CORNET PLAYING, singing &c., by the Phonograph at Masonic hall this evening.

THE FANCY SALE of St. Mary's Congregation on Thursday last was quite successful.

A COUNTY RIFLE Association Competition is to be held about the middle of the month on the Chatham Range.

SALMON ANGLERS will continue to be successful at the North as soon as the water falls, there being a fair run outside.

DR. CLARK, Dentist, will not visit Newcastle each Friday and Saturday as heretofore, until further notice.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH. — Rev. Mr. Pringle will preach in St. Andrew's Church, on Sunday next, morning and evening.

HON. MR. ADAMS ought to call the Advocate to book for misreporting him. Mr. Adams did not say several things which that paper has reported him as saying.

ST. MICHAEL'S R. C. T. A. SOCIETY.—An Excursion under the auspices of the above society, will take place some day next week, of which due notice will be given.

DEAF AND DUMB.—It will be seen that the President of the Deaf and Dumb Institution, St. John, gives notice that there are now no persons authorised to make collections therefor.

PIC-NIC.—The St. Mary's Church of England Sunday School pic-nic is to take place to-day on the grounds of J B. Snowball, Esq., near the Chatham Railway Station.

THE ROSS-HANLAN race at St. John, after being postponed from day to day a week, came off yesterday afternoon. Ross upset his boat about a mile from the start, Hanlan, therefore, won.

HOW?—Will the Advocate please inform a waiting public how that "porcelain-lined" picture may be "taken apart," also whether the "picture" "works backward and forward in a swivel rest," so that the light may render it effective.

REFORMED EPISCOPAL CHURCH PIC-NIC.—On the 24th inst., a Pic-nic was held on Beaubear's Island in connection with the Reformed Episcopal Church. The children were amply supplied with amusements and refreshments and spent a very pleasant day.

RENOUS.—The members of the R. C. Congregation at Renous River, directed by their pastor, are making extensive preparations for their pic-nic, which is to be held on Wednesday, 14th August. Excursionists by the Andover from Chatham and Newcastle ought to be numerous.

ORDINATION.—On Sunday next there will be a Pontifical High Mass at the Cathedral at 11 o'clock, on the occasion of Mr. William Gaynor being ordained priest. Mr. Gaynor, who belongs to Chatham, is a young man of much promise. He first studied at Chatham, after which he went to Memoramcook where he graduated. News of 29th ult.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The wife of Capt. W. H. Chisholm, agent of the International Steamship Company, died at St. John on Saturday morning last. She had been ill of diphtheria, but was supposed to be recovering when she was stricken down. Mrs. Chisholm leaves many friends who will remember her as one of the most amiable and kindly ladies of St. John.

NEW CRAFT.—The following new vessels have been lately launched:—

At Richibucto, a schooner of 16 tons owned by Bartholemew White and Stephen Legere of that place. Also a schr. called the Julie Ann, of 9 tons, owned by Anthony Arsineau.

At Newcastle, the schr. Bessie, of 13 tons, built by John Phair of Newcastle.

At Escuminac, on Tuesday last, a schr. of 25 tons, a pilot boat, owned by Frank Martin and Jamef Nowlan, was launched. She is called the Empress.

CRIPPLING THE SERVICE.—It is rather amusing to learn that Hon. Mr. Mitchell wishes it to be understood that he is a friend of the volunteers, after his efforts in Parliament last year to cut down the Militia grant, and arguments against the maintenance of the service. His course was not one calculated to assist in obtaining either the rifled guns or necessary new clothing which the Newcastle Battery are entitled to. The Artillery arm of the service is a very necessary one and the Newcastle Field Battery should be supplied with the new rifled guns as soon as possible.

DOCKRILL'S OPERA HOUSE was again crowded to the doors last night by an appreciative audience. The new programme took like wild fire, and encore after encore was given the songs, dances and funny sketches. The company is one of the best of the season. They continue to-night and to-morrow night, and a matinee will be given on Saturday.—News.

The above has reference to the Viola Clifton Minstrel Company which appears in Masonic Hall, Friday and Saturday nights next. They have received very favorable notices from the St. John Press generally and evidently give good entertainments, under the management of John E. Healy.

FAIR PLAY:—The Advocate has what is known among reporters as a "lumpy" and "padded" report of the speeches at Newcastle on Wednesday of last week. Some things which Mr. Mitchell did not say are in the report and a good many things said by Mr. Snowball are either misreported or omitted altogether. The Advocate and its party appear to be capable of almost anything, however unfair, so long as their ends are to be served. The cool way in which some of Mr. Tilley's utterances are put in Mr. Mitchell's mouth by the Advocate is refreshing this hot weather. And then the Advocate takes a paragraph favorable to its candidate from a Telegraph editorial, instead of quoting the whole article which advises the electors of Northumberland to reject Mr. Mitchell and elect Mr. Snowball.

PERSONAL.—His Lordship, Bishop Rogers of Chatham, accompanied by Rev. Mr. Richards, the esteemed Superior of St. Louis College, passed through St. John on Wednesday evening on his way home from Madawaska. Rev. T. Bannon, who has been in Halifax for some time collecting for the new buildings, to replace those destroyed by the late disastrous fire in Chatham, is, we learn, meeting with great success. We understand that Father Bannon will shortly visit St. John on a similar errand.—St. John Herald.

Mr. J. W. Lanergan is in the city and is bound for the North on his annual fishing excursion.—Monday's Telegraph.

The many Miramichi friends of R. B. Crumbie, Esq., of the Bank of Montreal, are glad to see that he is spending a part of his vacation amongst them.

THE BISHOP'S WORK.—We learn from the St. John Herald that during his recent visit to Victoria and Madawaska His Lordship, Bishop Rogers, did excellent work. On the 11th ult., after celebrating mass in the new church at St. Leonard's now in course of construction, he proceeded to St. Basil where he presided at an admirable entertainment given by the pupils of the Convent situated at that place and directed by sisters from Montreal. On the following Sunday, July 14th. Confirmation was administered to 187 persons in the church of St. Basil. The next day 135 were confirmed at Little Falls; the 16th, 102 received the same sacrament at the church of St. James; 17th, 134 were confirmed at St. Francis; 16th, 113 at St. Hilaire; 20th, 170 at St. Anne's; 21st, 193 at Grand Falls; 22nd, 166 at St. Leonard's; and Tuesday 23rd, 37 at Tobique, making in all 1213 persons confirmed during the stay of His Lordship in the different parishes united. The Herald pays well merited tribute to the Bishop for his zeal and extensive labors.

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS admits adults to the Phonograph Exhibition in Masonic hall this afternoon and evening—children 15 cents.

POLITICAL NOTES.

BE CORRECT.—We hope that the gentleman who is to hold the position of Northumberland's representative for a few weeks longer will, in future, draw the proper distinction between the fiscal policy of the Liberals and that of the party he represents. The Liberal party advocate a Revenue tariff, the other party a Protection tariff. Neither party is in favor of free trade, but the Liberals aim to approach as nearly to it as the requirements of the country will permit.

AUDACITY, according to Danton, is the secret of success in revolutionary times. It was a specimen of audacity amounting almost to the sublime, when Mr. Mitchell, in the Newcastle Court House, which looks down on the Newcastle Branch Railway terminus, accused the Mackenzie Government of corruption in the making of contracts, bargains, purchases, etc., It was no less audacious for him, of all men, to talk about dishonesty or malfeasance in the purchase of steel rails. If Mr. King were there the two would have looked like those Roman Augurs of whose disposition to laugh at the credulity and stupidity of the public, Mr. King reminded his St. John audience. Freeman.

AT IT STILL.—Last Saturday's Dominion which is believed to be still inspired by the New Brunswick Inspector of Fisheries states that the close season for Lobsters is not to be inforced in Northumberland and Gloucester this year The Inspector seems to think, however, that it will be enforced in Kent and Restigouche. The same authority states that if the close season is enforced in the latter Counties it will ruin the Lobster fishermen. Now it would be interesting to have the Inspector tell us whether the close season was not recommended by him for the purpose of ruining the Lobster industry in this County and thus rendering the Government under which it was enforced unpopular.

BOASTING OF HIS SHAME.—It is to be regretted that Mr. Mitchell thought proper to interpret the fact of his receiving a large majority of votes in the election five years ago as evidence that Northumberland approved of his complicity in the Pacific Scandal. If we remember rightly he did not justify that transaction in 1873, but repudiated any responsibility for it and proclaimed himself as leader of the new party of the Left Centre, saying he could be no longer in accord with the conservatives. The audacity with which he now comes forward and justifies Sir John in corruptly obtaining some $360,000, which he knows was used to bribe and debauch Canadian Constituences, shows at once the demoralising effects of his recent political associations and the poor opinion he entertains of the intelligence and honesty of those at whose hands he seeks re-election.

Entertainment of the Dutcher Reformers.

On Tuesday evening as previously advertised, the Dutcher Reformers gave their weekly entertainment in the Masonic Hall, the chief feature of which was announced to be readings and recitations, humorous and pathetic, by Professor Peabody, the distinguished Elocutionist, of Princeton College. The chair was occupied by Wm. Murray, Esq., Vice President the meeting being opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. McBain. Miss C. Johnston presided at the organ. The hall was well filled.

PROGRAMME.

Chorus.—"Where are the Reapers," by the Choir.

Recitation and Reading.—"Charge of the Light Brigade" and "The Northern Farmer," by Professor Peabody.

Solo.—"Over the Hills to the Poor House" by Miss Bessie McKeown.

Reading.—"The Relief of Lucknow" by Professor Peabody.

Instrumental Music.—"Highland March" by Miss Haviland.

Reading.—"How we hunted a Mouse," "The Vagabond," and "The Earl O' Quarter Deck" by Professor Peabody.

Chorus,—"Toiling on," by the Choir.

Readings.—"Buck Fanshaw's Funeral," and "Kissing through the Wall," by Professor Peabody.

Instrumental Music.—"Silvery Waves" by Miss Haviland.

Address.—By the Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Newcastle.

God save the Queen.

The Readings and Recitations by Professor Peabody elicited much applause. At the close of the entertainment, it was announced there would be a meeting of Executive Committee after the general meeting.

Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Snowball's Political Claims.

Our despatches report the antagonistic meeting of Messrs. Mitchell and Snowball on the Hustings in Miramichi, on the occasion of re-election of Mr. Adams by acclamation. Mr. Mitchell stated that on his own behalf, he had been a powerful and successful advocate of Confederation and that to him the Northern Counties were indebted for the Intercolonial Railroad. Mr. Mitchell hardly over-stated either claims. It is sometimes suggested that the Parliament of Canada was over-ruled by the British Government in deciding the route of the Intercolonial Railroad, a statement which is not correct. Among those who influenced the location of the route, few took a more influential part than Mr. Mitchell. The editor of this paper offered him all the opposition he possibly could, but he found Mr. Mitchell too powerful for him. If the election ought to be decided on that ground Mr. Mitchell ought to win. But Mr. Mitchell very properly says that the question to be determined in the elections is whether Mr. Mackenzie and his Government should be sustained or that of Sir John A. Macdonald restored. That being the case, the electors of Northumberland who, with ourselves, believed that Mr. Mackenzie's administration is most in the interest of the country will be compelled to vote for Mr. Snowball.

Mr. Mitchell, who is a most plucky opponent assumed the offensive as regards Mr. Snowball, one of the most able and enterprising men of the north, who aspires to the representation of the County in the next Parliament of Canada. Mr. Mitchell found fault with Mr. Snowball for sending his political circulars through the post office and sending men around with his nomination papers. The St. John Candidates, some of them, in particular, could not regard these offences as otherwise than quite venial. Mr. Mitchell went over a number of the staple charges against the Government, and at the same time justified the Pacific Scandal, which as we all know was condemned by the "aroused public conscience" of Canada. The man who justifies the Pacific Scandal and harps on a number of oft-answered and entirely unproved charges does not occupy a very enviable position. There is one statement which one should hardly have expected Mr. Mitchell to make, namely, that the rails purchased by his brother-in-law, Mr. Haws, were purchased under the Mackenzie Government. That is literally true, but it conveys a wrong impression. The purchase was made immediately on the accession of the new Government to power, and without their authority. It was made by direction of Mr. Carvell, who naturally wished to have the patronage shared by his friends, as under the former regime, but who never dreamt that Mr. Haws would act unjustly by the department. We believe that a more honest and conscientious man than Mr. Carvell could not easily be found, and that he has suffered most unjustly by the acts of the men to whom, by Mr. Mitchell's directions and those of the other members of the Government, he was in the habit of sending orders. Mr. Carvell is an officer who has claims on the Minister of Public Works for a long period of service—claims which we submit to Mr. Mackenzie should be considered, now that the dishonest conduct of Haws has been fully established and that no evidence or presumption exists that Mr. Carvell knew anything of such dishonesty; still less that he profited by it. We do not like the way in which Mr. Mitchell treats this matter. It was because he had directed the orders for rails to be sent to Haws that Mr. Carvell followed up the usual paractice, without that a due consideration which would have led him to consult the Minister of Public Works.

Mr. Mitchell glanced at the question of the tariff, and took refuge in "readjustment," as if that were a dividing line between parties and as if all Governments when they need to increase the revenue did not go into "readjustment." But the electors of Northumberland and of Charlotte and other Counties as well, will understand that "readjustment" means a tax of 50 cents or perhaps a $1 a barrel on flour, an article which the Maritime Provinces requires to the extent of 700,000 barrels; it means 75 cents or $1 a chaldron on coal; it means a tax on corn, of which our lumbermen use so much; a tax on wheat which Canadian millers buy in the United States and grind in Canada; taxes that would fall heavily on the lumbermen; a tax on salt which would fall heavily on the fishermen and dairyman, and, indeed, many other new taxes, which we are to accept as a sort of soothing syrup, under the name of "readjustment." Even as to this euphemism for high Protection duties, the Toronto Mail of latest date states that no one is yet authorized to deal with the tariff—that matter is to be deferred till after the elections! But it is not deferred in the West, where the high Protection schemes are pressed on the electors in order to commend the Conservatives to popular favor. The Mail does not like the aversion shown in the Maritime Provinces to the taxes on coal, fuel, etc., and hence its statement. Mr. Snowball seems to have answered Mr. Mitchell very thoroughly, and to have done himself no little credit.

[From the St. John News.]

"The indications are that the contest between Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Snowball in Northumberland will be exceedingly warm and close. It is true, Mr. Mitchell is an old campaigner, and has been accustomed to organize victory. But his more youthful antagonist is displaying great pluck, force and activity. It seems that in a wordy combat on Dominion politics between them on the day Mr. Adams was re-elected Mr. Snowball sustained himself admirably."

[From the Freeman.]

The romination of Hon. Mr. Adams (who was elected by acclamation) caused a gathering of the electors at the Newcastle Court House on Wednesday, and Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Snowball availed themselves of the opportunity to discuss Dominion Politics. Mr. Mitchell, it is reported, was much excited, and frequently interrupted Mr. Snowball who, however, was not in the least disconcerted. Mr. Snowball, we learn from some who were present made a very favorable impression. The Evening Globe says:—

"There was a pretty lively time yesterday, at the nomination of Mr. Adams, between Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Snowball. There was a warm discussion between both gentlemen, and although Mr. Mitchell was on his own ground, surrounded by his own men, he met his match in Mr. Snowball, and this even his opponents conceded."

Newcastle Field Battery of Artillery.

Our Newcastle correspondent writes: The target practice of this Battery, which is under the command of Bt. Major R. R. Call, took place yesterday, (26th), at a short distance above the town. At first the shooting was not as good as usual, the guns having too much elevation, but this was soon rectified, and the firing was, on the whole, very creditable.

In the afternoon the Battery was inspected by Lt. Col. Maunsell, D. A. G., Col. Strange, and Lt. Col. Baird, Paymaster. The inspection was referred to by these officers in terms very complimentary. Corporal Henry Copp was presented with the handsome bronze medal presented by the Governor General, for the best shooting in the Dominion in the annual competition last year. The Dominion Artillery Association prizes were also presented to the various winners for the best shooting, etc., during the drill, just closed.

Sergt. John Morrissey won the 1st Prize—Silver cross-guns and Gold Badge, and the 2nd, 3rd and 4th prizes (Gold Badges) were won by Bomb. Jas. Osborne, Sergt. R. Maltby and Bugler Thos. Barnard. Corp. Fred. Weldon won a Gold Badge for short time firing, and Drivers Wm. Cashen, W. Kingston, Ed. McMahon, and Robt. Mann also took badges of gold cross-whips.

The Commanding Officer, Bt. Major R. R. Call, was presented with a handsomely engraved silver ice pitcher, the gift of the Battery. The presentation was made by the D. A. General, who, in making it, referred to the very deep interest which Major Call had always taken in the Volunteer movement and was glad to see such good feeling prevailing between the officers and men. The Major, who knew nothing of the matter until that moment, was most agreeably surprised, and made a very appropriate reply. The pitcher was made by Reed & Barton, the well known American manufacturers, and is the handsomest article of the kind ever seen in this section. It is valued at $35. The Camp, which has been one of the most successful ever held here, broke up this (Saturday) afternoon.—Globe of Monday last.

The McCarthy Murder.

On the 23rd ult., the cross examination of Hickey was continued, but no new facts were elicited. The evidence of Dr. Lucius C. Allison, who made the post mortem examination of McCarthy's body at Shediac with Drs. Scott and Fleming, followed. The evidence of the Doctors showed that the condition of the body did not indicate drowning as the cause of death. The Judge, Jury, Counsel, etc., visited Shediac on Monday afternoon last for the purpose of examining the scene of the murder.

The Tracadie Stone Church.

As will be seen by advertisement in another column the R. C. Congregation of Tracadie intend holding a picnic, on the 13th of August, the proceeds of which will go to aid in the completion of the stone Church in course of construction there. The arrangements well be in the hands of efficient committees who will make every effort to make the affair successful in every way. The church building for which this affair is to be held, is built of freestone, and is 120x56 ft. in size, with walls 32 ft high and was commenced in the fall of '73, the corner stone being laid in July of '74. The sight is a capital one, being on a hill, commanding a fine view of Tracadie bay and part of the Gulf. Under favorable circumstances the building may be seen from Neguac and from within a short distance of Miscou. The building has progressed under the superintendence of Mr. Belanger, the woodwork will be done by Messrs. Thomas Power and Morrison, of Newcastle, a guarantee that it will be in harmony with the excellent workmanship so far apparent in the masonry.
