ROWING CLUB'S TURN TO WIN MARLBOROS BEATEN 5 TO 3

Winnipeg Team Was Behind 3 Goals at Half Time—Ice Was Soft.

Winnipeg, March 26.—(Special.)—The Rowing Club pulled out a victory last night, tho the score at half-time was 3 to 0 against them. The Marlboros played in great form in the first half under O.H.A. rules, but tired badly in the second, when western rules were used, and were unable to hold their lead. Soft ice, which was covered with water, made combination play impossible and individual work was a prominent feature of the game. Tyner, in goal for the visitors, played a remarkable game, and saved his goal time and again. Winchester hurt his ankle after 20 minutes' play, and Andrews replaced him at half-time. Charlton was in good form, and his speedy rushes were effective. He secured two of the visitors' scores, Armstrong getting the other. The first half ended 3 to 0 in the Marlboros' favor. The second half opened with a rush, and Kennedy tallied in two minutes. Breen repeated in seven minutes, and three more were secured before time was up, while the visitors failed to add to their tally. Charlton was injured in the second half and had to be carried off the ice. Andrews went to point and did very well.

The visitors left for home to-day.

They Like the Marlboros.

While it was evident that the O.H.A. brand of senior hockey is not up to the western standard, it was just as plainly seen that the champions of John Rose Robertson's league are a speedy septet of players. They rely solely on their speed and stick work, not using their bodies at all in checking. Their combination is fairly well developed, and the defence reliable. In shooting their forwards were off-color, many easy chances being missed in the first half. Charlton was probably their most conspicuous player. For a defence man he is very fast, and his rushes were always dangerous. Armstrong, at cover, is a hard check, while Tyner, in goal, distinguished himself on several occasions. The forward line, with the exception of Young, is very light, but it is fast, and has a well-developed idea regarding combination. While none of the men starred particularly, all played good steady hockey. They had an advantage in playing clean hockey, for the easterners were short nearly all the way thru. Hall was off three times.

The Marlboros had plenty of supporters in the rink, and got their full share of applause. They certainly made a good impression as a clean cut, gentlemanly lot of players.

The Marlboros have been champions of the senior O.H.A. series for the past two years. They are hardly as strong as the Wellingtons, who played here three years ago for the Stanley Cup.—Winnipeg Free Press.

Steeplechase Pretty Spectacle.

Washington, March 25.—The fourth annual renewal of the renowned sporting-social fixture, the Chevy Chase Steeplechase, over the full course with the Liverpool jump eliminated, at Bennings to-day, went to Clarence Moore's Montrip, ruling a strong choice at 4 to 1, in the hands of ridden by L. Evans. Sifter, owned by A. E. Langhorne, and piloted by J. R. Okie, with 2½ to 1 against him, ran second, and Jacobel, F. S. Lacombe's well-known gelding with Dion Kerr up, and at 5 to 1, was third.

Twilight and Duke of Grassland, from S. P. Knut's stable, were coupled and the entry, on account of Twilight's good form, was made a 9-to-5 first choice. Mr. Knut fell off Twilight at the very first jump, and Duke of Grassland ran out shortly afterward. Mr. Knut was removed from the field unconscious, but not seriously injured.

After Twilight's accident Montrip and Sifter fought it out, locked up together from end to end. Mr. Evans won with Montrip in a drive by a head. Jacobel was a good third.

The race was a pretty spectacle. The riders wore high silk hats and the pink hunting coats. The silver trophies were presented to the winning riders from the stewards' stand after the race. Miss Alice Roosevelt and a distinguished party at the club house saw the race.

Memphis Stakes.

Memphis March 25.—With an apparent indifference shown for the recent slap at racing taken by the general assembly in this state, and with all of that enthusiasm shown in past years, the Memphis public has adopted holiday garb, and may be said to be ready for the races, which start Monday, with the twenty-seventh annual opening at Montgomery Park. The New Orleans and Memphis Jockey Club officials have not been slow to proceed about making what may prove to be the last race meeting here for a few years at least eventful, and have spared no pains in the first American Derby is one of the features offered, and sandwiched in the program are all of the old-time stakes.

The Montgomery Handicap will be decided Monday. The Tennessee Derby is set for April 3, the Tennessee Oaks for April 10 and the Peabody Handicap at classic which has been won by Spokane and other noted racers of the '80's, will furnish the feature of the closing date, April 19.

Gossip of the Turf.

The New Louisiana Jockey Club's meeting came to an end Saturday, the features of the card was the New Louisiana Jockey Club Stake at a mile and a sixteenth. Duke of Kendal, backed from 4's to 3's, wore Princess down in the first half-mile and was never bothered afterwards. Lady Ray, Edith May and Evelyn Kinsey, each the best in her field, were the winning favorites. Old Hal scored easily.

Funeral services over the remains of Jockey Charlie McCafferty were held at New Orleans Saturday, and the remains were shipped to Gravesend by the night train. Eight of his fellow-jockeys acted as pallbearers, and the casket was covered with flowers.

Oaklawn's feature event the Anheuser Busch Stakes, Saturday at Hot Springs, was captured by Thistle Do at 4 to 1. Gay Lizette, the 8-to-5 choice, finished third. Four of the six events went to favorites.

Everything favorable good racing at City Park Saturday, and the card was far above the average. Three favorites won, and the talent had little to complain of. Jockey Nicol rode three winners.

McDaniel, on Pasadena, at even money, won the one-mile Riverside Handicap at Los Angeles on Saturday, and also rode winners in the two following races. Jockey Miller rode two winners. McJetta, at 10 to 1, beat the even-money choice, De Grammont, in the opening event.

Ebel Thatcher, an added starter, and 16 to 1 in the betting, captured the Treat Stakes at Oakland Saturday afternoon after a hard finish with F. W. Barr, a hot favorite. The finish was close and many people thought that F. W. Barr had won. Celeres won the last race in clever style, and is undoubtedly one of the best colts racing here.

The Indianapolis Racing Association on Saturday transferred its membership from the Western Jockey Club to the American Turf Association.

A Louisville despatch says: Matt J. Winn, president of the American Turf Association, said to-day that he had received advices that the Columbus (Ohio) Jockey Club would also race this year under the new racing association rules.

Midsummer weather prevailed Saturday at Memphis, but the muddy course prevented anything extraordinary in time trials among the horses being prepared for the meeting, which opens the spring racing there on Monday. Bondage, James Arthur's Montgomery Handicap candidate, gave his stable companion, Falernian, a beating in the mile dash, which Bondage finished in 1.48½. The time, the slow, was regarded by horsemen as indicating that Bondage will be a hard horse to beat if confronted with a muddy course. Gregor K. was sent a mile in about the same time. Yesterday was final workout day at the track. Eugene Hildebrand, premier jockey of the 1905 season, reached the track to-day, accompanied by Jockeys Feicht, Oliphant and others from Hot Springs.

BOAT RACE NEXT SATURDAY.

Cambridge and Oxford Appear Evenly Matched.

London, March 25.—The annual boat race between the representatives of Oxford and Cambridge Universities which takes place on the Thames next Saturday is expected to furnish a close and exciting struggle.

The light blues are favorites with the general public, the reason for this, no doubt, being the fact that they are much further advanced in practice and training than their rivals, but several experts whom I saw at Putney this week gave it as their opinion that it will be hard thing to choose between the crews on the day of the contest.

Backward as the Cambridgeans are in comparison with the Cantabs, the former rowed a splendid trial over the course a couple of days ago, when they made their boat travel from Putney to Mortlake in 19 minutes 42 seconds, which is 77 seconds faster than the Oxford crew took in a trial for last year's race.

So far the Cambridge men have not rowed over the full course. This is owing to the president's decision last week to put M. P. H. Thomas, the "triple blue," who is only just back from a big game shooting expedition, in place of T. M. Brunee.

The experiment many people thought injudicious as it is doubted whether Thomas can be got fit by next Saturday. Whatever opinions are formed on that subject the newcomer has very little flesh to get off, as he was returned as weighing only 171 pounds on taking Brunee's place, and the lowest weight he rowed in a race was 170. That Thomas is in good condition was shown when the crew rowed from Putney to Hammersmith Bridge on Thursday, a distance of 14 furlongs, in 7 minutes 4 seconds, which beats the time their opponents took on the previous day for the same distance in their full course trial by nine seconds.

As regards the respective weights of the crews as a whole, there is less than a stone, or 14 pounds, difference between the two crews.

The event of the day was a team match in the City Bluerock League, between the Stanley and Riverdale Gun Clubs. The day being fine and mild there was a large turnout of the members and friends of both clubs. The match was shot on a percentage basis, the Stanleys 15 men to Riverdales 10, and was won by the Stanleys, 74.93 per cent. to 70.90 per cent. Several of the younger members of the league are fast developing into good shots and will, before long, be showing the way to those who were instrumental in teaching them the art of handling a shotgun. The following is a summary of Saturday's scores:

BASEBALL IN THE SOUTH LEAGUE TEAMS PRACTICE

New Yorks Beat New Orleans and Little Rock—Chicago Won From Memphis.

New Orleans, March 25.—It was not easy for the New York Americans to win to-day's baseball game from the New Orleans team. In one inning by skilful use of their bats they scored the only two runs of the game. A base on balls put Elberfeld on first base. Yeager bunted neatly and the New Orleans first baseman dropped the throw. Anderson's sacrifice advanced both men; Conroy died out and Fultz, who was the best batter of the day, sent in two runs with a safe liner to right field. The score:
