SCOOT TO THE
Christmas has come and gone, and it is a thing of the past, and I have been informed, by many, that they were very sorry they were rather late, and I think it is a good thing for them to make such remarks, but I wish to inform them that I can shell out on Christmas and New Years, and will be on hand to drop in on the old year with a free and midnight service and they can see me shelling out the Oysters in season to spending the old year and welcoming the incoming New Year.
Remember the York Street Restaurant, hopper hang on corner on night as I mean lots of cash as subscribe meeting down and I've got to pay the tailor a visit.
My customers will please bear with this unfortunate delay and I will make up for it in the future by giving them a Happy and prosperous New Year.
G. REX LEEK, PROPRIETOR
York Street Restaurant.
