MARKET WEAKER FOR MOST LINES

Exchange Adjourns as Mark of Respect to Late Member.

With a run of around 1,500 cattle at the Union Yards yesterday the general tone of the market was decidedly easier, and price recessions of anywhere from 25c to 50c per cwt. were in order. The decline was probably more noticeable in the good butchers, with the cows and bulls holding fair to steady. At the close a lot of cattle estimated at around 1,000 head, mostly late arrivals, were unsold. There will be a fair market for the unsold stuff this morning. Friday, as everybody knows, is not a regular market day, but weather conditions have rendered this imperative for today.

In the small stuff, the sheep and lamb trade broke badly, practically all the leading buyers being off the market. Lamb prices broke from ¾c to 1c a lb., and sheep are manifestly weaker with little doing in either of these lines. The calf market is holding steady at practically unchanged prices.

With a run of 1117 hogs, the market is holding firm on the basis of 17c to the farmer, 17¼c f.o.b., and 18¼c fed and watered.

Special Market Notes.

C. McCurdy for the United Farmers' yesterday sold three steers weighing around 1250 lbs., apiece, fed by Alex. McKenzie of Connaught, and shipped in by J. B. Struthers of Port Elgin, at $15 per cwt., the top figure yesterday on the exchange.

PERSONAL NOTES.

The Burial of Mr. Mooney.

If anything were needed to demonstrate more clearly the love and esteem in which the late Mr. Mooney was held in, it was abundantly demonstrated in the funeral obsequies, held from his late residence, 15 Biggar avenue, yesterday afternoon. Practically every business house in connection with the live stock industry, besides score of private citizens, were represented.

The services at the home and graveside were conducted by Rev. Dr. Bland, Broadway Methodist Tabernacle; Rev. Dr. Corrigan, Centennial Methodist Church; Rev. Mr. Scott of Uxbridge, a former pastor, and Rev. Dr. Barber of Zion Methodist Church.

The floral offerings were especially beautiful, and contributed in part by business associates, among others Dunn & Levack, Swift Canadian, the Harris Abattoir, the Union Stock Yards Co., the Toronto Live Stock Exchange, the Wm. Davies Co., the Montreal Live Stock Exchange, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tucker, the former a business partner of the late Mr. Mooney. Interment took place in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

The pallbearers were A. W. Talbot, Duncan Stewart, C. Delaney, F. Johnson, George Tucker and Col. Hall.

A few of those present were: H. P. Kennedy, C. McCurdy, George Thompson, Harry Shearer, Dave McDonald, A. B. Quinn, Ollie Atwell, W. H. Shields, J. B. Shields, Gordon Hunnisett, Wm. Bailllie, George Cook, Fred Williams, Alex. Levack, W. B. Levack, Dave Robertson, George Rowntree, Dave Rowntree, John Black, Alex. McDonald, Thos. Halligan, Bert McDonald, Fred Armstrong, George Ferguson, Charlie Zeagman, F. F. Fletcher, Wesley Dunn, Jesse Dunn, J. C. Corbett and J. A. Coughlin.

RAILWAY EMBARGO SENDS CORN DOWN

No Eastbound Shipments, Even for Export, Are to Be Accepted.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Notice that railroads would not take grain east even for export was a source of depression today in the corn market. Prices closed weak, 1c to 1⅝c net lower, with May $1.33½ to $1.33¾ and July $1.31⅝ to $1.31½. Oats closed ¼c to ½c. In provisions the outcome was unchanged to 17c down.

Except during the early trade bears had a continuous advantage as to corn. The initial strength came from the fact that arrivals of corn were small, and from an advance in hog quotations. On the other hand, knowledge that British exchange had fallen to the lowest point on record tended plainly to disturb holders of corn. Pronounced weakness in the corn market did not develop, however, until it was assured that the snow blockade on railroads east of Buffalo had brought grain shipments to a halt.

Oats held comparatively firm owing to good support given by bulls. Hedging on the part of small packers weakened provisions despite upturns in the value of hogs.
