SUFFERING SALESMEN.

An Appeal From One of Their Number to Organize for Early Closing.

All Wool writes a long letter to The World on behalf of himself and other suffering salesmen, particularly those engaged in clothing establishments. "It may not be generally known," says he, "but it is a fact that salesmen are overworked, underpaid, and by no means an enviable class. They go to business early, and work continuously under an exacting boss until 10 o'clock at night. During this unreasonably long interval they are constantly on their feet, nor dare they under any pretext sit down, for if not engaged with customers they have to make some show of being busy, else they are reprimanded for indolence, or in some other way incur the displeasure of the boss. Their only recreation consists of passing from work to bed and back again to work; for, after hours all places of amusement are closed and people begin to retire to rest. Sunday finds them so tired and weary that they have to keep their bed till a late hour to obtain the much-needed rest that will make them equal to the perhaps severer duties of the coming week.

"Under this course," continues All Wool, "the retail clothing salesmen have grown callous-heeled, unhappy, and nowjthey kick. Having failed to obtain redress of their grievances, it is now time that the salesmen should organize to protect themselves and have the question of early closing at once, for over and satisfactorily settled. I might mention in passing how I believe this could be brought about: An appeal should be made to the labor organizations of the city —ostensibly for whose convenience the clothing houses are kept open late at night —requesting their members to withhold their patronage from any house imposing the injustice implied in this letter, and to purchase no goods from any merchant keeping his place of business open after the decent hour of 6 o'clock p.m. I am assured that those who are contending for, and are desirous of seeing the eight hour movement becoming general will see nothing unreasonable in this appeal, but will render every assistance in their power to enable common toilers with themselves to obtain this just and reasonable demand for shorter hours. Of course it will be necessary to appealing to the Knights of Labor to identify our interests with that body by forming ourselves into an assembly subservient to their laws."

The World would advise All Wool and his friends to strike while the iron is hot. Organize at once.

Trades Unions and Coercion.

Editor World: In affirming, in the face of an angry and hostile audience, at the street car strikers' meeting last week, the principle that a man might be fair and honest and yet not be a member of a trade union, and in seeking to have this principle recognized by the meeting by incorporating it in Mr. Jury's motion, I did not expect to see so speedy an endorsation of my views, and from so good an authority, as appears in the telegraphic despatches of to-day (Tuesday). The officers of the General Assembly of Knights of Labor are in session at Cleveland, and what is claimed to be one of the subjects of "greatest importance" to be discussed is the relationship between Knights of Labor and Trades Unions. It is there stated:

The difficulty between the Trades Unions and our organization grows with the officers of the former, who are afraid that there may be no more use for Trades Unions in the future, in which case their fat salaries and occupation will be gone. The Knights of Labor are broader than the Unions. For instance, if in a shop of twenty-four men twenty-three are members of the Order and one is not, as long as the man who is outside receives the same pay as the others nothing is done to coerce him or his employers. He need not join the Order. We invite members, but do not force any man to unite his lot with ours, and although he is not received as a brother, no distinction is made other than in fraternal feeling. On the other hand, if the same condition of affairs existed in a union shop union men would force the nonunionist to join their Order or they would strike.

I am confident that the time is at hand when the hateful coercion now laid down as a cardinal principle of trade unionism will have to be abandoned, and the Unions will be conducted in a manner calculated to convince the artisan that his best interests lie in affiliation therewith. WILLIAM JOYCE.

Public Notice.

—All testimonials in favor of Hallamore's Expectorant are from well known residents of Toronto. Mr. S. J. Willcock, 199 Spadina avenue, says: "I have used Hallamore's Expectorant for coughs and colds for thirteen years, and would not be without it. It never fails to cure me." edx

Ahead the Boats.

Editor World: I wish to call the attention of those interested in the management of our boats (the large steamers in particular) to what I consider a serious defect. In the Canadian and Sadie the bridges are protected with an iron rail at each side, but the others are left without this precaution, and hence a false step might prove very dangerous. As this is a small affair, costing but one or two dollars, it should not be lost sight of. Accidents through carelessness and other causes are too numerous.

Toronto, May 25. N.

What Is It?

Now the warm weather is here all wise people begin to think what is most necessary. Perhaps some don't know that a certain useful and indispensable article is this year lower in price than ever before. It's useful an ornamental and cheap and a "book" in summer. What is it? One of Stratham's "Refrigerators." Go to 179 Yonge street and be your own judge, and buy at your own price, too. edx

Contract Awarded for Coal.

The Waterworks Committee met yesterday morning to open tenders for the supply of coal for the ensuing year. Present, Ald. Walker (Chairman), Hunter, Saunders, Boustead, Lamb, Denison, Elliott, Barton and Low. The tender of P. Burns, at $4.21 per ton, was accepted for Lehigh coal. The other tenders were: John Keith, $4.32; W. A Malloy & Co., $4.46; Conger & Co., $4.85; J. R. Bailey, $4.85; S. Crane, $4.87. The contract for flooring the new coal shed at the waterworks wharf was given to R. Dinnis at $590.

Yankee Sharpness.

—A Yankee pedlar in his buggie overtaking another of his class was addressed, "Hello, what do you carry?" "Drugs and medicines," was the reply. "Go ahead," was the rejoinder. "I carry gravestones." —Hello! Gus you look happy, what's up! Well, Fred, I'll tell you: That dude that has so much cash called on Jennie the other night, and her mother got him to help her put up some pictures, and he drove the nails in and broke the plaster off their new walls, and she got mad with him and Jennie told me of it. I telephoned R. J. Licence & Co., cor. Bay and Adelaide, and they sent a man up and put up room mouldings at my expense (and it only cost six dollars), and now I'm solid with the old lady. She thinks I've a great head. edx

RETAIL DRUGGISTS AMALGAMATING

Following the Example of Hamilton, London, Brantford and Kingston.

Hamilton, London, Brantford and Kingston have their retail drug associations. Thirty leading retail druggists of Toronto met in the council room of the Board of Trade buildings yesterday afternoon and decided to form an association for this city and district. The leading wholesale firms of the city were the means of calling the meeting, they having acted on a circular from the Hamilton association. The objects are to shorten the hours of business, maintain a uniform scale of prices (more particularly with regard to patent and proprietary medicines), and to regulate other matters of internal economy. Mr. R. W. Elliot was made chairman, and Mr. George Hodgetts, Registrar of the Ontario College of Pharmacy, acted as secretary pro tem.

The gentlemen present were: R. Robinson, G. W. Lillie (Lyman Bros.), Joseph Wright, W. S. Robinson, J. H. Pearce, J. R. Lee, Joseph Green, Madill & Hoar, W. K. Bowden, Gaques & Goodman, T. W. Scott, C. Sheppard, H. Schofield, C. C. McGlashen (Smith & McGlashen) E. H. Howe (Northrop, Lyman & Co.), E. J. Fisher, F. W. Flatt, W. V. Cook, H. M. Kapp (representing J. B. McLaren), B. Jackes, W. R. Steward, T. E. McLellan, M. L. Wood, J. B. Meacham, J. C. Louden, N. C. Love, A. W. Abbott, R. R. Martin, G. A. Devlin, J. M. Pearen, W. H. Scripture, A. Boyce, D. Thompson.

Several speeches were made in favor of association, and committees on bylaws and constitution, patent medicines, perfumery and toilet articles, tinctures and pharmaceutical preparations, general drugs and powders, chemical and dye stuffs, and prescriptions were appointed. When these committees are ready to report another meeting will be held. The officers will then be elected.

At the Police Court Yesterday.

Acting Magistrate Love dealt leniently with a large batch of holiday drunks yesterday. John Webster was fined $2 and costs for assaulting Wm. Scrapp on the Island. Wm. Pickard and John Warle, for fighting, were each fined $1 and costs. Nellie Medcalf, a street walker, was fined $2 and costs. Edward Sheehan, fined $1 and costs for assaulting John Nagle. John Clyne, disorderly conduct, fined $2 and costs.

Fortune Favored Him.

—COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 5, 1885.—Five years ago I had a terrible attack of vertigo, with about three weeks' illness. Physicians did me little if any good. Extremely nervous. Tired. Pain in stomach. Could not urinate at all at one time. Had bleeding piles. Took eighteen bottles of Warner's safe cure with Warner's safe pills. Have not had a pain or ache since. Never have used any other medicine. I cannot say enough for it. F. G. BAILEY, 30 S. Ninth street.

An Argonaut of California.

Mr. J. J. Roy (Britton & Roy, San Francisco), one of the Argonauts of California, is in town for a few days. He is an Alsatian by birth, and was one of the first who went to the Golden State in '49; now he is a middle aged gentleman enjoying a well earned recreation. He goes from here to the Falls, the Thousand Islands and the eastern cities and then on to Europe.

It Acts Like a Charm.

—Ex-Ald. George Evans, 449 Queen street west, testifies to the efficacy of "Hallamore's Expectorant" as follows: "It is undoubtedly far superior to all other advertised remedies for coughs and colds, especially in the case of children, with whom it acts like a charm." edx

Three Young Ladies Take the Veil.

A ceremony of taking the vail took place at St. Joseph's Convent, on St. Alban's street, yesterday morning. The young ladies, who were dressed in white satin, were the two Misses Lynch and Miss Mary Byrne, of Toronto. Archbishop Lynch performed the ceremony.

A Wife Don't Know Her Husband!

—A most remarkable case of identification is to hand in Toronto. A gentleman returning home from business was refused admittance by his wife to his home. A simple explanation will show the reason. He had just donned a new summer suit, and it improved his general appearance so much that even his "own wife" didn't know him. Coulter & Gibson, the tailors, 249 Yonge street, surprise every one with their nobby suits. 346x

Hoarseness and Bronchitis.

—Among the many remedies used for the cure of coughs and colds, none more speedily gains the confidence of the sufferer than "Hallamore's Expectorant." For hoarseness and Bronchitis its rapid effect is surprising. In private sale during 25 years it has gained for itself an enviable reputation and produced wonderful results. In 25 cent bottles at all druggistores. edx

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR Baking Powder.

New York, January 16, 1885.

I have, on several occasions during the past few years and without the knowledge of the manufacturers, analytically examined cans of CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER purchased by myself in the markets, and I take pleasure in recommending it to public favor as a baking powder that can be relied upon for purity, wholesomeness and strength, as I have never found it to be adulterated with lime or to be impure in any sense whatever.

SIXTH YEAR

A SCENE IN THE HOUSE

MR. TREVELYAN FALLS FOUL OF THE PARNELLITES.

What the Irish Leader Said at Cincinnati—His Threat to Agitate Until the Last Link Binding Ireland to England Broken.

LONDON, May 26.—In the House of Commons last night Mr. Trevelyan quoted a remark made by Mr. Parnell to the effect that he would not rest till the last link that connected Ireland with England had been broken.

Mr. Parnell interposed, exclaiming: "This is not the first time that this calumny has been uttered. I demand the date and place of the speech."

Mr. Trevelyan—Cincinnati. If Mr. Parnell considers his words derogatory, let him withdraw them and express his regret.

Mr. Parnell retorted that Mr. Trevelyan had not given the date and title of the paper from which he quoted. He, Mr. Parnell, possessed verbatim reports of his Cincinnati speeches which showed that he had not said such words.

Mr. Trevelyan said he fully accepted Mr. Parnell's assurance [illegible] Ormonde's [illegible] and The Bard closed at the head and entered the straight [illegible] denial and added that that date, the February 23, 1880, and the paper was the Irish World.

Mr. Healy taunted Mr. Trevelyan with having no alternative proposals, and accused him of burking copies of the Irish World directed to the Parnellites.

Mr. Trevelyan said that the imputation was a serious one. He declared he had never opened others' letters in his life.

Mr. Healy said he only remarked that while Mr. Trevelyan was in office the Parnellites didn't get their papers as soon as others did. If Mr. Trevelyan did not burk himself, did his deputy? Continuing, Mr. Healy said, if Mr. Gladstone is unable to settle the matter, which of the different Liberal whippersnappers is able? Better grant the Liberals generously than refuse and plunge the country into the seething cauldron prepared for it.

What Mr. Parnell
