BIG VAUDEVILLE IS AT BENNETT'S

Splendid Bill Is Being Presented by the Management of the Popular Theatre.

AUDIENCE WAS CHARMED

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" and Other Big Acts Made the Offering Solid With Local Theatregoers.

There have been some real vaudeville bills at Bennett's Theatre since it opened, and when it is stated that the offering being presented at this popular house today and on Saturday is worthy of being ranked among the best, the simple truth is being told, and that only.

A packed theatre last evening was one evidence of the popularity of this form of entertainment, and a highly-pleased audience was a tribute to the real merit of the bill.

If the enthusiasm with which the performers were greeted last evening is any criterion, this city wants vaudeville and wants it badly. It is to be hoped that it will be given the theatregoing public next fall.

A Great Bill.

As for the show itself it is a well-balanced bill, and enjoyable every minute of the time. One difficulty in determining the headliners is the individual excellence of each act.

However, for real enjoyment, the premier position must be given to Clarence Wilbur and his excellent company, who present an excruciatingly funny "sketch," "The New Scholar." It is a regular howl from start to finish, and it keeps everybody on tenterhooks for fear of losing some of the laughs.

Wilbur, in a regular Patsy character, is immense. Fun oozes out of him just like love sonnets exude from a summer girl. He is great. But he is not the whole show.

The Six O'Connor Sisters, who are in the act, and, who by the way, come from Mimico, although Toronto claims them, are worthy of the highest encomiums. They are pretty and sing well. Their sextette "Annie Laurie" is real music, and one of the best features of the whole performance. This act alone is worth the price of admission.

A Very Clever Little Lady.

Miss Maurice Wood scored heavily last evening in her imitations. She is a clever little miss is Maurice, although her front name does sound different, and was a pronounced favorite. Her imitations of Anna Held, Harry Lauder, Eva Tanguay and others are splendid.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

A tablet edition of Uncle Tom's Cabin proved interesting, and enjoyable.

All the features are retained, including Eva's ascent into heaven and Marks, the lawyer. The company is a good one, and they act with intelligence and success. Not the least pleasing part was the singing of the colored folks, who are above the average.

McRae a Good One.

Frank McRae, whose shooting specialty was stopped by the police yesterday, appeared to be about the best that has been seen in these parts for many years, even including Col. Bordeverry, who it will be remembered was a very clever shot. McRae performs all sorts of feats, and does them with dexterity and ease. It is a brilliant performance.

Among acrobats, none have been more thoroughly satisfactory in their work than the Potter-Hartwell troupe. They perform all sorts of hair-rasing stunts, with little effort seemingly.

Others All Right.

Carney and Wagner dance faster and with more grace than the majority of these acts, and are very popular.

Tom Dempsey has some good Irish stories which he tells well, and a dash of sentimental "poetry" that satisfies he audience.

This bill intact goes to Shea's in Toronto next week, and that is some tribute to the sort of a show it is.

The demand for seats is very large and there is no doubt that Bennett's Theatre will be packed all this week.

It is a guaranteed first-class show.

BUFFALO BILL IS COMING TO LONDON

The Great Wild West Show Visits This City on Dominion Day.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West, combined with Pawnee Bill's Far East, will celebrate Dominion Day in London, giving two performances on the Dundas street show grounds, with the original and only Buffalo Bill in the saddle at both shows. The first advertising car reached town last night, and lithographers and bill-posters are spending the day in displaying the posters of the show in the city and vicinity. The Canadian tour of the big exhibition begins June 21 with a two days' engagement in Montreal. Subsequently Ottawa, Brockville, Kingston, Belleville, Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford and London will be played in the order given. From this city the show goes to St. Thomas and Chatham, completing its two weeks in the Dominion.

PREDICTS NEW RELIGIONS

Professor Says Present Protestant Denominations Will Pass Away.

New York, June 11. — That two new world religions soon will take the place of the present Christian denominations was predicted yesterday by Prof. George Burman Foster, of the University of Chicago, whose resignation from the Baptist ministry is demanded by Rev. Johnstone Myers, and other members of the Chicago Baptist ministers' conference. Prof. Foster declared that the present question of religious freedom points to a union of all the Protestant churches, with the Catholics against the free-thinkers.

She was met at the lincheon by many distinguished Quebecers. Lady Aberdeen will leave by the I. C. R. at 5:30 for Montreal, with the members of the International Council of Women.

CRAP SHOOTERS WERE FINED BY MAGISTRATE

Sam Harris Made Money on Deal and Got Out Of All Trouble.

A funny situation developed at the police court this morning as a result of the single-handed raid conducted on Sunday afternoon by Sergt. Birrell on a house at the south end of Maitland street, and Reginald Kennedy, Archie Miller, Alfred Smith, James Ennis, James Hill and James Coursey were fined $2 each and $1 costs on disorderly by "crap shooting" on Sunday.

In order to convict the men Sergt. Birrell had to use Sam Harris as a witness. When the raid was made Harris tried by every possible means to force his way past the sergeant, and get out the door. The officer had to throw him twice before he consented to be quiet. In the meantime the other men had disappeared out the windows, dropping sixteen feet to the ground. Harris, by turning King's evidence, not only saved himself from being fined for gambling, but escaped being charged with attacking an officer, and in addition collected witness fees, the money of which was taken from the fines imposed on the others. His brother Robert was also brought in as a witness, and he also collected fees. It was a great day for the house of Harris in a financial way, and the case created much amusement.

FEAST TO COMMEMORATE MYSTERY OF EUCHARIST

Corpus Christi Will Be Observed in Roman Catholic Church on Sunday.

The Catholic Record says: The festival of Corpus Christi is undoubtedly the most sublime and glorious of the whole ecclesiastical year. This feast was instituted to commemorate the great mystery of the Holy Eucharist and to emphasize the infinite love which the Son of God has for his church.

To express better the dignity of the festival and the great gift of our Lord to us in the Blessed Eucharist, the real celebration of Corpus Christi is transferred to Sunday. Though a special day be set aside for thanksgiving for the feast of Corpus Christi, we may truly say that it is ever celebrated in all our churches. "All festivals," says St. Chrysostom, "are festivals in honor of his divine sacrifice; if we commemorate the feast of a martyr or any other saint, if we celebrate the feast on a Friday, or Saturday, or on a Sunday, the same sacrifice is offered. Although great festivals are designated by the richness of the vestments used on the occasion, and by the unusual concourse of people, the divine sacrifice which is offered up, nevertheless, gives them their holy solemnity and dignity."

Undoubtedly this was the reason why the church in the earliest times did not institute a particular feast in honor of this sublime mystery. It should properly be celebrated on Holy Thursday, the day of its institution, but the grief of the church mourning with her bridegroom, whose sorrow begins on that day, prevents the joyful and solemn celebration which its dignity demands. For more than one thousand years no special feast existed in commemoration of the institution of the most Holy Sacrament. Our Lord, some seven hundred years ago, by a wonderful revelation, caused the institution of the festival of Corpus Christi to increase the veneration of the most Blessed Sacrament, and to confirm Christians in their belief and love towards the Holy Eucharist.

As the Lord often chooses the weak and the humble to accomplish his great designs, he selected a pious virgin, Blessed Juliana Falconieri, a nun in the convent of St. Cornelius, to be the medium of the institution of the festival of Corpus Christi.

It is related that one day in a vision Blessed Juliana saw the full moon in all its splendor, with a dark spot upon its disk. Almighty God finally revealed to her that the moon signified the church, and the dark spot the want of the special feast in honor of the most Holy Eucharist. He revealed to her that he wished to have instituted a festival whose object would be to venerate in an extraordinary manner the most Holy Eucharist, and to atone, especially by public and solemn adoration, for the many injuries offered by heretics and others to the most sublime mystery of the Holy Eucharist.

We need not dwell upon the long struggle and persistent endeavor of the holy nun to fulfill the divine commission. Pope Urban IV. by a brief issued in the year 1264 extended the celebration of this feast upon the diocese of Liege to the universal church.

The festival of Corpus Christi ranks as a feast of the first class and has an octave. In country places and in communities entirely Catholic solemn processions of the Blessed Sacrament are held with the utmost pomp on the feast of Corpus Christi, and the Blessed Sacrament is exposed in the monstrance and is carried about in triumph.

The church desires by these processions to celebrate the victory of her heavenly bridegroom and she seeks to give an opportunity to the faithful publicly to venerate and worship their God concealed in the most Holy Eucharist, inviting as it were all created beings to sing a hymn of joy and praise in honor of their Creator and Lord. During the procession benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is given on four different altars erected for this purpose at four different places outside of the church in order to obtain God's blessing for the country and for the people. At each station, the beginning of one of the four gospels is sung to typify the preaching of the gospel, and the good tidings of the redemption of Christ to all men upon earth, and publicly to testify our belief in the doctrines of Christ, especially in that of the most Blessed Sacrament of the altar.

JUNE WEDDINGS

RANDALL—MACKELLAR.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Randolph Ross Mackellar, Glencoe, on June 8, when her only daughter, Miss Margaret May, was married to Mr. Robert Ritson Randall, of Red Deer, Alta. The bride entered the drawing-room on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Harry Wallace Bodman, of Woodstock, preceded by four ribbon-bearers, Miss Mackellar (Buffalo), Miss Randall (Guelph), Miss Macpherson (London), and Miss Finlay (St. Thomas). The bride wore a beautiful gown of cream crepe de chine trimmed with lace and embroidery, and the wedding veil, with orange blossoms, carrying a large bouquet of roses and wistaria. The bridesmaid was Miss Lila Rogers. Mr. Lee Randall, of Victoria, B. C., attended the groom. Rev. Edwin Lee, rector of St.John's Church, officiated.

TEEPLE—BARNES.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnes, White Oak, on June 2, when their youngest daughter, Jennie L., became the bride of Harry W. Teeple, Glendale. Rev. Geo. Jewett performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of friends and relatives from London, Winnipeg, Embro and other places. The bride entered the drawing-room supported by her father, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Carrie Manning. After congratulations, the guests partook of a sumptuous wedding supper, after which the young couple left for points east amid showers of confetti and rice. They will be at home to their friends at "Elm Lane Farm," Glendale. The costly array of presents testified to the high esteem in which the young couple are held.

MOCHA SHRINERS POPULAR

musical organizations here, it probably is safe to say that the bagpipe musicians attract more attention than any of the others. In Canada there are thousands of sons of bonny Scotland, and the bringing along of an aggregation of the players of their national instrument is a compliment to them, and especially pleasing to those of them who are members of the Shriners."

"Mocha Temple, of London, Ontario, is here. Has anybody heard what happened to Java?"

The Decorations.

Prominent among the decorations is the following description of "a good Shriner," copied from the Saladin Temple Bulletin, of Grand Rapids, the Temple that accompanied Mocha Temple to Louisville from Detroit:

"A Shriner is a fellow who has the mind of a poet, the philosophy of Marcus Aurelius, the patience of Job, the urbanity of a Chesterfield; who does not believe he is capable of giving advice to Allah, or of running the universe; whose mirth bubbles up like the fountains of Elim; whose way is not the only way; who recognizes the humanity in man, is tolerant of his foibles, forgives his sins, and whose life is not great in little things; who is not grouche, sardonic, saturnine, dyspeptic, and whose conceit does not produce anasarca or other attributes; who is not like Noah when he cursed Ham, and though he be like an abstemious Nazarite, all shaven and shorn, with his offering of sodden shoulders of rams and chunks of unleavened cakes, forgets not what our first Grand Master, Solomon, said:

"'Let him forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.'"

Another Eulogy.

The Louisville Courier-Journal has the following to say of the arrival of the Mocha Temple Shriners:

"After the arrival of the imperials was the arrival of the Mocha gang from London, Ontario. The Canadian special was about the only train to get into the Tenth street station anyways near on time. It was booked for 11:35 o'clock, and at 11:35 o'clock sharp it got here. Long before the train pulled under the shed—while it was still miles out, a queer, squeaky, squawky noise permeated the whole country around. When the train stopped at the station seven kilted and bare-legged, plaided and whistling Highlanders, with bagpipes alighted. Accompanying the "Kilties" were eighty-five Canadian nobles. They had a base-drummer, "Skinny Bill" Davidson, who they said, averred and asseverated, was the champion base-drummer of the universe.

"The Mocha Temple left London at 8:10 o'clock Sunday night, and made an exceptionally fast run. The party stopped at Cincinnati for luncheon yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. When the train arrived here it was met by the representatives of the Kosairs and a delegation from the Louisville Maple Leaf Club. The members of the Maple Leaf organization extended an invitation to the Canadians and the Scotch pipers to visit the club headquarters and the visitors accepted with alacrity. The Mocha Patrol marched to quarters set apart for them at 821 South Third avenue.

COREY IN ACCIDENT

Present of United States Steel Corporation Injured While Motoring.

Paris, June 11. — The morning newspapers say that Wm. E. Corey, president of the United States Steel Corporation, who was hurt in an automobile accident near Palisau, yesterday, sustained injuries on the head and legs, but that his wounds are not serious.

It seems that the Corey automobile, in which Mr. and Mrs. Corey and M. Godilleau, manager of Mr. Corey's French estate, were driving, was being conducted by a new chauffeur. The machine made a sharp turn, skidded, and was overturned. M. Godilleau, who was sitting beside the chauffeur, was caught underneath the car. His skull was fractured and his chest crushed. He was conveyed to the Chateau Villgines, where the Coreys are living. Mrs. Corey also sustained injuries, but her condition is not grave.

That a payment of $49 60 be made, to Lobo Township, being one-third of the legitimate expenses.

That a grant of $50 be made to Albert Hughes.

That the vault of the registry office at Glencoe be repaired, not to cost more than $600.

That no action be taken in the matter of the petition of the ratepayers of Komoka, asking for assistance in the building of a public hall.

That the salary of the jail physician be restored to $350.

We further recommend that a bylaw be introduced for borrowing $72,000 to meet the current expenses of the year.

W. D. Moss, W. Ulens and W. Ronald were appointed a committee to outline restrictions to apply at future sessions to the payment of accounts from local municipalities with reference to smallpox outbreaks and report at the December sessions. This was carried.

The report of the House of Refuge committee recommended the payment of accounts amounting to $1,515 45. The report was adopted.

PRESENTED A BILL FOR KINRADE INQUEST

And Some of the Items Startle the Hamilton Finance Committee.

Hamilton, June 11.—The accounts for the Kinrade murder inquest were presented by Coroner Anderson to the finance committee yesterday afternoon and gave some of the aldermen a shock. The account for jurors' fees was $120 and that allowed the jurors only the regular fee of 50 cents a session. Coroner Anderson said Mr. Blackstock had suggested to him that in view of the protracted sessions held the jurors should receive double fees and it had also been intimated that the Government would be willing to pay half of the extra amount. It was decided not to take any action until it was learned definitely what the Government would do. Chairman Peregrine said the jurors had the moral support of the aldermen even if they did not get their financial support. The coroner's bill was for $40, that the county will have to pay, but the coroner asked the aldermen for their moral support in his endeavor to have the amount increased to $80. He felt that he had earned double the regular fees. There was no dispute about an account for $1 for serving the famous coroner's warrant on Florence Kinrade and it will be paid.

Three of the doctors who were in attendance at the inquest want $30 each for their services, which is at the rate of $5 a session. City Treasurer Leckie stated that all they were entitled to was $5 each, and intimated that when the accounts were presented to him he would refuse to pay them any more. W. McHaffie sent in a bill for $250 for taking the evidence at the inquest. A sub-committee will deal with his account.

A company capitalized at $500,000 has been organized at Atlanta, Ga., for the purpose of manufacturing paper from cotton stalks, a heretofore useless by-product. It is claimed that paper can be made from cotton stalks at a cost of about $15 a ton
