A wit has just discovered the true reason for bravery in negro troops; they are the color-benders of the human race.

Prejudices are like rats, and a man's mind like a trap; they get in easily, and then perhaps can't get out at all.

The lady looks oldest who tries to conceal her age. If she refuses to let her age be upon her tongue, it will be all the more in her face.

Charles Lamb's opinion of the water cure: "It is neither new nor wonderful, for it is as old as the deluge, when, in my opinion it killed more than it cured."

'And so you have married a Mr. Penny,' said a gentleman to a lady of his acquaintance. 'No, Mr. Pence,' she replied. 'Ah, said he, 'you have done better than I bought.'

A pedlar being asked by a long spindle-shanked wag, if he had any tin overalls, 'No, but I have a pair of candle moulds that will just fit you.'

Among the list of penalties for the regulation of Queen Elizabeth's household was the following:—'That none toy with the maidens on pain of fourpence.'

☞ It was reported both at London and Quebec, that the Hon. John Carling would retire from the representation of that City, in order to make room for Mr. Foley. The Free Press says that the story is a canard.

Bishop Horne had his dignity somewhat taken down when he took possession, of the episcopal palace at Norich, in 1792. He turned round upon the steps, and exclaimed, "bless us, bless us! what a multitude of people!"—"Oh! my lord" said a bystander, "this is nothing to the crowd last Friday to see a man hanged."

A naval officer, for his courage in a former engagement, where he had lost his leg, had been preferred to the command of a good ship. In the heat of the next engagement a cannon-ball took off his wooden deputy, so that he fell upon the deck. A seaman, thinking he had been wounded, again called out for a surgeon. "No, no," said the captain, "the carpenter will do."

☞ George Thompson, the English abolitionist, lectured in Rochester on Monday evening, and on the following evening was to speak on "The Unionists and Copperheads of Great Britain.

CHURCH OPENING IN GALT.—The handsome new Church recently erected by the Congregation (Presbyterian) over which the Rev. R. Acheson presides in this town, was opened for Divine Service last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Acheson and Rev. Dr. Cooper, of Philadelphia, preached. The collection during the three services amounted to the handsome sum of $121 93. The edifice itself, is the finest church building in Galt.—Dumfries Reformer.

A SHORT CUT TO A BISHOP'S HEART.—The Lord Bishop of Cork (formerly Rev. John Gregg, of Dublin,) at a late meeting in that city, dwelt strongly upon the duty of the clergy to visit the poor. "Give me the clergyman who goes down into the dark, damp cellar, where the poor man lives, and who knows every paving-stone about the place. Give me the man who will go in and talk to Biddy, and Jack, and Tom. That's the way to get to the Bishop; that the short cut to the Bishop's heart and respect. (Loud cheers.)

A REMEDY FOR TOBACCO CHEWING.—Those who acquired the filthy habit of chewing tobacco, and wish to abandon it, are, through an American paper, offered the following remedy:—'A friend of mine overcame the habit of chewing tobacco by substituting a bit of cracker for his accustomed quid. He had previously tried camomile flowers and other means, without success, and adopted the cracker upon the recommendation of a casual stage coach companion some years ago. His hankering for tobacco was soon overcome, and he has never had a relish for it since. He gave up the use of the crackers also in a few weeks.

NOT TO BE CAUGHT!—The Marquis of Clanricarde recently moved for the correspondence with the Confederate States in reference to the removal of the British consuls from Southern ports. Earl Russel said he would agree to the motion for papers if the words "so called" were inserted before "Confederate States." The motion, as amended was agreed to. Earl Russel was not to be trapped into an informal recognition of the Confederates.

LUXURY EXEMPLIFIED.—The following advertisement appeared some years ago in the London Times:—"To the Clergy. An incumbent would resign to one not under 46 years of age, a beautiful living, a perfect gem, one of the prettiest things in England, with an excellent new freestone front house, facing a park, in the county of Somerset, productive garden, lawn, pleasure grounds, wall, fruit, coach-house, stabling for six horses, out-houses—no trouble as to income—duty easy, the whole worth £720 a year. Terms. Incoming incumbent to pay down £1900, to indemnify the present incumbent's outlay on the spot, and for his fixtures and his old wine, worth £180; also, for live stock, including three cows, horses and pony carriage—pianoforte, by Stodart, cost 85 guineas; hand organ by Wright, cost £38 plate and linen, and a few pictures."

TRAFFIC ON THE SARNIA BRANCH OF THE GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY.—The traffic on this end of the Great Western has been much greater this spring than any previous time. For some weeks back they have run as many as four and five trains daily, loaded with square timber and staves, for shipment at Hamilton. The Company have already commenced to enlarge their wharves here, and we believe is their intention to put a roof over the entire tenth of the wharf north of the freight house, for the purpose of protecting the cargoes landed here by the propellers from Chicago.—Sarnia Observer.

DAYS' HOTEL,

ON THE GRAVEL ROAD,
NEAR WROXETER,

THE subscriber, in returning thanks to the public for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon him—especially while in business on an unfinished state—takes this opportunity of expressing to his many friends and the public generally, of the fact that his house now stands in excellent repair, and is one of the best in the County, and therefore trusts that by a proper attention to business he will still merit the share of patronage hitherto bestowed upon him. Let no stage-coach or other conveyed individual persuade you into the belief that it is all the same whether you go to Wroxeter or not, because not only is it's noise not in that place, but is 2 miles nearer to any road that is travellable, and therefore travellers going to Belmore, Teeswater, Wingham, &c., will find "Days Hotel" on the main gravel road, about a mile beyond the finger board pointing to Wroxeter, and can expect superior accommodation and a hearty welcome at any hour of day or night. Our stabling is the most commodious in the county (city hotels, perhaps, excepted.) For a view of the house see R. W. Hermon, R. Martin and L. Bolton's New Map of the County.

IS THERE any VIRTUE in
Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER
AND ZYLOBALSAMUM?

Convincing Testimony.

REV. C. A. BUCKBEE, Assistant Treasurer American Bible Union, N. Y. City, writes: "I very cheerfully add my testimony to that of numerous friends, to the great value of Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer and Zylobalsamum."
REV. WM. CUTTER, N. Y. City: "My hair is changed to its natural color, and growing on bald spot."
REV. J. H. CORNELL, N. Y. City: "I procured it for a relative. The falling of the hair stopped, and restored it from being grey to its natural and beautiful color."
REV. J. WEST, Brooklyn, L. I.: "I will testify to their value in the most liberal sense. They have restored my hair where it was bald, and where grey, to its original color."
REV. A. WEBSTER, Boston, Mass: "I have used them with great effect. I am now neither bald nor grey. My hair was dry and brittle; it is now soft as in youth."
REV. H. V. DEGEN, Boston, Mass: "That they promote the growth of the hair where baldness is, I have the evidence of my own eyes."
