A 100 yards handicap and water drill for the life saving class are also on to-day's program.

Toronto's oarsmen and scullers all arrived in Brockville yesterday for the twenty-third annual regatta of the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen, which will be held on the St. Lawrence River, under the auspices of the Brockville Rowing Club, to-day and Monday. Brockville during these two days expects to witness such a rendezvous of scullers as was never brought together in Canada before, and that the racing will be of the highest class is assured. The Canadian Henley, as it is more familiarly known to rowers and canoeists around Brockville, is an event towards which the eyes of the well-wishers of aquatic sports are directed, and the efforts of Canada's best athletes of the oar will be watched by throngs of interested people. Not only will Canadians be seen struggling for the much-coveted honors and emblems, but several Americans; indeed, it will appear more like an international contest. The program consists of events for eight-oars, double and single-sculls, fours-oars and pair-oars. On Monday morning the canoes will have their innings, thru the medium of events arranged for war canoes, four-in-canoe and double and single canoes. Besides these races, there will be a tilting tournament and other water sports. The finals in the rowing events will be run off on Civic Holiday afternoon.

The Holiday at Barrie.

Barrie, Aug. 1.—The 4th of August will likely be an interesting one in Barrie, as arrangements have been made on a large scale to entertain the visitors, who have signified their intention to come from Toronto and Hamilton for that day. Gaudaur and Wise will meet for the first time on Barrie waters, and pull over a two-mile course, with a turn, for a $200 purse and $500 a side. Gaudaur has been training heavily for the past six or seven weeks, and Wise is also here making preparations for the event. Both men are in excellent condition, and each appears to be confident of winning. The war canoe race between two Toronto clubs is attracting a great deal of attention. A large series of races have been arranged for the day, and it will likely be a good day's outing for any who may care to come up.

TORONTOS LOST THE CONTEST

Worcester Hit Lee Opportunely, Beating Barrow's Men Handily By 8 Runs to 1.

BUFFALO TRIMMED BY JERSEY CITY

Montreal-Providence Contest Postponed, Newark Lost to Rochester—The Records.

The Torontos lost the game yesterday afternoon to Worcester in a contest devoid of interest, as the visitors outclassed the home team in every department of the game. Lee, the Toronto pitcher, was hit when hits meant runs, while Pappalau kept the hits better scattered. Buffalo again lost to Jersey City, but were ahead until the eighth, when the Skeeters landed on the ball, scoring eight runs. There was no game at Montreal, while Rochester beat Newark.

Games to-day: Worcester at Toronto, Providence at Montreal, Jersey City at Buffalo, Newark at Rochester.

Toronto 1, Worcester 8.

Torontos were beaten at the Ball Park in the second game of the series with Worcester in a runaway game. The visitors played almost an errorless game in the field, while at bat they landed hard on the sphere. Torontos were unable to hit opportunely, and what little chance there was of tallying runs was spoiled by bad baserunning, especially in the eighth, when Lee at second did not score on Miller's clean hit, and the latter, thru poor coaching, forced Lee out at third.

Pappalau and Lee were the opposing pitchers, but the former kept the hits well scattered, being supported better in the field and at bat. For the Torontos, White and Bannon batted in good style, while, for the visitors, Crisham, Steelman and Wrigley were the pick.

The Toronto' average hit column for the first five innings was a solitary hit per innings. In the sixth two successive singles by White and Miller and Massey's long outfield fly netted the only tally of the game. In vain the fans waited for the matinee, when the locals would bat out an effective stick work a victory. In the eighth Lee made a lucky hit, and went to second on White's out at first. Then Miller singled, Lee loafing to third on the hit, and Miller, thinking his running mate had registered, kept on running, and when the end came found Lee still at the sack. As a result the side was retired without a tally.

Worcester scored two runs in the second on a stolen base and hits by Steelman, Connaughton and Wrigley. Two runs were added in the fifth on singles by Wrigley and Frisbee, Crisham's double and Pappalau's sacrifice. Three successive singles in the sixth added two more runs, while one in the seventh and another in the last innings ended the scoring.
