

ARCTIC REGIONS,

VOYAGE
TO DAVIS' STRAIT, BY

DAVID DUNCAN,

MASTER OF THE SHIP
DUNDEE.

Sailed from London 3rd April, 1826, and returned 25th June, 1827; having been leset by Ice more than eight Months; during seventy-five Days of which, the Sun never rose above the Horison: with an account of the hardships and dangers sustained by the Crew, and many miraculous escapes.

DEDICATED BY PERMISSION OF
HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS
THE DUKE OF CLARENCE.

ENTERED AT STATIONERS' HALL.

—Our infant Winter sinks,
Divested of its grandeur, should our eye
Astonish'd shoot into the Frigid Zone;
Where, for relentless months, continual night
Holds o'er the glittering waste her starry reign.
THOMPSON.
