Chicago Gossip.

Marshall, Spader & Co. wired to J. G. Beaty at the close:

Wheat—It is difficult to say anything of interest on a market like this, so bare of feature as this one, but traders are more or less puzzled as to the situation of the nearby position of wheat, and rather timid as regards the new crop, on account of the existence of insects over such a large territory.

There are a good many crop experts out; all kinds of news will be in circulation, and, judging from the disparity already existing, in these reports, it looks as if the Ananias Club would have numerous new members qualified, and possibly a pretty extensive waiting list in addition.

Ennis & Stoppani wired to J. L. Mitchell at the close:

Wheat—Market has been very inactive, altho ruling fractionally higher during most of the session. Principal foreign markets are firmer. Northwestern receipts somewhat lower, and a number of reports of bugs and flies in the best wheat growing counties of Kansas, which found reflection in sufficient local buying to hold the market fairly steady. Outside of this there was little of importance in the day's news, and larger traders were inclined to await further developments before committing themselves to either side of the market. We do not look for any great movement in either option for the moment.

Corn and oats ruled firm thruout the session, and closed one cent higher. While trade was not large, offerings were extremely light, and unless there is a sudden change in the situation, any attempt to buy a fair-sized line of corn would result in a pyrotechnical display.

J. R. Heintz & Co. wired R. B. Holden:

Wheat—The market is in good shape to recover quickly, and we believe in purchases of May on all soft spots for the short interest is much larger than the general trade is aware of. There seems to be no material damage to the coming crop as yet, but it is a little early for a general killing, but it can be looked for soon.

Corn—Again scored a new high record on the crop. Cash corn in good demand. This market is certainly gratifying to the bulls and looks as tho the holders could realize at least 75c for May. We do not feel like advising purchases on this bulge, but on any break it looks very safe to us.

Oats—There was quite a trade in oats. Receipts, 182 cars. Some of the news today was rather bullish, but prices look higher.

New York Dairy Market.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Butter—Steady, unchanged; receipts, 7021.

Cheese—Firm, unchanged; receipts, 315.

Eggs—Steady; receipts, 34,681; state, Pennsylvania and nearby, fancy, selected, white, 20c; good to choice, 17½c to 19c.

New York Grain and Produce.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Flour—Receipts, 30,780 barrels; exports, 8120 barrels; sales, 3500 barrels; dull and about steady. Rye flour slow. Cornmeal—Firm. Rye—Dull; No. 2 western, 88c, f.o.b., New York. Wheat—Receipts, 48,000 bushels; exports, 22,055 bushels; sales, 1,750,000 bushels futures and 16,000 bushels spot. Spot steady; No. 2 red, $1.01¼, elevator; No. 2 red, $1.02¼, f.o.b., afloat; No. 1 northern, Duluth, $1.14⅝, f.o.b., afloat; No. 2 hard winter, $1.12⅝, f.o.b., afloat. There was a strong early advance in wheat to-day, due to better cables, green bug reports and the jump in corn, but support was later withdrawn, allowing prices to drop back. May $1.02⅛ to $1.03⅛, closed $1.03¼; July 97⅝c to 98⅛c, closed 97¾c; Sept. closed at 94c.

Corn—Receipts, 4300 bushels; exports, 48,686 bushels; sales, 50,000 bushels futures. Spot firm; No. 2, 76c, elevator, and 70c, f.o.b., afloat; No. 2 white nominal, and No. 2 yellow nominal, f.o.b., afloat. Option market was strong and higher on light offerings and bad weather west, closing at 1⅛c to 1¼c net advance. May 75⅛c to 76⅝c, closed 76⅝c; July 72¼c to 73⅜c, closed 73⅜c.

Oats—Receipts, 55,000 bushels; exports, 2500 bushels. Spot quiet; mixed, 26 to 32 lbs., 57c; natural white, 26 to 32 lbs., 57c to 60c; clipped white, 32 to 40 lbs., 60c to 65c.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, March 18.—(Special.)—About 600 head of cattle, 55 milch cows and springers, 500 calves, 40 sheep and lambs and 150 fat hogs were offered for sale at the East End Abattoir to-day. There were no really prime beeves on the market, but there were more common and inferior stock than usual. Trade was dull, with prices lower for the common cattle. A few of the best cattle sold at 4¾c to 5c per lb., and from that down to about 4c per lb. for pretty good animals; the common stock sold at 2½c to 3½c, and a few bulls at 3c to 3¾c per lb. Milch cows sold at from $25 to $60 each. Out of all the calves on the market there were scarcely two dozen that were over three weeks old. The young calves sold at from $3 to $4 each; the others, $6 to $10 each. Sheep sold at 5½c, and the yearlings at 6½c per lb. Mr. Joseph Levesque bought a prime spring lamb for $8, and Mr. Jos. Richard bought five others at $8.50 each. Good lots of fat hogs sold at 6c to 6¼c per lb.

At the Point St. Charles stock yards, Mr. Andrew Burrows of Smith's Falls bought from a Peterboro drover six pure-bred yearling bulls, five Shorthorn and one Polled Angus, at $40 each. They are to be taken to Smith's Falls to improve the breed of cattle in that locality.

LABOR CONFERENCE.

Meeting of Far-Reaching Importance at Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—A conference of far-reaching importance to labor began here to-day. Participating are President Gompers and the members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, together with the executive officers of the International Trades Unions of America, who met pursuant to a call issued by President Gompers to consider the consequences of the recent injunction decisions of the supreme court of the United States affecting labor organizations, with particular reference to the Danbury Hatters case, in which that court substantially held that labor organizations were to be considered trusts as much as organizations of capital.

The conference will take up the amendments to the Sherman Anti-Trust Act, which are being drafted to prevent injustice thru the operation of law to organizations of laboring men, particularly thru injunctions.

WALK OVER GREAT BRIDGE.

Pedestrians Traverse Structure Which Cost $25,000,000.

NEW YORK, March 18.—The great cantilever structure over East River, known as Blackwell's Island Bridge, which was constructed at a cost of nearly $25,000,000, was traversed its entire length by pedestrians to-day for the first time. Alderman Timothy P. Sullivan was the first man to cross the bridge.

The length of the main span is 1182 feet between the towers. On the lower deck, projecting beyond the trusses, there will be a roadway wide enough for four three-horse teams to pass abreast. On each side of and apart from this roadway there will be two trolley tracks.

In the middle of the upper deck, between the trusses, there are to be two promenades, each eleven feet wide. The six tracks across the bridge are estimated to have a capacity of 150,000,000 passengers a year under ordinary conditions of traffic.

HONORED THEIR MEMORY.

Silent Tribute to Dead Revolutionists at Berlin.

BERLIN, March 18.—The people of the east side of Berlin paid silent tribute to-day to the memory of the revolutionists who were killed in the street fighting in this city in 1848.

An imposing crowd of sympathizers gathered at the graves of the dead men in Friederichshain Park, which is not the centre of the east side district, and heaped them high with flowers and wreaths. The police had taken ample precautions to prevent any outbreak, but their services were not called for.

Acquitted.

J. Venerandi, chief clerk for L. P. Scarrone, proprietor of an Italian employment bureau, was acquitted in the police court yesterday on a charge of obtaining $4.75 by fraud from Rebechni Antenio, one of a number of laborers whom the bureau sent to Parry Sound for work. Antenio accused the agent of false pretences, but the latter produced the telegram calling for men at once for the northern town at $1.75 per day, and the magistrate dismissed the charge.

Karl Hau is Dying.

KARLSRUHE, March 18.—Karl Hau, the former professor of Washington, D. C., who is serving a life sentence here for the murder of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Molitor, in 1906, is hopelessly ill of consumption in the Bruchsal Penitentiary.

She Will Destroy Derelicts.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., March 18.—The United States steel derelict destroyer Seneca was successfully launched at the yards of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Co. to-day.

RAW WOOL IMPORTS HAVE DECREASED SINCE 1905

H. L. Borden Defends His Bill for Automatic By-Elections—A Day of Routine.

OTTAWA, March 18.—(Special.)—The house of commons to-day disposed of a large number of measures proposed by private members.

Several bills were read the second time, including the Election Act amendments of Claude Macdonell and A. O. Alcorn, and R. L. Borden's bill to provide for the automatic issue of writs for by-elections.

Mr. Paterson informed Mr. Monk that $504,884 had been collected in customs duties on materials imported from the United States for the construction of the Quebec bridge.

Mr. Clements was informed by Mr. Paterson that Benjamin Pacaud had not been appointed to the customs staff at Windsor.

Raw Wool Importations.

The amounts of raw wool imported into Canada in 1905-6-7 were 7,017,211 lbs., 6,311,387 lbs. and 6,310,179 lbs. All of this, except 690 lbs., was entered free, Mr. Paterson informed Mr. Stanfield.

Mr. Armstrong was told by the postmaster-general that claims made by daily papers for reimbursement on account of extra postage on papers had been compromised by allowing them a refund of three cents pound. No complaints had been received from the Canadian Press Association regarding rates on weekly papers.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier told Mr. Armstrong that communications had been received by the government from the Montreal Board of Trade and Harbor Commissioners with reference to the raising of the Quebec bridge, it being represented that the structure should be 190 feet above the water. The question had not been disposed of.

Mr. Fielding said in reply to Mr. Foster that the dredge Sir Wilfrid Laurier would be completed June 1, 1908, at a cost of $90,000. The government did not advertise for tenders for the construction of the scow necessary for the work of the dredge, but asked the Collingwood Shipbuilding Co. and the Polson Iron Works of Toronto to tender for the work. The contract was awarded to the former at a cost of $34,000.

Mr. Foster also enquired as to the rental by the government of the Canadian building owned by the Imperial Realty Co. Mr. Fielding said the amount paid for space in the building was $42,537 a year.

Automatic By-Elections.

R. L. Borden's bill to amend the House of Commons Act by providing for automatic by-elections was read a second time. The idea, he explained, was to prevent undue delay in issuing writs when vacancy occurs. The prime minister thought the proposal drastic. In the past vacancies had been filled within a reasonable period. He feared the bill might cause trouble and he cited two vacancies which occurred during the year previous to the general election of 1896, Bellechasse and Pontiac, when neither party, and he thought rightly, desired an election. Yet, had this law been in force by-elections must have been held a short time before dissolution. He suggested that the bill be given a second reading and allowed to stand over to be considered with Mr. Aylesworth's Election Act amendments.

Mr. Borden demurred. The prime minister's objection could easily be removed by giving parliament the power to control the issue of writs in case parliament was soon to expire. Vacancies had not always been filled within a reasonable period. In St. James division of Montreal the vacancy covered a whole session, and in North Renfrew the late Ross government delayed a by-election 18 months. The Ontario law, passed as a result of the Renfrew vacancy, was working satisfactorily. The bill was read a second time, as was also Mr. Alcorn's Election Act amendments. Both will be considered with Mr. Aylesworth's bill.

Compulsory Voting.

Claude Macdonell's bill providing for compulsory voting received the same treatment, without discussion. E. M. Macdonald's bill to put the Intercolonial and Prince Edward Island Railways on the same footing as other railways in regard to liability to claims for damage by fire was also read a second time. It would be taken up with Mr. Graham's Railway Act amendments.

Dr. Barr moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Railway Act. It proposes to permit stringing of telephone, telegraph and electric wires under or over railway tracks on giving ten days' notice of intention to do so. The bill was read a second time.

Mr. Lavergne (Montmagny) secured a second reading for his bill to provide for the printing of notices in French and English on the I.C.R.

Mr. McCool's resolution for papers relating to the Georgian Bay Canal was further discussed and adopted.

LIQUOR AND TOBACCO HABITS.

Dr. McTaggart's Tobacco Remedy removes all desire for the weed in a few days. A vegetable medicine and only requires touching the tongue with it occasionally. Price $2.00.

Truly marvelous are the results from taking his remedy for the liquor habit. Is safe and inexpensive home treatment; no hypodermic injections, no publicity, no loss of time from business and a certainty of cure. Address or consult Dr. McTaggart, 75 Yonge St., Toronto, Canada. f

GRAND LODGE OF A.O.U.W. MEET FOR 30TH TIME

About 500 Attending — Report Against Establishment of Permanent Home.

The Ontario Grand Lodge, Ancient Order of United Workmen, met in 30th annual session in the Temple Building yesterday and will continue till this evening. Grand Master C. E. Cameron, Iroquois, is presiding. About 500 members are in attendance. Rev. Canon Allman, Burk's Falls, offered prayer. Past Grand Master Cornett conferred the Grand Lodge degree on 250 new delegates and Grand Master Cameron welcomed them to Grand Lodge. M. A. James, Bowmanville, was appointed official press reporter. T. Bloodworth and W. A. Bolduc were appointed grand guides to assist W. C. Mikel, K.C.

Past Grand Master A. A. Aird, Winnipeg, was introduced by Grand Treasurer F. G. Inwood and received a hearty greeting. Mr. Inwood gave a succinct report of his visit as Grand Lodge delegate to the Canadian Northwest Grand Lodge on March 11 and 12, and the Grand Lodge decided to incorporate the report in the minutes. Mr. Aird addressed Grand Lodge in regard to the great Northwest Grand Lodge.

Rev. Canon Allman presented the report of the distribution committee. Grand Treasurer Inwood reported for a special committee against establishing a permanent home for the order. A. E. Whinton for a sepcial committee reported favorably on The Canadian Workman. These reports were adopted.

W. Bird, Shannonville, died May 17, 1907, three hours after mailing his April and May assessment to his lodge, being in arrears 17 days. Finance committee could not pass the claim for $2000. Grand Lodge after hearing full particulars decided to pay $2000 to Bird's heirs. The petition of W. Adams for reinstatement was not allowed on recommendation of committee on appeals presented by Past Grand Master F. G. Inwood.

J. B. Nixon, chairman of committee on laws, reported for special committee on report of organization board and moved its adoption. Grand Recorder M. D. Carder made an able and convincing speech presenting the needs for more vigorous efforts to extend the order in competition with other fraternal societies. The report was almost unanimously adopted, and Grand Lodge heartily thanked Mr. Carder for his practical speech.

Past Grand Master Hon. George P. Graham, minister of railways, entered at this point and received an ovation, which he acknowledged in a brief address.

Proposed amendment to adopt biennial sessions was overwhelmingly voted down.

Judge D. F. MacWatt introduced a resolution empowering grand master to act in case new legislation affecting fraternal societies should be introduced by Dominion or provincial parliament. It was adopted.

First order of business this morning will be election of officers. Grand Lodge did not hold an evening session.

TERRACE IS INSANE.

Counsel for Defence Has Expert Watching the Prisoner.

T. C. Robinette, K.C., who has been retained to defend John Terrace, held at the Brampton jail, charged with the murder of Willam Curry, an aged farmer, Christmas night last, said yesterday that having reviewed the case and seen his client, he had determined that insanity would be the body of his defence. Mr. Robinette has retained medical experts, who are observing the young man and have already given a decided opinion that he is mentally unsound.

YOUNG MAN FATALLY SHOT BY HIS BROTHER

Pearl Brien, While Hunting Geese Under Barn Foundation, Received Deadly Charge.

RIDGETOWN, March 18.—Pearl Brien, second son of Wm. Brien of Ridgetown, was accidentally and fatally shot by his brother while shooting geese at their farm on Talbot-street this morning.

They were secreted under the foundation of a barn situated about the middle of the farm waiting for the geese to fly in.

The deceased brother Charles was behind him and they started to crawl out on their hands and knees, the former having a shot gun and the latter a Winchester rifle.

The rifle was evidently at full cock and in some manner the trigger came in contact with something which caused it to be discharged. The bullet entered the back of Pearl's head. As soon as possible the doctor was called from Morpeth, and Dr. Lake from Ridgetown, but the bullet had done its fatal work and their skill was of no assistance in saving his life.

The deceased was one of the most popular and exemplary young men in the neighborhood, and his untimely death will cast a gloom over the entire community. The accident happened about eight-thirty o'clock this morning. The deceased was in his 25th year and was a most industrious enterprising young farmer, with a bright future.
