavanglan, hanging to a beam in the steerage. He suicided while drunk.

A Halifax despatch of the 7th says: For the first time this winter the Tram Co. was unable to run cars. The snow last night was followed by rain, which beat down the snow, and iced the rails.

Washington advices of the 2nd, say: Indications are that the United States will soon have a scrap with Venezuela. Minister Bowen asks to be recalled, and recommends the seizure of the Custom Houses in Venezuela to bring President Castro to terms.

The weather from Saturday night to Monday morning was extremely cold. In this city the official thermometer registered 19½ below during Sunday night. It was reported 24 below at Georgetown, and 27 below at Cardigan. In some parts of Nova Scotia 30 below was reached.

At the Burnes' Consert in Chicago, Miss Jessie McLachlan was the star of the evening, and received especial appause for her splendid rendering of "A Hundred Pipers" and "Lock Lomond". She was presented with a diamond set bracelet, as a token of admiration from her Chicago friends.

About noon, on Saturday last, Daniel McCormack, aged 20, hired man with John T. Poole of Woodville Mills, Lower Cardigan left for his home on Grand River Road. On Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, he was found in an unconscious state on a snow bank about a mile and a half from Cardigan Bridge. Both legs were frozen up to the knees, his hands and face were also frozen. He had been out all night, and in his wanderings had waded into the open creek near where he was found. His rescuers, instead of putting the frozen limbs into cold water, and keeping him in a cold room, unfortunately used hot water, and it is feared that serious results may follow.

With the thermometer ten degrees below zero, fire broke out in Tuckett's tobacco company's branch, at St. Lawrence Street, Montreal Friday morning. In three hours $125,000 damage was done the structure known as the Robillard Building, and occupied by the Tuckett Co., telephone exchange and Peerless Gas Co. The fire started in the furnace.

Train No 30, on the N. Y., Central R. R., known as the Buffalo special, met with an accident at Whitesboro, 4 miles west of Utica, shortly after 1 o'clock Saturday morning and serious results are reported. The engine is said to have exploded and the engineer and fireman were killed. All the available physicians of Utica were called to the scene.

A despatch of the 2nd, from Victoria, B. C., says: A mad man ran a muck with a knife in Borneo, and before he was overpowered eight persons lay dead upon the streets, and seventeen others were wounded. This information was received by the steamer Shenano today. The town where the wholesale killing occurred is known as Lahad Dafu.

The Revere House, Pictou, was burned Saturday morning. Total loss is about $9500. There is some insurance. Fire was discovered in the house at two o'clock in the morning, and made such progress that the stairs could not be used. The guests escaped through windows, more or less in peril. A servant girl, Mary McEachern is missing. Doherty proprietor is badly burned, W. E. Whiteman jumped from a window and received severe injuries. The unfortunate domestic, Mary McEachern, failed to make good her escape from the building and was burned to death. He charred remains were found in the ruins.

Mr. Borden was introduced in the House of Commons yesterday by Mr. Foster and Mr. Monk. A bunch of Roses was on Mr. Bordens desk. As soon as the cheers which greeted him had subsided, Sir Wilfred Lauria moved that Mr. Bordens name be added to the committees of privileges and banking and commerce. Sir Wilfred said that in aticipation of his friends, the Leader of the opposition early return to the House he had reserved a place for him on these two committees. Mr. Borden expressed his satisfaction and returned thanks for the welcome.
