The list is as follows, the names of the patients, for obvious reasons, being omitted:

In Memory of Frank B. Bull.

The trustees of Muskoka Cottage Sanatorium have received notice from Mrs. T. H. Bull of Bloor-street, in this city, of the handsome gift of $2000 for the building and furnishing of a cottage at the Sanatorium, Gravenhurst. It has been decided to set apart the building for the use of young men and to name it "The B. Frank Bull Memorial Cottage," in memory of the only son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bull.

Frank, whose memory the cottage will commemorate, was a very lovable and attractive young man, with the promise of a brilliant future before him. His many friends, with whom he was a great favorite, will be glad to learn that his memory is to be commemorated by this beautiful gift.

Gifts Acknowledged.

The management of Sanatorium, Gravenhurst, desire to acknowledge the receipt of a parcel of books for library. Name of sender unknown.

A lady's long fur-lined cloak has been forwarded from St. Catharines. Name of sender unknown also.

A fur-trimmed coat, from Miss McIntyre, Mount Dennis.

A large number of fur coats are still required by the patients at the Sanatorium. Any gifts sent to Mr. Gage, Front-street, Toronto, will be gratefully acknowledged.

HELPED HER HUSBAND.

Mrs. Straight Furnished the Saw With Which He Cut His Way Out of Prison.

New York, Jan. 20.—Henry Straight, the alleged swindler, who escaped from the Jersey City prison yesterday morning by sawing bars in the window of a toilet room, has not yet been caught.

Mrs. Blanche Straight, wife of the swindler, who admitted yesterday that she furnished the saws with which the bars were cut, taking them to her husband in the false bottom of a basket containing food, is still in his cell in jail, and will remain a prisoner to await the action of the grand jury for aiding the escape of her husband. Mrs. Straight did not sleep much last night, but was cheerful this morning, when she learned that no trace of the fugitive had been discovered.

SUICIDE WITH A RAZOR.

A Delhi Farmer Named Manary Cuts His Own Throat in a Temporary Fit of Insanity.

Delhi, Ont., Jan. 20.—Mr. John Manary, about 60 years of age, and a farmer living about six miles from here, committed suicide to-day noon by cutting his throat with a razor. He only lived about an hour. He has been poorly for eight or ten years, and became despondent. The deed was done while in a fit of temporary insanity. He had been writing a letter for the past week, the contents of which were not known till after the deed was committed. There will not likely be any inquest.

ALLEGED MURDERER NABBED.

Ed. Clarke Captured at Niagara Falls—He Posed as a Tramp.

Buffalo, Jan. 20.—Assistant Superintendent Police Cusack received a telegram from Niagara Falls, Ont., this morning, stating that a man answering the description of Ed. Clark, the man who brutally murdered his wife, in the Canal-street district yesterday morning, was being held there by the Canadian authorities for identification.

Two officers were sent to Niagara Falls, and at 12.30 Superintendent Bull received a telephone message that the prisoner had been positively identified. When arrested Clark was feigning as a lame tramp. He consented to return, and is now on the American side.

Canadian Boy in Trouble.

New York, Jan. 20.—Recorder Goff in court yesterday declined to send to the Elmira Reformatory Ernest Corsor, a young Canadian, who pleaded guilty to grand larceny in the second degree, in stealing $42. The recorder said that boys were frequently detained there for a much longer period than a court would think of fixing sentence. He therefore sent Corser to the penitentiary for three months.

Reduced to Common Assault.

In the Criminal Assizes Fred Edwards of Vaughan, charged with criminal assault on Florence Macafee of the same township, was convicted of common assault and remanded on his own bail till Saturday, when he will come up for sentence.

BOARD OF TRADE GRATUITY FUND

End of the Matter is Not Yet—Present Officers Will Go to Court if Necessary.

The Board of Trade election contest is apparently becoming keener each day, and the fight over the gratuity fund is not likely to be ended when the result of the balloting has been declared.

The struggle has centred around the treasurership. If the Hallam ticket wins, as against the Ames ticket, which latter represents the present officers of the board, then the officers do not propose to accept their defeat, but will carry their case to the courts, and will fight against the winding-up of the gratuity fund.

Already solicitors have been retained in view of legal proceedings being taken. It is claimed that, though the officers of the board were apparently beaten at the meeting, still the vote did not represent by any means the full membership of the board.

They will fight against the winding-up also on the ground that the fund was created for the benefit of the survivors of members and not for the benefit of present living members to divide up amongst themselves.

DORSET HORN BREEDERS

Elect Officers and Major McGillivray of Uxbridge Holds a Foresters' Demonstration at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 20.—The Dorset Horn Sheep Breeders' Association of America, including Canada, met here today. Major McGillivray of Uxbridge, Canada, was elevated to the honorable position of president.

The Independent Foresters, whose headquarters are at Toronto, Canada, held a very large demonstration in the Armories last week, when Major McGillivray, who is Supreme Secretary of the order, delivered an able address upon the benefits conferred by this fraternal association.

KLONDIKE RATES GO UP.

Passengers for the Eldorado Must Put Up $10 More and $3 a Ton More on Freight.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 20.—The expected advance in rates to Alaska has been announced. The several transportation companies have agreed on an increase of $10 to the passenger rate between Puget Sound points and Dyea and Skaguay, and a proportionate increase to Juneau and other southeastern Alaska points. The rate on freight is advanced from $10 to $13 per ton.

A Pretty Japanese Custom.

Philadelphia, Jan. 20.—Amid the shouts and hurrahs of a vast crowd the Japanese cruiser Kasagi glided from the ways at Cramps' shipyards into the Delaware River at noon. Miss Helen M. Long, daughter of the Secretary of the Navy, stood sponsor for the big ship. As the Kasagi left its berth Miss Long named the vessel, and at the same time released from a basket a shower of tulips, lilies and other flowers and six pigeons. This pretty Japanese custom of christening vessels proved to be a novelty.

Casselman District Fire Sufferers.

Dr. Bryce, secretary to the Provincial Board of Health, has received a report from Dr. Hardman, who was commissioned by the Ontario Government three months ago to go to the district of the Casselman fires and give free attendance to those rendered homeless.

Dr. Hardman states that most of the sufferers have now been housed and are not suffering as much as was anticipated from the rigors of winter. The health of the inhabitants of the desolated district is good. Though large sums have been granted and expended, the advent of spring and the necessity of plowing and seeding will make additional help necessary.

The Art Loan Exhibition.

Definite arrangements are being daily perfected in connection with the Art Loan Exhibition, to be held in the Y.M.C.A. building, from Jan. 31 to Feb. 5. The various committees met yesterday and reported extensive and generous offers of loans of pictures, bronzes, china, etc., by private owners. The musical feature will be a most attractive one, as will be the social part, and the prospects are bright not only for a magnificent exhibition, but for a liberal patronage on the part of the public.

Death of Sister McDougall.

Kingston, Jan. 20.—Last night Sister McDougall, the eldest nun in the Hotel Dieu, died, aged 78 years. For four years she has been declining, her energetic life in aid of the distressed having left its mark upon her constitution.

She was a Kingstonian by birth, and had been in the institution here and in Montreal for 52 years. In 1868, while the emigrant fever raged here, she was a brave worker. She took the epidemic, but rallied from its effects.

She will be buried on Saturday.

Fifty Years Ago.

Grandfather's hat! And within it you see,
Grandfather's favorite cough remedy.
Whether 'twas Asthma, Bronchitis or Croup,
Or baby at night waked the house with a whoop,
With Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Gran'ther was sure
That no cold or cough would e'er fail of a cure.
In hats the styles change, but the records will show
Coughs are cured as they were 50 years ago.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has no equal as a remedy for coughs, colds, and lung diseases. Where other soothing elixirs palliate, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral heals. It is not a cheap cough syrup, which soothes but does not strengthen; it is a physician's cough remedy, and it cures. It is put up in large bottles, only, for household use. It was awarded the medal at the World's Fair of ninety-three. It has a record of

"Any old thing"

will do to clean with—some women think. Anything is good enough for them—if they can get a lot of it for little money. This is unwise, surely. Isn't it worth while to find out which will do the most work, and do it without harm to paint and woodwork and fine surfaces? Pearline is the best cleaner. Pearline saves rubbing—saves work and wear. Nothing is too good for it.

It will wash and clean everything that water doesn't hurt. 549

THE NEWSPAPERS ON TOP.

Denver Departmental Stores Started a Boycott Which Worked the Wrong Way and Emptied Their Establishments.

Denver, Col., Jan. 20.—The boycott of the newspapers of Denver, begun ten days ago by fourteen department stores, has ended by the unconditional surrender of the stores. The stores made the demand that the papers reduce their advertising rates 30 per cent. or they would cease to advertise. The fight has stirred up the community greatly, the result being that the stores were almost forsaken by buyers, and the proprietors had to surrender or go out of the business. Labor unions have held meeting after meeting to contrive plans to spread the agitation and keep the people away from the department stores.

At a late hour last night the newspaper offices were visited by a representative from each shop. They acknowledged that they were beaten, and would resume their advertising contracts as soon as arrangements could be made.

LEE'S WELL-ADVISED CAUTION.

Consul-General's Refusal to Send for Warships Probably Averted War.

New York, Jan. 20.—A special cipher telegram from Havana to The World today says: General Lee probably averted war between Spain and the United States by refusing to summon a warship during the recent riots here when besought to do so. He expects to ask for a war vessel quick enough to be present in case a future riot should take an anti-American turn. He is watching the situation closely, and is better informed of what is going on than is General Blanco himself.

General Lee terms the disturbance a "family affair." He was besought by naturalized citizens of the United States and a very few native born Americans to demand war ships.

He told the scared applicants that there would be no trouble, but he advised them to leave if they were too uneasy. Consequently some of them are bitter against him now. General Blanco has taken strong precautionary measures to suppress any further disturbances. He says he will not be another Dulce.

The annexationist feeling is growing among the Spanish merchants. They themselves may soon ask General Lee for protection.

Entertained by His Friends.

At the Victoria Club last Tuesday evening Mr. Samuel R. Graham, the genial manager of the Molsons Bank at Toronto Junction, was given a supper and a service of plate by a number of his friends, on the occasion of his approaching marriage. Amongst those present were: Messrs. J. J. Threlkeld, H. G. Wills, H. T. McMillan, A. H. Collins, A. H. Baines, G. G. Smythe, Harry Hay, A. D. McArthur, F. Ruby, J. A. Little (London, Ont.), A. Gault, G. B. Patteson, George Williamson and a number of others. A most enjoyable evening was spent. Songs and recitations were given by Messrs. Muntz, Collins, Hay, Wills and others. A very comical speech was delivered by the ever-popular "Joe" Threlkeld; also speeches by H. J. McMillan, Henry A. King and others. The whole affair was an immense success.

Dyspepsia and Indigestion—C. W. Snow & Co., Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "Please send us ten gross of Pills. We are selling more of Parmalee's Pills than any other pill we keep. They have a great reputation for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint." Mr. Charles A. Smith, Lindsay, writes: "Parmalee's Pills are an excellent medicine. My sister has been troubled with severe headache, but these pills have cured her." ed

McIntyre; vice-president, B. R. Eaton; secretary-treasurer, G. Sheriff; financial secretary, William McLean; recording secretary, H. W. Hamilton; guide, Robert Ausborne; guard, G. T. Irwin.

Among those who took part were: Bro. Yule and Messrs. Carl M. Odell, Foley, Woolahun and little Miss Weeland. The feature of the program was the rendering of descriptive and comic songs by Mr. Will Nicholls.

Nat Goodwin Must Pay.

Goodwin, wife of Nat. C. Goodwin, the actor. Goodwin is ordered to pay his divorced wife $75 a week alimony. None of the testimony heard before the referee was made public.

Prison Reform.

Through the courtesy of Bishop Sullivan and the churchwardens of St. James' Cathedral, the annual meeting of the Prisoners' Aid Association will be held in St. James' School Room on the evening of Friday, Jan. 28, the particulars of which will be duly advertised.
