Weddings

Floyd-Provan.

HAMPTON, Oct. 28—The home of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Provan, Central Norton, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, last week, when their daughter, Dorothy Mae, became the bride of Arthur James Floyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Floyd, of Titusville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. U. Hatfield, of the United Baptist church of Hampton.

Mrs. Wm. Bickford, sister of the bride, played the wedding march. The house was tastefully decorated with ferns and potted plants. In the dining room the prevailing colors were pink and white, the table being centred with a handsome bridal cake.

The bride wore blonde brocaded velvet with georgette and carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold wrist watch. A number of beautiful and useful presents of china, silver and substantial checks were received which testified to the popularity of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd will live in Titusville.

Collins-Hurley.

A wedding of much interest to friends in Saint John took place in Lynn, Mass., Wednesday morning, Oct. 8, when Rev. Fr. C. O'Brien, with nuptial mass, united in marriage Miss Eileen Genevieve Hurley, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Hurley, Castle street, to Edmund C. Collins, son of Mrs. Katherine Collins, Newburyport, Mass., formerly of Saint John.

The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, Dr. F. D. Stanton, and was prettily attired in bronze chiffon velvet with hat and shoes of contrasting color. She carried a bridal bouquet of American beauty roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. F. D. Stanton, who was gowned in a handsome dress of Coolidge blue bengaline with black picture hat and carried carnations. The groom was attended by his brother, Jack.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. T. G. O'Grady, the house being artistically decorated for the occasion in yellow and white.

The happy couple motored to New York on their wedding tour and on their return will reside in Lynn.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Jeffreys, of Pasadena, aunt of the groom; Miss Annie Grodt, also of Pasadena; Mrs. Katherine Hurley and Miss Kathleen Hurley, of this city, mother and sister of the bride.

The many gifts received testify to the popularity of the young couple who will have the best wishes of a host of friends for future happiness.

Gaddis-Marshall.

MONCTON, Oct. 29—A pretty wedding and one of much interest to many friends in the city took place recently in the Bloor street Baptist church, Toronto, when Edna May, only daughter of Mrs. N. Marshall became the bride of Mr. Luther B. Gaddis, son of the late Richard Gaddis and Mrs. Gaddis, of this city.

Deaths

K. C. Haycock

FORT FAIRFIELD, Me., Oct. 29—Masonic funeral services were held today for Kimball C. Haycock, 81, for nearly 25 years an undertaker here, retiring a short time ago. He was a native of Calais. He was for some time in the hotel business and later a steward in Chicago. He was a member of the Unitarian church and the Masonic Lodge of Fort Fairfield. His wife survives.

Believes He's Found Genuine Rembrandt

NEW YORK, Oct. 30—Captain Shirley Falcke, English art authority, has arrived in New York from Australia, where he discovered in a Brisbane boarding house a painting of "The Good Samaritan," believed by him to be a genuine Rembrandt. The painting, he says, is identical in detail with the etching of the same subject which was made in 1633, and if genuine is worth more than $100,000.
