LIEUT.-GOV. LANDED THE GOVERNOR'S CUP

The Favorite, Fountain Fay, Beaten in Feature Race—King Cash Repeats.

Privet Petal, carrying the silks of the lieutenant-governor, J. S. Hendrie, captured the feature race, the Connaught Cup, at the Woodbine yesterday afternoon. Privet Petal ran a much improved race over his effort on the holiday, when he quit badly after going a mile and was easily beaten by Fountain Fay. The Miller pair, Fair Montague and Tartarean, were scratched. Privet Petal was second choice in the betting and when the barrier was released the Livingston-bred four-year-old raced into an easy lead and finished three-quarters of a length in front of Fountain Fay. The Davies stable captured this race for the last three years and Fountain Fay, who was coupled with King Hamburg as the Davies entry, went to the post a heavily-played first choice. Fountain Fay was slow to get going but made a fast finish. The Hamilton filly, Ormulu, finished third, half a length behind Fountain Fay. Ormulu ran impressively and the race will improve her a lot. The province-bred Linsin was fourth, five lengths in the rear of Ormulu. Capt. Legh represented the duke at the race yesterday. President Seagram handed over the gold trophy to Col. Hendrie. The crowd was well up to the average and the track fast.

Yorkville, carrying the colors of the Toronto owner, W. J. McIlmurray, captured the opening event of the day by a head in a driving finish from the field horse, Lady London, who just got up in time to beat York Lad a neck for the place. York Lad was third, a head in front of J. H. Houghton, who came from away back and finished going faster than any of them.

The talent got a great surprise in the second race for two-year-old fillies when Edward McBride's undefeated Pesky was beaten a length by Blume, who paid better than 8 to 1 straight. Blume is a half-sister to Pesky. H. P. Whitney of New York bred both colts and sold them to the owners under whose colors they raced yesterday. Blume is a chestnut filly by Broomstick—Blue Girl, and Pesky a brown filly by Broomstick—Perverse. It was the first time that Pesky had started in a race of four and one-half furlongs, while Blume's last two starts were over that distance. Pesky and Welga were away first and showed the way into the stretch, where Blume came very fast and beat Pesky a length for first money. Pesky was second, a length in front of Casco, who was third, four lengths ahead of Tush Tush. Welga stopped badly the last half.

Lady Curzon, who was favorite for the King's Plate this year, shouldered 122 lbs. and had no trouble in capturing the Maple Leaf Stakes. Going down the back stretch Shilling hustled her into the lead and after that the race was never in doubt. The daughter of Plaudit—The Belle of Mayfair galloped by the wire pulled up by six lengths. Charlie Crew's Cannie Jean was second, half a length in front of Maiden Bradley, who was third, five lengths in front of the second choice, Torn Silk.

King Cash had little trouble in capturing the steeplechase. Wolke rated him along in second place the first turn of the field and when they reached the thirteenth jump moved up on equal terms with the pacemaker, Young Morpheus. King Cash made a couple of bad landings, but easily beat Young Morpheus two lengths for the long end of the purse. Young Morpheus was an easy second, ten lengths in front of the African, who was third, thirty lengths ahead of Dr. Holzberg. The race was run over the new course and none of the horses went down.

Jim Arthur won his daily purse when Encore captured the sixth race by a nose from The Spirit. Encore was away well and set a fast pace and barely lasted long enough to stall off the fast coming Spirit. Encore was in the field and paid a good price. The Spirit was two lengths ahead of the favorite, Glint, who finished third, a nose in front of Ada Anne.

After running in close quarters all the way Black Broom came on and won the last race of the day by a length from Beau Pere, who was second, a head in front of Fenrock. The latter was third, a length and one-half in front of the favorite, Zodiac.

Albert Simons is expected today from Belmont Park with the Thompson horse Slumberer II., who is entered in the Toronto Cup, to be run Saturday.

Thursday was the worst day of the meeting for the favorites, Lady Curzon and King Cash being the only first choices to land. Of the beaten favorites, Pesky and Fountain Fay finished second, York Lad and Glint third and Zodiac fourth. Yorkville, Blume and Encore were long shots and Privet Petal second choice.
