NEW YORK, Nov. 24,—6½, P. M.

The wires are down between St. John, N. B., and Halifax.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.

The office, in this city, of the Camden and Amboy Railroad was opened with false keys this morning, and robbed of $5,218, all in notes of the Girard Bank—the largest being $500.

The New-Orleans Crescent City says, that there is now a great pressure of business at our mint, caused by large amounts of gold lately received from California. The gold pieces of $20, authorized by the last Session of Congress, are expected to be issued in a few days; when the business of coining will be greatly expedited by the greater amount that will be thrown off.

The New Orleans papers at hand give appalling details of the late dreadful explosion on board the Alabama. A number of names of missing, killed and wounded, are added to the list—they being either to the Southern States, or Southern and Western cities.

THE NEW MEXICO.—We learn from the best authority that New Mexico is about to form a Provisional Government, and to forward a Petition to Congress, asking for a Territorial Government.

Shipping Intelligence.

The "PERL."—We copy the following from the Belfast of October 27:—

"Every shameful robbery perpetrated at Vigo by the crew of the British emigrant ship Perl, (which in the case of the two last correspondent,) ought, I think, to be brought forward. The Perl, having Asiatic cholera on board, put in there and demanded assistance. She was offered the option of either proceeding to sea or discharging all her crew at the Lazarette; and the mate being ill and the crew dead, the latter alternative was perforce adopted. Immediately with the exorbitant fees demanded and paid for the landing of her valuable cargo, not a night passed during the time the cargo was ashore without trunks and boxes being clandestinely opened and robbed. No one being allowed to sleep in the ship was allowed ashore after sunset, and if I not been for a bribe of about £60, given to the Captain, the peculation and delay would have been still more. Many of the trunks thus opened were worth £100 and, of course, until the ship's arrival at her destination the amount pilfered cannot be ascertained. The widow of her unfortunate master, as well as one of the passengers, came home in the Jupiter."
