DO YOU KNOW
Why the Stock of the DOMINION TRUST COMPANY Limited is so Safe?

Because:

It is non speculative, well and carefully managed.

It is doubtful if any other Trust Company in Canada has been so successful in handling business economically, although efficiently. The gradual reduction in percentage of expense to earnings speaks well for the future. It has been reduced from 53.9 per cent in 1906 to 40.3 per cent in 1910.

At the present price the Stock pays a good dividend on the investment in addition to a BONUS.

We recommend these SHARES as in our opinion a Safe Investment, in which there is an unusual opportunity for increase of PRINCIPAL and INCOME.

Cotton Letter.

About a week ago when the market was between 11 and 11.50 cents, certain strong interests here tried to force a rally without success It looked yesterday as though these people had secured the assistance of certain others and as if a still stronger party, by no means working in harmony except in an accidental way, were covering their shorts and working for an advance which they may hope to bring about through talking the possibility of August deterioration, or through the actual materialization of such deterioration. We can fully appreciate the fact that under all ordinary conditions this market is entitled to a sharp rally and people who have good profits on the short side are being very generally advised to take them on the ground that it would be better to sell, even at a slightly lower level, after the chance of August deterioration had passed than to take the risk of carrying short contracts after such a severe decline. The course of prices, however, depends largely on the South. We doubt whether even the strong people who are now in favor of a sharp rally will find themselves able to force it, if the weather remains good and the South continues to sell. Certainly there was nothing about yesterday's report to inspire the spinner with greater confidence in prices; fear of deterioration rather than confidence in present values should crop prospects be maintained would seem to be the only basis for an advance, pending a change in the character of the weather and crop news.

Financial Letter.

Unsettlement will probably be seen again today on account of liquidation having started. Certain operators are now reported to have been loaded up more heavily with speculative stocks than supposed. They are being forced out according to latest advices. Liquidation of this kind and the tired character will be allowed to run its course. Recoveries may be witnessed today, but they will probably meet stock for a time. The list remains in the trading area, but with the tendency temporarily to reactionary. On weakness after the raids we would buy with stop orders for a turn, but would not follow up until the stop orders and liquidation shall have been eliminated. The newspapers give no adequate reasons for the sharp setback in prices. We think the real explanation will develop more definitely later. Loan calling may furnish the required information. The Journal of Commerce and one or two other papers refer to European loan retirements. We think the tobacco dividend passage and weakness on the curb of standard oil and tobacco stocks no explanation at all. At the Schawb denial of Bethlehem Steel dividends, rumors of Cuban, crisis, Mexican revolution, investigation of National City Company, etc., etc., all are contributing factors, but the fundamental of the big cotton promise, good grain outlook, fine steel advices of increasing business with no possibility of money stringency, all these act as a guarantee against any serious and permanent decline in prices.

DIVORCE COURT

Case in Which Moncton Parties Interested Quite Clear to Judge McKeown—Evidence of Wronged Husband

In the divorce court this morning before Justice McKeown the case of Chapman vs. Chapman was heard. Fred Chapman, who is an employe of the I. C. R. at Moncton, is suing his wife Johanna Chapman for a divorce on statutory grounds, Arthur Colwell being named.

Mr. Chapman, sworn, stated that he was married to Johanna Chapman whose maiden name was Toombes, in the city of Moncton on Jan. 4, 1893. The marriage was performed by the late Rev. John Reade in the Central Methodist church. They had one child, born Feb. 28, 1894. In March, 1906 Arthur C. Colwell, an employ of the I. C. R. came to board with them. Witness noticed that Colwell was very friendly with his wife and one time he noticed him coming out of his wife's room. On returning home one evennig his wife was absent. He had suspicions of Colwell and when he left the house witness followed him to a house on St. George street. On glancing in the window he saw his wife in the front room with Colwell.

When Colwell returned that evening witness ordered him out. Shortly after he left, Mrs. Chapman also left. Both stayed at Mrs. Chapman's father's home in Moncton. Mrs. Chapman left Moncton and shortly afterwards Colwell disappeared. Witness had since learned that they were living together as man and wife in the city of Fargo in North Dakota, U. S. A.

On the conclusion of Mr. Chapman's evidence Mr. Teed read the evidence of the commissioner taken at Fargo. From the evidence of the witnesses taken before the commission, Mrs. Chapman and Mr. Colwell went to Grand Forks, North Dakota, where they lived for a time after which they went to the city of Fargo in the same state where Mrs. Chapman went by the name of Mrs. Chapman. On their return from a trip to Minneapolis they stated that they had been married. They have since lived in Fargo as man and wife. His Honor said that the case was quite clear and he would deliver judgment in a day or so.

M. G. Teed, K. C., appeared for plaintiff, E. Albert Riley of Moncton for defendant.

DEATH OF AGED MAN FOLLOWS THREAT

Negro Porter Beat Chatham, Ont., Miller to Death—Latter's Family Had Been Warned

Chatham, Ont., Aug. 3—(Canadian Press)—There may have been a deeper motive than that of mere anger when the negro porter, Chas. Hurst, beat the litle miller, Thos. Brown, to death with a blunt instrument on Colborne street last night. So far none of the eye witnesses state that they saw any provocation for the brutal assault.

Stories are told of the Brown family having been informed that threats were made that the whole family would be wiped out, and that the old man would go first. Hurst says he beat Brown for calling him a bad name.

GARDEN HOSE STOLEN.

Some time this week about forty feet of garden hose were taken from the home of E. L. Rising in Queen street, and it has not since been recovered. It is believed that the taking was not simply an act of borrowing on the part of friendly neighbors, but that the hose was stolen by persons anxious to convert it into money. Mr. Rising has reported the matter to Detective Killen who is investigating.

REPAIRS ABOUT COMPLETED

The work on the new ferry steamer "Governor Carleton," has been delayed for some days past, owing to the non-arrival of some castings from Montreal, which were needed for the rudder. All the other repairs to the boat are completed, and as soon as the castings reach the city and are attached, which will require about two days' work, she will be put on the route. A slight change has been made in the plans for her trial trip, as it is now proposed to have the ferry sail down the bay instead of up river.

PICNIC PRIZE WINNERS

The Fairville Baptist church held their annual picnic on the grounds of John Sime, Manawagonish Road yesterday afternoon and evening. The Carleton Cornet Band furnished music, and there was a very large number in attendance. The feature of the day was a ball game between nines from the Charlotte street West Side church team, and a nine from the Fairville Baptist church, the latter winning 12 to 10. The following were the prize winners:—Rifle shooting, W. Allingham, a safety razor; 2nd prize, Mr. Wilson, West St. John, rifle; 3rd, Charles Burns, Milford, silver fern dish; ladies' bean toss, Mrs. Lorson, Fairville, hand satchell; babies on the block, Edmond Legere, Randolph, razor.

DANGEROUS PREDICAMENT

A large truck horse attached to a wagon owned by the Canadian Express Co., had an extremely dangerous fall yesterday afternoon, and by-standers who saw the animal in his intricate position wondered that he had not broken his legs or neck. As it was the beast escaped without injury, but the shafts were broken on the express. The horse had fallen over the embankment on the lower side of the N. B. Telephone building head foremost, and for several minutes remained in this position with his head and shoulders on the lower ground and his body and hind legs stretching to the upper part of the embankment. After a little he was extricated from the cumbersome harness and wagon, although it was feared he had been injured.

URGE DIVORCE FIGHT AT K. OF C. MEETING

Campaign Against Political Corruption Also Theme of Convention Addresses — Baseball Talk a Feature

Detroit, Aug. A strenuous denunciation of divorce, which he characterized as "legalized polygamy," and a plea for all Christians to join in fighting political corruption marked the sermon of the Rev. F. J. Van Antwerp of Detroit, one of the principal features of yesterday's opening session of the National convention of the Knights of Columbus.

Pennant aspirations of the American league leaders had prominent mention in the exercises at Knights of Columbus Hall, following the religious service. Mayor William B. Thompson, wearing the badge of the order, of which he is an active member welcomed the delegates to the city. After referring to the high position of Detroit in the business and commercial world, the Mayor turned to Supreme Knight Flaherty who is a Philadelphian and said:

"And with due consideration for our supreme knight, I believe we have the greatest ball team in the world."

When the applause which greeted this remark had subsided, Mr. Flaherty replied:

"I am not so sure as Mayor Thompson seems to be of the outcome of the struggle now being waged between our two cities. Anyway, the struggle will not be allowed to disturb the relations of brotherhood existing between the Detroit and Philadelphia councils of the Knights of Columbus."

This sentiment was warmly cheered by the delegates, who upon the conclusion of Mr. Flaherty's address went into executive session. A banquet was tendered the delegates last night.

In executive session an attempt was made to amend the by-laws so that wine and other liquors which are now prohibited may be served at banquets and in the club rooms of the organization. There was a storm of Opposition and the amendment was overwhelmingly defeated.

The annual report of Supreme Knight Flaherty says that on April 30 last the members of the order aggregated 58,000, a net gain for the year of 18,015, a net gain of 83 councils for the year is also reported. This includes the establishment of the first council in Porto Rico and makes the order active in Canada, Newfoundland, the United States, Cuba, the Philippines, and Porto Rico.

Detroit, Aug. 3—The Knights of Columbus in annual convention in this city have seriously reaffirmed the declarations of the order in favor of total abstinence.

FOUGHT WIND AND SEA FOR 33 DAYS

Three-Man Crew of Fishing Sloop Have Harrowing Experience

New York, Aug. 2—The three-man crew of the 40-foot sloop Theresa, which left Providence on June 14 for the coast of Africa, reached New York on the steamer Brika from Huelva, with a harrowing tale of hardship aboard their vessel, which ended with the rescue 120 miles west of St. Michaels. The Theresa was left to the mercy of the waves.

Capt. Joaquin Rene, Jose Fonseca and Manuel Andredo set sail from Providence, they said, nearly seven weeks ago to fish off the coast of Africa. Three days out the little vessel started leaking. From that time on it was necessary to keep a man at the pump continuously. After the Theresa had been buffeted by wind and wave for 33 days, and when all her sails and deck gear had been washed away, the Brika hove in sight.

LAST CALL ISSUED BY CENSUS ENUMERATOR

G. K. Berton, the official census enumerator for St. John, said today that with one exception, all his men had finished their work, and it was thought that the census-taking for this city would be completed in a day or two. He was satisfied that everybody had been included, but there was a possibility that some of those summering at Bay Shore, or elsewhere in the county, had been counted by the county enumerators, which was not fair to the city. This was a matter which should be reported to him. He sounded a final call to any persons who thought they had not been included in the lists, but he said that he had personally investigated several calls of this nature already made to him, and found in nearly every case that the parties had been enumerated. Mr. Berton's office is in the customs house, where he will receive complaints or where a postal card may be mailed to him.
