The Provincial Legislature was prorogued on Tuesday the 11th inst. The Governor's Speech at the close of the Session will be found in our columns, and an extract from the Bankrupt Law copied from the Courier.

MIRAMICHI.—The last Courier, publishes the proceedings of a public meeting held at Chatham, and the congratulatory address to J. T. Williston Esq. on his return from Head Quarters, with his reply. That gentlemans friends urge him to come forward as a Candidate at the Election which takes place this summer, and promise him their support.

Sir Charles Metcalfe, the new Governor General, arrived at the seat of Government, Kingston on the afternoon of the 29th March. He was received with every administration of joy.

The Grand Jury Report will be inserted in our next.

Capt. Adams, of the brig Minerva has kindly furnished us with Grenada papers, from which we shall copy some extract in our next.

☞ The Courier of Saturday states that no duties are to be collected in this Province on Eggs, Cheese, Plasters, &c., under the new Revenue Law! To our own personal knowledge, Eggs have already been taxed. A fine law, certainly, when it can be altered at any moment to suit exigencies.

The New Election Law, and the Amendments of the Bankrupt Act.—We learn that both these measures have finally passed, the first with a suspending clause, the latter to go into effect immediately. It is expected that the Bankrupt Law as now amended will afford relief to very many persons, who have been pining under the oppressions of the law of debtor and creditor, as it formerly stood in this Province.—New Brunswicker.

'Household Treasure'—A Foundling.—We are informed that a gentleman at Carleton by the name of Mr. A. Hampton, was on Friday evening last, politely favoured with the interesting present of a Female Infant! well dressed, &c. The poor little innocent, thus abandoned by its unnatural parents, has, providentially, fallen under a most hospitable roof.—and, we would advise Mr. H. to adopt the child as—his own.—St. John Herald.

EXTRACTS.

From the Act in amendment of the Bankrupt Law.

Section II. And be it enacted, that all persons whosoever, residing in this Province, owing debts to the amount of not less than £200 Currency, shall be liable to become Bankrupts within the meaning of this Act, and may be declared Bankrupts upon such Petition and proof, or by such declaration in writing of his insolvency, as by the said recited Act is required, and that the Petition so to be made shall and may state that the person against whom such application is made is owing debts to an amount to be in no case less than the said sum of two hundred pounds.

III. And be it enacted, that the amount of the debt or debts of any Creditor or Creditors petitioning for a fiat in Bankruptcy, shall hereafter be as follows, that is to say;—the single debt of such Creditor or of two or more persons being partners, petitioning for the same, shall amount to fifty pounds or upwards, and the debt of two Creditors so petitioning shall amount to seventy-five pounds or upwards, and the debt of three or more Creditors so petitioning shall amount to one hundred and twenty pounds, or upwards, and that every person who has given credit to any person for valuable consideration for any sum payable at a certain time, which time shall not have arrived when such person committed an act of Bankruptcy, may so petition or join in petitioning as aforesaid, whether he shall have had any security in writing for such sum or not.

IV. And be it enacted, that in all cases of any person filing a declaration of Bankruptcy, under the fourth Section of the said recited Act, a fiat may be granted thereupon upon the application of the Bankrupt himself, as well as upon the application of Creditors: Provided always, that no fiat shall be so granted until the Bankrupt shall file, in the office of the Registrar of the said Court of Chancery, a Bond, in such form as the Master of the Rolls shall prescribe to the said Registrar, with two sufficient Sureties, to be approved of by the Commissioner, under the penalty of Thirty Pounds, conditioned for the payment of all Costs chargeable against the said Bankrupt for and on account of the said proceedings.

XXV. And be it enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioner authorized to act in the prosecution of any fiat in Bankruptcy, already issued or hereafter to be issued, on the application of the Bankrupt named in such fiat, to appoint a Public Sitting for the allowance of such Certificate to the Bankrupt named in such fiat, (whereof and of the purport whereof sixty days' notice shall be given in like manner as in hereinbefore provided by the twenty-first Section of this Act;) and at such Sitting any of the Creditors of such Bankrupt may be heard against the allowance of such Certificate; but it shall not be requisite for such Certificate to be signed by any of the Creditors of such Bankrupt; and such Commissioner having regard to the conformity of the Bankrupt to the Laws relating to Bankrupts, and to the conduct of the Bankrupt as a Trader before as well as after his bankruptcy, shall judge of any objection against allowing such Certificate, and either find the Bankrupt entitled thereto and allow the same, or refuse or suspend the allowance thereof or annex such conditions thereto, as the justice of the case may require: Provided always, that no Certificate shall be such discharge, unless such Commissioner shall, in writing under his hand and seal, certify to the Court of Chancery that such Bankrupt has made a full discovery of his Estate and Effects, and in all things conformed as aforesaid, and that there does not appear any reason to doubt the truth or falseness of such discovery, and unless the Bankrupt make oath in writing that such Certificate was obtained fairly and without fraud, and unless the allowance of such Certificate and Sale, after such oath be confirmed by the Court of Chancery, against which confirmation any of the Creditors may be heard before such Court.

Later from Hayti.—"By the arrival of the brig Fairfield, Capt. Smith, from Port au Prince, we have intelligence from there to the 10th March.

The revolution had caused a complete stagnation of business—produce arriving from the coast—all the vessels in port anchored, doing nothing. The republican army was within twenty miles of Port au Prince, strongly fortified, awaiting the result of the action of one division of the army which had gone to Aux Cayes was taken by the Republicans, and that they were marching to join the army encamped at Leogone, thence to march upon Port au Prince. The insurgents are 15,000 strong—Boyer's forces about 3,000.

Boyer has been fortifying all the forts around the city—digging entrenchments—determined to hold out the last—and give the city up to the pillage of his troops before he would resign. The general opinion was that he would set fire to it—there is not the least hope for him. His fate would be decided about the 15th or 29th of the month. His soldiers are constantly deserting him and joining the Republicans.

MARRIED.

GREAT RIOT AT CANTON.

The following brief notice of the outbreak at Canton, is condensed from the N. York Express, kindly lent us by the Hon. James Allanshaw.

The ship Delhi, Cole, from Canton, arrived at New York on the 12th inst. brings dates from Canton to the 10th, and Macao to the 20th Dec., being 19 days later than previous intelligence.

The Canton Press of the 10th Dec. describes a great riot which took place between some lascars belonging to the ship Fort William, and the Chinese. A mob of about 10,000 men collected who set fire to the Company's hong which spread to the Dutch and Creek hongs destroying them with their contents, (specie and goods,) altogether, and it was feared that Linchong's hongs with two others would also be destroyed. It is not known if any or how many lives may have been sacrificed. The riot began on the 7th December. The mob set fire to the British Factory, and Mr. Heard's factory and plundered that gentleman's treasury of three sacks of dollars. Messrs Gibbs Livingston & Co. factory was also plundered.

Fortunately the H. C. St. Prosperine, was on her way up to Canton, with Sir Hugh Gough, on board. She arrived on the 9th, Sir Hugh immediately landed, and the Chinese officers expressed their regret at the outbreak, and declared their willingness to render compensation for all losses. The English Steamer still remains (Dec. 14) at anchor in front of the factories.

Sir H. Pottinger has issued a proclamation demanding the punishment of the authorities at Formosa, and their property confiscated to Her Majesty, for the murder of the crews of the Nerbudda, and the Ann wrecked on the island of Formosa in 1841. Thus new difficulties are likely to occur.

LATER STILL FROM CHINA.

The ship Splendid, Loud, arrived at New York on the 13th, from Canton, brings 12 days later than the above, being to the 27th December. The Captain reports all was quiet when he left. Some apprehension however felt as to the course the British would pursue respecting the riots. Mr. Thorn, had been for several days collecting evidence in the matter of the late insurrection. It is supposed that the British flag was again flying in Canton on the 27th. The vessels were loading rapidly fearing some new disturbance.
