Newcastle Council In by Acclamation

Newcastle, April 17—There will be no town election Tuesday, the whole council being elected by acclamation. The new council will consist of Chas. E. Fish, ex-M. P. P., and member of Newcastle's first counil (1899-1900), mayor, and the following aldermen: C. C. Hayward, Dr. F. C. MGrath, Alex. H. MacKay, James Stables and H. H. Stuart, of the last council; S. W. Miller, who has been alderman and mayor several times, and John F. Kingston and T. A. Scribner, new men.

Ald. D. Doyle, D. S. Creaghan and David Ritchie and Mayor G. G. Stothart, of last council, did not offer for re-election.

The new council is strongly pro-temperance.

Mayor Fish in his card also promises to work for a brand new assessment act.

Ald. Stuart, who has already served four years at the board, ran on a platform not only pro-temperance but also advocating reduction of taxation on improvements, personal property and income and the shifting of the burdens of taxation on to land, and the abolition of all property qualifications for offices of mayor and aldermen.

Another Matter.

Mr. Babcock had just been telling his wife of an old friend.

"And he said he knew me when I was a little girl?" interrogated the wife.

"No," said Babcock, "he didn't say anything of the sort."

"But you just said he did," said Mrs. Babcock.

"No," said the man, "I didn't."

"Why Charles!" exclaimed the wife, "what did he say, then?"

"I said," replied the brute, "that he said he knew you when he was a little boy."—Exchange.

Too Early for Peace.

(Manitoba Free Press.)

The speech of the German chancellor is welcome because it will put an end, for at least a few months, to this senseless chatter about peace. Germany is not victorious. The Allies have not been defeated. The result of the war is still in doubt. Considering the land operations in Europe alone, Germany has unquestionably had the best of it; but a survey of the whole field of war, in its economic as well as its military and naval aspects, can be held to justify the claim that Germany, while not yet defeated, is on the road to defeat. This is certainly the firm conviction of the allied nations, and while this is their belief, they will laugh to scorn speeches such as those delivered by the German chancellor.

It is too early by six months at least, and probably by a year, to give any thought to the possibilities of peace. When the Germans have been driven out of France, Belgium and Russia, and are fighting a defensive campaign on their own soil, it may be possible for the Allies to formulate conditions of peace that will tend to end the war. At the present the policy of wisdom is for the allied nations to give all their energies to the task of waging war against Germany so vigorously that the illusion of victory with which the German chancellor still misleads his dupes, will disappear. Once the German people recognize that they cannot win, an early and satisfactory peace on the basis of the elimination of Prussian militarism may be readily attainable.

The Battlecry of Freedom.

(Milwaukee Journal).

Someone dropped a bomb at a meeting of the Congressional Union by remarking that a mere man had said that feminine dress of today is immoral.

"Immoral! the idea!" said Miss Ruth Astor Noyes, who figured in the now historical pageant upon the steps of the Capitol at Washington. "Immoral! I should say not! Why should it be? What is there immoral about it? Just because skirts are short and they show one's legs? Well, suppose they do! Everybody knows we have legs! We want freedom in our walk and movement, just as we do in other things of life."

DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST ALLISON

(Toronto Star)

A default judgment for $3,515.81 and costs of $45.80 has been signed at Osgoode Hall against Honorary Col. J. Wesley Allison, of Morrisburg and New York, whose attendance upon the Shell Committee has been desired at Ottawa for some time.

G. H. Meldrum, of Toronto, is the plaintiff, and the claim is based on a promissory note.

Brief Despatches.

Ottawa, April 17—The British admiralty wants recruits in Canada for the navy and a recruiting party headed by Hon. Rupert Guinness is on its way across the Atlantic. The party will be in Ottawa in the course of a few days.

Christiania via London, April 17—A large quantity of rubber was found concealed in coffee bags on board the steamship Lyngenfjord, which sailed from New York on March 17 for Bergen. The entire consignment of 250 bags was seized.

The rubber was discovered through the bursting of one of the bags while the steamer was unloading.

London, April 18—An Amsterdam despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that travelers arriving in The Hague from Berlin report that a woman fired two shots from a revolver at Dr. Karl Liebknecht, while the Socialist member of the Reichstag walked in the street. Both shots missed. The assailant, the report continues, was arrested.

London, April 17, 6.27 p. m.—Neutral ship owners were warned by the British foreign office today that all cargoes or bunkers of coal of German origin in neutral ships would be liable to seizure, under the order-in-council of March 11. The foreign office advised neutrals to obtain certificates from British consular officers showing that the coal in their ships did not originate in Germany.

London, April 17.—The British authorities have taken into Kirkwall for examination the Swedish steamer Stockholm for Gothenburg from New York with passengers, mails and a general cargo and the Norwegian steamships Maud J., New Orleans for Christiana, with a cargo of cottonseed oil and resin; Tromp, from Baltimore for Copenhagen with wheat and rye, and the Import, Baltimore for Skien, with wheat and rye.

The Swedish steamship Bolmen, New York for Copenhagen, has been taken to Leith.

Washington, April 17—The Russian embassy made public last night a second report of an extraordinary commission of inquiry appointed by Emperor Nicholas to investigate alleged atrocities committed by German and Austrian soldiers.

It recites many horrible stories in detail and is accompanied by reproductions of photographs. Particular attention is directed to photographic copies of two letters said to have been found on dead German prisoners, telling of the sending of Russian prisoners of war to the front fighting lines.

London, April 17.—(New York Tribune)—"The Telegraph's" Rome correspondent says that according to indirect information from Berlin, Dr. Liebknecht disclosed a fact of considerable gravity during the sitting of the Reichstag on April 8, regarding the latest German loan. The president, ministers and deputies alike made the most determined effort to prevent him from speaking and the censorship prevented the newspapers from publishing anything about it.

Persons in Germany do not know, or know only imperfectly, what Dr. Liebknecht said, but great fear prevails in Germany that to cover the loan, the government emptied the savings banks and kindred institutions.

Wilmington, Del., April 18—Ernest Schiller, alias Clarence R. Hudson, who forcibly took possession of the British steamer Matoppo off Sandy Hook on March 29, terrorized the crew and compelled the captain to change the ship's course, was sentenced in the United States district court here today to life imprisonment. He will be taken to the federal prison at Atlanta in a few days.

Schiller this morning pleaded guilty to the charge of piracy. He declared that he had seized the Matoppo, believing the vessel carried munitions of war for the Entente Allies "for the cause of Germany."

CONDENSED NEWS; LOCAL AND GENERAL

Sussex is in line with the daylight saving movement. The matter has been taken up by the leading citizens and a meeting of the town council will be held in a few days at which the formal passing of the necessary by-law will be carried out.

About $1,000 damage was suffered by fire at the Willett Fruit Co., Ltd., Dock street, last night. The fire broke out in some inexplicable manner in the top floor, and before it was put out a good deal of damage was done to the stock by the flames, the smoke and the water.

Dalhousie, N. B., April 18—Bernadelle Senette, aged five years, strayed away from home on Monday afternoon and was found drowned by a searching party late the same night. She had gone to the beach at the lower end of the town, when she ventured on broken ice and was caught by the rising tide.

The legislation authorizing a bond issue for the new isolation hospital to be erected on the site of the burned structure at Howe's Lake, was passed at Fredericton on Monday. Plans of the building are at the office of the architect, P. Neil Brodie, and during the course of a week tenders will be called for.

It is believed that the wooden building, which has been decided upon for several reasons in preference to a brick one, will cost in the vicinity of $12,500, for which bonds will be issued over and above the insurance money—$6,500. The builder will have to remove the debris of the fire and repair the present foundation.

Some new foundation will have to be laid, as the dimensions of the proposed hospital cover an area of 50 by 64 feet. It is to be a two story building, to be fitted with electric lighting and steam heating. The major portion of the lower floor will be reserved as a caretaker's apartments and will also include a reception room, a children's ward, and lavatories. The second floor will have the two large wards for males and females, a nurses' apartment and nurses' dormitory and lavatories. The wards altogether will have twenty-three beds.

A wooden stable is also to be built which will mean an additional bond issue of $1,500 or $2,000.

New Councils

Chatham, N. B., April 18—The following is the result of the aldermanic election today: T. M. Gaynor, the new candidate, was elected, and James A. Hay was the one left behind, although only five votes separated the two. W. B. Snowball got 255 votes, D. P. MacLachlan, 252; W. J. Moran, 238; J. L. Stewart, 238; Dr. W. S. Loggie, 240; Chas. Reinsborrow, 226; J. J. Flanagan, 223; T. M. Gaynor, 215; J. A. Hay, 210. Chatham's new board will be composed of the first eight mentioned, with C. P. Hickey, who was elected mayor by acclamation.

Sackville Council.

Sackville, N. B., April 18—The result of the civic election today in Sackville was as follows:

South ward—T. D. Pickard, 216; W. H. Oulton, 179; Hanford Palmer, 146.

West ward—J. F. Phinney, 165; Thos. Estabrooks, 160; Wm. Wheeler, 155; Charles E. Lund, 141.

The new council will be as follows: Mayor, H. M. Wood, son of Lieutenant-Governor Wood; North, F. B. Doncaster, Dr. J. H. Secord; West, Thos. Estabrooks, J. F. Phinney; East, Geo. F. Estabrooks, Charles McKenzie; South, W. H. Oulton, T. D. Pickard.

DISSOLUTE HENS LAY BEST.

Drunken Roosters, Too, Are Improvement, Says Scientist.

Philadelphia, April 15—Dissolute roosters that come home staggering at dawn, with maudlin crows of "hic-a-doodle-do," and hens that soak up ether highballs really are better parents than teetotaller chickens.

This discovery of science, laid today before the annual convention of the American Philosophical Society, astounded that learned body.

Raymond Pearl, biologist at the Maine Agricultural Experiment Station, told of experiments made at the station upon seventy chickens. It was found that the drunken chickens grew fatter than those which were denied opportunity to dissipate and in a year the alcoholic hens averaged 184 eggs apiece, while their white ribbon sisters averaged only 161.

GERMANS IN CANADA.

To the Editor of The Telegraph:

Sir,—I have read in The Telegraph of the 12th inst. with great pleasure and supreme delight the speech of the Australian premier in London in regard to how the Australian government deals with German residents in Australia.

Were Canadian politicians, members of the commons of Canada and especially ministers of the crown, stamped with the same grand determination as the Australian government to deal with the Germans of Canada, what an immense blessing it would be!

In fact, Germans in general are despisers of England's king, haters of the British government and people, lovers of the German emperor, enthusiastic admirers of the German government and nation.

Why, then, should they be allowed to enjoy the privileges and emoluments of British subjects in Canada?

Charlotte Co., April 14, 1916.

Nothing is Safe.

(Buffalo Express).

According to information obtained by the New York Herald, all of the merchant ships of the allied powers are to be armed with rapid-fire guns for protection against submarines. That should have been done a year ago. Judging by the story which the Russians tell about the sinking of the Portugal, it would be wise to arm their hospital ships too.

A Figure of Speech.

(Hamilton Times).

By strenuous work for three weeks on the part of recruiting officers all over the United States, 2,250 men were added to the United States army. We understood Mr. Bryan to say that at the sound of the first shot a million men would spring to arms. That must have been a figure of speech.

$6,300 TOTAL IN NEW BRUNSWICK FOR THE BELGIANS

Returns of the result of the appeal made on behalf of the people of Belgium on King Albert Day in various places throughout the province have been practically completed and while yet a few small places are to be heard from, Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, who had the arrangements in hand, has been able to show that the splendid sum of $5,802.58 is the result of the appeal, while to this gratifying feature must be added the sum of $500 which was collected throughout the county of Madawaska on that day.

The total expenses incurred in the purchose of the thousands of photographs and miniatures and in incidental outlays was $448.46 and the net balance will be forwarded to the headquarters of the Belgian relief. The result of the appeal has been most gratifying to all concerned and is a splendid tribute to the sympathy of the people in this province with the heroic nation.

A special meeting of the Royal Standard Chapter, I. O. D. E., was held Monday night at the residence of Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Queen square, when reports from the various outside committees and societies, which had in hand the campaign of the day in their respective parts, were read and proved eminently satisfactory and most gratifying.

The amount raised in St. John and vicinity, as reported for the day, has been augmented by several donations from interested friends who were out of the city on April 8. Among these is a contribution from T. H. Estabrooks of $100, Mrs. James Walker, $10; an additional gift of $5 from Miss Mary Ann Peters, also Mrs. Neales, $2; Mrs. Dn Day, $2; collected by the Y. M. C. A., $2; Mrs. J. W. Brittain, $1; F. E. Scammell, New York, $5, and $1 from a friend at Cape Station; also several amounts of smaller denomination, including one of ten cents from the young son of Canon Armstrong.

This brings the total for St. John and vicinity up to $4,051, included in which are the following: Rothesay, $184.58; Riverside, Rengorth and Coldbrook, $44.48; East St. John, $47.61; Fairville, $189.61; South Bay, $18.45; Clarendon, $8.46.

The following are the amounts received from outside of St. John and vicinity:

Fredericton—Collected by Col. Sherman and members of the Women's Volunteer Reserve Corps No. 5, $550.

Sussex, Hampton, Norton and surrounding country, $500, of which sum the amount of $461.50 was collected by the Women's Institute of Sussex, the balance being collected as follows: Mrs. J. S. Sutherland, sale of photographs at Hampton, $8.50; Union Sunday school, Norton, $10.

Campbellton, $177.60, collected as follows: Le Touquet Club, $50.47; Women's Institute, $50.28; The Tipperary Club, $40.25, and a cheque for $27.60 sent through Mayor Andrew.

Bathurst, $134.05, collected by the ladies.

McAdam Junction, $80.61, as follows: Collected by the Boy Scouts, $20.61; by the ladies, $20; net results of lecture by Mrs. Smith, $40.

Plaster Rock, Victoria county, $68, collected by the Ladies' Red Cross Society.

Andover, $75, collected by Miss Bessie Kilburn, secretary, and other members of the Round Table Literary Club, to which is added the sum of $35 collected by the Camp Fire Girls of Fort Fairfield (Me.)

Aroostook Junction, $31.62, collected by Mrs. Robert Kelly and others of the Aroostook Book Club.

Hopewell Hill, $20, collected by Mrs. Peck and other ladies.

Oromocto, $18.75, collected by Miss E. Estabrooks and other ladies.

St. Andrews, $15, from the Women's Canadian Club.

Gagetown, $18, collected by Miss Louise Peters and other ladies.

Dalhousie, $13.85, collected by Miss Haddow and Miss Barberie.

Petitcodiac, $10.60, collected by the Junior Red Cross Society.

St. George, $10, collected by Miss Ida Spear and friends.

This makes a total of $5,802.58 and, after the expenses of $448.46 have been deducted, the balance will be given to the provincial treasurer, Mayor Frink, to be forwarded through him to the headquarters of the fund as a tribute to King Albert for his homeless destitute people.

The members of the Royal Standard Chapter, under whose auspices the day was observed, deeply appreciate the spirit of helpfulness, sympathy and co-operation from the hundreds of volunteer workers on that day who came forward with heart and hand desirous of doing each her part in aiding the grief-stricken people of Belgium. The thanks of the chapter are also due His Worship Mayor Frink, to the Knights of Columbus, the Bank of Nova Scotia and all others who in any way assisted in the success of the day's appeal. The ladies feel that now that the returns are about completed that they have had a bountiful harvest in return for their hard work and the many worries incidental to the success of the day. It must be remembered, Mrs. Smith said last night, that many parts of the province were not reached and, when the $500 which was raised in conjunction with the observance of the day in Madawaska is added to the amount procured under the direction of tthe Royal Standard Chapter, the total will be well over $6,000, which will go to provide many needful things for those who are in sore distress.

And the "Maine."

(Montreal Star.)

American self-respect is in a perilous position. Spain pleaded "not guilty" in the case of the sunken "Maine." There are many today who think that, not only was the Spanish government not a particeps criminis, but that the "Maine" was sunk by an internal explosion. At any rate, the American government had no such proof of Spanish guilt in the case of the "Maine" as it has of German guilt in the case of the "Sussex." Yet the American government went to war over the "Maine," in spite of the Spanish denial of guilt. Will the American government, with far more convincing proof in its hands of the guilt of the German government, hesitate to go even so far as to sever relations. We shall be very sorry to believe it. It will be impossible in such a case to forget that Germany is a first-class power, and that Spain was a feeble nation of the second or third class.

The trackless trolley system is being used for general freight traffic in several parts of Germany.

There were 114 men in the entire party.

New Siege Battery Authorized.

The authorities have announced that the militia department has authorized the organization of a siege battery to be raised at McGill University and to be composed almost entirely of members of the teaching staff and undergraduates of McGill University. The new unit will be known as No. 6 Overseas Battery, Siege Artillery.

Captain William D. Tait, Professor of Psychology at the University has been appointed to the command of the battery. He has been in the military service since the beginning of the war and is now attached to the headquarters of the 6th Military Division at Halifax, having succeeded Colonel A. H. H. Powell who is now A. A. G. of the New Brunswick command with quarters in this city.

Captain Tait is a native of Hopewell (N. S.), and his selection for this important command is a high compliment to a brilliant young Nova Scotian. Captain Tait will leave for Montreal at an early date.

The battery will be made up of the officer commanding, who will probably have the rank of major, one captain, four lieutenants, one warrant officer, seven sergeants, three artificers, two trumpeters, one hundred and thirty-eight rank and file, one paymaster, and a pay clerk attached.

The Montreal News says: "The approval of the board of governors and the co-operation of the students' council, the governing body of the undergraduates, ensures the raising of a fine body of men for the unit. The guarantee of the battery retaining the nomenclature of McGill cannot be made by the militia authorities owing to the re-numbering of units when they get over to the other side. Two other batteries of a like nature have gone forward from this city, one under the command of Major E. G. M. Cape and the other commanded by Lieut.-Colonel F. Minden-Cole."

Moncton Recruits.

The latest recruits reported from Moncton for the 145th Westmorland and Kent battalion were as follows: L. J. O'Neill and Wilfrid Lounsbury, Lewis Mountain; Charles H. McKillop, Pine Ridge, Kent county, and Percy L. Mitton, Berryton, Albert Co. (N. B.)

Recruiting in Elgin.

A recruiting meeting is called for Saturday night at Elgin and it is planned to make it a big affair. F. Thompson, the recruiting officer for Albert county; Major Brooks, of the 104th Battalion, and J. D. McKenna, of Sussex, will be the speakers of the evening. The pipe band from the 104th Battalion will be in attendance.

Monteagle Recruits.

A recruiting meeting was held at Monteagle on Saturday evenings on behalf of the 145th Westmorland and Kent Battalion, at which seven recruits were secured as follows: Duncan Lewis, Claude Beckwith, Murray Cusack, Everett Steeves, Nelson Lewis, Murray O'Blenes and Elton O'Blenes.

May Take Command.

Major Lawrence T. Allan has arrived from Halifax and may command No. 7 overseas siege battery, the new unit being organized from the composite battery on Partridge Island. Major Allan is a St. John man who served on the island for several months after war was declared. Recently he has been doing garrison duty in Halifax.

Newcastle Recruits.

Three recruits were secured at Newcastle for the 132nd North Shore Battalion on Saturday last but only one was successful in passing the medical examination. He was George J. McKenzie.

North River Recruits.

A recent recruiting meeting at North River was particularly fruitful in results, seven men being signed on for the 145th Westmorland and Kent Battalion. Those who enlisted were Duncan Lewis, Claud Beckwith, Murray Cusack, Everett Steeves, Nelson Lewis, Murray O'Blenis and Elton O'Blenis.

Honored by King George.

Colonel Kemis-Betty and Major Frederick Lister, both of whom were at one time stationed in Fredericton with the distinguished service order medals by King George at the palace last week. They won their decoration by conspicuous bravery on the firing line some months ago.

Four recruits from Nova Scotia for 165th.

New York, April 17—Captain Franz Von Papen, recalled German military attache at Washington, was indicted by the federal grand jury here today as the organizer and financier of an alleged conspiracy to blow up the Welland canal in Canada. With him also were indicted Captain Hans Tauscher, alleged agent of the Krupps in the United States, and husband of Mme. Johanna Gadski, the prima donna; Constantine Govani, Alfred J. Fritzen, and another whose name has not been revealed. It was learned from a reliable source that the latter is a prominent German, whose name has been mentioned frequently in connection with German propoganda. His arrest is expected tomorrow.
