What It Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Sarsaparilla commends itself with special force to the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 Doses One Dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last a month. z

Weesbeach Improvements.

Attention is directed to the opening of Grand View Hotel, Weesbeach, for the season, on June 10. This favorite summer resort, situated on Lake Huron, three miles from Sarnia, has been very much improved since last season, and will now be found to contain facilities for the accommodation, comfort and amusement of guests equal to the best to be had at any of the lakeside resorts in this country. The dining-room, which in previous seasons was too small to seat all the guests at one time, has been enlarged to accommodate 100 persons comfortably. The basement has been rearranged so that a number of sleeping apartments can be fitted up there for the accommodation of transient visitors; the grounds immediately around the hotel have been inclosed with a substantial fence, rendering them more private than heretofore, and within the inclosure a large amount of sodding has been done, to furnish tennis courts and croquet lawn. The beach is beautiful and inviting, furnishing unrivaled facilities for boating and bathing, the seine fishing daily in front of it also increases its natural attractiveness to the hotel guests. No finer view of Lake Huron than that obtainable from the balcony and windows of Grand View can be anywhere. All the shipping of the great lakes passes through the St. Clair River a short distance from Weesbeach. The proprietors, Mr. David Wees and Mr. Wyck, the able manager, will always be found round the hotel looking after the wants of the guests. b

"Do I understand from this," said he, "that you wish me to cease calling here?" "Not at all. Not at all," said she. "Papa and mamma will always be glad to see you."

A man's wife should always be the same especially to her husband; but if she is weak and nervous and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they will make her "feel like a different person," at least so they all say, and their husbands say so, too.

"It's beginning to rain, Mr. McTavish. You'd better take a loan of this umbrella." "Och, she's fery much obliged ti ye, put she'll choost rin hame for her ain."

Carter's Little Liver Pills must not be confounded with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills, as they are entirely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority
