WATERVALE JUST WINS HANDICAP

Belmont Crack Had All He Could Do to Beat Knights Differ—Lahore Third—Altamaha Wins Cup.

HAMILTON RACE TRACK, June 20.—The menu to-night was chicken for the bookmaker and pork and beans for the talent. That about sizes up the battle the bettors had with pawnbrokers at the little red clay track to-day. The three favorites won in Rustling, Watervale and Cloud Chief, they were not backed to any extent by the talent. It was the defeat of Edda in the Connaught Selling Stakes, Marie T. in the two-year-old race, Perthshire in the first race, Miss Hynes in the steeplechase, and the Whitney entry to run second in the sixth race that caused the loyal Queen City supporters to hike home to dig up another bank roll for another day. The feature race was the Connaught Selling Stakes, the fifth on the card. Edda, from the Scherr stable, was well played to win at 6 to 5. He was slow to break and trailed his field all the way, the race being won by Altamaha at 10 to 1, running in the colors of R. T. Wilson. The next best race on the card was the handicap, which brought out a good field of sprinters, amongst them that good colt Watervale. He repeated his win of Tuesday with his heavy impost of 133 pounds, leading his field all the way to win in the good time of 1.12 flat for the three-quarters.

The surprise of the race was the running of that much improved horse, Knights Differ, owned by Bob Davies. He hung on to Watervale to the middle of the stretch, where he began to tire, but held the place safe from Lahore.

GUN METAL WINS THE $1000 STAKE

CHATHAM, June 20.—(Special.)—There was another good day's racing at Chatham to-day, with two good harness races and one running race in heats, as well as the unfinished race from yesterday (the 1.15 pace), in which Nettie Ethan and Billy Simms each had two heats, the deciding heat being won by B. Simms quite easily in 2.17½. The 2.24 trotters were next called to do battle for the $1,000 stake. There were 15 horses carded out, but three of them declined the issue. From his Toronto race Gun Metal was installed the favorite, but a new one, a converted pacer with the mark around 2.08 had a great following and it was not long before the friends of the latter had her installed as favorite, but at no stage of the race was Gun Metal in any serious trouble. He won in three straight heats. Alta Coast drew sixth position and finished tenth in the first heat, Black Oak finishing a good second to Gun Metal, with Wick Brino third and Ned Wilkes fourth.

Starter Glassford had exercised a great deal of patience, as it was a very hard field of horses to start on a track only wide enough to score five horses, but his work was quite satisfactory. Unfortunately when the word was given for the second heat, Black Cat, who had finished second in the initial heat, went to a break, which spoiled her chances and she was drawn at the end of the second heat, as was also Bill Bailey. Ned Wilkes, who has won on many previous occasions, almost broke the heart of his friends and supporters, was in good form and gave the winner a good argument for the last two heats. In fact he was only nosed out in the last heat in the good time of 2.17½.

The second race was won quite easily by Crescent Simmons, with Jas. Smith's Lady Dillon a good second. This mare has improved wonderfully and has come in line very fast and looks to be able to step miles down in the teens quite handily. The favorite, Crescent Simmons, has won three races in the past two weeks. He is right good now and will give a good account of himself in any race in his class.

The running race concluded the day's sport. A great number of very prominent harness horsemen are here in attendance from all parts of Canada, as well as the United States. A familiar face and figure to the majority of harness horsemen is that of Senator John Bennett of St. Augustine, Fla. He has followed the circuit since 1886 and knows them all. The summary follows:

First race, stake $1000, for 2.24 trotters:

Gun Metal, br.h., James J. Crowley, Readville, Mass. (Crowley)	1	1	1
New Wilkes, b.g., W. A. Collins, Sunderland, Ont. (Bedford)	4	2	2
Wick Brino, br.h., J. E. Johnston, Springford, Ont. (McEwen)	3	3	6
Princess Eleanor, b.m., R. J. Patterson, Toronto (Fleming)	7	4	4
Alta Coast	10	5	3
Tommy S.	6	8	7
Oro B.	8	7	5
Bina	12	6	8
Shaun Rhue	11	11	9
Prince Wood	9	9	10
Bill Bailey	5	10	dr
Black Cat	2	12	dr

Time 2.17½, 2.17¼, 2.17¼.

Second race, purse $400, 2.22 pacers:

Crescent Simmons, b.h., T. H. Wickett, Tillsonburg (Wickett)	1	1	1
Lady Dillon, b.m., James Smith, Toronto (Smith)	3	2	2
Pleasant Jim, b.g., Jas. McDowell, Toronto (McDowell)	5	3	3
Rex Neeley, b.g., E. J. Bigley, Altoona, Pa. (Welsh)	2	5	5
Phoebe Lloyd, b.m., C. W. Charlton, Springford (Charlton)	4	4	4

Time 2.21½, 2.18¼, 2.20¼.

Third race, ⅝ mile run, purse $150, in heats:

Herpes, ch.m., J. Pinkham, Detroit, Mich. (Birmingham)	1	1
Leo Paul, ch.g., J. Arbuckle, Flint, Mich. (Rhodes)	2	2
Dorando D., ch.g., J. Prince, Saginaw, Mich	3	3

Court Belle and Stake Kenny also ran. Time 1.05 1-5.

Maher's Horse Exchange.

Trade was good at the Horse Exchange yesterday and a large number of good horses were sold under the auctioneer's hammer and by private sale. Auctioneer Jackson officiated and the sale opened promptly at 11 o'clock. A number of express outfits were disposed of by auction during the course of the day's proceedings, altho the heavy draught horses were most in evidence. Several good drivers and ponies were also offered for sale, and seemed to be in considerable demand. The attendance was very good, quite a number of buyers being present to try to fill their requirements, and bidding was therefore brisk, finishing up the sale in good time. Prices were only fair, and the dealers claim that prices must come down in the country soon, as out-of-town quotations are almost exorbitant. A few of the buyers were: J. Lovett of Fairbank; I. H. Keuhner, Port Dalhousie; J. O'Brien, Fairbank; Robert Trouten, Bracebridge; Mr. Leseworthy, the Dominion Express Co.; Dominion Transportation Co.; L. Donato, P. Edmonds, W. C. Connor, J. Barker, Alex. Williamson, H. H. Graham, the Burroughes Furniture Co., A. Smith, F. A. Musgrove, Dr. Wm. Duncan, V.S., Mr. Bamford, C. M. Richardson, John O'Rourke, T. Barber, The Canadian Transfer Co.
