Mr. Halladay is an old Athens boy and a graduate of our High School. Another example of the success which invariably attends Athenians on the sea of life.

—Mr. John Chick, of Plum Hollow, was in town on Saturday and visited ye editor in his sanctum. Mr. Chick is in his 80th year, and is still able to do a good day's work in the field. In fact all his faculties, owing to the excellent care he has taken of himself, remain in almost as perfect condition as when he was a young man. May he live long to enjoy the good things of this life.

—NOTHING LIKE GOOD REPUTATION.—To have a good reputation in business goes a long way to success. When the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, for their reputation for doing things right, announce to the public that they are issuing portraits of the King and Queen to their subscribers, the public will be satisfied that their picture is the best obtainable, and will wait for it. The public will not be disappointed either. The Family Herald's portraits of the King and Queen are each 18 x 24 inches, and are truly a beautiful pair. They have also a third picture of the "Duchess of Devonshire," in ten rich colors, 22 x 28 inches, which is regarded as a perfect gem. All three pictures are to be free to all yearly subscribers.

—"OUR NAVY"—The announcement that the entertainment "Our Navy" will be at the Opera House next week has created a great deal interest as a large number of Brockville residents have already seen it either at Montreal or Toronto. When the plan opens at Orme's music store on Tuesday morning, there promises to be a rush for seats and large audiences may be looked for. It will be in Brockville on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Nov. 5th and 6th, with matinee Wednesday afternoon. It appears under the auspices of the 41st regiment. There is a proposition to have a special excursion to this very excellent entertainment on Wednesday, Nov. 6th for the matinee. Many Athens people would like to see this entertainment and the B. & W. is considering the advisability of running an excursion on Wednesday for one fare return.

—The people of Athens and vicinity again had the pleasure of listening to the Rev. W. W. Giles speak in the Methodist church on Sunday evening, on the supernatural sense in man revived by Jesus Christ. The church was crowded, so that chairs from the school room had to be brought into requisition. Mr. Giles took his text from John 1: 13, "And he saith unto him, Verily, Verily, I say unto you hereafter ye shall see Heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man," and clearly proved his contention that every man was endowed with a supernatural sense that God alone could open. Space will not permit us to record the sermon verbatim. He implored God's blessing to rest on the church, the pastor, and the members and adherents. Mr. Giles returns to his work in Summit followed by the best wishes of Athenians for a long and successful career in the Master's vineyard. The Misses Wiltse rendered a pretty duett very acceptably while the offering was being taken up. By request the closing hymn was sung as a prayer for the safe arrival of the Duke and Duchess of York in old England—and home.
