

from a defaulting member, to reinstate him upon his paying all subscriptions which he should have paid in the meantime, if he had continued an active member.

Election.

6. Each new member shall be notified by the secretary of his admission, and furnished with a copy of the By-laws and shall sign the member's register.

Defaulters.

7. No member shall be permitted to vote or enjoy any of the privileges of the Club until he shall have paid whatever arrears are due by him, either for subscriptions or otherwise.

Supernumerary members.

8. Any member who shall be absent from the Province for a period of not less than six months at any one time, may on application in writing to the secretary, at least fifteen days before the next subscription becomes due, be placed on the list of supernumerary members, and shall be exempt from payment of the quarterly subscription or subscriptions falling due during his absence, but shall pay in lieu thereof the sum of $5 per annum. Such member may, however, be re-admitted to all his privileges on application made in writing to the committee within one month after his return, and upon payment of such proportionate part of the current quarterly subscription as they may see fit to require, and failing in such application
