this was not Ald. Kerr, but the Attorney General of Portland.

Ald. Kerr opposed the appointment on the ground that his namesake held an office under the administration of Pugsley, Crawford & Pugsley, and that his legal duties required his sole attention. He nominated Thos. McPherson. Mr. Kerr was appointed, as were the following: Thos. C. Hennigar, East District of Queens; Jas. H. Akerley, West District of Queens; John Herrington, Dukes; Calvin Powers, Sydney; Robt. Carson, Wellington; John McGourty, Prince; Samuel Clark, West Side.

Notice to Mariners.

Washington, April 16—The Lighthouse Board gives notice that on and after April 20, 1875, there will be sounded during thick and foggy weather at Dumpling Rock Light Station, Buzzard's Bay, Mass, a Fog Bell, struck by machinery, giving two blows in quick succession alternately with a single blow, at intervals of thirty seconds. The bell-tower is located sixty feet south of the lighthouse. Also, that during thick and foggy weather there will be sounded at Nobsque Point, on the northerly side of the entrance to Woods Hole Harbor, Mass, a Fog Bell struck by machinery, giving two blows in quick succession alternately with a single blow, at intervals of thirty seconds. The bell-tower is 117 feet south-west of the light house.

Second Edition.

Common Council.

Chas. S. Taylor was reappointed Harbor Master.

Joseph O'Brien was nominated for Harbor Inspector. Ald. Kerr nominated Robt. Fulton and stated he would oppose O'Brien's reappointment because he had failed to carry out an agreement to pay $200 to late Inspector Murray. On question, Mr. O'Brien was declared elected.

The old Portwardens, Surveyors, and other city officers were re-appointed.

James Ship was appointed Pound Keeper, East Side.

Ald. McCordock moved that the West Side members be paid $100 each out of the common land fund for their services for the past year. This was seconded by Coun. Nannary.

Ald. Brittain said he would support the motion if the payment were made after all demands against the fund were satisfied.

Ald. McCordock thought the services of some members of the board were worth at least $500. He claimed the sum as being a payment for which the people had petitioned.

Coun. Nannary said he should vote for the motion because he thought he was entitled to the money. The people who sent him to the Council had understood that he should receive $100, and he believed it was right the sum should be voted. Occasionally some needy Bohemians of the press made a cry about it, but he thought he himself was entitled to five times the amount. The motion was carried.

Coun. Coxetter then moved and Ald. Kerr seconded the motion that the East Side members each receive $100 from the Contingent Fund. The Mayor stated he had taken advice on the subject and believed the Council had a right to vote themselves the money from the Contingent Fund and that he was justified in putting the motion. The vote was taken and the motion carried without a dissenting voice. Ald. Melick, who has all along stated his intention of opposing the grab, blushed perceptibly.

After $1800 had been thus voted away inside of five minutes a long talk took place about some asphalt sidewalks and the necessity of economy being practiced. The motion that an asphalt sidewalk be laid on Waterloo street, from Peters to Golding, was referred to the street committee.

Ald. Melick, in return, briefly thanked the Board for their courtesy, and asked a continuance of it to his successor, "a very worthy young man." Similar remarks were made by Coun. Robinson. Ald. Russell made a brief gush of oratory, comparing himself to a cat in a strange house, the Council being that house. He referred to the Council as a convivial lot of fellows, and paid a high compliment to the Mayor, who he thought should remain until "silver threads among the golden" made their appearance in his head. With an effloresent peroration he sat down.

Coun. Nannary said, "Me, too."

Coun. McCordock bade a long farewell to all his glory at the Board, he stepping out after eight years's services. He also spoke on behalf of Coun. Clark, whose seat had been vacated by his recent appointment.

The Mayor, in addressing the Board, spoke in high terms of the retiring members, and in referring to himself claimed that he had endeavored to do his duty to the best of his ability.

The Common Clerk then rose with dignity and advancing to the throne administered the usual oaths to his Worship.

The Aldermen and Councillors elect were then sworn and took their seats and after some further swearing the Council adjourned.

Still another Burglary.

The law defying, midnight prowling thieves are getting bolder every week. Last night they paid a visit to the candy shop of Mr. John Gibbs, Union street, and escaped without being heard. The entrance was effected by a back window and after the thieves got into the shop they deliberately examined the premises with the aid of lighted paper. In the cash drawer they found a few cents, but a box with $4 worth of cents escaped their notice. They decamped by the window at which they had entered, carrying two boxes of candy, but these were found in the yard this morning. A curious feature of the affair is that a violin was taken from its case and left lying on the table. Whether the thieves felt so secure that they diverted themselves with a tune is not known. The thieves found a safe open, but no money in it, and in their efforts to find something of value must have burned a large quantity of paper. Paper cinders were found everywhere, and it is a wonder the shop was not set on fire in the ramble. Mr. Thomas Peters, returning home about midnight, saw two lads running away, and it is thought they were the thieves. The beat is patrolled by a city policeman and a private watchman, but no noise was heard.

Point Lepreaux, April 20th, 9 a. m.—Wind N. W., strong.

Several inches of snow have fallen since morning, and the storm still rages.

Schr. Nettie, which arrived Sunday, is consigned to C. L. Richards, not as reported.

The howling winds and drifting snow operated adversely to the auction interests at Chubb's Corner this morning, and the sale of Mt. Pleasant Avenue lots and Joggins Coal Mining stocks were indefinitely postponed.

A bold attempt was made to break into a house on Orange st. on Sunday night. The robbers tried to effect an entrance by breaking the iron guards to a basement window, but were so noisy that the owner of the house was awakened, and on hearing him moving around the premises they fled.

Lee's Opening.

Lee's Opera House was full last evening, every seat and all the standing room being occupied. All the performers were heartily applauded. Miss Clifton became a favorite as soon as she appeared, and gained in favor during the evening. Frank Hussey gained great applause in his several appearances, and the trapeze performances of the Lamonts were never equalled in this city.

It is no longer an idle dream or boasting to affirm that Fellows' Hypophosphites, wherein are united nature's forces, will strengthen man and make his life not only endurable, but sparkling with rude and joyous health; this then we recommend when vitality is on the wane, or when the organism becomes enfeebled.
