IT WAS THE ORIOLE'S DAY.

SUCCESS OF THE BIG SCHOONER ON SATURDAY.

A Regular Waterloo for the Philadelphia Cricketers—The Maple Leafs Beaten in Both their Games—The Clippers Defeat the Londons.

Saturday was a beautiful day for a yacht race—bright and clear—with a stiff westerly breeze, and no sea running. At 12.30 the first gun went booming across the bay, warning the yachts that had entered for the handicap race to get ready for the start. The yachts were soon under way, but before the moorings were left the committee on board the trim little steam yacht Rosamond went the rounds and gave each captain the instructions that the start would be from in front of the Toronto yacht club. These orders were not of the kind to please the owners of such big boats as the Alarm and Oriole as it necessitated beating out of the western channel, and would place them at a great disadvantage; in fact, it gave the lead from the start to the sloops and cutters. At 12.55 the second gun brought the yachts dancing around the buoy waiting the final signal to start. The champion Aileen with her No. 2 topsail and commodore Jno. Leys at her stick, looked fit to show the way around the flags as usual. The big schooner Oriole, with Vice Commodore Geo. Gooderham at the wheel was a perfect picture. The Alarm never loomed up better. The Verve, Cygnet, Condor and Escape were all well manned and in good fighting trim. As the yachts approached the crossing line the sight was a grand one, and one seldom witnessed on the bay. The committee placed the handicap yachts in the following order:

Aileen	scratch.	Alarm	18 mins.
Oriole	5 mins.	Condor	20 "
Cygnet	8 "	Escape	50 "
Verve	11 "

But it was a sealed handicap, and not known by anyone until the race was sailed and won. As the starting gun was fired the Aileen dashed across the line, followed by the Cygnet and Verve. The Oriole and Alarm had it neck and neck until nearing the channel, which the schooner reached first, the Aileen dashing through the narrow passage with two stretches only, and was well on her way to the bell buoy long before the Oriole and Alarm had got past the Queen's wharf. As the bell buoy was reached in the following order: Aileen, Cygnet, Verve, Oriole and Alarm, sheets were run out and spinnakers set. The Aileen was a mile ahead of the last boat, the Alarm, the Condor and Escape being out of the race. During the run down to the east buoy the Oriole cut down the lead of the Cygnet and came near catching and passing the Verve. The east buoy was rounded—Aileen 2 07, Cygnet 2.12, Verve 2.18, Oriole 2.20. On hauling in the wind the Aileen went rapidly ahead. The Oriole soon passed the wee Verve, and then went to cut down the lead of the Cygnet. The big schooner was acting splendidly, and full of life and fire; not only were her old, tried crew on board and at their posts, but the big mainsail, the use of which had lost her the champion flags, had been discarded, and in its place was the old regular sail that for eight seasons had helped the Oriole to lead the fleet. After a bit of jockeying by the Oriole and Cygnet, in which the sloop got worsted, the Oriole took second place, and had only between her and victory her rival, the Irish Aileen. On board the big ship the greatest care was exercised, sheets were flattened in until the sails were like boards, the word was "up to windward and down," and as the different tacks were made, inch by inch, yard by yard, was the lead of the Aileen reduced. The Cygnet hung on to the Oriole, the Verve went off to Niagara on her own hook, the Alarm seemed out of the race. A sharp lookout was, doubtless, kept on both yachts, but the practised eyes of the old sailors on the schooner were the first to catch the buoy, while the Aileen stood on to seek the impossible. The Oriole generously dipped her ensign as a sign to her antagonist that the buoy had been found, but it was too late to rectify the error, and the schooner quickly took advantage of her opportunity, and as the old boat dashed up and rounded the flag a cheer that scared the sea-gulls rent the air. The Cygnet was not far behind. The Oriole passed the buoy at 3.53 and the Cygnet at 3.57.

The run in to the lighthouse buoy was uneventful, although not one inch was lost to make the victory of the Oriole sure. The wind dropped as the bay was entered and with spinnaker set, the Oriole slid past and received the winning gun at 4.49 o'clock. The Cygnet, which had been splendidly sailed all through the race, was second, 8 minutes later. The Aileen came in third at 5 22, the Alarm at 5.38, taking third prize from the Aileen by a few minutes. The victory of the flagship Oriole was very popular and from the boats both big and small, that crowded around her in her pride, came the yells of "well done, Dick." It seems the south buoy was not in the right position and a good deal of dissatisfaction is evinced by the beaten boats—but it was fair for one as the other, and good seamanship won the day.

The Genesta and Dauntless Again.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The yacht race for the Cape May challenge cup, valued at $1000 and presented by Jas. Gordon Bennett in 1872, was to-day entered into by the American schooner Dauntless and the English cutter Genesta. The start was made from an imaginary line off Sandy Hook about 4 o'clock this afternoon, and the course is to be southerly and around the five fathom lightship off Cape May and return to the Sandy Hook lightship. The Dauntless had her owner as sailing master, and had Ex-vice Commodore E. E. Chase of the New York yacht club and several other gentlemen on board. The Genesta was superintended by J. Beaver Webb and among her guests were Arthur Paddford and Col. Fred. May. The weather was fair with a good breeze and all hands were in high spirits. A good wind from the southeast was blowing and there was every indication of a good race. The signal to start was given at 4 o'clock, many steam and sailing vessels cruizing around the starting place. The Genesta crossed the line at 3.57 15, and the Dauntless at 3.58-20. The Genesta had the advantage of a slight start which she improved, being an eighth of a mile in advance at a few minutes after 4 o'clock.

The First race for this cup was sailed October 10, 1872, and was won by the Dreadnaught beating the Palmer; time 25.5. October 14, 1876, the Enchantress sailed over the course alone for it, the Dauntless having been disabled a few days before. On September 4, 1877, the Idler, now owned in Chicago, beat the Rambler, Vesta and Dreadnaught; time 40.35.10.

Under the conditions, the Genesta should she win the cup, will be subject to be challenged for it next season, the race to be sailed from the Needles, Isle of Wight, to a point off the harbor of Cherbourg, France, and return.

Toronto Against Boston.

The Bostons arrived in the city yesterday evening and will play the Torontos on the Jarvis street grounds this afternoon. The game will be called at 3.30 sharp. The Bostons will play Johnston c.f., Purcell l.f., Sutton 2b., Wise s.s., Poorman r.f., Morrill 1b., Whitney p., Nash 3b., Tate c. Toronto will be represented by O'Rourke c.f., Warner r.f., Smith c., Sheffler l.f., Stemmeyer p., Manning s.s., Donald 3b., Kavanaugh 1b., Macklin 2b. Stemmeyer and Smith did excellent work Saturday. It is to be hoped that they will give as good account of themselves to-day.

The boys from Boston played at St. Louis Saturday, beating the Maroons by 5 to 2. Buffington pitched. The following about the game will be interesting: The Bostons, by timely hitting, won to-day's game from the Maroons. Tate, late of the Virginias, caught for the visitors. In the fourth inning they earned four runs on singles by Sutton, Buffington and Morrill and a double by Nash and a triple by Wise. A catch of a hot line hit from Sutton's bat by Healey, on which he doubled up Purcell at second, was the feature of the game.

A Double Victory for Toronto.

The Toronto ball players were in great shape Saturday. They played two games with the Maple Leafs; they won both. If they had only played all the year round as well as they did Saturday they would to-day stand in a good position for the pennant.

In the first match Stemmyer and Smith were the home battery. Stem had on his best curve; he pitched thirteen men out, with only two errors. Smith caught him well; he stopped the progress of several Leafs who imagined they could get to second before he threw the ball to Macklin, who happened to be in the right place every time. The home fielding was faultless; there were no errors to record. With five singles, the Torontos touched Fitzgerald for a total of eight, Smith making a home run on a great hit over the fence, away above the whitewash line on Jarvis street. O'Rourke and Kavanaugh also found the Guelph pitcher in pretty good style. As for the Leafs they went out in one, two, three order until the sixth innings, when Jones—who by the way is as hard working and good natured a fellow as ever danced on the diamond field—got round to third, but was caught in trying to sneak home. They scored their only run in the seventh innings; it was earned on hits by Kent and Bickers. The visitors were off in their fielding. Barnfather started in as catcher, but in the third innings he went to right field, Kent taking first base, while Jones took Barnfather's place behind the bat. The match occupied too much time: 2 hrs. 15 mins.

In the second game Kent pitched for the Leafs. "Whose your change catcher?" asked a spectator of Jones. "I am," said Mickey, with a wink. "But you caught the last game," said the spectator. "That's all right," replied Mickey; "but this is a change match." The pony battery did the work for the Torontos. Horner struck eight men out, with two errors. The Leafs hit him harder than they did Stemmyer, but to no better advantage. Warner caught him like a brick. The Torontos did not field so well in this match; outside of the battery they had five errors, too many under the circumstances. The batting on both sides was lively. Sheffler squared his three strike outs in the first game by a home run; Macklin touched up Kent for a two-bagger over the fence; Bickers found Horner for two bases in the same way. The Guelphs played a better fielding game. Everything was quicker and sharper; time of game 1 hr. 45 m.

Clippers 10, Londons 4.

HAMILTON, Sept. 26.—An exhibition game of baseball was played here to-day between the Londons and the Clippers. It does not count in the Canadian league series. J. Bain was umpire. There was a large attendance. The Londons played Knight and Thompson as their battery, Reardon, their new pitcher, playing right field. For four innings Chamberlin pitched for the Clippers and was then succeeded by Morrison. Moore caught throughout the game. The Londons were sent to bat and retired for nothing for two innings, the Clippers scoring 3 in their half of the second by hits by Stapleton, Hunter, Rainey and a three-bagger by Morrison. In the third innings, however, the Londons hit Chamberlin hard and this with a muff and a mispiay by Hunter gave them four runs. After this their run-getting stopped, Morrison, though wild, proving quite effective and receiving the finest fielding support. More than once in the fifth innings they filled the bases, but the Clippers played a remarkably steady game and Dunn and Quest in succession were thrown out at the plate by Rainey from second base and Andrus from short, Campau closing the inning with three men on bases by a short foul to catcher. This kind of work pleased the spectators very much, and as the Clippers kept adding to their score by ones and twos, at the same time shutting the Londons out, it was evident the boys from London were again to return home defeated. Knight pitched a good game and the Londons played strong all round except at rare intervals.

East Toronto v. Bankers.

A very interesting and closely contested match was played on Saturday afternoon, on the East Toronto ground, and resulted in favor of the home team by 19 runs on the first innings. The captain of the Bankers winning the toss, elected to bat, and the East Toronto men then went to bat, thinking they would top their opponents' score with the loss of one or two wickets, but when the fifth wicket fell they had only 26 runs, and when the next two wickets fell for nothing, 7 wickets for 26 runs, things looked shaky. The eighth wicket fell for 27 and the ninth for 32 runs. Here the first and only stand was made, and the last wicket succumbed with the score at 48, leaving the East Torontos 19 runs ahead of their opponents. The only double figures in the first innings were Lyon 10 and Hammet 10 not out, both for the home team. The bowling of S. D. Smith, R. Cameron and G. S. Lyon for the East Torontos in the first was very good, taking 4 wickets for 8 runs, 3 for 11 and 1 for 0 respecively. C. D. Macdonell and M. Boyd bowled well for the visitors, taking 5 wickets for 15 runs and 3 for 19 respectively; the former is an East Toronto man. A bat was offered by Mr. Yarker to the highest scorer for the Bankers making not less than 20 runs in a single innings. In the second innings Boyd and Howard went in and gave the fielders all the leather hunting they wanted, when Howard was bowled by E. Smith after putting together 18, score of 36. Bethune followed and scored rapidly. Boyd after contributing 15 runs was bowled by E. Smith, score 39. Ball joined Bethune and held up his wickets, while Bethune made the runs. When time was called Bethune had put together 13. Total score 62. The Dominion bank, therefore, carried off the "Yarker bat."

Beach Makes An Offer to Hanlan.

NEW YORK, Sept 26.—R. K. Fox has received the following letter:

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Aug. 1, 1885.

SIR: Since Edward Hanlan, the American champion, has returned to Canada, I have read several verbal challenges issued by Hanlan, wherein he claims that he could have defeated me only for the Paramatta river being a winding course. At several places he has publicly stated that he would arrange another race, but up to date neither myself nor my backer, William Beeble, has received any challenge. Now, to prove I am still the champion oarsman of the world, I will row Hanlan on any course in Australia, as he does not like the winding Paramatta river, three, four or five miles, for from £500 to £1000 a side. Hanlan can arrange the match for any time he desires to row, two or three months from signing articles.

(Signed) WM. BEACH, champion oarsman of the world.

P.S.—If Hanlan accepts this offer please notify me at once. W. B.

The enthusiasm over the result was intense. John Splan for winning the race with Clingstone was given the whole of the $2500 purse. Harry Wilkes acted badly in the first heat, repeatedly leaving his feet. He finished the first heat in 2.16¾ and the second in 2.20½. The third Clingstone only got by half a neck. Wilkes was favorite in the pools at 20 to 14. He trotted the last heat without a skip.

The score was: Toronto 43 first innings, 33 second inning, the two best scores being, Winslow 18, Collins 14; Whitby made 5 in the first inning and 19 in the second. The bowling of Lindsey and Stratford was very effective, each taking 8 wickets. The visitors spent a pleasant evening at the house of Judge Dartnell.

The return match between the master bricklayers and the master plasterers was played Saturday, resulting in a tie at the end of the sixth innings, it being too dark to play longer; the score was 34 runs each. The game was played on the exhibition grounds, and was witnessed by a large crowd. It is expected the match will be played off next Saturday. Ald. Hunter gave every satisfaction as umpire.

Goldsmith Maid was by Alexander's Abdallah, out of a mare by Abdallah. She first trotted in June, 1867, at Newburg, N.Y., winning a race in straight heats, the fastest of which was trotted in 2.24¼. She subsequently trotted in some 140 races, including contests against time, a majority of which she won. She first beat 2.20 in a race for $10,000 at Buffalo, N.Y., on Aug. 12, 1869, which she won in 2.19¾, a record which she gradually reduced until Sept. 2, 1874, when, at Mystic park, Boston, she trotted in 2.14. Among the most memorable races won by Goldsmith Maid in her latter years on the track was the race in which she beat Smuggler, Judge Fullerton and Bodine at Hartford on Aug. 31, 1876. Smuggler won the first and second heats, the third was a dead heat between him and Goldsmith Maid, after which she won the fourth, fifth and sixth heats, the time of which was 2.15¼, 2.17, 2.16¾, 2.17¼, 2.18 and 2.19¾.

The meeting of the Rookaway steeplechase association at Cedarhurst was continued on Thursday last. Alec. Shields' Cyclone, 170 lbs., ridden by his owner, won the Handicap hunters' flat race, 1½ mile, beating Dundee, 150 lbs., second, and Don Juan, 150 lbs., and Steuben, 165 lbs. Cyclone was favorite at 5 to 3 on, but it was a close finish. Fleurette, by Hyder Ali, won a two mile and a half steeplechase, beating Hobson's Choice, Braggart and Gray Bonnet. Hobson's Choice was favorite at 5 to 3 on, and a charge of fraud being made against Stanley Mortimer, his rider and owner, that gentleman and the rider of Braggart, Mr. Von Grunebach, were ruled off for a year but were subsequently reinstated. J. P. Davies' Rose started favorite for the Ocean Point steeplechase, but her rider fell off when they had gone half the distance, Telford, 5 yrs., by Gilroy, winning, with Rory O'More second and Jim McGowan third. Aimee in English.

"Mam'zelle," the title of the new play written expressly for Mlle. Marie Aimee, and in which she appears for the first time in Toronto, at the Grand, to-night, was one of the mediums last season of introducing the famous French opera bouffe artist into English comedy and in an English speaking role. Most of last year's company have been retained by the management, owing to the peculiar fitness of each member for his or her part. Mlle. Aimee introduces her famous English, French, German and Spanish songs into the comedy. The second act is said to be especially funny, since an entire comical novelty is promised, in which the audience makes part of the play.

A Fair Statement.

Editor World: I observe that in the contest, which appears increasing, between the two parties, the grits charge the tories with subsidizing the press by sending their government printing to a number of newspapers, while the tories retort that the grits send theirs to the Grip office. This is unfair. Each government always must give its printing to some office, and that frequently opens one avenue for buying a newspaper. But it affords no very open avenue, for the job is first exposed to public competition, and the contract must be ratified by parliament, which gives as good a chance as may be for exposure of attempted extortion.

That which has been done by the Ottawa government is very different. The printing has been given to a number of newspaper offices. This is a far more real payment of the press, and much more prejudicial to public morality than than the giving out of one contract to an office to do the whole work can possibly be. FAIRNESS.

Toronto Taken by Surprise.

—Ladies will be surprised and filled with delight at the elegance of the new mantle and mourning house just opened. They certainly have some lovely goods, and their prices are low as compared with other houses. Such enterprise deserves encouragement, and The World advises ladies in search of stylish mantles or black goods to give them a call. The address is 218 Yonge street, cor. Albert street. 135

—Edmund E. Sheppard's remark, all wool and a yard wide, at the reception Friday night was a pretty compliment to Torontonians. He should have added all wool and thoroughly shrunk are the flannel shirts made by Quinn, the shirtmaker, the best, cheapest and prettiest neckties in Canada, 115 King street west.
