Hamilton, Sept. 2, 1861.

It gives me great pleasure to say to those that wish Sewing Machines for manufacturing purposes, that I think that those manufactured by R. M. Wanzer & Co., Hamilton, are equal to any that I ever saw manufactured in the States. I have been using Singer's machine, manufactured by I. M. Singer & Co., New York, for a series of years. Some six months since I purchased one of Wanzer & Co.'s manufacture, the work of which pleased me so much in the manufacture of Boots and Shoes, I disposed of those I had, made by I. M. Singer & Co., and am now running to my entire satisfaction, four of Singer's No. 2, manufactured by R. M. Wanzer & Co., Hamilton, C.W.

DANIEL NAESMITH,

Foreman of Fitting Department at R. Nisbet & Co.

Messrs. R. M. Wanzer & Co.,

Gentlemen:—

As you desire to know how I am satisfied with the Singer Sewing Machine, No. 2, which I purchased from you, I would just state that it has given me the very best of satisfaction. We have all been running it on whatever we desired to sew, without the least trouble, and we are all of us equally well pleased at the efficient way in which it does its work, and feel convinced that it is the Best Family Sewing Machine we have ever seen: All that is necessary to do is to thread and set it going, and it will do its work to the satisfaction of any person. Such is the wonderful change it has wrought, that Mrs. Lutz, instead of considering the sewing of the family a labor, now looks on it as an amusement.

Yours, very truly,

MORRIS C. LUTZ.

Simcoe, August 27, 1861.

R. M. Wanzer & Co., Gents:—

According to your request, I will inform you how I am pleased with the Singer I purchased of you in July last. I am very much pleased with it—my expectations are more than met—and the machine does all that they are said to do, and are superior to any other Sewing Machine I have seen running, and I have been using them for the last eight years.

Yours, respectfully,

WILLIAM GRIEVE.

Being permanently located in this place, at an expense of may thousands of dollars, we are resolved to establish a reputation and a name throughout Canada which will be a guarantee of the sales.
