THE TORONTO WORLD.
WEDNESDAY MORNING OCT. 8. 1884.

PISTOL SHOTS IN A ROOM.

A Jealous Desperado Shoots His Rival and a Mother and Daughter.

A Jersey Shore (Pa.) despatch in the New York Sun says: Smithboro is a hamlet just across the Pennsylvania line, in New York state. Last night Charles Pickering, accompanied by Sophia Giles and her daughter Frances, visited Cornelius Kurkendall's saloon in that place, where they were joined by Addison McCloud, a young farm hand. The party drank freely, and departed in a hilarious mood for Mrs. Giles' house, on the outskirts of the town. They all drank to excess, and Miss Giles became sick. While McCloud sat on the bed beside her trying to get her to take some medicine Pickering suddenly jumped up, sprang to the bedroom door, drew a revolver and discharged one chamber at McCloud. The ball lodged in McCloud's right shoulder, making a painful wound. He sprang toward Pickering and dealt him a stunning blow with his fist, sending him reeling back into the parlor. Then he closed the door. Pickering fired three more shots, one piercing the door, while the other two lodged in a bureau which stood near by. Mrs. Giles then grasped Pickering by the arm, exclaiming:

"What are you doing, Charlie? Do you want to murder Frankie and Ad?"

Hardly had the words left her mouth when Pickering turned upon her and fired, the ball taking effect in her left hip. Miss Giles rushed into the room, and caught her mother in her arms as she fell to the floor. The desperate man then fired the remaining bullet at her. The ball took effect in her left ankle, and she fell by her mother's side.

Mrs. Giles endeavored to crawl into the adjoining apartment, but Pickering sprang upon her, and with the butt of his revolver showered blow after blow on her head and breast. The blows were delivered with such vigor that the cylinder of the revolver broke and dropped to the floor. McCloud, faint from the loss of blood, had fallen on the floor in the bedroom. Pickering, supposing that he had killed Mrs. Giles, hurled his empty revolver at McCloud's head and ran out into the darkness. It was several hours before the victims were able to give an alarm. Search was made of Pickering, but it is thought that he has fled to the woods of Tioga county in this state.

Pickering is known throughout this region as a desparate character. He has been on terms of intimacy with Mrs. Giles for six years. She is a rather handsome woman, 38 years of age. Her daughter Frances is only 16, a pretty and well-developed girl. There is no doubt that Pickering was jealous of McCloud's attention to her. It is feared that McCloud cannot recover, and a physician this morning pronounced Mrs. Giles' wounds mortal. Her skull is fractured, and she is weak from loss of blood.

Ladies and gents come and see the fine stock of ladies' hosiery and gents' half hose the Bon Marche are offering at less than wholesale prices.

Items from Court Street.

The magistrate rushed the drunks through with lightning rapidity yesterday. John Flynn, feloniously wounding James Malone, was discharged, but upon a charge of frequenting a disorderly house he was fined $3 and costs or 60 days. Bernard McNally was bound to the peace for threatening to kill his wife. Robert Townsley was fined $10 and costs or 40 days for assaulting Policeman Cross. Thomas Hill, $1 and costs for fighting. Alfred A. Ames was committed for trial on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

St. Nicholas Institute.

The annual meeting of this institute for boys took place at the rooms on Lombard street Monday, the archbishop of Toronto in the chair. There were present also Vicar General Rooney, Messrs O'Connor, Mallen, and O'Sullivan, and the representatives of the community in charge of the home. Father Laurent was appointed chaplain and invited to take a seat at the board. The returns of the legislature and the financial statement of the home were laid on the table. It was resolved to establish a night school for the boys, to be opened on Nov. 1.

Out of Work and Tired of Life.

As Constable McClelland was doing duty on Queen street near Sackville yesterday morning about 3.30 he observed a young man hanging by a rope to a lamp post. He cut him down and took him to the Wilton avenue station, where the would be suicide gave his name as Edward P. Ellison. Being unable to obtain work, he was tired of life and wanted to die. He acted as if he was insane. The magistrate has remanded him for a week for medical examination. Ellison is 24 years of age and came from England three months ago.

For all wool grey flannel, extra wide, only 24 cents go to the Bon Marche.

A Demand for Night Schools.

EDITOR WORLD: Would you kindly allow me to ask the proper parties through your paper if we young men are going to be favored by having the public night schools available this coming winter. I am sure there are many young men like myself who had to earn their living from their early years and now can only devote their evenings to a necessary posting up. IGNORANCE.

Till Tapping.

A case of till tapping took place yesterday evening between 6 and 7 o'clock, when part of the contents of the till (about $5) belonging to F. T. Burgess, chemist, 364 King street east was stolen. Mr. Burgess had just gone to tea, and during that time the money was taken by some thief, who sneaked behind the counter while the clerk was in the dispensary.

Archbishop Lynch's New Church.

The following building permits were issued yesterday: To the archbishop of Toronto, for the erection of a two-story brick church on the corner of Earl and Sherbourne streets, to cost $10,000; to J. N. Lake, for the erection of a pair of semi-detached dwellings on Sherbourne street, to cost $9000.

Algoma's New Judge.

The numerous friends of John M. Hamilton of the Sault Ste. Marie will be pleased to learn of his elevation to the bench as judge of the provincial district of Thunder Bay. Mr. Hamilton has for the past twenty years filled in a most efficient manner the position of county attorney of Algoma.

The Bon Marche will show 5 cases of samples consisting of ladies' misses' children's and gents' hosiery and underwear bought at 50 cents on the dollar.

OFF FOR ENGLAND.

Sir John Goes to Rest From His Labors and be Cured of Gastric Catarrh.

From the Montreal Star, Oct. 4.

The Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald and Lady Macdonald arrived at 1 p.m. today by the Canadian Pacific railway from Ottawa. Sir John is en route for England, where he will make a sojourn of several months for the benefit of his health. Lady Macdonald will accompany him as far as New York. It had not been formally announced that the dominion premier would arrive at the hour stated, which accounts primarily for the few persons who were at the depot to receive him, namely, J. J. Curran, M.P., and some half dozen personal friends of the distinguished gentleman. Sir John traveled in the ordinary passenger car, dispensing for the nonce with the official one, the better to ensure the strict privacy and quiet he so much needs. On alighting on the platform the usual round of handshaking took place, Sir John being apparently in excellent spirits, but looking more than usually thin and somewhat fatigued. Lady Macdonald looked in good health.

A Star reporter after exchange of salutations, took advantage of the occasion to have a short conversation with Sir John on the subject of his visit to England; the short time, however, at the latter's disposal, precluded anything like a lengthened interview.

"You go, I presume, for the benefit of your health, Sir John," said the reporter.

"Exactly, I find a sea voyage absolutely necessary," answered Sir John. "The truth is, I have been completely overworked the past summer. Sir Alexander Campbell has been in Halifax, Sir Leonard Tilley and Sir David Macpherson have been in England, and I have remained comparatively alone to look after official affairs, and it is too much for me."

"Rumor, always rife, has it that your visit has direct or indirect bearing on important railway matters. Mr. Stephen accompanies you, I believe."

"Mr. Stephen does go on the same ship with me," replied Sir John, "and I am very glad indeed he does go, as he will be company for me, but as to our going together having anything to do with the Canadian Pacific railway, the thing is absurd; my business has not the most remote bearing on any public matter." Here Sir John summoned up one of his well known waggish smiles and continued, "I want a sea voyage; on the ocean you see there are no telegraphs or newspapers, and I shall have a little peace. I shall go straight to my old friend, Sir Andrew Clarke, who treated me at my last visit to England in 1881. I then had a severe attack of gastric catarrh; the complaint is troubling me again."

"Will you make a long stay?"

"No. I intend, if fortune favors, to be back in Ottawa by the 5th of December. There is work to attend to, and I really must be back by that time."

At this point a cab was announced at the upper end of the platform, which Lady Macdonald and Sir John quickly entering, the Jehu cracked his whip loudly and was soon making fast time along Notre Dame street.

Sir John leaves to-night for New York, and sails by the Oregon of the Cunard line.

Social at the Bond Street Church.

The Bond street church was filled last night on the occasion of the annual social meeting. The tables were loaded with the best of delicacies prepared by the industrious hands of the lady members of the church. After the feast addresses were delivered in the church by Rev. Dr. Thomas, Rev. J. Salmon, Rev. Manly Benson, Rev. C. Duff, Rev. C. O. Johnson and Rev. W. Macgregor. Rev. David Hurbet of Wales, rector of the reform episcopal church, was present, and Rev. Mr. Harris, Rev. Way and Rev. H. Johnson sent letters expressing regret at their inability to attend. A number of choice selections were sung by the choir, and Angels Ever Bright and Fair was rendered by Mrs. Agnes Corlett Thompson with great expression.

Amusement Notes.

Last night the Adelaide street rink drew the biggest crowd that has been there this season. People are beginning to realize that an invigorating and healthful amusement is none the less attractive because it calls for a little exertion. The brass band in the evening is a popular addition.

The Ideal Uncle Tom's Cabin company has made a hit at the People's theatre. Last night there was one of the largest houses that has been there for weeks. Uncle Tom, though old, is still a favorite with the public, and the way it is represented by this company cannot fail to be appreciated.

St. Lawrence Ward Conservatives.

Ald. Blevins presided at the meeting of the St. Lawrence ward conservative association at the Little York hotel last night. There was a good attendance of the faithful and a considerable sum in dues was paid in. Five new members were admitted. There was talk of bringing out a party ticket for alderman in the next municipal elections, but nothing definite was decided. Officers were elected as follows: President, Alfred Medcalf; first vice, John Whitfield; second vice, H. J. Wood; treasurer, Elijah Westman; secretary, Charles Howe.

Assessments Struck off.

The appeal against the assessment of Mr. Christie's residence in Queen's park for a sewer on St. Alban's street was allowed by Judge Boyd yesterday. Several witnesses were examined, and it was clearly proved that the sewer was of no benefit to Mr. Christie. W. G. Falconbridge appeared on behalf of the Grand Trunk and Midland railways to argue that the companies ought not to pay a sewer tax on the streets they crossed. His honor agreed with Mr. Falconbridge and the assessments were struck off.

Boycotting the Mail.

At a meeting of the Builders' laborers' union last night it was unanimously decided to condemn the action of the Mail newspaper for making the men sign a paper that they do not belong to any union or secret societ. It was further decided to withdraw their support from that paper.

"When Found Make a Note Of."

—Take your note book and put down the address just now 205 Queen street west and when your watch stops take it there to get cleaned and repaired and you will have no further trouble with it. All work warranted and done by R. G. Doherty, British Horological Institute, London, Eng. 136

Economy.

—The secret of economy lies in the buying of upholstering, such as parlor or drawing-room suites, in the purchaser going to an establishment where they make it a specialty of manufacturing first-class goods. T. F. Cummings, 349 Yonge street, has the reputation of being an experienced workman, who thoroughly understands his business. You can rest fully assured of getting what you want, and at reasonable figures.

A Dog Swimming Tournament.

Over 100 persons assembled at Mrs. Greaves' boat house Saturday afternoon to witness several interesting dog swimming contests for prizes presented by various gentlemen. Mr. W. Clow was chosen starter and referee. The first race was for spaniels and brought out six starters. The distance was 400 yards. They were J. Burrows' Brummagen, James McNalty's Sport, Mr Glimpson's Carlo, Mr. Saunders' Doc Sheppard, J. Langdon's Spring, Mr. Broomfield's Sport. The latter dog had it all its own way from the start and won as he liked. Doc Sheppard and Carlo had a magnificent race for 2d place, and the Doc won by about a yard. There were only two entries for dogs under 35 lbs., A. E. Kerstemian's spaniel Reddy and Mr. Plater's Grip. Reddy won very easily. The next race was between four setters, and was a very close one between Mr. Clow's Snipe and Mrs. Greave's Setter. Snipe won by barely half a length. There were also two match races during the afternoon.

Away With the Hounds.

The hounds met yesterday at the kennels when the master on Isaac and about twenty members turned out. The hounds were taken over to Carleton and laid on at Watts' farm. They ran north to Silverthorn's and across over to Johnson's, where they doubled back towards the starting point. Dr. Campbell, on Royal, was up first, Mrs. Carruthers, on Lansdowne, second, and Chas. Brown third. There were several spills but no hurts.

NEWMARKET, Oct. 7.—The Cesarewitch stakes were won to day by Hammond's St. Gatien, Lord Rosebery's Polemic 2d, Lefevre's Arch Duc 3d. Betting was 9 to 1 against St. Gatien, 66 to 1 against Polemic, and 9 to 1 against Arch Duc. Twenty started.

Notes.

The Primroses are eager for a match with the Clippers or the Torontos.

League games yesterday: Boston 7, Buffalo 3 runs; New York 1, Detroit 5 runs; Cleveland 7, Providence 9 runs.

The Queen City draught club has been organized in the west end, with club rooms at 406 Queen street west. Mr. Kenny was elected president.

A retired baseballist of some literary skill was asked to write an epitaph for a man who had just died after marrying his third wife. The ex-batter produced the following terse but expressive sentiment: "Out on third."

London Free Press: The Spectator used to boast that the London baseball players were no good; that they couldn't play ball a little. Now listen to it: "The Clippers and Torontos will play again in Toronto Saturday, providing Connors is put off the Toronto's team." What a fall is there, my countrymen!

Guelph Mercury: As the Toronto baseball club do not feel disposed to play the return match with the Clippers of Hamilton on the Dundurn grounds, the only way to get out of the difficulty is to have the match come off on the Maple Leaf grounds of this city, which are the best suited for the purpose in the dominion. What says the management of the two clubs?

The Wanderers are practising daily for their entertainment Friday evening in the Granite rink. Besides club drill and fancy riding by the members, there will be an exhibition by W. G. Hurst, the champion fancy rider, horizontal bar performing, club swinging, tugs of war and other specialties. An Italian orchestra will furnish music.

This afternoon the Toronto football club will play the Toronto University club on their lawn at 3:45, Rugby rules. The team of the first mentioned is: back, Dixon; half-backs, Aldwell, Cayley; quarter-backs, Morphy, Ferguson; forwards, Blake (captain), Thomas, Boyd, Vankoughnet, H. P. Hughes, Cameron, Harris, McAndrew, Armstrong and Heaton; spare men, Cleaver and Bath.

THE BABY SLEPT,

And Its Father Watched it as His Wife Preached a Sermon.

From the Kingston Whig.

Little baby Irvine slept on the carpeted floor inside the altar rail of the Queen street methodist church last evening while its mother preached a practical sermon, lasting for an hour. The baby stirred several times, but the father, who sat in one of the crimsoned cushioned chairs below the pulpit, watched it closely. Rev. Mr. Bland sat also within the altar rail and watched the lady. Mrs. Irvine was converted by Rev. Mr. Booth (now General Booth), and previous to her marriage assisted in the work of his christian mission. She is quite matronly in appearance and has an open, pleasant face. She wore a plain black cashmere dress, with lace at the wrists and neck, a white straw bonnet trimmed with white lace and black strings. A white cashmere shawl covered her shoulders, but as she warmed up to her subject it slipped off and was laid aside. Her voice was sharp. Her style of delivering is conversational. The discourse was for the benefit of professing christians and was based on the words: "If we deny Him He will also deny us." Her remarks generally were to the point.

Dineen's for Fall Hats and Furs.

—Dineen's spacious hat, cap and fur show rooms, at the corner of King and Yonge streets present at the present time a handsome appearance. There is a gorgeous display of rich seal mantles, fur lined circulars and in fact of every furry luxury in that particular line that a lady could wish for. Dineen is bound to take the lead. His stock of fall hats is large and fashionable, no old stock on his shelves.—Advt.

Canada in England.

From the Canadian Gazette, Sept. 25.

It is announced that Prince Albert Victor of Wales, eldest son of the Prince of Wales, will early next year go abroad for an extensive tour, and that the countries visited will most likely include Canada and the United States.

E. Hepple Hall is, we observe, making arrangements to deliver a series of lectures this season on Picturesque Canada, illustrated by lime-light views of persons, places and events connected with Canadian history. Mr. Hall commences at Brighton on October 16, and his long acquaintance with the various parts of the dominion as special war correspondent and traveling editor should make his remarks of exceptional interest and practical value.

A morning contemporary recently published a despatch from Ottawa under the head of "Canadian immigration falling off," in which it was announced that the immigration to the Northwest at Emerson had fallen off 16 per cent. as compared with last year, and 61 per cent. as compared with 1882. Without further explanation this paragraph might lead to a wrong impression. But an infinitely small proportion of the settlers going to the Canadian Northwest this season entered the territory at Emerson. Take for instance the months of May, June and July, a principal part of the emigration season. Only 63 out of 2015 Northwest immigrants then went by any other than the Owen Sound and Port Arthur route. Canadian immigration does undoubtedly show a decrease this season, but it will be at once apparent to those who have studied recent official statistics that the decrease of Canadian immigration is very much less than the decrease of immigration in general—that is, Canada is now receiving a larger proportion of the emigration of the old world than hitherto.

A California editor, who has evidently been rusticating to the fullest extent of the term, is moved to remark philosophically that "the passion for illicit watermelon is something which age nor infirmity has power to cool." It is thus that vice has ever sought to justify itself, but it is painful to see it boldly flaunted in the face of the public.

—The reason why "Nonsuch Washing Compound" should be used in preference to all other washing preparations. First, It is perfectly harmless. Second, It saves more than half the labor. Third, It is the cheapest in the market. Many more could be given but this should be sufficient. For sale by all grocers. Lowden & Co., Wholesale, Agents for Toronto. 2-4-6.
