THAT SHEEPSHEAD BAY CASE.

The Stewards' Finding Confirmed—Evidence Was Conclusive.

New York, Sept. 8.—The N.S.A. stewards of the Sheepshead Bay meeting resumed their investigation of Saturday's steeplechase. J. Nixon, the owner of the Wellington Stable, was given the first hearing he had had in the case, and various other witnesses were questioned, the upshot being that the stewards confirmed the finding of Saturday, when the entries of the Wellington Stable were ordered refused for the future, and G. Hamilton's license was revoked. No facts were given out, but one of the stewards stated that the evidence presented was conclusive, and that possibly the matter might be traced further.

The case will be appealed to the full Board of Stewards of the N.S.A.

The matter has created much discussion, writes Francis Trevelyan in The Journal. The rumor that Hamilton was under the influence of liquor is undoubtedly unfounded, as he has been on the total abstaining list since last March. Hamilton freely says that he rode a bad finish and should have won, but states that on the sloppy, slippery ground on the turn Lion Heart sprawled so badly that he took a "thumb wrap" on him, the reins being slippery with the wet. After the last fence he did not think St. Anthony could catch him, and did not realize any danger till a comparatively few yards from home, when it was impossible to loose his complicated "wrap" and get to the whip.

In this connection, it is interesting to note that Nick Chandler, who rode the winner, threw away his whip on the turn, in order to hold St. Anthony together on the greasy turf. Dunlap, who rode the favorite, Red Pat, was much disturbed yesterday because he had been accused of failing off. In actual fact, Red Pat was interfered with by Mandite, and jumped into the fence. Dunlap fell with his right leg under the horse, and besides narrowly escaping serious injury, was stunned for seven or eight minutes, and was carried over the track to a stable.

A RECEPTION TO GAUDAUR.

THE CITY ROWING AND ATHLETIC CLUBS WILL ASSIST.

The World's Champion Oarsman Will be Home About Sept. 21—Toronto's Heartiest Congratulations Cabled to London—Expert English Opinion Regarding Monday's Race on the Thames.

Last night at the Queen's Hotel there was a meeting of citizens to arrange for a reception of Gaudaur, the champion oarsman of the world. Among those present were: Harry Piper, chairman pro tem.; W. J. Littlejohn, secretary; E. E. Sheppard, T. C. Irving, Ald. George McMurrich, Ald. Hubbard, etc.

It was decided to give the champion a grand reception and the secretary was instructed to ask advice from the rowing and athletic clubs and to send delegates to the next meeting, which was fixed for next Friday night.

This cablegram was sent to Gaudaur:

"Toronto's heartiest congratulations."

Gaudaur will be here about Sept. 21, and it is proposed to give him a rousing welcome on his arrival in Toronto.

GAUDAUR IS GREAT.

London, Sept. 8.—(Telegram Special.)—In an interview this morning ex-Champion Stanbury said he was quite certain his boat touched Gaudaur's when the latter crossed over into his water the second time, but owing to his claim of a foul being disallowed nothing more could be done in the matter. He was beaten by a better man and that was all there was to it.

Gaudaur said cheerily that he did not know how he was rowing, as he saw he had Stanbury beaten shortly after the start.

Guy Nickalls, the famous amateur sculler and winner again and again of the Diamond Sculls at Henley, expressed the greatest surprise at the result. He had looked upon Stanbury all along as a winner, mainly from his record and the difference in age.

Hon. Rupert Guinness, winner of the Diamonds last year, said he watched the race closely. It was wonderful sculling throughout. He expressed admiration for Gaudaur's great staying powers.

Tom Sullivan of the Rutland Hotel, Stanbury's trainer, merely remarked that Gaudaur and the Australian would never row against each other again.

The Sportsman advises young scullers to take Gaudaur as a model and thinks the Canadian will retain his laurels for many years.

Sporting Life is of the same opinion, saying that the chances are against any Australian oarsman regaining the championship are poor.

There was little or no Canadian money here to back Gaudaur. A number of congratulatory cablegrams from Toronto, Orillia and other places were received by the winner during the afternoon and evening. The Canadian party will leave on Saturday's Cunarder.

YACHTS AT HAMILTON.

In the 27 and 22-foot class yacht races at Hamilton on Labor Day the yachtsmen of the Royal Hamilton and Victoria Yacht Clubs were afforded one of the most exciting sport of the season. In the former class were entered the redoubtable Hiawatha, whose achievements in the Lake Erie circuit have been coupled with those of the champion Canada; the Cuthbert boats Sylvia and Mirage, and Wona, all of Toronto; Nox of Rochester, Sybil of Buffalo and Saloia and Wang of Hamilton. In the first leg of the triangular course a drifting race placed the Mirage far in the lead, but a slant in the slight breeze just before the buoy was reached placed the Toronto boat at a disadvantage, the Sylvia rounding first, followed and the Hiawatha, Sybil and Saloia. The Sylvia in this point was splendidly sailed, and won handily. The Mirage showed her mettle when she again found the wind, and, running through the remainder of the fleet, put after the Hiawatha, which was scudding for the finish line in grand style. The contest between these boats was one of the grandest ever witnessed on these waters. The Mirage gained something more than four minutes on her rival during the last leg—a beat to windward—but the latter's lead was too great to be overcome in the distance, and the clever local boat was beaten by a scant six seconds. The summary is as follows.

	Start.	Elap. time.	Cor. Time
Sylvia	12.00	4.28.27	4.28.01
Hiawatha	12.00	4.40.34	4.40.13
Mirage	12.00	4.40.40	4.40.38
Sibyl	12.00	4.48.23	4.46.30

The 22-foot class race was a procession, the Koko of this city defeating Carull, Enid and a large fleet.

THE CHAMPION CRICKETERS.

Laing, Goldingham, Lyon, Rykert and Dean Return From Philadelphia.

Toronto's representatives on the champion Canadian cricket team returned yesterday. They are all united in the opinion that the bowling of Laing of the Toronto C.C. undoubtedly won the match. McGiverin had splendid success in the first innings, but Laing's terrific pace in the second was a surprise to the Philadelphians.

While Laing kept on bowling fast balls, McGiverin fed in slow ones, which, while not retiring many men, kept the Americans guessing all the time. Little of Halifax made a fine captain, and McIntosh proved a pretty wicket keeper. The fielding throughout was remarkably good.

All the Philadelphia writers agree that the American team entirely underestimated the Canadian bowlers.

The party arrived by the Corona and were warmly welcomed at the dock. Ald. Scott extended them formal congratulations and complimented them on their great victory.

MONTREAL DEFEATS ROSEDALE.

The Montreal cricket team played at Rosedale yesterday and won by 5 wkts to nil. Gilbert for the visitors scored 89 and Southam 20. For Rosedale, George S. Lyon, who just returned from Philadelphia, went in fourth wicket down and carried his bat through. Ducket, Montreal's fast bowler, was very destructive with the ball.

CRICKET SLIPS.

The following Butterflies play against Montreal at Rosedale, starting at 11 a.m. to-day: W. E. McMurtry, F. Grew, W. R. Wadsworth, J. Pimsley, J. Forester, W. R. Marshall, W. H. Mole, F. Loosemore, J. Cooper, J. G. Hall, W. Marks, A. A. Brewer, captain.

Toronto and Montreal play on the Rosedale lacrosse grounds to-day (Wednesday), starting at 10.45 a.m. The following will be the Toronto eleven: J. M. Laing, W. R. Wadsworth, G. Pimsley, E. G. Rykert, A. H. Collins, P. C. Goldingham, W. E. Murtry, A. A. Brewer, W. E. Dean, W. H. Cooper, F. F. Loosemore and F. Grew. A good match is anticipated as the visitors are strong.

SPORTING NOTES.

George G. Whittaker, Milwaukee's champion swimmer, has lowered the world's record for 100 yards from 1.00 3-5 to 1.00 flat. Whittaker made this record in competition.

The World understands the Canada is to be sold by auction. The syndicate owners agreed to dispose of her in this way immediately after the race, as the only fair way of settling her ownership. It is to be hoped that some of our Toronto yachtsmen will buy her, as she will be an important addition to the fleet. Torontonians cannot afford to let all the fast boats go to other ports. She will be sold on Tuesday, 15th September, at 4 p.m. by Messrs. C. J. Townsend & Co. at their rooms, 22 King-street west.

Syracuse, N.Y., Sept. 8.—The Stars made it four straight from the Canucks to-day. Toronto used three pitchers, but could not stop the batting streak the home team developed in the second innings. BERLIN'S GREAT RECORD.

Berlin, Sept. 8.—The Berlin Baseball Club, leaders in the Waterloo County League, have had a series of nine successive victories lately. On Berlin's Civic Holiday Waterloo was beaten in an exhibition game; on Saturday, 5th inst., the Brantford Beavers were shut out, the score standing 11 to 0; and this week Berlin and Waterloo met again in an exhibition game at Waterloo, when the Waterloo club was again defeated by 14 to 8. Waterloo's pitcher, South Paw Hardy, was batted all over the lot. The last games in the league series will be played off this week. The standing of the respective clubs is as follows: Berlin, Waterloo, Galt, Hespeler, Preston. Baseball has become the popular sport in Berlin.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Antelopes defeated the White Oaks. Score:

Antelopes	3	1	2	1	0	3	0	2	3—	15
White Oaks	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	1—	3

Batteries—Maloney and Kemp; Myers and Noble.

Rochester has signed Cohen and Tull of the Lyons team. Cohen played with Rochester for a while; his work at 3rd base has been all right. Tull is a very good pitcher. Both men were released by Lyons because they objected to the hotel accommodations provided by the management.

The Orioles defeated the Red Stockings twice on the holiday, in the morning by 12 to 8 and in the afternoon by 11 to 5. Lee pitched the Orioles to victory, the Red Stockings getting four hits in the morning and five in the afternoon. Four of the afternoon hits were made off Mullane, who retired in the second. The Orioles have now met and defeated all the best clubs in the city.

COMPETITION IN THE C.L.A.

THE GAMES AND AN UNUSUALLY EXTENDED SEASON.

Clubs That Hold District Championships—Many Games Yet to be Played—The Council and Protests—Everyone Not Satisfied—The Champion Club Will be Decided Within a Fortnight.

Competition for the intermediate championships in all the C.L.A. championships has been unusually keen this year, and thus it is no wonder that the Council had protests galore to deal with. Of course all clubs could not be satisfied, but Markham is one of the twelve that seems to have a grievance, and it is understood the officials there will yet have something to say on the matter. Secretary Vance writes that the season has been unusually extended, owing to so many ties games having to be played before the various districts could demonstrate which particular club was entitled to the district championship, but matters are so shaping that inside of a fortnight the question as to which club shall fly the intermediate championship banner will be settled. So far the following clubs hold district championships:

Niagara, Alerts of St. Catharines; Central, Aetnas of Georgetown; Northern, of Orillia; Eastern, Peterboros of Peterborough; Eastern, Peterboros of Peterboro; Quinte, Madocs of Madoc; Southern, Dufferins of Ingersoll.

The following districts have yet to settle the question of district championships: York District—Richmond, Toronto Junction and Bolton, tied. The Richmond Hill protest (pending) may affect the result. Midland District—Stouffville and Markham to play off a tie. Northwestern District—Grand Valley or Mount Forest will win. Huron District—Seaforth and Mitchell, tied. Charges pending against Mitchell may affect result. Bruce and Western Districts—No competition recorded.
