BISONS EASIER THAN EVER BRUCE IN BRILLIANT FORM

Jersey City Shut Out Providence, Newark Won From Montreal, Baltimore Beat Rochester.

The Bisons were even easier yesterday than on Thursday and it should be a shutout to-day. Jersey City continues to win and looks to have the championship cinched. Newark won from Montreal and Baltimore beat Rochester. The chief feature of yesterday's game was Bruce's magnificent fielding of his position in the box. Record:

Clubs.	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Jersey City	78	30	.722
Buffalo	68	36	.653
Toronto	65	42	.607
Newark	55	48	.575
Baltimore	60	45	.571
Montreal	52	75	.289
Providence	52	78	.291
Rochester	31	80	.279

Games to-day: Buffalo at Toronto, Rochester at Baltimore, Montreal at Newark, and Providence at Jersey City.

Games Monday: Toronto at Buffalo, Rochester at Baltimore, Jersey City at Newark, Providence at Montreal.

Toronto 8, Buffalo 2.

The Bisons were the easiest kind of picking again on Friday. Bruce was in superb form, while the champions hit Hooker at will. Wiedensaul led with three safe drives, and his two outs were liners to left.

In the first Buffalo retired 1-2-3, Thiery on a fly to Kuhns and McIntyre one to Downey. Atherton didn't run on his grounder to first.

Wiedensaul cracked a clean one thru the pitcher, Downey sacrificed and Kuhns walked. White forced the runner at second. Wiedensaul scored easily, when Gibson threw to second to stop White's steal. Bruce singled to left for another run, and was out trying to stretch it into a double. Both sides retired without incident in the second.

In the third, after Nattress retired on a slow liner to the pitcher, Gibson pushed a nice single to left centre. He was forced out on Hooker's grounder to third. Bruce had a wild pitch. Thiery walked. McIntyre sent a long fly to right.

Toronto was out 1-2-3, the only extra incident being McIntyre's one-handed catch of Wiedensaul's dangerous fly.

Atherton, first up in the fourth, sent a liner over third, and was sacrificed to second, but was doubled up on Miller's nice catch of Carey's liner. White bunted safely in Toronto's half, but the other three failed to help him along. Bruce backed his pitching in the fifth by clever fielding, assisting to retire the three. Shearon sent him a grounder, Nattress hit a liner to right, and he went down on Kuhns' foolish throw to first, but died on second, as Gibson sent a liner to the pitcher, and Hooker a grounder to Massey, Bruce making the out at first.

Toronto scored four here. Toft walked and was forced at second. Miller hit a triple to right centre. Wiedensaul singled and stole second. Downey flew out to Nattress. Kuhns bunted safely and stole second. White's single made it 6 to 0. In the sixth the Bisons retired 1-2-3, Massey and Toft struck out. Carr hit a liner to the left wall, and Miller was out on Nattress' good throw of his slow grounder.

Buffalo tallied two in the seventh. Hartman singled, and only made third on Carey's double. Toronto's infield played for the batter, and a run scored on Shearon's grounder to Downey. Nattress lifted up a fly to third and Gibson one back of second, that Downey caught, but Wiedensaul bumped it out of his hand, and another run scored. Hooker hit a grounder to Miller.

After Wiedensaul was out on a fly to McIntyre, Downey singled and went around to third on a passed ball and Gibson's centre field throw. He would have scored only Kuhns' liner to left looked too much like a hit. White retired on a fly to Nattress.

Thiery, first up, walked in the eighth, but the next three were easy outs. Toronto got together again in their half. Bruce bunted safely, Massey flew out to centre, Toft singled to right, Carr dumped a safe one and Wiedensaul singled, two more. Carey flew to Miller and Shearon sent a grounder to second. Nattress was out short to first, and the game was over.

American Golf Championship.

Glen Cove, Sept. 3.—Only eight golfers are left to continue the fight for the amateur championship of the United States, and the result of to-morrow's play in the tournament on the links of the Nassau Country Club will determine the two men who will fight out the final battle for national honors Saturday. The eight survivors are:

Paul Murphy, F. O. Reinhardt, Walter J. Travis, George T. Brokaw, W. R. Tuckerman, E. M. Ryers, S. D. Cady and Bruce D. Smith.

The defeat of the two Egans in the morning was a hard blow to the Westerns. Both had been picked as semi-final survivors. It was plainly Walter Egan's bad day. He sliced more than half his drives and his putting was weak. H.
