Poetry.

OLD ENGLAND.

Though she sits in her island-home,
Wreathed among her peers;
And Liberty oft to her arms doth come
To ease her poor heart of fears;
Old England still throws with the mettled two
Of a Fleet she can never forget;
And still shall she banner the world up higher,
For there's life in the Old Land yet.
Hurrah!
There's life in the Old Land yet.

That great Hero-Mother's not weary yet,
There is cry in the Saxon tree,
And she lifts a bosom of glory yet,
Through her mists to the sun and the sea,
Fair as the Queen of Love fresh from the foam
Or a Star in a dark cloud set;
Ye may lighten her shuttle, ye may leap at her fame,
But there's life in the Old Land yet.
Hurrah!
There's life in the Old Land yet.

They would scoff at her now, who of old look'd forth
In their fear, when they heard her shot;
Oh, but loud will your wail be, poor Kings of the Earth,
When the Old Land goes down to the war;
The avalanche trembles, he's launch'd, and half riven,
Her voice shall in motion set:
Then ring out the tidings, ye winds of heaven.
There's life in the Old Land yet.
Hurrah!
There's life in the Old Land yet.

Let the storm burst, it will find the Old Land
Ready-rife for a rough, red fray;
She will fight as she fought, red fray!
She will fight as she fought when she took her stand
For the Right in olden day.
Ay, rouse the old royal soul! Europe's best hope
Is her sword-edge by Victory set!
She shall dash Freedom's foes adown Death's bloody slope
For there's life in the Old Land yet.
Hurrah!
There's life in the Old Land yet.

THE BALTIC FLEET SEAMEN'S SONG.

Again the Flag of England waves on the Baltic Sea—
Again we have before our guns a stately enemy;
Oh for an hour of Nelson to send the thunder home!
To break their line of battle thro', and tell them Britons come!

Yet, cheer ye up, my messmates—we doubt not there will be,
Now that the foe's before us, a man as good as he;
The hour will make a Nelson and a Vanguard still to lead—
In is the hour that makes the man and makes the gallant dead.

We sail not as oppressors—we combat with the strong;
And England is again at sea that she may right the wrong.
War is not of our seeking, but when to war we must,
To him who rules the battle we bow our heads in trust.
Vain glory is a bubble; our glory is His cause—
Our glory is our freedom, our happy homes, and laws.
To share His boon with others—to the rescue of the weak.
For this we leave our ports behind and with our broadsides speak.

Hurrah, then, for our noble Fleet! once more we are at sea,
Hurrah, for inerty England and another victory!
Nelson's ship at the Nile.

A man having hurt his forehead was advised to rub it with brandy. Some days after being asked if he had done so, he answered, 'I have tried seven times, but can never get the glass higher than my mouth.'

Wanted at this office, an editor who can please everybody. Also a Foreman who can so arrange the paper, as to allow every man's advertisement to appear at the head of the column.—Culpeper Observer.

A pig joke.—We had a hearty laugh the other day, at hearing a friend telling of a man who was to "yoke a pig." He had cornered the grunter in a room having a glazed window, when the animal, believing they were preparing to infringe upon his full freedom, went with a single bound through the window. "Drat it," said the old man looking after him a moment, in astonishment, "I've got you dimension anyhow—seven by nine, exactly.

The Renowned Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A SHORT NEVERFAILING CURE OF SCROFULOUS ULCERS.—A CASE CERTIFIED BY THE MAYOR OF BOSTON.

Copy of a Letter from J. Mobb, Esq., Mayor of Boston, Lincolnshire.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—Mrs. Sarah Brown, of Liquorpond-st., Boston, has this day informed before me that for a considerable period she was severely afflicted with Scrofulous Sores and Ulcers in her arms, feet, legs, and other parts of her body; and although the best of medical advice was obtained, at the cost of a large sum of money, she obtained no abatement of suffering, but gradually grew worse.

Being recommended by a friend to try your Ointment, she procured a small pot, and a box of the Pills, and before that was all used, symptoms of amendment appeared. By persevering with the medicines for a short time longer, according to the directions, and strictly adhering to your rules as to diet, &c., she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,
August 12th, 1852. (Signed) J. MOBB.

AN EXTRAORDINARY AND RAPID CURE OF ERYSIPELAS IN THE LEG, AFTER MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Yeates, of the Post Office, Aldwick Head, near Bognor, Sussex, dated Jan. 12th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I suffered for a considerable period from a severe attack of Erysipelas, which at length settled in my leg, and resisted all medical treatment. My sufferings were very great, and I quite despaired of any permanent amendment, when I was advised to have recourse to your Ointment and Pills. I did so without delay, and am happy to say, the result was eminently successful, for they effected a radical cure of my leg, and restored me to the enjoyment of health. I shall ever speak with the utmost confidence of your medicines, and have to recommended them to others in this neighborhood similarly afflicted, who derived equal benefit.

I am, Sir, your obliged and faithful servant,
(Signed) ELIZABETH YEATES.

A WRETCHFULLY DISFIGURED ANKLE CURED AFTER BEING GIVEN UP BY THE FACULTY IN MALTA AND PORTSMOUTH HOSPITALS.

The following important communication has been forwarded to Professor Holloway for publication, by Mr. B. Dixon, Chemist, King-st., Norwich.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Smith of Great Yarmouth, dated January 19th, 1853.

To Mr. Dixon.

Dear Sir,—I send you the particulars of a cure effected by Professor Holloway's invaluable medicines: Mr. John Walton, late in Her Majesty's Service, in the British Fleet at Malta, had a very bad ulcerated ankle, and after having been in the Malta Hospital for six months, was sent to England as an invalid to Portsmouth Hospital, where he remained six more four months, there, as at Malta, refusing to have the limb amputated, he was turned out incurable. He then came to Yarmouth, and was under a medical gentleman for about three months, but his ancle became so much worse, that all hope was lost. At this period, by my advice, he tried Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which by unremitted application, healed all the ulcers, and restored him to perfect health and strength.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours very truly,
(Signed) JOHN SMITH.

Albert Hotel, Great Yarmouth.

SCROFULOUS CURE OF A BAD BREAST, NERVOUS DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL-HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. T. P. Ker, Chemist, &c. Lower Moss-Lane, Manchester, dated February 12th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir.—I have great pleasure in forwarding to you the particulars of a very extraordinary cure of a bad breast, effected solely by the use of your celebrated Ointment and Pills. Mrs. Martha Bell, of Pitt-street, in this town, had been for a considerable time labouring under nervous debility, loss of appetite, and general ill health, accompanied by ulcerated wounds in the breast. She had had much experience in the use of all the known remedies for the cure of ulcers, but without any beneficial result, in fact she had nearly lost all faith and hope of a cure being effected. In this distressing and painful condition of body and mind, she was persuaded to have recourse to your inestimable Ointment and Pills, which she immediately did, and in the course of a very short time the effect produced was most astonishing; her appetite was speedily improved, the sores and ulcers in the breast gradually healed, and the nervous excitement of her system was wholly removed.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours faithfully,
T. FORSTER KER.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:
