SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 25, 1885.

The Sunday Paper.

Dear World: As an old friend I must take you to task for the expression at the close of your article on Sunday newspapers in issue of 24th, signifying your intention to proceed in defiance of the law. In these days the power possessed by newspapers greatly adds to their responsibility and I would urge on you that a defiance of existing law on your part is a ground for justifying the contempt for and the breaking of any law. The question of your success in issuing a Sunday paper in spite of the law is therefore a wider one than the principle at stake in Sunday observance: it means the justification of the resistance of law by all who may have either moral, financial or physical force to back them in doing so. Your action against the libellers the other day cannot on this basis be justified on the grounds of right, for if the people of this city had been sufficiently anxious for libellous matter they would then have just as good ground for breaking the law as you. Do take an old friend's advice and show your wisdom and increase your real influence by declining to pursue what is evidently a wrong method to obtain your end. You have a right to agitate for a secular Sunday and seven days work all you think proper, and if you are right you can get the law altered, and if wrong you will, like every honest citizen, bow to the decision of the people expressed by a majority. This way only is the right way. Walk ye in it.

Sincerely your friend, W. H. HOWLAND.

In the first place we beg to assure Mr. Howland of our profound respect and warmest consideration. He is an old friend of The World, and we trust he will ever continue to be. Our old friend however does an injustice through a misapprehension of our position; but we are confident that he will at once put us right when we explain that we have no intention of breaking the law or of setting a bad example to evil doers, or of upholding the doctrine that right is might. We only said that if issuing a Sunday paper on Sunday is illegal, then we shall issue it (if the news calls for it) at the last moment of Saturday night or so early on Sunday morning that neither the peace of the Sabbath nor the religious decency that ought to be observed on that day is interfered with. We shall not defy the law but go round it. Just what the law is on this vexed question we should like to know, and with Mr. Howland's assistance and Mr. Fenton's helping hand, we may soon learn. The Globe newspaper is a notorious violator of the Sunday law, and some well-disposed citizens purpose surrounding that office to-morrow evening and taking down the names of those who it is alleged break the sanctity of the day by working on its Monday paper. The deacon however will not be caught; he will be found at the other end of the telephone. While we again assure our old friend of our high esteem and warm admiration we trust he will do his best to regulate the bad deacon and show him the error of preaching piety in his columns while he teaches disregard of moral and state law by keeping engravers and reporters at work all Sunday.

Brighten up your homes by having the Morning World delivered under the door before breakfast.

A Temperance Party.

A new paper called the Canadian Patriot, published in Belleville, a pronounced advocate of the Scott act, says the time has come when the temperance party must have a daily organ in some live centre, probably meaning Toronto. We had always understood that the Montreal Witness was the daily organ of the temperance party, and that the Globe of Toronto, Advertiser of London, and one or two other papers, were in effect, Scott act journals. This statement of the Patriot and the result of the recent election in West Northumberland go to show that the temperance people are coming to see that they must form a party of their own with complete organization in the way of organs and management of elections. The next general election may have three parties in the fight.

La Presse of Montreal says the stories alleged to have been told by Sergeant Nelson of the 10th Royals, regarding the conduct of the 65th of Montreal, are untrue, and it demands that the military authorities discipline Nelson in the severest manner for his calumnies.

The Ouimet mystery is still unsolved, or rather the only rational explanation of his peculiar conduct so far is that advanced by The World, namely: that Mr. Ouimet is head and front of the Quebec clique, who have resolved to oppose a further grant to the C. P. R., unless their province receives a sop in the shape of a return to the municipalities of all money advanced to the roads built by the government of that province. We expect to see the government proposal for the relief of the C. P. R. brought down in a few days, and probably there will go with it the better terms for Quebec. We hope however that the government will be strong enough to resist this unfortunate and impertinent demand.

The country storekeeper reads The World. So does the village doctor and the rural dean.

A Sad Neglect.

—Neglecting a constipated condition the bowels is sure to bring ill-health and great suffering. Burdock Blood Bitters regulate the bowels in a natural manner, purifying the blood and promote a healthy action of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. 246

—Wanted, a full load of watches, clocks and jewelry to repair every day. Gold and silver plating richly executed. Goods sold on weekly payments. Hail the bell wagon when it is passing, or notify by post to call. The wagons pass on your street the same day every week. Any signal given from your door or window will be gladly received. Don't fail to signal, although the wagon gets far past, it is the driver's business to see you and turn around and go back. Dominion house, 10 King street east. G. F. Rice. 36

IT LEADS ALL.

No other blood-purifying medicine is made, or has ever been prepared, which so completely meets the wants of physicians and the general public as

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It leads the list as a truly scientific preparation for all blood diseases. If there is a lurking taint of Scrofula about you, SCROFULA AYER'S SARSAPARILLA will dislodge it and expel it from your system. For constitutional or scrofulous Catarrh, CATARRH AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is the true remedy. It has cured numberless cases. It will stop the nauseous catarrhal discharges, and remove the sickening odor of the breath, which are indications of scrofulous origin.

"Hutto, Tex., Sept. 28, 1882.

ULCEROUS "At the age of two years one of SORES my children was terribly afflicted with ulcerous running sores on its face and neck. At the same time its eyes were swollen, much inflamed, and very sore. SORE EYES Physicians told us that a powerful alterative medicine must be employed. They united in recommending AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. A few doses produced a perceptible improvement, which, by an adherence to your directions, was continued to a complete and permanent cure. No evidence has since appeared of the existence of any scrofulous tendencies; and no treatment of any disorder was ever attended by more prompt or effectual results.

Yours truly, B. F. JOHNSON."

A Golden Opinion.

—Mrs. Wm. Allan of Acton declares that Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the best household remedy in the world for colds, croup, sore throat, burns, scalds and other painful complaints. Her opinion is well founded. 246

What the People Say.

—That at 360 Queen street west Doherty, the watchmaker, gives universal satisfaction. His watches are the best you can buy. His watch repairing is not equalled. His spectacles, eye glasses and optical goods do not want any recommendation. THAT'S ALL. 136

In the literature of assessment life insurance societies will generally be found a comparison showing the difference between their cost for the first few years and the highest with profit rates of some old line company. But the comparison ought always to be with the lowest short-term rate.

THE ÆTNA LIFE'S
RENEWABLE TERM PLAN
Furnishes very cheap life insurance for a ten-year term, and the policy can be renewed each ten years without medical re-examination, and has always been so renewed for seven years past, at the same low rate originally paid. No assessment, or mutual benefit, or society insurance can be had of so reliable and durable a character at so low a cost.
The following shows the cost per $1000 of the mere death calls in five of the most carefully conducted benefit societies of the United States and Canada, ten years in existence:

Name.	Address.	1874.	1878.	1883.
Temp. Mut Ben.	Easton, Pa.	$4.27	$13.06	$20.40
Oddfel's Mut.	Montrose, Pa.	6.51	15.27	46.09
Uni. Bro. M. A.	Lebanon, Pa.	8.24	18.61	28.15
SouTier Mason.	Elmira, N.Y.	6.50	11.93	16.70
Mason. Mu. Ben.	London, Ont.	8.01	15.40	17.40
Average of the 5, per $1000		6.72	14.23	25.79
Adding $3 for expenses		9.72	17.23	28.75
The Ætna's premium, age 35, is $17.36, but the return value at the end of 10 years has reduced the net cost to		9.47	9.47	9.47
Ætna policy holder saving		0.25	7.76	19.28
